FISHERY BOUNTIES.—The bounties paid to the fishermen of Quebec and the Maritime Provinces in 1891 amounted to $167,000. Since 1882, at which time the system was established they have pocketed the handsome sum of $1,678,000.

A good day in the country may be looked for and everyone should look forward to going. Full particulars after return of committee.

MOOSE CAPTURED.—The other day a large cow moose was captured in McLeod's mill pond at Kouchibouguac. The animal had got in among the floating logs and could not extricate herself. In a very short time the captors found that they had a veritable white elephant on their hands and were forced to let go.

DEATH OF GEO. A. CUTLER.—The remains of Geo. A. Cutler who died at Collingwood, Ont., on Thursday last, of consumption, arrived here on Saturday and were interred in St. Paul's churchyard on Sunday. He was a young man that had many friends in this town and his aged father has the sympathy of the community in his too brief and affliction.

IT'S TOO BAD to find a Chatham paper endeavoring to throw cold water on the Newcastle Dominion Day demonstration, which is to take place to-morrow, as the World did yesterday. If any particular yachtsmen cannot join in the festivities without having a committee wait upon him with an invitation, or arrange to tow his boat to the rendezvous his non-participation will be regretted, but it cannot be helped.

DIOCESAN CHURCH SOCIETY AND SYNOD MEETINGS.—The annual meetings of the Diocesan Church Society and Diocesan Synod will be held in Trinity Church School Room, St. John, on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week. The Lay Representatives from this parish are: C. Cameron, Judge Wilkinson and Geo. Burchell. E. Substitutes, J. P. Burchell, Esq., M. P. P. and Charles Sargeant, Esq.

BITTEN BY A HORSE.—Mr. McMillen, a Fredericton Junction farmer, was badly bitten by a stallion on Wednesday last at that place. He was putting on the bridle when the horse caught his arm breaking the skin, dislocating the elbow and tearing the flesh very badly. As the arm grew rapidly worse he had to have it amputated and the operation was performed on Friday last by Doctor Currie and Dr. Murray assisted by Mr. Ford Gutter.

ROWDYISM IN CHATHAM.—For some time past the rowdy element of Chatham has been remarkably quiet, but on Monday night some of its representatives commenced work by nearly killing a sailor on Water street. On Tuesday evening they assaulted an unoffending Norwegian sailor and gave him an unmerciful beating. The police should, at once, hunt up the members of this gang of ruffians and bring them before the police magistrate.

THE ONEIDA INDIAN MEDICINE COMPANY closed a two week's engagement here on Monday evening to a very good house. A doubtful contest between five or six boys closed the evening's performance. The affair was very funny and created quite a lot of amusement for the audience. The demand for the medicine has been good and different ones have been reported. Anyone requiring any of the medicines can obtain them at the Canada House. The company went from here to Derby where they will remain one week and from there they go to Newcastle.

FIRE BOYS IN ST. JOHN.—Our St. John exchanges state that two attempts were made to set fire to industrial establishments in Lower Cove on Sunday last. The first occurred at about 1:30 o'clock. It was kindled in connection with Warding, White & Co.'s machine shops, using as a coal shed and for the storage of scrap iron. The flames were extinguished with a few pails of water.

THE OTHER FIRE broke out in a pile of boards in Haley Bros. & Co.'s lumber yard about 4:30 o'clock. The firemen found no difficulty in extinguishing it.

NEW BEACON LIGHTS.—On the evening of Monday last, Mr. John H. Harding, of the Marine Department at St. John arrived in Chatham. On the following morning he left for Miramichi in the steamer Miramichi and decided on the sites for the erection of two Beacon Lights at that place. They will be built upon the property of Mr. Charles Mcintosh. The lights are for the purpose of guiding vessels coming over the Bar into Negus Bay. They can also be used by vessels wishing to make the public landing at that place. On Tuesday evening he left for Dalhousie to attend to matters in connection with his Department in that County.

ST. JOHN BUSINESS COLLEGE.—Many teachers and students have during recent seasons found the St. John Business College an excellent place for spending their summer vacation. The daily sessions are short, the course of study is interesting, and of that practical character that gives assurance of immediate results. Then St. John Summer Session is so delightful a cool that study is just as pleasant and profitable as any other season. The addition of so capable an instructor, Mr. Pringle to the staff will make this summer's vacation course more attractive than ever before.—The Educational Review for June.

