turns, he will perhaps find that you have been spending a few days with your old

'He will take a full amount of revenge,' 'He will try to. I shan't blame him. You see I rented this pretty quiet place for the benefit of a person who was much kinder to me than Josephine. I am afraid the truth is well known in B-....................... I daresay Allan will want to shoot me, but you'll find it hard work to make matters clear to him

-or to anyone else, I expect.' Frances grew crimson as she grasped the you to whom my father and I showed noth- pistol been in her hand she would have shot ing but kindness, to plot and intrigue to that wretch opposite to her without comrain me in my husband's eyes. If you have punction. Yet she grew more and more reany feeling of manhood left, open the doors solved to lead herself in no way to his schemes. and let me go.'

'You may go free any moment you like after you have heard what I have to say, and foul with the fumes of his strong cigar, and promised me something. I only want to show you exactly how you stand. Your fate is in your own hands. Will you listen?' Speak on and let me know the worst a man is capable of.'

Oh, I'm capable of anything. But sit down again; it seems more comfortable.' 'I prefer standing.'

'All right; stand as long as you like. I am in no hurry, but I shan't speak until you sit down.'

She resumed her seat, 'That's better,' said Manders, smoking must continue to be fellow-lodgers.'

'I suppose you want me to assist you in | would never fall.' carrying out your imposture?' the last three years. It was under that | she put off considering the evil moment. name that I won Josephine's affections. I Presently Manders spoke again. word her I was one heir to Redhills aud could

Frances witheld her approbation-his cynical candor was revolting. 'Well, as you know all about me, and, I suppose, are burning to tell Allan and all of them that I am not a Bourchier, but the son of poor but honest parents named Manders, I have been obliged to keep out of your way as long as possible. Looking after Josephine, I tumbled against you. That was a mistake on my part.' 'Then,' said Frances, slowly, 'all the tale you told me about the penitent criminal-the tale which lured me down here-was 'That was smart, wasn't it? Takes a adjoining room. Yankee to devise such a plan as that.'

'Go on,' said Frances. suits me to keep the whole thing dark for and a chest of drawers was placed in front of another month—after that I don't care.

You can tell everybody that Digby Bourchier is George Manders. You swear that piece of furniture and alarming Manders. She have her own way, and she must yield.

To think it was broad daylight outside! until this day month you keep silence, and | could sit in a semi-privacy behind the halfhere are the keys for you, you can walk out at once, catch the train, and be in town by five o'clock.'

'What is the alternative?' asked Frances, ash into the untidy grate behind him. 'There is none,' he said. 'It's only a matyou leave this place; so you'd better be a She could pray and hope that some chance, sensible girl and make up your mind to do murderer. Let me go!

Manders, tilting back his chair and putting his hands in his pockets. There's no harm a long while yet. done yet; you can be home in a couple of hours. By and by it will be too late to avoid gossip and scandal."

She made no reply, but, turning her head away, looked carefully round the roomthere was no means of escape. She rose and tried the folding-doors on her right hand. These were locked. Manders watched every action, but for a while said nothing.

everyone's ruin. No, she would never consent; nothing should wring such a promise from her. Besides, she felt if it was to be a contest of will between herself and Manders, repeated his question, she set her lips firmly and looked him full in the face.

"I will never promise," she said. "I will promise nothing.

Manders uttered an oath. 'You are a foolish, obstinate woman,' he said. 'Now we shall see which can tire the other out. Until you swear to keep silence for a month, you stay here my prisoner. You'll have to give in sooner or later.'

