Continued from 1st Page. A Cardinal Sin.

'I used to think so; I don't think so now.' Josephine smiled bitterly as she thought how her husband's appearance had changed to her; contrasting the real man as she now saw him with the noble young hero associated with her first dream of love. 'Let mo see a photograph of him,' said

Frances; 'I seldom forget a face.' I have none. Isn't it strange, he never would have his likeness taken? Although when we were just married I used to beg of him to have it done, he never would.' 'I suppose I shall have him pointed out to me some day; then, perhaps, I shall recognize him. But I am afraid from what you and Allan tell me, he is not an acquaintance to be proud of.'

'I should' be very sorry to find you ever knew him.' said Josephine sadly. Frances put her arm round her waist.

'Are you very, very unhappy with him, my dear?'

'After I found him out I was unhappy for a time; then my life, as far as he was concerned, was a blank. I ceased to care what he did or where he went. Latterly-'Well, 'latterly?' echoed Frances, glad to encourage her confidence. 'Latterly-don't think me wicked-I hate him-hate the sight of his wicked face and the sound of his sneering voice. Now that I hate him, I am, I think, beginning to be afraid of him.' 'Why not leave him and come to us, or go to your father?'

'I shall soon-I am waiting for one thing.' 'And what is that?'

Josephine could not or would not tell her. She felt the confession must be degrading ; but after this conversation the two girls seemed much more drawn to each other. Yet even then, after parting with Frances, Josephine's thoughts could not keep from dwelling on her husband's words. She told herself that Frances was kind, true, pure and noble-that Digby, by leading her to believe he ever had any acquaintance with Allan's wife, was acting, if not speaking, a lie. Yet she could not see his object. That perience, but there had always been some method in his untruths. Unless it could be from a wish to annoy her by traducing her brother's wife, she saw no call for falsehoods. The matter was vexing her very much, so she formed the resolution of undertaking the most distasteful task of telling her husband that Frances denied all knowledge of him, and insisting that he should explain his words, and say when and where he had met

Some days went by before she found an opportunity of speaking to him on the subject: About this time he spent more days and nights away from home than he spent at home. She knew, moreover, that he was indulging in drink more freely than ever. When he slept at home she could hear his staggering steps on the stairs long after she had gone to rest; and as a natural consequence of the overnight debauch, the next morning he was scarcely in fitting trim to attack. But she was determined to put her questions whenever she saw a chance of his answering them.

It was about midnight. Josephine was sitting alone, reading. Digby had informed her when he left home in the morning that he should not come back that night; so she sat in fancied security. Her book being an interesting one, she was in no hurry to lay it down. Poor Josephine still clung to her novels, although she now read those of a more human and natural type. As she read she cut the pages with a small pointed dagger of foreign workmanship. She had bought it the day Digby went down to Redhills. She scarcely knew why, but she felt much safer in that house when the little weapon was near at hand.

As she read, the front door, which wa always by Digby's commands left on the latch, was opened, and she heard the sound of feet and of men's laughter. There was no time to escape; she closed her book and

The dining-room door was opened clumsilv, as though the hand which turned the handle was inclined to wander about; then

Digby, followed hy another man entered. They were both drunk, but in degreeshis friend positive, Digby comparative, on the high road to superlative. Seeing the state her husband was in, Josephine was not altogether sorry to see another man. She was so completely entrapped that it was better a third party should be present. Digby, in seeing her, gave a tipsy chuckle, and turning the key of the door, took it from the lock and placed it in his pocket. Josephine felt she was to have an unpleasant time of to her own room long before.

The master of the house threw himself into an arm-chair, and looked at his wife with eyes so full of malicious merriment that they might have been a monkey's.

'How do, my love?' he said, with that peculiar strained articulation always noticeable at a certain stage of intoxication-that stage when the drinker is obliged to be careful lest he trip over syllables the most simple -'How do, my love-un'spected honor, I'm sure. So glad I came home early.'

'Introduce me, Bourchier,' said the other man, who had not seated himself. He was sober enough to see the impropriety of doing so while the lady remained standing. 'My wife-Bates,' murmured Digby

'Take a seat, Bates.' Mr. Bates sunk very willingly into the nearest chair.

'Now we'll all be happy,' said Digby. 'Get the brandy,' he added, turning to Jose-

She continued to stand, and paid no attention to his words. He grew furious as he saw her calm and scornful.

'Get the brandy, I say,' he shouted, half rising from his chair. 'Get it at once, or ____ She could not stoop to an altercation. so she quietly obeyed and took the spiritcase, glasses, and water-jug from the sideboard, Mr. Bates, who was a gallant young man, endeavoring to assist her. 'Mix up,' said Digby. 'Bates, you sit down and enjoy yourself ; light a cigar.' 'Perhaps Mrs. Bourchier objects to smok ing,' said Bates, politely.

'Nothing of the sort-she objects to nothing; do you, my dear? I'm mast'r of my own house -light up, Bates ' 'Do you object, Mrs. Bourchier?' asked Mr. Bates.

'Not at all,' she answered, coldly -so Bates did as desired. 'Now mix the grog, and don't let's have ever have run the risk she had been runmore nonsense,' said Digby, scowling at his

She did even this. Her husband drained his glass to the bottom, and made her mix another. 'Will you give me the key, if you please?'

