

Miramichi and the North Shore, etc.

LIVERY STABLE.—A good man, competitor to take care of the Keary House Laundry Stable, is advertised for in another column.

St. Andrews Church.—Rev. W. Aikman, of Newcastle will preach in St. Andrews church on Sabbath next at 6:30 p.m. There will be no service in the morning.

PROMOTED: J. Henry Phair has been appointed clerk of the legislative council in place of Geo. Bordford, deceased, and M. J. O. R. Arnold, of Sussex, assistant clerk in place of J. Henry Phair, promoted.

PROVINCIAL:—Rev. Mr. McCoy is rapidly improving and will soon be able to resume his public duties. The Board of Health has removed the quarantine placed from the nose and given it a clean bill of health.

PERSONAL:—The many friends of Hon. Williams, M.P., will be glad to learn that, although seriously ill when he went to New York, he appears to have been successfully treated by two eminent physicians of that city, and is now able to be about. He expects to visit Miramichi for a day or two, and then go to Ottawa to attend the approaching session of Parliament.

MIRAMICHI MAN got into an altercation with an Acadian fisherman the other day in the rear of the New Kent hotel. The wretched fellow, in blows, and for a few seconds could be seen but fragments of whiskers, teeth and snouts flying through the air. A couple of peace-loving citizens interfered and separated the combatants before any serious damage was done.—Richie's bucolic Review.

OBITUARY.—The remains of Mrs. Miller, widow of the late James Miller, who was the first teacher of Chatham Grammar School, were followed to the grave yesterday by a large number of citizens, giving evidence of the respect in which she has ever been held in the community. Mrs. Miller was in her 84th year. She came to Chatham with her late husband in 1832 and has resided here ever since.

DEATH OF TH. S. HANFORD.—Mr. Thomas Hanford, an old resident of St. John, died on Tuesday, Feb. 6, in the 79th year. Mr. Hanford carried on an auction and commission business here for a long time. He did active work during the confederation campaign, was appointed to the Inland Revenue department in December, 1867, and at the time of his superannuation a few years ago was District Inspector. He was a man of a kind and courteous nature, and an official a faithful one. Mr. Hanford was brother-in-law to Sir Leonid Tully, and one of his daughters is married to Governor Carver, of Prince Edward Island.—Globe of 10th.

DEATH OF JOHN H. KINSEAR: The death of Mr. John H. Kinsear of St. John, took place at that city last Thursday. He has, for a number of years, been subject to heart trouble, against which he has done him as much as possible. A few days before his death he was injured by a piece of iron which fell from a building on Prince Street, striking him upon the head, but that, if itself, was not considered a cause of serious trouble. Alarming symptoms were manifested however on Wednesday and death took place quite suddenly as stated. Mr. Kinsear was owner of one of the Neptune fishing privileges and was a very keen angler who annual trips to his favorite pools made him a familiar summer visitor of the North Shore.

DEATH FROM HEMORRHAGE.—James Murray, formerly of Coosage, now of Newton Mass., arrived in St. John last Wednesday morning on the express, bringing the body of his brother, Hay, Murray, aged 21 years, the 1st son of Mr. R. B. Murray, of Coosage. The young man died in the Newton Hospital from hemorrhage on Monday. He had been suffering for three months. The brother says that in his room one night he reached up to a shelf, for something there was a knife on the shelf which stuck into his arm, severing an artery. The wound was dressed, but hemorrhage again and altogether the young man suffered 24 hemorrhages before his death. The body was taken home to Coosage for burial. The deceased had been in the States for two years.

We died by Dogs.

ON Wednesday last a little girl of about seven years, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Adam, while playing on an orchard near their home, was attacked on the high road by the maddened bitch and two pups owned by Mr. M. Alam. The child was well wounded and had no sense enough to throw herself face down in the snow, at the same time as fearing for help with all its might. The father, who was in the orchard, heard the bark of the dogs, heard the noise and looking over the fence discovered that the dogs were worrying something lying in the snow and ran to rescue, beating the dogs off and discovering that it was his own child the brutes were attacking. The child had several wounds in the scalp and one of her ears was badly torn.

Complaint has, we understand, been made against the owner of the dogs. The animal's right to share pasture as once, and the recent threat of other children from being attacked. We understand the thuggish brutes have been sent to Campbellton out of the way.—Advocate.