She said nothing, but sat still thinking what to do. She looked at her watch, and found the hour was nearly three. In that But there was a look in his dark eyes which room it might have been any time. There sent a thrill of fear through her-a look she was not a ray of daylight to show it was not had not seen there yet-a look that made midnight. She thought of the distance from her long for a weapon. She felt, as she rethe road to the house, and wondered if it treated to her own domain, that those eyes were not possible to attract the attention of were following her. What would happen if some passer by a prolonged scream. To be sleep or fatigue overpowered her? Brave entrapped and imprisoned this way seemed as she was she shuddered at the thought. absurd. A hundred yards or so from the highroad, and within a few miles from Lon- till in the last extremity! Should she don. Surely her voice would reach as far promise, and, consider how that promise was as the road, and someone would come to her extorted, break it the moment she was free? assistance. She hated the idea of resorting No, she could no do that. A promise or an to the feminine extremity-screaming-but outh, no matter how given, must be sacred what could she do? She could not over- to Frances Bourchier. Oh, if Allen were power her jailer; no one was likely to come here; her strong, brave husband? She by chance or on business to that deserted pictured his wrath-pictured him shaking cottage; she had seen Manders lock the gate | Manders like a rat—and this mental picture securely. Her only hope of escape was to gave her great comfort. The reverse of it. make her voice heard. She must try, much unfortunately, was Allen fallen, like herself, as she disliked screaming in cold blood. If into a trap, and rushing off to the Continent no one came to her aid her only chance in search of her. The hours wore on until would be to tire her captor out, to pit her | she found it was midnight. power of resisting fatigue and watching against his. No, she would promise nothing. unless her life was in absolute danger-nothcraft, she quite believed that he had ar- and, as she turned round afterward, saw ranged things so that Allan would be lured Manders standing inside the door with Many people have been saved from the inaway on a false scent. Her heart grew sick wicked eyes gleaming at her. with the thought; her cheeks flushed at the ides of her husbrnd pursuing her and Manders on the Continent. How bitterly she regretted the desire for revenge which had and cheer me up. been played on by this villain, and so led her into such straits. She must make some-drew a long breath, and sereamed a scream, which, coming without warning, made Man- her old seat in the front room. She must ders jump in his chair. He had evidently not show the fear she felt. Oh, if Allan counted upon this proceeding, as it appeared | were here! to trouble him little. He lit a fresh cigar and laughed, while his prisoner sent scream Children Cry for after scream, hoping one might succeed in chair he had occupied so long. Then he travelling the distance. At last, utterly exhausted, she sank in her chair, waiting to see if her efforts had attracted any attention. 'It's not a bit of good,' said Manders. You'll only ruin your voice and tire your-hear if you scream for a month.' From the composure with which he regarded her efforts she felt he was speaking the truth in this respect. The way he had deadened the windows was with a view of his glass, which almost emptied it. He guarding against her cries being heard. She sat down and for three hours neither self out. I'll bet you don't make any one spoke nor moved. It seemed like a horrible dream. It was now past six o'clock. She knew that Josephine and Mrs. Melville would be wondering at her absence-she dread lest they should even then telegraph full extent of his villany. She rose from for her husband. The idea that for one moment Allen should be led to suspect 'And you !' she cried, in scathing accents, her of wrong was maddening. Had a loaded He sat all the while in the one chair, smoking continually. The air grew heavy The room was small and only ventilated by the chimney and the crevices of the doors. Part his complete intoxication as a means of her of the time he read, or pretended to read a release, but she had not taken the interdog-eared novel several of which were scattered about; but he kept the while a close watch on his captive. At half past six he 'Still determined?' he asked.

Frances did not trouble to reply. 'Then I must prepare for the seige,' he said opening the cupboard behind him and taking The question was not worth disputing. some provisions, a bottle of brandy and soda water. He made a hearty meal and replaced every thing except the brandy and with an air of enjoyment. 'Now listen, and soda water. 'Sorry I must be ungallent you'll see what I want you to do. It's very enough to refrain from asking you to share little, but until you promise to do it we | my meal, he said, but if the besiegers supply the besieged with provisions the fortress

Till then the thought of hunger and thirst Something of the kind. It suited me to had not occurred to her. He intended, she believe and state that my name was Digby saw, to starve her into submission. How-Bourchier. Everyone has believed that for | ever, she was not hungry or thirsty yet; so turn them all out at any moment. Smart, | you comfortable, as long as I don't injure myself. You ain't very cheerful company, so if you like to go into the next room, I've

He opened the folding-doors, then coming back put a lighted candle on the

'You can go in there,' he said, 'if you like, and stay there till you are tired; but you must leave the door open so that I can see what you're about, if I want to. If you try to break down things and get to the windows I shall come in and stop with you, or make you come back here.

Anything was better than his company. She took the candle and passed into the

It was furnished in the half-bedroom, halfsitting-room style. That same precaution 'I guess there isn't much more to say. It | had been taken with respect to the window, opened folding-door, but she knew that if she approached the window he must see her. of the Inquisition. She must make them Screaming in this room she felt would be hear—she would try again. Screaming in this room she felt would be less likely to aid her then in the other. Still she was alone—away from those hate-

Manders laughed, and flipped his cigar ful eyes. She could throw herself on a chair her before, it was absurd to suppose they and collect her thoughts. She need not check the tears which, in spite of her ter of time-you'll have to promise before bold bearing, was springing to her eyes. or some mistake on Mander's part, might so at once-not send poor Allan right across | reveal her whereabouts to the friends who, she was certain, would be seeking her high I will never promise-never. If you and low to-morrow. She felt glad she had have taken these pains to insure my silence, not veiled her self as she walked through the your end must be utterly evil. You are a little village. Many persons must have liar, an impostor, and, for all I know, a seen her, and would be able to put inquirers much as I can stand of it. I thought I could on the right track. She would be trace! to last you out, but now I don't think I can. Better consider the matter a bit,' said | Charing Cross, where some one may have noticed her. Yes, she would hold out for

> There was a washstand in the room. She ventured to pour out a little water and bathe her face, and without fear that her jailer would intrude when he heard her movements. But he did not; and, feeling refreshed, she sat down to pass the long and sleepless hours as best she could.

One by one they passed. She drew out her watch and wound it up; it would be 'Well,' he asked, at length, have you terrible not to have the means of knowing Try it. how the time went. It was now night; she She had considered, and felt convinced had touched nothing since break-fast timethat he was weaving some diabolical plot- nearly twelve hours ago. She drank a little something that must needs be evil to her of the brackish water left in the ewer and husband's people. By this time she rightly assuaged her burning thirst. Manders, she believed that he was capable of any villainy. knew, was still smoking, and, she supposed How could she keep silent for the time drinking : as from time to time she heard the specified, and know that he was working chink of glass and the gurgling of fluid. unchecked to accomplish the object he had Would he eventually drink himself to sleep? in view. This might be Allan's ruin, Jose- This was the only chance of escape she could | yard's Pectoral Balsam for their relief and phine's ruin, Mr. Bourchier's ruin, in fact, think of unless the rescue came from with-