'No, my darling, I won't give you the key. We'll have a jolly night of it, and you shall keep us company-eh, Bates?' 'Perhaps Mrs. Bourchier is tired-it is getting late,' simpered Mr. Bates.

'Tired! she's never tired with me-are you, my darling?'

This was getting intolerable. Digby laughed, and drank some more her degradation. brandy. Mr. Bates saw he had not strayed into a happy household. 'lt's rather too bad,' he said, 'to keep Mrs. Bourchier against her will. Give up last? the key, old fellow. He spoke the last of way which is supposed to be highly Then Mr. Bates left the house, feeling very efficacious under circumstances like these. 'I'll see her - first. Give her the key much ashamed of himself, and resolving to -not I. Yes, I will, though. Josephine, turn over a new leaf, and cut all loose commy dear, you shall have the key in 'schange | panions. Let us hope that he did so.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

She looked at him with cutting scorn.

for a kiss.'

He laughed wickedly. minute at the prostrate form. Oh! such a 'Isn't that fair, Bates? The key for a pitiful state for her whilom hero to be in ! kiss. She can kiss very nicely, Bates. She turned down the gas, and going to the That's a fair exchange, isn't it?' 'Seems so,' said Bates, doubtfully; for he top of the house, knocked at the servants' door. The domestics appeared in great fancied there was something between husband and wife of which he was ignorant. 'Come, Jos'phine, put your arms round my neck-or shall I come to you?' Her face grew very pale; but she neither moved you are quite awake lock at my arm.'

'There's a 'fectionate wife, Bates,' said Digby, in a half-maudlin, half-jeering voice. 'Yet you'd never b'lieve that once that girl used to hang round my neck and kiss me like anything. It was dear Digby-Digby, struck me just now. Please don't forget the my own. See her now-with never a word day and the hour I show it to you. Now go for me? Don't you get married, Bates- to bed again. I want nothing more.' they're all alike. Why, there's a little girl

'Hush !' said Bates.

Josephine drew herself up. Her eyes keep, in a little bag. She did not change 'Don't trouble about me, Mr. Bates,' she cloak around her, put on a hat, and walked said. Thave long known that this man is down stairs. When she reached the hall a one of the most cowardly, unprincipled fancy seized her. She thought she would villains on the earth. No insult he can heap like to take her little dagger with her. It on me can be a greater one than forcing me | was but a fancy, at first, but she soon saw it to stay in his society for a moment longer would be well to have it. In any subse-

Oh, hush ! hush ! please hush !' raid Bates, villain enough to produce it, and perhaps who saw he was getting into a difficult posi-

Digby swore a vicious oath, and, draining off the remainder of his liquor, rose from his glance she saw that she need not be afraid of seat, and staggered across to her. Her words had raised all the devil within him, awaking the sleeper. He lay void of sense or motion-a log, a breathing log-that was and his rage increased when he saw he standing pale but resolute before him. For all. She took the little weapon in her hand, and, gentle as her nature had once been, felt a moment he was mad.

'You --!' he hissed, and raised his that, if freedom depended upon it she could

Bates, who was, from the stress of the She stood looking at him for a while, finding situation, growing sober, sprang forward. a sort of fascination in his utter helplessness. He was a second too late. The coward's In this short time she reviewed the part he hand fell on the girl-fell on the upper part had played in her life since that ill omened he lied when it suited him she knew by ex- of her arm close to the shoulder with a day when, by her father's invitation, he sounding slap. So violent was the craven first came to Redhills. Then she thought blow that it hurled her with force against the of her father, and the mysterious hold this wall; indeed, it was with difficulty she kept man he detested had over him -a power strong enough to wring large sums of money Bates, who, although a friend of Digby's, at will from him. What could it be? If was not a very bad young man, was much only she knew-ff only she could rescue her father from his clutches. Her face flamed horrified and excited.

'You awful cad!' he cried, as he threw his as a sudden impulse urged her to do somearms round the ruffian. He was much thing she saw dimly might be of service. lighter and weaker than Digby, but, as the This man had wronged her, deceived her, latter was now in a high state of intoxica- ruined her life-if she could not only retion, he managed to restrain him, and even | venge herself but aid those she loved, why pull him back to his seat, into which he should she shrink from the means which pushed him, and then stood on guard over were at tand?

He seemed inclined to renew the attack, and shuddering as she touched even his and sat glowering at Josephine and cursing clothes, ascertained that his keys were in the both her and her protector. Bates kept pocket of his loose coat. She had no difficulty both eye and hand upon him, ejaculating at in gaining possession of them. Then she went intervals, 'You awful cad!