"SOOT GRAPES"—The Glenner—new time-sons well understood—assails the new timetable of the Canada Eastern Railway, misrepresenting it with the same recklessness that characterizes all its statements concerning those who have grown tired of its usual methods with its patrons. A paper, which was established in Chatham for the purpose of weakening the influence and belittling the undertakings of those who have always sought to promote the interests of the place joins the Glenner in its snarling. Nobody but the fault-finders are, however, injured by their misrepresentations.

THE ATTRACTION AT MASONIC HALL Saturday night, July 2nd will be Turner's English Girls. We copy the following favorable notice from the St. Paul Pioneer Press. "An unusually large audience greeted Turner's English 'Gaiety Girls' company yesterday at Hilton's playhouse. The strong features of the burlesque company were appreciated, and the demonstrations of approval by the audience at times drowned the music of the orchestra. The dancing of Miss Lucille captivated the house, and the encores she received testified that she lanced her way in to the hearts of many. The wing dancing of Miss La Monte and the Serpentine dance of four graceful damsels were taking specialties. In the concluding burlesque the entire strength of the company gave a bewildering spectacle of a score of dazzling costumed girls executing an intricate march. The costumes and scenery were worthy of special mention."

PERSONAL.—The Hon. Mr. Tweedie arrived home from his tour through Ontario on Saturday evening. He brings word that it is the determination of the Ottawa Government to at once proceed with the erection of a new post office at Chatham. It is to be on the W. J. Fraser site.

Mr. W. A. Wilson, of New York, reached Chatham by yesterday morning's train, and will spend a few weeks with his Miramichi friends who are always glad to welcome him.

Mr. D. G. Smith of Chatham returned yesterday from a trip to Boston, New York, etc. Masters Thomas, Clarence and Herbert Adams, sons of ex-Senator Saml. Adams, now of New York, reached Bathurst yesterday morning, where they are visiting their uncle K. F. Burns, Esq., M. P.

Mrs. Wyse and her little daughter, Flossie, have returned from a visit to New York. Miss Mamie McKendry formerly of Douglastown and now of New York, arrived home on a summer visit yesterday.

OF FRESH SUSSER.

During the past four weeks Company No. 2, of the 73rd Battalion, volunteer militia, under the command of Capt. Fenlon, has been performing squad drill in the Chatham Curling Rink, under Lieut. J. D. B. Mackenzie. On Tuesday morning last Company Nos. 3, 4 and 5, joined No. 2 Company at Chatham and paraded in marching order at the Curling Rink. After being inspected by Lieut. Col. McCulley and hearing Batt. orders read for the day, they, headed by the Batt. Band, marched to the railway station and took train for the camp at Sussex. The men looked smart and soldierlike and their arms and accoutrements were bright and clean. The following is the strength of the Batt. on leaving Chatham:

Commanding officer—Lieut. Col. McCulley. No. 2 Company—Capt. Fenlon and Lieut. Mackenzie with 3 sergeants, one bugler, and 30 rank and file. No. 3 Company—Capt. A. McKnight and Lieut. W. McKnight, with 3 sergeants, and 30 rank and file. No. 4 Company—Capt. W. McNaughton and Lieut. Meserance, with 3 sergeants and 32 rank and file. No. 5 Company—Capt. H. Cameron, Lieut. J. Cameron and 25 rank and file. As No. 1 Company has its headquarters at Beauceville it joined the Batt. at Moncton and proceeded with them to Sussex. Its officers are Capt. J. Sheridan and Lieut. C. Doherty, with 3 sergeants and 32 rank and file.

Owing to Capt. and Adj. Templeton having accepted a situation under the Northumberland Municipality which necessitated the resignation of his commission, he did not accompany the Batt. to camp, which has been annually attended since the first camp was held in Fredericton in July 1863. His loss will be severely felt by the whole Batt. Quarter Master Murray proceeded to Sussex on Monday to take over the camp equipment for the Batt. and Surgeon, J. McE. Baxter accompanied the Batt. to camp. The following is the strength of the Batt.: 1 Lieut.-Col., 1 Surgeon, 1 Quarter Master, 5 Captains, 7 Lieutenants, 15 Sergeants, 190 rank and file, making a total of 210.