Her candle had now burned down into the socket. She felt she dare not stay there in darkness; she feared she might drop off she was quite his match; therefore, when he to sleep if the light were with drawn. She must have another candle; must summon up her courage to go to him and demand it. Moreover, it was better to show him she was stay here until I am released; but I will not afraid. So she steped boldly into the

'Going to give in?' he asked as she entered. 'Give me another candle, ' she said,

'Help yourself,' he said, throwing several on the table; 'there's lots here-enough for a week, I calculate.' She took a couple, and while so doing glanced at him. No, he was not drunk yet. Should she yield and promise? Never,

She was growing very hungry and fear began to form in her mind that simple starvation would compel her to yeild. But not yet; she could hold out many hours yet. Having fallen such an easy victim to his She took another draught of the bad water, said, with a thick utterance. 'You come in fibre of the body.

'I choose to stay here," she answered. Without a word she passed him, and took ago.

Manders followed her, and obedient to a motion of her hand, seated himself in the same Pitcher's Castoria.

poured out more brandy, and looked across

'Now, let's be jolly and comfortable,' he said. 'I can't bear to keep away from such a beauty as you are, Frances. Everybody hasn't got the finest woman in the world staying of her own free will with him.

He seemed about to rise. Frances looked at him-such a look, speaking such volumes that he quailed before her eyes and sunk back into his chair. For the time she had conquered. But by and by! Manders muttered something, and took a long pull at then poured out more spirit. She saw the action, and trembled. He still had his wits about him, but after a few more glasses he might be madly intoxicated —too wild to listen to or be satisfied by any promise, even if she could bring herself to make it. What would become of her, shut up with a ruffian drunk enough to commit any crime, sober enough to execute it. The bottle which held the brandy was a very large one—originally it might have contained two quarts. He poured as much as seemed good to him into his glass, then replacing the bottle by his side, turned for water to qualify the liquor. In a second her resolve was made: with a sweep of her long arm she sent bottle and glass from the table-dashed them off with such vigor that both broke into fragments against the wainscoting. It was a rash act, and she trembled for the consequences. But anything was better than seeing the man grow more and more dangerous. At one time she had looked forward to mediate stage into account: Manders sprang to his feet, and dropping the mask attogether; hurled a volley of curses at her. Then he picked up the bottom of the bottle, hoping to find something left there; but the work of destruction had been thoroughly done. The air was thick and oppressive with the exhalations rising from the spilled spirit, and Frances prayed she might not faint. For a moment the ruffian scemed inclined to attack her. He glared and swore at her. She feared the worst. Then he went back to his chair, and, resuming his cigar, smoked sullenly for about half an hour. 'You think you have been devilish clever,'

he said, looking across at her; 'but it's the best thing you could have done for me. I can't get screwed now. I guest, sabout this time to-morrow you'll feel like giving in. You'll be begging on your knees for something to eat and drink. You'll have to pay a high price, I can tell you.' 'I shall be free long before to-morrow evening. I left word where I was going.' Manders started and looked at her intently, then turned away with a laugh. Presently Manders spoke again. 'That's a lie—you'd have told me so be'I don't mind doing what I can to make fore if you had. You're gone to Nice with me, and dear Allan will be off after us tomorrow evening. Hour after hour of that long night crept by. The two, the captor and the captive, sat silent but wakeful, eying each other.

Manders spoke several times, but Frances declined to open her lips again. He went to his cupboard once or twice and ate some of his provisions, chuckling as he did so. Frances once or twice crept into the back room and drank the brackish water. She dreaded that he would deprive her of even that poor resource. But he did not-there may be a depth of brutality to which no man is able to sink. Hour after hour passed by. It was morning-nine, ten, eleven, and still the watchers sat. Frances for a while began to grow dreamy; yes, she must be dreaming. That reeking room, the close atmosphere, the candles one after another burning downcould it be possible that outside that sealed window was broad, bright sunlight—that birds were singing and flowers open in the hedges? Then she almost feared she was losing her senses. By a great effort she rose and paced to and fro. She must keep People passing within a few hundred yards; yet she might as well be in the deepest cell

She screamed wildly , and knew her scream of to-day was but a pitiful echo of that of yesterday. She soon desisted. If no one heard would hear now. Forgetting her companion, she feli back on her chair and covered her eyes with her hands. Manders leaned across.

·Will you give in and promise?' he asked. His voice was hoarse and changed, but the sound of it awoke Frances to a recollection of where she was. She raised her head. 'Never!' she said. He ground his teeth and looked at his watch-it was twelve o'clock. 'I'm getting tired of this,' he said; 'you're in better training than I am. I've had as I'm just good for a few hours longer; then if you won't swear to shut your mouth, I'll shut it once and for all. If I've got to use this its your own fault.'

He opened his coat as he spoke and showed her the butt of what her American experience told her was a revolver. [To be Continued.]

General News and Notes.

Emollient means softening. This is the action Dr. Kendrick's White Liniment has on swellings of all kinds on man or beast.

Winter Sports.

Two hundred and seventeen New York

The gay winter season exposes many to attacks of colds. coughs, hoarseness, tightness of the chest, asthma, bronchitis, etc., which require a reliable remedy like Hagcure. Known as reliable for over thirty years. The best cough cure.