'Would you -you jade !' cried Digby, in a had not entered for years-his room, and manner which made his guardian turn his hastily unlocked a small iron chest he kept head and look at the lady, and for a moment | there. There were papers in it, and a roll of feel much frightened

Josephine had recovered; she was stand- handwriting; and, moreover, there was a ing at the table with the small glittering pocket book or letter case full of papers. dagger in her hand. This, after what had She opened this, and saw every paper had happened, was a startling sight. The ill- on some part or other the name of Bourchier. used Bates began to tremble lest a tragedy It struck her directly that these papers must

But no-she had no intention of using the exercised over her father. She thrust the weapon as he feared. The sharp point and edge wers turned only against herself, and even then not with suicidal intentions. In a moment she had ripped the tight- it she selected two or three of the topmost fitting sleeve of her dress from elbow to and, therefore, probably the most recent of shoulder, and the white round arm gleamed the letters-they might be useful. Then out from the dark material. There is no more beautiful sight in the world than the keys in the sleeper's pocket, went from his upper part of a fair woman's arm-so what hated presence without giving a backward crueler or more moving sight could there be glance; went out of the front door into the than to see that soft round white surface dim-lit street; left her husband forever. marred by four red bands left there as mementoes of the fingers which had fallen was she to go? Her first idea was to walk with merciless intent upon it. Now Jose- about the streets all night and take the phine had a beautiful arm, so it is no won. early morning train to the west. Then a der that Mr. Bates was moved at the pitiful man passing her and making a remark which 'Give her the key and let her go!' he possibility of this plan. She must go somecried. 'Let me go too !'

'Let's kish and forgive, then,' said Digby, London so an empty hanson fortunately who was growing more than maudlin. 'Leave him alone, if you please,' said to drive to Caversham Place, where Allan Josephine. Bates fancied her voice was curiously changed, but she was a plucky in her brother's arms, wild'y crying for his

Seeing that Digby was succumbing to the | ing, and comforting her. effects of the brandy, he left him. The wretch had enough strength left to pour his sister's arm, ground his teeth and swore himself out more spirit. He looked round | that some day he would pay them back with hazily for the water, and realized that the interest to the ruffian whose cowardly fingers it, and blamed herself for not having gone jng was empty, so he put more brandy in had placed them there. his glass,

'Ne'r min', he said, with an attempt at jocosity. 'Warrer's a mishtake.' So he drank away at the neat spirit.

And Josephine sat there with white face and lips, with her wounded arm, with the fiery red bars across it, still bare; and Mr. Bates, although from time to time he ventured to glance at her, could not muster courage enough to attempt any clumsy consolations. He could only long for the moment to come when his host should fall out of his chair, senseless.

The moment came at last. If Digby did not exactly fall under the table, his head went on one side, his senses left him, and he lay like a log. Mr. Bates, and perhaps Josephine, watched him attentively-the former satisfying himself as to his harmless state and relieving his own feelings by bestowing one or two kicks upon his insensible form. The end, as far as Josephine and Digby were concerned had, come.

Mr. Bates never understood the halfpleased sigh which escaped his fair companion as she rose and looked down in utter contempt on her drunken lord.

'Please take the key from his pocket,' she

He did so, and opened the door. With one accord they passed out and stood in the hall. Mr. Bates began to Hagyard's Yellow Oil, which gave me instant 'I am awfully sorry, Mrs. Bourchier-it all kinds of pain or cold. seems a funny thing to say-but please don't judge me by your husband. I had no idea he was that kind of man. I shall never speak to such a cad again. 'Yes,' said Josephine, 'he is a cad.' 'You will forgive any share I may have had in this? 'Freely. I am glad you were there; or I don't know what might have happened. Josephine studdered. How could she ning for so long? 'Can I do any more for you? I will stay to any time if I can be of service.' 'Nothing more, thank you. Good-night.' 'You are sure you are not afraid to remain in the house ?' 'Not at all. But you won't forget what you have seen, Mr. Bates?' 'Never-the cad !'

'Will you give me your address?' Mr. Bates wrote it down. 'I may call and inquire for you, I hope, may never meet again. A woman cannot 'Give me the key.' she said, peremptorily. feel glad to meet a man who has witnessed will visit Canada next summer. 'Good-night, then,' he said. 'You are sure that I can do nothing?'

'No, please not. I can only hope that we

'Nothing. But how long will that sleep who have taken it. It not only gives flesh and strength by virtue of its ows nutritious properties, but creates an appetite for food. Use it and try your weight. Scott's Emulsion is perfectly 'For hours, I should say. How ashamed sentence in that soothing, patronizing kind he will feel in the morning.'

GENERAL BUSINESS.

Josephine doubted this, so said nothing

Josephine went back to the dining-room.

She had now no fear, nor much grief. Her deliverance was at hand. She gazed for a

'I am sorry to disturb you,' said Josephine. 'I will not keep you a minute. If They looked in open-minded astonish

'La, mum!' said the cook, 'it's finger-

'Yes,' answered Josephiae, quietly, 'he

She went back to her own room, took all her jewelry and trinkets, and placed them, with any papers or letters she wished to her mutilated dress, but wrapped a thick swear she had threatened him with it.

stepped once more into the room. At one drive the steel then and there to his heart.

She went near to him, leaned over him up-stairs once more-went to a room she had bank notes; and many letters in women's in some way be connected with the sway he pocket-book into the bosom of her dress, and was about to close and relock the safe when another idea came to her, so before she closed

she locked the safe, and having replaced the

It was now past three o'clock. Where set her cheeks flushing showed her the im-passing she hailed it, and directed the man now lived, and in a short time was weeping protection, while Frances was petting, sooth-

And Allan, when he saw those red bars on

[To be Continued]

General News and Notes.

the office for 30 years.

since taking it.

several parts of India.