A Silver Service Contest.

PROGRESS is out with a unique and wonderful offer, viz: A quadruple plate silver tea service of seven pieces, which will be presented to the person who outs the most coupon tickets from PROGRESS during the months of July, August and September. A large engraving of the silver service will appear in PROGRESS, Saturday, July 2, and the coupon ticket will be printed for the first time in PROGRESS of July 9th. This will give every one ample time to arrange with their friends to assist them in securing this beautiful service.

Messrs. Ferguson & Page, a well known and very reliable firm of jewelers, supplied PROGRESS with the silver tea service, and their guarantee accompanied it. The set consists of seven pieces of the largest size, all quadruple plate, elegantly chased with a graceful design.

The service, worth $80, is another indication of the faith of the publisher in advertising. There are few readers who will not long for such a prize, and any one of them is liable to get it with little effort. Where so many will try all stand an equal chance. A suggestion is thrown out to those who think of entering the contest: Carry all your friends at home first, and then write to all your friends and acquaintances in the provinces and get them to help you by collecting coupons. In this way PROGRESS will gain new readers—which is its object—and you will stand a splendid chance for the service.

The Equity Court.

Mr. W. C. Winslow, of Chatham, on behalf of the plaintiffs in the case of the Bank of Montreal vs. the New Brunswick Trading Co., appeared to show cause against a summons obtained by Mr. E. H. McAlpine to produce a bill of exchange for $300 additional fee as reference in the sale of the company's property. It will be remembered that His Honor, having allowed this fee on an ex parte application, disallowed it again on the application of Mr. Winslow, reserving the right to Mr. McAlpine to apply on a summons. Mr. McAlpine had an affidavit setting out that he had spent twelve days about the sale of the property, which was situated in the three counties of York, Northumberland and St. John, that he was appointed on the application of Mr. C. W. Wilson, solicitor for the Bank of Montreal, and that the property was worth about $210,000. Mr. Winslow produced the affidavit of Mr. F. E. Winslow manager of the Bank of Montreal at Chatham, stating that the property only sold for about $50,000 and that Mr. McAlpine had already received $245 and his tax-d bill of $289.32 and that he considered the tax bill amply sufficient. Mr. McAlpine in reply read from his minutes of evidence taken before him in which Mr. E. P. Winslow had stated that the Bank advanced $210,000 on this property. He contended that the bill was not excessive and that Messrs. Weldon & McLean should not oppose his being paid a reasonable fee upon Mr. McLean himself had already received $5,000 for services in connection with the Parks case, and Mr. Weldon's paper had received about $230 for advertising this property, while the Chatham World charged only about $70. He also stated that McLean had agreed to pay him whatever fee he could get allowed.

His Honor said that it did not matter whether Mr. Weldon had done wrong or not, that he could not allow the fee to Mr. McAlpine if it were not legal, and that the question was whether McAlpine was entitled to extra allowance when he had to go out of this county in connection with the case.

Mr. Winslow said he could not consent to Mr. McAlpine's receiving any extra allowance and contended that this excessive addition was very unjust and that there was no precedent or authority whatever for a judge to allow any fee to a referee after his bill had been taxed by the clerk of the court.

Mr. C. A. Palmer, Q. C., appeared as counsel with Mr. McAlpine, but did not say anything in addition to Mr. McAlpine's argument. His Honor said he would consider the matter.—Globe of 27th.

Why it is so Good.

A correspondent of the Pittsburgh (Pa.) Dispatch makes the curious statement: "In Uruguay, some of the rivers are so impregnated with the roots of Sarsaparilla as to possess sanitary qualities for bathing purposes, and the people who drink their waters are said to be exempt from skin diseases arising from impurities of the blood." The Uruguay sarsaparilla is probably the same variety of plant as that of the neighboring state of Honduras of which Ayer's Extract of Sarsaparilla is made, and which is richest in medicinal qualities of any sarsaparilla root known to science; hence, of course, the extraordinary curative properties of Ayer's famous blood medicine.