Heavy snowstorms and intensely cold weather prevailed in Great Britain last

UST why so many people suffer pain when a remedy of known and certain effect like Hagyard's Yellow Oil may be had at every drug store, is not very clear. This peerless pain soothing remedy is a prompt and pleasant cure for sore throat, croup, colds, rheumatism, lame back, etc. Price

NOT FRENCH KID. Mrs. Callahan-I want to get a pair of shoes for the little boy Clerk-French kid? Mrs. C. (indignantly)—Indeed not. He's my own son—born an' bred in America.

A Sensible Statement.

SIRS,—Having used your Burdock Blood Bitters successfully for some time past, I must state that for my complaint of biliousness and acid stomach I have never found its equal, and I continue to use it and recommend it to my friends and

W. SUTTOF, St. Thomas, Ont. The ravages of the grip have caused the Pope to suspend the church regulations as to fasting in the afflicted districts.

A Wonderful flesh Producer.

This is the title given to Scott's Emul sion of Cod Liver Oil by many thousand who have taken it. It not only gives flesh and strength by virtue of its ows nutritious properties, but creates an appetite for food. Use it and try your Scott's Emulsion is perfectly Sold by all Druggists, at 50c.

An English syndicate has purchased twenty-three out of the twenty-nine flour mills of Utah and will attempt to control the entire wheat crop of that Territory.

With his thumb, a boy is said to have saved the Netherlands from inundation. vasion of disease by a bottle of Ayer's Sar-She faced him boldly, but her heart sank saparilla. This medicine imparts tone to the I don't see why I should sit all alone, he system and strengthens every organ and

Lady Somerset, mother of Lady Henry 'Then I'll come in here too; hanged if I Somerset, now in New York, has just andon't. A fellow doesn't often get such a following closely on the heels of Lady Edith lovely girl as you to talk to. I, ll come in.' Curzon, who turned Roman Catholic a month

Provide yourself with a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and so have the means at hand for contending successfully with a sudden cold, As an emergency medicine, it has no equal and leading physicians everywhere recommend it.

GENERAL BUSINESS.

for Infants and Children.

I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me." H. A. AECHER, M. D.,

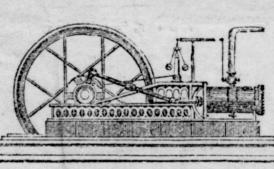

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that | Castoria cures Colic, Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrheea, Eructation, Kills Worms, gives sleep, and promotes di-111 Sc. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y. Without injurious medication. THE CENTAUR COMPANY, 77 Murray Street, N. Y.

Miramichi Foundry

MACHINE

CHATHAM, MIRAMICHI, N. B.

Malleabl Iron, Steam and WateroPipe Tees, Elbows, Reducers. Union and other Couplings Globe and Check Valves, STEAMSHIPS! TUGS, YACHIS, T. LAUNCHES BARGES, Etc., uilt and Repared.

General Iron and Brass Founders, Mill and Steamboat Builders.

Manufacturers of Steam Engines and Boiles, Gang and Rotary Saw Mills, Gang Edgers, Shingle and Lath Machines, and Well-Boring Machines for Horse and steam power. POND'S WISCONSIN PATENT ROTARY SAW CARRIAGE A SPECIALITY.

ESTIMATES FURNISHED CORRESPONDENCE SOLICITED WM MUIRIEAD Proprietor,

Miramichi Advance.

Beginning with the issue of November 6th, 1890, when the ADVANCE

Seventeenth Year of Publication!

The publisher made an important change in the terms on which the paper isfurnished to Subscribers. These include

1st. Strict adherence to the system of cash in advance for all subscriptions.

2nd. The reduction of the price of the paper to

One Dollar a Year

It is to be particularly understood that all outstanding subscription accounts due after November 6th, 1890, are to be settled on the old terms, viz., $2 per year, the advertised credit rate.

I have made special arrangements with the

-AND THE

of Montreal by which I will furnish either of those papers and the 'ADVANCE"

TOGETHER AT

One Dollar and Sixty Cents a Year or two reasons.

The first is because many patrons who have been given credit, northeast corner of building lot number two for two reasons have abused the privilege to such an extent as to make on said plan, thence south seventy-five dethe business of publishing the paper a non-paying one, and it is necessary, in my own interest and that of those who do pay, that I should no erly side of said Johnstone Street and thence longer continue to furnish the ADJANCE to those non-paying subscribers. The second reason is, that I wish to meet the competition of the city weeklies, which are made up from the type of the dailies and, therefore, cost little for production in comparison with a local paper like the ADVANCE, the type of which must be set up especially Having published the ADVANCE for sixteen years, and endeavored to make it a creditable representative of Miramichi and North Shore enterprise-a paper which may be taken into any household without fear that it has catered to sensationalism at the sacrifice of that cleanliness of matter, which is too often neglected by the press of the day-I have reason to hope the foregoing announcement will meet with thirty minutes west thirty-seven feet or general approval and be the means of largely increasing the circulation

D. G. SMITH, PUBLISHER.

Chatham Foundry

CHATHAM

and influence of the paper.

7.45 a. m .... Chatham Junction .... 5.32 p. m.