Lameress, Pains and Camp.

as county treasurer for Lambton after filling

Use Dr. Kendrick's White Liniment for

Joseph McKay, who is in juil at Ukiah.

Cal., charged with stage robbery, turns out to be a son of Joaquin Miller, the poet of the

A Change For The Better.

dock Blood Bitters and find it a splendid nedicine for constipation and poor appetite.

I will continue taking it as it is a great blessing and I feel a great change in my health

Mrs. J. V. Green,

Much distress from famine is reported

For Pain or Colds.

nENTLEMEN, -Fifteen months ago I had remedies but got no relief. I then tried relief. It is the best thing I ever used for

The new Government in Brazil is not pop-

New Sarum Notes.

DEAR SIRS, -I have used six bottles of B.

B. B. I took it for liver complaint. Before

I took it I had headache and felt stupid all the time, but now I am healthy and entirely well. In addition I have a good appetite,

Loss of life and property has again been caused in Great Britain by a severe gale.

It Seldom Fails.

DEAR SIRS, -I took two bottles of Hag yard's Pectoral Balsam, and it cured me of other things had failed. I have also tried B.

B. B., it works splendidly for weakness and

It is said the Archbishop of Canterbury

A Wonderful flesh Producer.

This is the title given to Scott's Emul palatable. Sold by all Druggists, at 50c.

SAMUEL MADDOCK, Beamsville Ont

headache.

and $1.00

LIBBIE POUND, New Sarum, Ont.

which I did not have previously.

ular and much disquiet exists.

MRS. JOHN CORBETT, St. Marys, Oat.

u a bealing breast. I tried a number

5 Sydenham St., Toronto, Ont.

SIRS .- I have taken three bottles of Bur-

Yes, she would have the dagger.

marks. Has master-for Infants and Children.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that | Castoria cures Colic, Constipation, recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me." H. A. ARCHER, M. D.,

Sour Stomach, Diarrhea, Eructation, Kills Worms, gives sleep, and promotes di-111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y. Without injurious medication. THE CENTAUR COMPANY, 77 Murray Street, N. Y.

Miramichi Foundry

CHATHAM, MIRAMICHI, N. B.

quent legal proceedings Digby would be Malleabl Iron, Steam and Water Pipe She opened the door and cautiously Tees, Elbows, Reducers, Union and other Couplings. Globe and Check Valves.

STEAMSHIPS. TUGS, YACHIS, T LAUNCHES BARGES, Etc., Built and Repared, General Iron and Brass Founders, Mill and Steamboat Builders.

Manufacturers of Steam Engines and Boiles, Gang and Rotary wit :- Commercing on the westerly side line is-"THE MIRAMICHI TELEPHONE COMPANY." Saw Mills, Gang Edgers, Shingle and Lath Machines, and Well-Boring Machines for Horse and steam power.

POND'S WISCONSIN PATENT ROTARY SAW CARRIAGE A SPECIALITY. ESTIMATES FURNISHED. CORRESPONDENCE SOLICITED. WM. MURRIEMAN

Miramichi Advance.

Beginning with the issue of November 6th, 1890, when the ADVANCE entered upon its Seventeenth Year of Publication! The publisher made an important change in the terms on which the paper isfurnished to Subscribers. These include

1st. Strict adherence to the system of cash in advance for all subscriptions.

2nd. The reduction of the price of the paper to

One Dollar a Year

It is to be Coarticularly understood that all outstanding subscription accounts due after November 6th, 1890, are to be settled on the old terms, viz., $2 per year, the advertised credit rate.

I have made special arrangements with the

-and the

of Montreal by which I will furnish either of those papers and the?

ADVANCE"

where. Allan was her natural guardian in TOGETHER One Dollar and Sixty Cents a Year!

I have made the foregoing changes in the Lusiness of the ADVANCE said street as laid out as aforesaid,

The first is because many patrons who have been given credit, said property, thence south sixteen degrees of Bay du Vin Bay, back to the Highway Road, being have abused the privilege to such an extent as to make the business of publishing the paper a non-paying one, and it is necessary in my own interest and that of those who do nay that I should no sary, in my own interest and that of those who do pay, that I should no longer continue to furnish the AD/ANCE to those non-paying subscribers. The second reason is that I wish to meet the competition of the longer continue to furnish the AD/ANCE to those non-paying subscribers. The second reason is that I wish to meet the competition of the longer continue to furnish the AD/ANCE to those non-paying subscribers. The second reason is that I wish to meet the competition of the longer continue to furnish the AD/ANCE to those non-paying subscribers. Side line of said lot number two to the east-side line city weeklies, which are made up from the type of the dailies and, therefore, cost little for production in comparison with a local paper like the ADVANCE, the type of which must be set up especially Street to the south side of said Street so laid Senator Vidal has tendered his resignation

> Having published the ADVANCE for sixteen years, and endeavored to make it a creditable representative of Miramichi and North Shore enterprise -- a paper which may be taken into any household without fear that it has catered to sensationalism at the sacrifice of that cleanliness of matter, which is too often neglected by the press of the day-I have reason to hope the foregoing announcement will meet with general approval and be the means of largely increasing the circulation and influence of the paper.