The Globe Omo More.

In the absence of the editor last week we were favored with another communication from the publishers of the St. John Globe, denying that they had ever advertised or paid for advertising the Louisiana Lottery, etc. We have only to say that we prefer to believe the evidence of the Globe's columns, which show that they have advertised the lottery. We have no evidence that they have received pay for so doing and must, therefore, accept that part of their statement. Like our readers, we are growing a little tired over these whippersnappers and their unprincipled friends. If they were particular over the statements they make about others, as they seem to be in reference to what is said of them, the Globe's columns would be cleaner than they are.

The Scott Act.

CHARLOTTE CO., N. B., 18th June, 1892. Editor Advocate. Sir:—I notice by the Advocate of 15th that the people of Northumberland are making an effort to repeal the C. T. A. Well, sir, you have certainly given it a fair trial and it has proved a humbug and worse than a farce, and it is certainly a step in the right direction to repeal it, as many of the leading and influential counties in the Dominion have already done.

The Advocate once in replying to a communication in mine, stated that I was credited with one view, that of being a temperance man. Well, I thank that view is a small favor from our enemies, are thankfully received, and now from my experience as a temperance man and a Son of Temperance, I am convinced that the Scott Act (so called) is a curse to our County. Could we forever banish from our County the manufacture, importation and sale of intoxicating liquors, I do not imagine that there are five per cent. of our people but would hold up both hands to carry such a law, but in Northumberland as in all other places where it has been faithfully tried, it has proved worse than a failure. When I first took hold for the temperance men to enforce the Law I really did imagine that I was going to clean out all the intoxicating liquors from the County, but experience soon taught me that I was only one man in a large county and for the one gallon that I got to destroy one hundred gallons were brought in to replace it.

And, Sir, I found many persons willing at first to encourage and assist me for the sake of giving the Law a fair trial, but, sir, my view of those, like myself, who put their minds to work to do good, is that they are not for the cause person who was first, twenty-five escaped prosecution. Take the town of Chatham: I have heard it estimated by some of our temperance folk that there are seventy houses in that town where intoxicating liquors are regularly sold. What percentage of those have been closed up since Goliath has been on the scene? You can take many of our laws which are so unpopular that they are allowed to remain on our statute books without any notice being taken of their constant violation which, if taken hold of by some meddlesome fanatic, a great deal of trouble could be made, and large sums of money could be extorted from violators. But, Sir, has ever a prohibitory liquor law in any county been a success? I say no, never! I suppose the State of Maine is one of the pattern temperance states. Now, Sir, I know where I am speaking when I say that any man can get all the liquor he wants if he has the money to pay for it in Maine. Take Eastport for instance, I spent a week there last summer. I myself spent two or three dollars to satisfy myself whether liquor could be purchased or not. I went into a grocery store where I saw persons going to a small room at one end of the counter. I gave a wink at two thirsty looking fellows who came in and led the way to the small room, they following. I simply asked them what the whiskey and glasses were open for. They asked if they could get a bit of being fined? The men said "No," they had got tired of meddling with us and are now leaving us alone. I was also in a hotel with a friend and asked for something to drink. I took a seat on a lounge in a small adjoining room and the proprietor asked me to rise. He turned up the cushion and lifted a small trap door at the bottom of the lounge, and took out whiskey, brandy, glasses, &c., when my friend helped himself. The proprietor told me that they would rather have the Maine law than a fine, because they could better keep their houses clear of drunken persons that there was no money in it, and that they could sell all they wanted to. He also said that he did not want to see the Law repealed as it was that he would put on a very heavy license fee, and he would rather have things as they were. I only have those two instances to show that prohibitory laws do not prohibit.

Now, Mr. Editor, I am pleased that the intelligent inhabitants of Northumberland are really taking hold of this repeal movement. There is something radically wrong in the fact that a few persons should be harassed and fined and confined for doing what ninety persons out of every one hundred are doing without being interfered with.