Iron and Brass Castings a specialty-for Mills, Steamboats, Railways, etc. Stoves, Iron Railings, Plough and general Agricultural Castings, Babbit Metal, etc. Machinery Made and Repaired with quick despatch.

Orders promptly attended to at reasonable prices and fair Terms. T. F. GILLESPIE. Proprietor.

CANADA EASTERN RAILWAY.

1891-1892. ON and AFTER THURSDAY, DEC. 17th, until further notice, Connecting with I. C. R. Trains. Between Chatham and Fredericton. GOING NORTH. FOR CHATHAM. NO 9 EXPRESS. (read up) 7.20 a m...... Chatham .....ar, 6.00 p. m.

Arrive Chatham Junc.,

8 55 a. m...... Blockville ......4.25 p. m. Arrive Chatham, 10 30 a. m...... Doaktown .......3.05 p. m. 11.20 a. ni...... Boiestown ....... 2 00 p. m. GOING SOUTH. 12.40 p. m...... Cross Creek....... 12.40 p. m. No. 3 EXPRESS. 2.05 p. m...... Marysville .......11.17 a. m. ar 2.20 p. m... Fredericton ......11.00 a. m. The trains between Chatham and Fredericton will also stop wnen signalled at the following flag Station—Nelson, Oerby Siding, Upper Nelson Boom, Chelmstord, Grey Rapids, Upper Blackville, Blissfield, McNamee's, Ludlow, Astle Crossing, Clearwater, Portage Road, Forbes' Siding, Upper Cross Creek, Covered Bridge, Zionville, Durham, Nashwaak, Manzer's Siding, Penniac.

Passengers with through tickets to points on the I. C. R. can go in to Chatham and return to meet next Trains on I. C. R.run through to destinations on Saturday nights Trains on I. C. R. run through to destinations on Saturday nights.

The above Table is made up on Eastern standard time.

All the local Trains stop at Nelson Station, both going and returning, if signaled.

CONNECTIONS are made at Chatham Junction with the I. C. RAILWAY

C. P. RAILWAY for Montreal and all points in the upper previnces and with the N. B. RAILWAY for St John and all points West, and at Gibson for Woodstock, Houlton, Grand Falls, Edmundston and Pressure Isla and at Cross Creek with Stage for Staplay. and Presque Isle, and at Cross Creek with Stage for Stanley.

All freight for transportation over this road, if above Fourth (4th) Class, will be taken delivery of at the Union Wharf, Chatham, and forwarded free of Truckage or other charge.

Special attention given to Shipment of Fish.

J. B. SNOWBALL, Manager.

Zegal Aotices.

To be sold at Public Auction, on Thursday, the 17th day of December, next, in front of the Post Office, Chatham, between the hours of 12 o'clock noon and 5 o'clock p. m. All the right, title and interest of Henry A. Muirhead, in and to the following lands "All and singular that piece or parcel of land situate, lying and being in the Parish of Chatham, aforesaid, and known as part of the "Blink Bonnie" property, formerly owned and occupied by the late George H. Russell, deceased, which piece thereof is abutted and bounded as follows, to wit:—Com-mencing on the west side of Brunswick Street or the Great Road leading from Chatham to Richibucto at the south-easterly angle of the piece of land sold by Thomas G. Russell to John Pallen, thence southerly along the westerly side of the said Great Road or Brunswick Street five hundred and seventy-two feet to the north-easterly angle of the piece of land sold by Thomas G. Russell to James Kerr, thence westerly along the northerly side of the land so sold to the said James Kerr to the easterly side line of the lands so sold to the said James Kerr to the easterly side line of lands formerly owned by the heirs of the late Patrick Henderson, deceased, thence northerly on a line parallel with the westerly side of the said Great Road and along the easterly side of the said Henderson Street five hundred and seventy-two feet or to the south-westerly angle of the said piece of land so sold by the said Thomas G. Russell to the said John Pallen, thence on a line at right angles with the said Great Road or Brunswick Street and along the said John Pallen's southerly side line to the westerly side of the said Great Road or Brunswick Street being the place of beginning, containing four acres more or less and was conveyed to John Ellis by the said Thomas G. Russell by Indenture bearing date the twentieth day of January, A. D. 1876, and by the said John Ellis to the said Henry A. Muirhead by deed bearing date the 28th day of April, A. D. 1876, as by reference thereto will more fully ap-