D. G. SMITH, PUBLISHER.

Chatham Foundry

CHATHAM. ESTABLISHED 1852.

Iron and Brass Castings a specialty-for Mills, Steamboats, Railways, etc. Stoves, Iron Railings, Plough and general Agricultural Castings, Babbit Metal, etc. Machinery Made and Repaired with quick despatch.

Orders promptly attended to at reasonable prices and fair Terms.

T. F. GILLESPIE, Proprietor.

WINTER DRY GOODS Sutherland & Creaghan's, Chatham,

We have pleasure in intimating to our numerous patrons unheard of low prices at our warehouse during this month. Our Dress Department is replete in all the leading hoarsness and tightness of the chest after

Dry Goods are sacrificed regardless of Cost. BLANKETS, FLANNELS, COMFORTABLES, ULSTER CLOTHS, CARDIGANS, SHIRTS, LINDERS AND DRAWERS, CLOTHING, JUMPERS, MUEFLERS, HOMESPUNS, TWEEDS, HATS, CAPS, BRACES, TIES, COLLARS, YARNS, BERLIN WOOL

WHOLESALE & RETAIL DRAPERS, CHATHAM.

GOODS, CORSETS, KID AND WOOL GLOVES, HOSIERY, FUR CAPES, CARPETS, OIL CLOTHS, SHEETING, TICKINGS, COTTONS,&C.

Zegal Notices.

To be sold at Public Auction, on Thursday, the 17th day of December, next, in front All the right, title and interest of Henry A. Muirhead, in and to the following lands and premises. "All and singular that piece or parcel of land situate, lying and being in the Parish of Chatham, aforesaid, and known as part of the "Blink Bonnie" property, formerly owned and occupied by the late George H. Russell, deceased, which piece thereof is abutted and bounded as follows, to wit:—Commencing on the west side of Brunswick Street or the Great Road leading from Chatham to Richibucto at the south-easterly angle of the piece of land sold by Thomas G. Russell to John Pallen, thence southerly along the westerly side of the said Great Road or Brunswick Street five hundred and seventy-two feet to the north-easterly angle of the piece of land sold by Thomas G. Russell to James Kerr, thence westerly along the northerly side of the land so sold to the said James Kerr to the easterly side line of the lands so sold to the said James Kerr to the easterly side line of lands formerly owned by the heirs of the late Patrick Henderson, deceased, thence northerly on a line parallel with the westerly side of the said Great Road and along the easterly side of the said Henderson Street five hundred and seventy-two feet or to the south-westerly angle of the said piece of land so sold by the said Thomas G. Russell to the said John Pallen, thence on a line at right angles with the said Great Road or Brunswick Street and along the said John Pallen's southerly side line to the westerly side of the said Great Road or Bounswick Street being the place of beginning, containing four acres more or less and was conveyed to John Ellis by the said Thomas G. Russell by Indenture bearing date the twentieth day of January, A. D. 1876, and by the said John Ellis to the said Henry A. Muirhead by deed bearing date the 28th day of April, A. D. 1876, as by reference thereto will more fully ap-Also, all that other piece or parcel of land situate, lying and being in Chatham, aforesaid, and abutted and bounded as follows, to of lands conveyed to the said Henry A. Muirhead by John Ellis, at the south-easterly Muirhead by John Ellis, at the south-easterly angle of pasture lot number nine, formerly of Northumberland, Kent, Gloucester and Restiowned by Isaac Matheson, thence southerly gouche in this Province, and to transmit by tele along the westerly side line of said lands so conveyed to the said Henry A. Muirhead conveyed to the said Henry A. Muirhead by the said John Ellis and a continuation of and maintain the necessary such line seventy-one rods or to a proposed road to be laid out across the land formerly owned by the late Patrick Henderson, deceased, thence westerly along the northerly side of such intended cross-road eighteen rods and two feet or to the easterly side of a road fifty feet wide laid out along said Henderson lands from Wellington road to such intended cross-road and known as Henderson Street, thence northerly along the easterly side of said Henderson Street sixty-eight rods or to the southwest angle of lot number nine so formerly owned by the said Isaac Matheson, thence easterly along the southerly side line of said pasture lot number nine eighteen rols or to the place of beginning, comprehending pasture lots numbers eight, seven, six, five, four, three, two and one and containing by estimation seven acres and seventenths of an acre more or less, and was conveyed to William Muirhead by Thomas G. Russell by Indenture bearing date the twenty-third day of June, A. D. 1873 and by the said William Munhead to the said Henry A. Muirhead by Indenture bearing date the seventeenth day of December, A. D. 1878, as by reference thereto wil more fully ap-

Also, all that other certain piece of land situate, lying and being in the Parish of Chatham, aforesaid, and abutted and bounded as follows: On the westerly side of the Great Road leading from Chatham to Richibucto in the Parish of Chatham, aforesaid, being part of the Blink Bonnie property, formerly owned by the late George H. deceased, and is abutted and as follows, to wit: on the totherly side of lands owned by James Kerr, at the distance of one hundred and six feet ten inches. from the westerly side of the said Richibucto Road, thence westerly on a continuation of such line, eighty feet, thence northerly on a line at right angles with the said line, twelve feet, thence easterly on a line parallel with said line eighty feet, thence toutherly on a line at right angles with the first mentioned line twelve feet, or to the place of beginning, being part of the lands and premises conveyed to the said James Kerr by Thomas G. Russell by Indenture bearing date the eighth day of January, A. D. 1876 and by the said James Kerr to the said Henry A. Muirhead by deed bearing date the twenty-seventh thereto will more fully appear.

