"UNDER THE PALMS" was presented : the Masonic Hall, on Tuesday evening last, to a good house. All the parts were so well rendered that it is almost needless to particularize. The children's singing was worthy of special mention and the playing by The 73rd and the pianist, Mr. Blair, was highly complimented by Mr. Farnham, and deserved all the praise they received. Altogether the entertainment was of a firstclass order and deserved the patronage bestowed upon it. The entertainment will be repeated this (Thursday) evening. it is interesting to recall the prophecy made, accerning it by Mr. JUSTICE STORY upon reading the prospectus in April, 1844. He then said :

"I entirely approve the plan. If it can obtain the ublic patronage long enough, it will contribute in an minent degree to give a heathy tone, not only to our iterature, but to public opinion. It will enable us to possess, in a moderate compass, a select library of the best productions of the age." That THE LIVING AGE has fully justified this forecast is proved by the constant praises which, during all the years of its publication, have been bestowed upon it by the press, some of the more recent of which are given below.

DROWNED WHILE COASTING :- A Bathurst correspondent writes under date of the 11th: About three o'clock this afternoon three boys, two Lamed Thibaudeau, the other Patrick Steevor, 7 years old, son of Michael Steevor, carpenter, of Bathurst, while coasting got on the ice on the river at the lower end of the town. The ice, which is unsafe, gave way and all three boys fell into the the river. The two Thibau leaus were got out after much difficulty, some being in for over twenty minutes. Steevor sank and was drowned. Up to 7 o'c'ock the body had not been recovered. -Globe.

How's THIS ? - The St. John -Gazette has this amongst its Fredericton items :-

"A great number of the boys are very active in cusk fishing and lines are set in all parts of the river. Last night Tom Hollands surprised himself in lifting one of his lines on it which he safely landed.

That reminds us of "an episode." It was 15 miles S. E. of Essuminac in 15 fathoms. Codfishing was good. Man left his baited hooks in the accustomed fishing position and went to the steamer's saloon to get his dinner. When he came back he found he "had something on" and he hauled up a noble codfish which had hooked itself on tail first and was already cleaned and headed. Tom Hollands never caught a thirteeu and a half pound live salmon on his set-line. It's clearly another case of "Cleveland in Fredericton" that has been imposed on the Gazette.