The Advocate is incorrectly informed in reference to the disposition made of the dogs. Their owner, Hon. Mr. Adams, A. P., who has been ill in New York, was informed of the attack made by them upon the child and, although the animals were valuable ones, being purebred, gave direction to Mr. J. R. Lawlor, who acts for him in business affairs during his absence, to have them killed if Mr. Shaw so desired. Mr. Lawlor informs us that the dogs were not sent to Campbellton, but by arrangement with Mr. Shaw, were to be killed in his presence yesterday. The owner of the dogs, having done all in his power in the matter, no good purpose can be served by exaggeration or misrepresentation of either the facts or surrounding circumstances.

Mr. Burns' Irish Wit.

During the examination of Mr. Baros, M. P., in the election trial at Bathurst on Tuesday, Mr. Gregory, Q. C., was endeavoring to fix the identity of a girl named Mary Connemara in the mind of the respondent—on account of her having been a servant in his house—but with little success. It appears, according to outside comment, that the girl was supposed to be in the confidence of the pastor's local course, in the capacity of usher for services—a close secret. After many questions were put and little new play made in the desired direction, Mr. Gregory proceeded to say that he was interested by his side that certain things in which the girl in question was a party were true. Mr. Burns reached the full measure of his well known powers of quiet sarcasm as he replied:

"Possibly so and knowing your instructors I do, I have not the least doubt that they are far more familiar with the servant girls in my house than I myself would be."

Young Men's Christian Association of Chatham.

Meetings held every week in their rooms upstairs, Barry's Building, as follows:—Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, for Prayer and Praise; Monday evening at 8 o'clock, for Bible Study; Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, for Training class.

All young men are most cordially invited to all of these meetings.

PREMIER BLAIR.

BEFORE THE ELECTORATE OF KINGS COUNTY.

His First Visit attests to the Popularity of His Government and its Policy.—The Legislation During their Term of Power—Surveyor-General Tweedie, Solicitor-General Pugsley and Speaker White Also Deliver Addresses.

[SPECIAL TO THE DAILY TELEGRAPH.]
SUSSEX, Feb. 9.—This evening—in Old Fellows Hall, a large number of the electors of Kings County gathered to see Attorney General Blair comply with the request of their representatives that he speak to them on the questions of the day. He fulfilled the obligations in a manner which it is not too much to say will render him

A VERY WELCOME VISITOR.

The meeting was a very orderly one, the only expressions which proceeded from the audience being applied at some well delivered argument, or laughter at some bit of humor.

Sharp on the hour of eight the attorney general, accompanied by Solicitor-General Pugsley Surveyor-General Tweedie, and Speaker White mounted the platform and took seats.

Major O. R. Arnold was appointed chairman and opened the meeting with a few remarks, illustrative of the honor accorded the electors of Kings by the presence of the premier and his colleagues.

PROJECTED HAVELock RAILWAY, which had been granted a subsidy, and the proposed road down the valley of the St. John river, to which assistance was to be given also, and which would be beneficial to certain portions of the county. He referred to the efforts made by the government towards improving the dairy industry, efforts which he was sure could not fail to be successful. Upon the subject of his selection by Kings as their representative, he spoke in acknowledgment of the honor and echoed the sentiments of the attorney general directed towards the good record of the government.

Speaker White explained the conditions which had led up to the attorney general's visit to Kings. He had been assured the people wished to hear the premier speak, and had therefore, as a representative of the country, taken it upon himself to invite him with his colleagues. He was sure the electors had not regretted the request; for himself he would say that he felt complimented by being the forwarder. He regretted that Dr. Taylor, owing to illness, was not able to be present.

A very successful meeting concluded by the chairman, in b. h. of the electorate of Kings, tendering their thanks to the distinguished visitors.

The Stanley Frozen up.

ORAWA, February 12. The Marine Department have received advice that the Government steamer Stanley is frozen up in Picton harbor, owing to the ice jam at the mouth of the harbor, and Captain Finlayson states that it is impossible to pass it. Last year the Stanley cost $15,800 to repair and she made $15,200. This year she has run at a dead loss. The season has so far been a particularly open one and the company's boat has been able to run and has taken all the freight.

Baldness is either hereditary or caused by sickness, mental exhaustion, wearing tight-fitting hats and over work and trouble. Hall's Remover will prevent it.

Mother's!

Castorix is recommended by physician for children teething. It is a purely vegetable preparation, its ingredients are published around each bottle. It is pleasant to the taste and absolutely harmless. It relieves constipation, regulates the bowels, quiet pain, cures diarrhea and wind colic, alleviates feverishness, destroys worms, and prevents convulsions, soothes the child and gives it refreshing sleep. Castorix is the children's panacea—the mother's friend, 35 doses, 35 cents.