Muirhead by John Ellis, at the south-easterly angle of pasture lot number nine, formerly owned by Isaac Matheson, thence southerly along the westerly side line of said lands so the maintain Telephone lines throughout the Counties of Northumberland, Kent, Gloucester and Restiguence in this Province, and to transmit by telephone messages from any point or points within the along the westerly side line of said lands so conveyed to the said Henry A. Muirhead by the said John Ellis and a continnation of such line seventy-one rods or to a proposed road to be laid out across the land formerly owned by the late Patrick Henderson, deceased, thence westerly along the northerly side of such intended cross-road eighteen rods and two feet or to the easterly side of a road fifty feet wide laid out along said Henderson lands from Wellington road to such intended cross-road and known as Henderson intended cross-road and known as Henderson lands of which is now actually subscribed. Street, thence northerly along the easterly side of said Henderson Street sixty-eight rods or to the southwest angle of lot number nine so formerly owned by the said Isaac Matheson, thence easterly along the southerly side line of said pasture lot number nine eighteen rods or to the place of beginning, comprehending pasture lots numbers eight, seven, six. five, four, three, two and one and containing by estimation seven acres and seventenths of an acre more or less, and was contenths of an acre more or less, and was contenths of an acre more or less, and was contenths of an acre more or less, and was contenths of an acre more or less, and was contenths of an acre more or less, and was contenths of an acre more or less, and was contenths of an acre more or less, and was contenths of an acre more or less, and was contenths of a creation acres and, Electrician; Jabez B. Snowball, of Chatham aforesaid, Merchant; Francis E. Winslow, of Chatham aforesaid, Merchant; Francis E. Winslow, of Chatham aforesaid, Banker; and Scott Fairley, of Blackville, in the County of Northumberland, Lumber Merchant And the said Jabez B. Snowball, are to be the first or Protenths of an acre more or less, and was conveyed to William Muirhead by Thomas G. Russell by Indenture bearing date the twenty-third day of June, A. D. 1873 and by the said William Muirhead to the said Henry A. Muirhead by Indenture bearing date the seventeenth day of December, A. D. 1878, as by reference thereto will more fully appear. SHERIFF'S SALE. Also, all that other certain piece of land situate, lying and being in the Parish of Chatham, aforesaid, and abutted and bound- 1 ed as follows: On the westerly side of the Great Road leading from Chatham to Richibucto in the Parish of Chatham, aforesaid, being part of the Blink Bonnie property, formerly owned by the late George H Russell, deceased, and is abutted and bounded as follows, to wit: commencing on the notherly side line of lands owned by James Kerr, at the distance of one hundred and six feet ten inches, from the westerly side of the said Richibucto Road, thence westerly on a continuation of such line, eighty feet, thence northerly on a line at right angles with the said line, twelve feet, thence easterly on a line parallel with deceased, and is abutted and as follows, to wit: comfeet, thence easterly on a line parallel with said line eighty feet, thence southerly on a line at right angles with the first mentioned line twelve feet, or to the place of beginning, being part of the lands and premises conveyed to the said James Kerr by Thomas G. Russell by Indenture bearing date the eighth day of January, A. D. 1876 and by the said

James Kerr to the said Henry A. Muirhead

by deed bearing date the twenty-seventh lay of April, A. D. 1876, as by reference thereto will more fully appear. Also, all and singular that certain lot or parcel of land and premises situate, lying and being in Chatham, aforesaid, and described as follows, to wit :- Commencing at the south side of a street thirty feet wide laid out through the said property on the plan thereof made by Timothy Crocker, Esquire, Deputy Surveyor, at its intersection with Johnston Street, thence north seventy-five degrees east or along the south side of said street as laid out as aforesaid, ninety feet or to the northwest corner of building lot number eight on the plan of the I have made the foregoing changes in the business of the ADVANCE | said property, thence south sixteen degrees grees west ninety feet or along the northerly north sixteen degrees west fifty feet, or along the easterly side of said Johnstone Street to the south side of said Street so laid out as aforesaid, and being the place of be-

Also, all that other piece or parcel of land being part of said Johnstone property described as follows, to wit :- Commencing on the south side of said street so laid out as aforesaid, at the northeast corner of building lot number eight on the said plan, thence south sixteen degrees east, along the easterly side line of said lot number eight fifty feet, thence north seventy-five degrees east to the west side of what was formerly a tannery, thence north seventeen degrees along the west side of the said tannery or to the northwest corner thereof, thence north seventy-two degrees thirty minutes east or along the north side of said tannery twentyeight feet to the westerly side line of property formerly owned by Mrs. Jane Townley, thence north twenty-seven degrees west or along the last mentioned line to the south side of the said street so laid out as aforesaid and thence south seventy-five degrees west forty-six feet or along the south side of said street to the northeast corner of said lot No. 8, being the place of beginning, which said two pieces of land last above described are known on said plan as building lots numbers two and seven, respectively, and were conveyed by Lemuel J. Tweedie, Esquire, to the said Henry A. Muirhead by Indenture bearing date the twentieth day of October, A. D. 1874, together with all the houses, outhouses, barns, buildings, fences, improvements, privileges and appurtenances to the said several pieces or parce's of lands and premises, belonging or in anywise appertain.

Also, all other the lands and tenements. ereditaments and premises of the said Henry A. Muirhead, whatsoever and where. soever situate in the County of Northumberland; The same having been seized by me under and by virtue of several executions issued out of the Supreme and County Courts against the said Henry A. Muirhead. Sheriff's Office, Newcastle, this 31st day of August, A. D. 1891. JOHN SHIRREFF.

The above Sale is postponed to Thursday, the 28th day of January, next, then to take place in front of the Post Office, Chatham. between the hours of 12 noon and five o'clock p. m., as above named.
Dated Newcastle, this 17th day December, A. D., 1891. JOHN SHIRREFF.

Oranges, Lemons and Grapes and a large assortment of CONFECTIONERY PURE GOLD FLAVOURING EX-TRACTS AND SPICES A SPECIALITY,

----ALSO-----Raisins and Currants, Citron and Lemon Peel, ---AND A NICE LINE OF-

Cups and Saucers and Mugs, All of which I will sell at REDUCED PRICES

ALEX. McKINNON.