day of April, A. D. 1876, as by reference Also, all and singular that certain lot or parcel of land and premises situate, lying and being in Chatham, aforesaid, and described as follows, to wit:-Commencing at the south side of a street thirty feet wide laid out through the said property on the plan thereof made by Timothy Crocker, Esquire, Deputy Surveyor, at its intersection All the right, title and interest of Malcolm Taylor in and to all those several pieces or parcels of land in the County of Nothumbe land and Province of New Blunswick, abuted and bounded as follows, with Johnston Street, thence north seventyfive degrees east or along the south side of ninety feet or to the northwest corner of erly side of said Johnstone Street and thence by John G. Williston and on the lower side by land north sixteen degrees west fifty feet, or owned by William W. Williston, and being in straight lines from the Highway Road, back (or along the easterly side of said Johnstone out as aforesaid, and being the place of be-

Also, all that other piece or parcel of land being part of said Johnstone property described as follows, to wit :- Commencing on the south side of said street so laid out as aforesaid, at the northeast corner of building lot number eight on the said plan, thence south sixteen degrees east, a'ong the easterly side line of said lot number eight fifty feet, thence north seventy-five degrees east to the west side of what was formerly a tannery, thence north seventeen degrees thirty minutes west thirty-seven feet or along the west side of the said tannery or to the northwest corner thereof, thence north seventy two degrees thirty minutes east or along the north side of said tannery twentyight feet to the westerly side line of property formerly owned by Mrs. Jane Townley, thence north twenty-seven degrees west or along the last mentioned line to the south side of the said street so laid out as aforesaid and thence south seventy-five degrees west forty-six feet or along the south side of said street to the northeast corner of said lot No. 8, being the place of beginning, which said two pieces of land last above described are known on said plan as building lots numbers two and seven, respectively, and were conveyed by Lemuel J. Tweedie, Esquire, to the said Henry A. Muirhead by Indenture bearing date the twentieth day of October. A. D. 1874, together with all the houses, outhouses, barns, buildings, fences, improvements, privileges and appurtenances to the said several pieces or parce's of lands and premises, belonging or in anywise appertain.

Also, all other the lands and tenements. ereditaments and premises of the said Henry A. Muirhead, whatsoever and wheresoever situate in the County of Northumberland; The same having been seized by me Stothart. Possession given 1st November under and by virtue of several executions issued out of the Supreme and County Courts against the said Henry A. Muirhead. Sheriff's Office, Newcastle, this 31st day of August, A. D. 1891. JOHN SHIRREFF.

To be sold at Public Auction on Thursday the 24th day of December next, in front of the Post and to all that lot or tract of land situate, lying FOR WINTER WEAR.

Cash purchasers will find we are the only house in the city where Dry Goods are sacrificed regardless of Cost.

and being in the Parish of Alnwick, in the County of Northumberland and Province of New Brunswick, and bounded as follows:—Beginning at a Hemlock tree standing on the northern side of the road from Stymist's mills to the McLeod's mill at the south western angle of Lot C, granted to James Mowat, thence running by a magnet of the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty one, north two degrees and thirty minutes east sixty seven chains and being in the Parish of Alnwick, in the County of degrees and thirty minutes, east sixty seven chains to a post, thence north eighty seven degrees, west fifteen chains to a another post, thence sonth legrees and thirty minutes west sixty seven chi to a post standing on the notherly side of the above mentioned road, and thence along the same, south eighty seven degrees east fifteen chains to the place of begining, containing one hundred acres more or less, and distinguished as Lot B in Block uine, and being all that lot of land granted to the late Dougald McLean, now deceased, by Grant No. 11,790 issued the 6th day of June A. D. 1867. The same having been seized by me under and by virtue of an Execution issued out of the Northum berland County Court, at the suit of Ephraim A. Strang against the said James McLean. Sheriff's office, Newcastle, this 7th day of September, A. D. 1891.

Zegal Motices.

NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given, that application will be made by the applicants he einafter named, to His Honor the Lieutenant Governor in Council, for a of the Post Office, Chatham, between the hours of 12 o'clock noon and 5 o'clock p. m.

All the right, title and interest of Henry NEW YORK: porating the applicants, and such other persons as may hereafter become shareholders in the proposed Company, a body corporate and politic, under the name and for the purposes hereinafter mentioned. The best Hotel in the lower part of the City for Tourists, Professional and Bus-(1) The proposed corporate name of the Company is "THE CHATHAM ELECTRIC LIGHT COMPANY." (2) The objects for which incorporation is sought are-to enable the proposed Company to acquire by purchase, lease or otherwise, and to use and employ machinery, apparatus and instruments and rights relating thereto, or any patents of invention of or af feeting the same, or any improvements thereof, for the production and distribution of Electricity for the purposes of light in the Town of Chatham and the places adjacent thereto, and to erect and maintain necessary works in connection therewith, and to acquire and hold sufficient real estate for the purpose, with such other privileges as are incident to the attainment of the objects and purposes above (3) The office or chief place of business of the Company is to be located at the Town of Chatham, in the

(4) The amount of the capital stock of the Com-ball and James D. B. F. Mackenzie are to be the first

NOTICE.