The Advocate thinks that care how you sign will publish your name! Well, Sir, I wonder how many persons his fearful threat are going to scare? I can say to him, Sir, as a leading and respectable gentleman said to me (the late Hon. R. Hutchison) "I voted for the Act and supported it but experience has taught me that it has been a curse and has done more harm than good, and when repeal is asked for I will vote and support its repeal and in this way do all I possibly can for the injury I assisted in inflicting on the County when I voted for its institution."

And, Sir, I am not a bolter either. I do not, never did, and hope I never shall, use intoxicating liquors as a beverage. Yet, I say, though every one of our members of parliament put unanimously together to make the most stringent prohibitory law that is in the power of parliament, they cannot put sales enough on to prevent the importation, sale and use of the liquor until the great majority of our people change their minds on this subject. Now, Sir, by all means repeal this obnoxious and arbitrary law from our statute books and ask our Legislature to give us a good wholesome license law, then put on a good solid inspector to see that the Law is properly carried out (your humble servant for instance) and make it the duty of every person who sells under license to assist the inspector in bringing to justice those who attempt to sell without license.

Camp Adams.

Messrs. J. Guill and C. P. Bunker, of Mon, who have been fishing at Camp Adams, have returned on Monday, after a successful season, returned on Monday delighted with their trip and their good luck at the Camp. They went up on Saturday night 18th inst., joining Messrs. M. Adams, John McKane and R. H. Armstrong who had arrived there the day before. The party killed thirty-one salmon and three grilse, besides fifty-six trout, one of the latter weighing five and a quarter pounds. Messrs. Adams and McKane are home again for a short time.

New Time Table.

The new time-tables of the railways came into effect on Monday and the hours of arrival and departure of trains connecting with Chatham are particularly noted in the Advocate. The Government of Canada has announced in another column. The service on this road is much improved, to the advantage of its increasing traffic, the early express for Fredericton affording our people an opportunity to go to Fredericton from Chatham and after spending five and a half hours in that city, return the same day, reaching home at 8 p. m. The accommodations trains are run on a slower schedule than before, but this is necessitated by the heavy freight traffic which these trains have to handle.

Halifax Ladies' College and Conservatory of Music.

IN AFFILIATION WITH DALHOUSIE UNIVERSITY. The closing exercises of the above institutions were begun Sunday evening, 19th inst., in St. Matthew's Church, when Rev. Robert Laing, president of the college, delivered an appropriate sermon to the students. The evening session followed, the first lecture, entitled "The Government of Canada," consisted of a rendition of Tennyson's "Princess." The convocation hall was filled to overflowing, and the entertainment proved to be one of exceedingly high order. The young ladies, in full academic dress, in hue the "lilac and the gold," presented a most pleasing appearance, and exhibited good ability and thorough training in elocution.

On Tuesday evening the recital in connection with the Conservatory of Music was what all expected it to be: a pronounced success. The degree of proficiency attained by the pupils in general is so well known to our excellent teachers, that a superior musician could have selected any one of them as more worthy of laureation than any of the work done in this Conservatory speaks for itself throughout the Maritime Provinces.

On Wednesday there was an exhibition of fine art in the large and amply equipped studio of the college. The different classes of work on exhibition consisted of (1), drawing from casts; (2), water colors; (3), oils; (4), china painting; and (5), modelling in clay. The exhibition was attended by large numbers of the citizens of Halifax, and from the country. Miss Clara F. Howard, who has charge of this department of the college work, is herself an artist of the first rank, being a distinguished graduate of the Art League, New York, and her success as a teacher is now fully established. Miss Howard spends the summer with a company of artists in Rhode Island, and returns to the college in the autumn.

Thursday afternoon and evening witnessed the final exercises of the College. Both occasions were of more than usual interest because of the many interesting incidents of the past year. The exercises of the afternoon consisted of a recital of songs, recitations, and music, all indicating a high character of the education and training given in this College. The musical programme of the evening was rendered in a way that must convince any competent judge that to secure a first class musical education it is not necessary to go outside the Maritime Provinces. Students of this College and Conservatory are already distinguishing themselves in Universities and German Conservatories of music. Since the opening of the College twenty-one years ago, few educational institutions have so many letters on their name as this one. The graduates of this more favorably known. The graduates of this occasion were the Misses Jessie Boak,