General Business.

NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given, that application will be made by the applicants hereinafter named, to His Honor the Lieutenant Governor in Council, for a grant of Letters Patent under the provisions of "The New Brunswick Joint Stock Companies' Letters Patent Act" and Acts in amendment thereof, incorporating the applicants, and such other persons as may hereafter become shareholders in the proposed Company. A body corporate and politic, under the Company, a body corporate and politic, under the name and for the purposes hereinafter mentioned.

(1) The proposed corporate name of the Company is "THE CHATHAM ELECTRIC LIGHT COMPANY." (2) The objects for which incorporation is sought are—to enable the proposed Company to acquire by purchase, lease or otherwise, and to use and employ machinery, apparatus and instruments and rights relating thereto, or any patents of invention of or af fecting the same, or any improvements thereof, for the production and distribution of Electricity for the purposes of light in the Town of Chatham and the places adjacent thereto, and to erect and maintain necessary works in connection therewith, and to acquire and hold sufficient real estate for the purpose, with such other privileges as are incident to the attainment of the objects and purposes above

(3) The office or chief place of business of the Company is to be located at the Town of Chatham, in the County of Northumberland. (4) The amount of the capital stock of the Company is to be Twenty thousand dollars, Two thousand dollars and upwards of which is now actually (5) The said capital stock is to be divided into two hundred shares of one hundred dollars each.

(6) The following are the names, addresses and callings of the applicants:—

MacDougall Snowball, of Chatham, in the County of Northumberland, Electrician;

Jabez B. Snowball, of Chatham aforesaid, Mer-James D. B. F. Mackenzie, of Chatham aforesaid, Druggist; William B. Snowball, of Chatham aforesaid, Ac countant; and George E Fisher. of Chatham aforesaid, Account ant.

And the said MacDougall Snowball, Jabez B. Snowball and James D. B. F. Mackenzie are to be the first or Provisional Directors of the said Company. Dated this 18th day of November, 1891. J. H. BARRY, Solicitor for Applicants.

NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given, that application will be made by the applicants hereinafter named, for His Honor the Lieutenant Governor in Council for a Grant of Letters Patent under the provisions of "The New Brunswick Joint Stock Companies' Letters Patent Act," and Acts in amendment thereof, incorporating the applicants and such other persons as may hereafter become shareholders in the proposed Company, a body corporate and politic under the name and for the purposes hereinafter mentioned Also, all that other piece or parcel of land situate, lying and being in Chatham, aforesaid, and abutted and bounded as follows, to and for the purposes hereinafter mentioned.

(1) The proposed corporate name of the Company is—"The Miramichi Telephone Company."

(2) The objects for which incorporation is sought.

(5) The said capital stock is to be divided into one hundred shares of one hundred dollars each.
(6) The following are the names, addresses and callings of the applicants:—

James D. B. F. MacKenzie, af Chatham, in the County of Northumberland, Druggist; MacDougall
Snowball, of Chatham aforesaid, Electrician; Jabez visional Directors of the said Company, Dated this 18th day of November, A. D. 1891. J. H. BARRY, Solicitor for Applicants.

To be sold at Public Auction on Thursday the 3rd day of March, next, in front of the Post Office, in Chatham, tetween the hours of 12 noon, and 5 o'clock p. m.

All the right, title and interest of Malcolm Taylor in and to all those several pieces or parcels of land in the County of Nothumberland and Province of New Brunswick, abuted and bounded as follows,

Also, all that other piece or parcel of land situate lying and being in the said Parish of Hardwick, in the County and Province aforesaid, bounded on the upper or westerly side by land owned and occupied by John G. Williston and on the lower side by land owned by Williston and on the lower side by land owned by William W. Williston, and being in straight lines from the Highway Road, back (or southerly) to the base land, and being the lands conveyed to the said Malcolm Taylor by James Taylor, or intended so to be, by Deed dated the 20th day of March, A. D. 1886, being the lands and premises on which the said Malcolm Taylor lately resided.

The same having been seized by me under and by

The same having been seized by me under and by virtue of an Execution issued out of Northumberland County Court at the suit of Robert Taylor against the said Malcolm Taylor. Sheriff's Office, Newcastle, this 16th November, JOHN SHIRREFF, Residence to Rent.

The two-storey dwelling and premises with barn &c. situated on St John Street, lately occupied by Miss Perley, is offered to rent. Possession given immediately. Apply to D. G. Smith, Chatham, or MRS. SARAH DESMOND.

The Dwelling House and premises! situate on St John Street, in the Town of Chatham, near the R. C. Chapel, at present occupied by H. S. Miller, Esq. For terms and further particulars, apply to L. J. TWEEDIE, Barrister-at-Law, Chatham Dated at Chatham, 24th March, 1891,

TO LET.

The dwelling house and premises owned by Thomas F. Keary, Esq., situate on St. John street and now occupied by Mr. Richard Stothart. Possession given 1st November next. For particulars apply to L. J. TWEEDIE. Barrister-at-Law. Chatham, 30th August, 18913

LONDON HOUSE. Wholesale and Retail.

In store, the following reliable Brands of Flour "Daily Bread" and "Empress."