Honor the Lieutenant Governor in Council for a ent Act," and Acts in amendment thereof, incorporating the applicants and such other persons as may hereafter become shareholders in the proposed Com-

(1) The proposed corporate name of the Company

(2) The objects for which incorporation is sought are-to enable the proposed Company to erect and estate for the purposes of the Company, with such other privileges as are incident to the attainment of

(5) The said capital stock is to be divided into on

(6) The following are the names, addresses and

James D. B. F. MacKenzie, af Chatham, in the County of Northumberland, Druggist; MacDougall Snowball, of Chatham aforesaid, Electrician; Jabez

B. Snowball, of Chatham aforesaid, Merchant; Francis E. Winslow, of Chatham, aforesaid, Banker; and Scott Fairley, of Blackville, in the County of Northumberland, Lumber Merchant And the said James D. B. F. Mackenzie, MacDougall Snowball, and Jabez B Snowball, are to be the first or Provisional Diseases of the said Company

To be s ld at Public Auction on Thursday, the 7th day of January, next, in trout of the Post

All the right, title and interest of George Dick in and to all that certain piece or parcel of land situate, lying and being in the Town of Chatham, County of Northumberland and Province of New Brunswick, lane one hundred feet, thence east-rly on a line with the north side of said Duke Street ten feet, thence southerly on a line | arallel with the east side of said Benderson lane sixty feet, thence westerly along the north side of said Duke Street sixty feet or to the place of beginning and being the same land sold by Mary Ann McCulley to the said George Dick by leed bearing date the 4th day of November, A. D.

The same having been seized by me under and b virtue of several executions issued out of the Supreme and County Courts against the said George

Shirreff's Office, Newcastle, this 22nd September, and 5 o'clock p. m.

All the right, title and interest of Malcolm Taylor southerly) to the base land, and being the lan conveyed to the said Malcolm Taylor by James Taylor, or intended so to be, by Deed dated the 20th day of March, A. D. 1886, being the lands and premises on which the said Malcolm Taylor lately

The same having been seized by me under and by against the said Malcolm Taylor. Sheriff's Office, Newcastle, this 16th November.

A. D. 1891.

Residence to Rent.

The two-storey dwelling and premises with barn &c. situated on St John Street, lately occuped by

The Dwelling House and premises situate on Upper Water Street, in the Town of Chatham, at present occupied by F. R. Morrison, E.q.

-TO LET,-

The Dwelling House and premises situate on St John Street, in the Town of Chatham, near the R. C.

TO LET.

The dwelling house and premises owned by

DRS. G. J. & H. SPROUL,

SURGEON DENTISTS.

Artificial Teeth set in Gold, Rubber & Celluloid

In Newcastle, opposite Square, over J. Kethros' Barber shop. Telephone No. 6

H. MARQUIS,

TINSMITH

Galvanized and Sheet Iron Worker.

--- DEALER IN---

Kitchen Utensils and Furnishings.

Teeth extracted without pain by Nitrous Oxide Gas or other Anæsthetics.

regulating of the natural teeth.

Also Crown and Bridge work.

guaranteed in every respect.
Office in Chatham, Benson Block.

Charel, at present occupied by H. S. Miller, Esq. For terms and further particulars, apply to

Dated at Chatham, 24th March, 1891,

Chatham, 30th August, 1891]

Miss Perley, is offered to rent. Possession given immediately. Apply to D. G. Smith, Chatham, or

JOHN SHIRREFF.

MRS, SARAH DESMOND,

L. J. TWEEDIE,

L. J. TWEEDIE.

Barrister-at-Law, Chatham.

JOHN SHIRREFF.

Sheriff.

Dated this 18th day of November, A. D. 1891.

visional Directors of the said Company.

J. H. BARRY, Solicitor for Applicants.

p ny, a body corporate and politic under the nam and for the purposes hereinafter mentioned.

or Provisional Directors of the said Company.

Dated this 18th day of November, 1891.

J. H. BARRY, Solicitor for Applicants.

County of Northumberland.

subscribed.

pany is to be Twenty thousand dollars, Two thousand dollars and upwards of which is now actually (5) The said capital stock is to be divided into two hundred shares of one hundred dollars each. (6) The following are the names, addresses and callings of the applicants:—
MacDougall Snowball, of Chatham, in the County of Northumberland, Electrician; Jabez B. Snowball, of Chatham aforesaid, Mer a the city in case of fire.

James D. B. F. Mackenzie, of Chatham aforesaid, Branch Office, SEYMOUR, BAKER & CO, mem Druggist; William B. Snowball, of Chatham aforesaid, Ac Grain, Provisions and Petroleum, bought and sold for Cash on margins DIRECT WIRE TO CHICAGO. George E Fisher, of Chatham aforesaid. Account And the said MacDougall Snowball, Jabez B. Snow

Sanitary and Fire Arrangements Perfect, Location the Most Healthy in the City.