News and Notes.

DISTRESS IN VIENNA.
LONDON, Feb. 12.—The Vienna correspondent of the Graphic writes: The destination prevailing here is terrible. Thousands of skilled laborers are idle and starving through the operation of the American tariff. The misery of the poor people of the city is increased by the influx from the provinces of large numbers of unemployed persons seeking work in this city. The total number of people idle in the city is estimated at 70,000. It is hoped that the anticipated building operations and government public works will improve the existing state of affairs.

BERING SEA.

France, Sweden and Italy have agreed upon such arbitrators to decide the Bering Sea question between Great Britain and the United States. No objection can be offered to a tribunal formed in this way for if France may be supposed to be favorable to the claims of the United States, Italy will be equally favorable to the claims of England, and Sweden will be in a position to hold the scales of justice fairly and evenly between the two countries. The submission of this question to arbitration is a great triumph for the peace party.

A London despatch says:—Sir Charles Tupper has just made his first public statement here respecting the progress of the negotiations for the arbitration on the Bering Sea question. He says the clauses of the agreement for arbitration are thoroughly satisfactory to both Canada and Great Britain. He believes there is good reason for expecting that British Columbia's case would soon be compensated for any loss sustained last season. In official circles, however, there is little hope felt that the arbitration will be conducted within the period originally fixed. It is safely assumed that last year's modus vivendi will be continued this season.

MR. VINCENT'S PAD.

The United empire fairs received a nasty check last week in the Imperial House of Commons. Mr. Lytton's amendment to the bill, which asked for the termination of the treaties preventing inter-imperial trade on a preferential basis, was rejected by the majority of the House of Lords.

Speaking of the public debt, he explained how the increase was attributable to the maturing of railway subsidies granted by the government's predecessor previous to 1852. He wished to make no complaint about the latter, but merely stated that his government had accepted the position and could see no other way than that the preceding administration's promises must be fulfilled.

Mr. Blair went rapidly over the various acts passed by his government and stated that a glance over the state book will show that it had not been bad. The Barbican school difficulty, in which charges were made that the public funds were used to maintain sectarian schools, received able treatment. He denied that there was any truth in the charge, mentioning in passing that from the fact that the sisters of charity had been granted teachers' certificates without being required to attend the normal school. That was but a continuation of the policy followed by the former governments for 17 years. The said privilege was open to the other denominations. The government is evidently of the deserving species.

Doctrine of the Holy Kiss.

The Rev. John Morrow, who was charged with the Bethany fair charge home at Pittsburg for preaching and practicing the doctrine of the holy kiss, has received an invitation from the pastor of the Methodist church at Linseville, Pa., to come and hold meetings there. It seems that the lambs of the Linseville flock had heard a great deal of this doctrine and their curiosity led them to better acquainted with it triumphed over their shepherd's reluctance to encourage a thirst for such knowledge. The invitation extended to him is the talk of the town and even among the country girls in the neighborhood there is evidently a growing desire to investigate the new doctrine and find out for themselves whether it is all that is cracked up to be.

Children Cry for

According to Evangel Morrow the holy kiss unlocks the door to sanctification. It cannot be properly appreciated until it is tried. Shortly after his dismissal from the faith cure he held several interesting experimental sessions with the women of Summit, Pa. They flocked in great numbers to meet him. Some gave evidence that the doctrine was not wholly unknown to them. Others were astonished but disappointed when they found out what it was. Among the younger class of neophytes a state of enthusiasm succeeded to the awkwardness and bashfulness produced by the first two or three experiments. The officers they tried it the better they liked it. Mr. Morrow is a handsome man with a romantic air about him and an inspiring address that greatly facilitates the candidate's introduction into the mysteries of this preliminary step to sanctification. When he announced at the conclusion of the two days' revival which he had conducted that duty called him to new spheres of action there was a universal chorus of "Oh dear, don't go yet" that almost melted him into compliance.

From this example of how the doctrine worked at Summit there is some reason to believe that a corresponding result will be produced at Linseville. The failure and mortification which attended the evangel's efforts at the Pittsburgh Bethany may be ascribed to the natural acumen and kind whatever to the uninterested in trust for the advancement of the managers. They were old women, "nurtured in a creed out worn," who were incapable of perceiving that the ancient methods of sanctification could be improved by the infusion of new ideas.