Pork, Plate Beef, Dry Codfish. I am selling off balance of Dry Goods and Fancy articles away below cost. SOMETHING NEW LESSIVE PHENIX (the greatest Washing Powder yet discovered.) Putz Liquid Pomade Polish, (for metals.) FARINOSE IN 61b. BAGS @ 25c.

H. MARQUIS,

R. HOCKEN.

TINSMITH Galvanized and Sheet Iron Worker.

-DEALER IN-Kitchen Utensils and Furnishings. New work and repairing of all kinds in the tinward line done with neatness and despatch. Shop next door to Canada House, Water Street Chatham, N. B.

TO FARMERS For sale a quantity of pure ground bones, fresh from the Chatham Bone Mill. To be sold cheap to encourage farming. Apply to,

J. B. SNOWBALL.

Kotels.

EARLE'S

Cor. Canal & Centre Streets, NEAR BROADWAY,

NEW YORK: The best Hotel in the lower part of the City tor Tourists, Professional and Business Men, Commercial Travellers.

Agents, Etc., Substantial in appointments, centrally located and most economical in

PRICES

This Hotel has been Newly and Hand somely Furnished and Decorated, Contains a Grand Exchange, Passenger Elevator, Railroad and Steamboat Ticket, Telegraph Office and Billiard Room

The House can be reached by Horse Cars Stages and Elevated Railroad, and s convenient ly located and accessible to places of amusement ly located and accessible to places of amusement and business, including Coney Island, Rockaway Manhattan and Brighton Beach, Central Park, High Bridge, Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklin Bridge, Starin's Glen Island, Bartholdi Statue, "Liberty Enlightening the World," etc. We have first-class accommodation for 400 guests, and our building being four stories high, and with numerous stairways, is considered the safest Hote a the city in case of fire. a the city in case of fire.

Branch Office, SEYMOUR, BAKER & CO, mem bers N. Y. Stock and Produce Exchanges, and Chicago Board of Trade. Stocks, Bonds, Grain, Provisions and Petroleum, bought and sold for Cash on margins
DIRECT WIRE TO CHICAGO.

Sanitary and Fire Arrangements Perfect. Location the Most Healthy in the City. Ferdinand P. Earle.

Owner & Proprietor EARLE'S NEW PALATIAL HOTEL

Normandie. The BROADWAY & 38TH STREET.

Furopean Plan; Restaurant Unsurpassed. Esterbrook, Inspector of Buildings, says, "Every room is a place of security for its occupant, as the house is ABSOLUTELY FIRE-PROOF", Steam heat, speaking tubes, electric bells, fire and burgiar alarms attached to all rooms. FERDINAND P. EARLE. Resident Proprietor.

ADAMS HOUSE

ADJOINING BANK OF MONTREAL WELLINGTON ST. - - CHATHAM, N. B. This Hotel has been entirely Refurnished throughout and every possible arrangement is made to ensure the Comfort of Guests Sample

GOOD STABLING, &c. THOMAS FLANAGAN.

TEAMS will be in attendance on the arrivals of all trains.

Near Railway Station, Campbellton, N. B. formerly the Union Hotel, kept by Mrs. Grogan Comfortable accommodation for permanent and transient guests. Commercial Travellers will also be provided with

Daniel Desmond,

GOOD STABLING on the premises.

Sample Rooms.

Canada House. Corner Water and St. John Streets. CHATHAM.

LARGEST HOTEL IN CHATHAM. Every attention paid to THE COMFORT OF GUESTS Located in the business centre of the town. Stabling and Stable Attendance first rate.

WM. JOHNSTON.

PIANOS.

The Subscriber having taken the Agency of the Emerson Piane, the best and cheapest in the States, and show Catalogue Prices and a sample instrument to any requiring one.

A. W: S, SMYTHE. J. N. Gardner & Co.

Fresh Fish, Lobsters, Country Produce &c. NO. 16 T WHARF,

K. F. Burns & Co., Bathurst, N. B. The Dwelling House and premises situate on Upper Water Street, in the Town of Chatham, at present occupied by F. R. Morrison, Esq.

Joseph Read & Co., Stonehaven, . B. MACKENZIE'S

FRESH THIS WEEK: K. D. C. BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS. SCOTT'S AND ESTEY'S EMULSION. PLEASANT WORM SYRUP,

SHILO'S CONSUMPTION CURE, WILD CHERRY COUGH SYRUP

(WARRANTED.) FRESH DULCE.

Chatham, N. B., Nov. 22nd 1891. DON'T MISS IT.

A new and attractive publication containing many useful, interesting and instructive features has just been issued by T. Milburn & Co., of Toronto, under the title of the Burdock Blood Bitters Almanac for 1891. It is now in the hands of druggists and merchants for free distribution and we would advise our readers to secure a copy before the north is exhausted.

As I have now on hand a larger and better assortment of goods than ever before, comprisin Japanned, Stamped AND Plain Tinware would' invite those about to purchase, to call and inspect be fore buying elsewhere, as I am ucw elling below former prices for cash. The Peerless Creamer the lining of which can be taken out for cleaning thereby doing away with the removing of pipe or oven as is the trouble with other stoves.

ROCHESTER LAMP, The Success OIL STOVE --- Also a nice selection st-Parlor and Cooking Stoves with PATENT TELESCOPIC OVEN