Owner & Propriete EARLE'S NEW PALATIAL HOTEL

nade by the applicants hereinafter named for His Grant of Letters Patent under the provisions of "The New Brunswick Joint Stock Companies' Letters Pat-BROADWAY & 38TH STREET. European Plan; Restaurant Unsurpassed.

ADJOINING BANK OF MONTREAL the objects and purposes above named.

(3) The office or chief place of business of the Com-WELLINGTON ST, - - CHATHAM, N. B. pany is to be located at the Town of Chatham, in the This Hotel has been entirely Refurnished. (4) The amount of the capital stock of the Compan; is to be ten thousand dollars, two thousand dollars and upwards of which is now actually sub-

> FEAMS will be in attendance on the arrivals of all trains. GOOD STABLING, &c.

REVERE HOUSE.

and bounded as follows :- Commencing on the north side of Duke Street at the southwest corner of the garden formerly owned and occapied by Caleb Mc-Culley, deceased, thence northerly along the east side of Henderson lane one hundred and sixty feet, Canada House, thence easterly on a line parallel with the north side of said Duke Street fifty feet, thence southerly on a line parallel with the east side of said Henderson

CHATHAM. LARGEST HOTEL IN CHATHAM. Every attention paid to

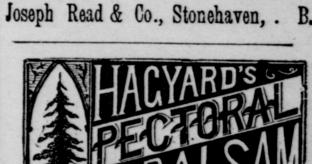

WM. JOHNSTON,

To he sold at Public Auction on Thursday the 3rd day of March, next, in front of the Post Office, in Chatham, tetween the hours of 12 noon, The Subscriber having taken the Agency of the Emerson Piane, the best and cheapest in the States, and show Catalogue Prices and a sample

J. N. Gardner & Co.

Fresh Fish, Lobsters, Country Produce &c.

K. F. Burns & Co., Bathurst, N. B.

MACKENZIE'S

FRESH THIS WEEK

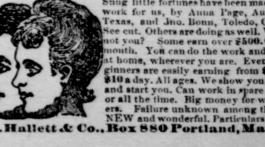

BURDECK BLOOD BITTERS, SCOTT'S AND ESTEY'S EMULSION. PLEASANT WORM SYRUP

WILD CHERRY COUGH SYRUP

Thomas F. Keary, Esq., situate on St. John street and now occupied by Mr. Richard SYRUP OF FIGS, Barrister-at-Law.

DON'T MISS IT.

A new and attractive publication containing many useful, interesting and instructive features has just been issued by T. Milburn & Co., of Toronto, under the title of the Burdock Blood Bitters Almanac for 1891. It is now in the hands of druggists and merchants for free distribution and we

Teacher Wanted.

A second-class female teacher is wanted for school district No. 4, Parish of Glenelg. For particulars apply to GEO, McKNIGHT, Sec. to Trustees, Lower Napan

This Hotel has been Newly and Hand somely Furnished and Decorated, Contains a Grand Exchange, Passenger Elevator, Railroad and Steamboat Ticket. Telegraph Office and Billiard Room

The House can be reached by Horse Cars Stages and Elevated Railroad, and s convenient ly located and accessible to places of amusement and business, including Coney Island, Rockaway Manhattan and Brighton Beach, Central Park, High Bridge, Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklin Bridge, Starin's Glen Island, Bartholdi Statue, "Liberty Enligntening the World," etc. We have first-class accomposition for 400 greats. have first-class accommodation for 400 guests, and our building being four stories high, and with numerous stairways, is considered the safest Hote Trotels.

Cor. Canal & Centre Streets,

NEAR BROADWAY,

iness Men, Commercial Travellers,

Agents, Etc., Substantial in appointments, centrally located and most economical in

PRICES

bers N. Y. Stock and Produce Exchanges, and Chicago Board of Trade. Stocks, Bonds,

. Ferdinand P. Earle.

Normandie,

Esterbrook, Inspector of Buildings, says, "Every room is a place of security for its occupant, as the house is ABSOLUTELY FIRE-PROOF". Steam heat, speaking tubes, electric bells, fire and burgiar alarms attached to all rooms. FERDINAND P. EARLE, Resident Proprietor.

throughout and every possible arrangement is made to ensure the Comfort of Guests Sample Rooms on the premises:

THOMAS FLANAGAN,

Near Railway Station, Campbellton, N. B. formerly the Union Hotel, kept by Mrs. Grogan Comfortable accommodation for permanent and

Sample Rooms. GOOD STABLING on the premises. Daniel Desmond,

Corner Water and St. John Streets,

THE COMFORT OF GUESTS. Located in the business centre of the town. Stabling and Stable Attendance first rate.

PIANOS.

A. W: S. SMYTHE.

Wholesale Commission Dealers in

BOSTON, MASS.

K. D. C.

SHILO'S CONSUMPTION CERE.

(WARRANTED.) FRESH DULGE.

would advise our readers to secure a copy before the

New work and repairing of all kinds in the tinware line done with neatness and despatch.
Shop next door to Canada House, Water Street Chatham, N. B.