LITTLE BRANCH AND TABINATAC BRIDGES.—Tenders are advertised for in another column for repairs to Little Branch Bridge, Black River, and Tabinatac Bridge.

THE WM. MURHEAD RESIDENCE.—Mr. D. T. Johnstone has purchased from the Merchants' Bank of Halifax the Wm. Murhead property known as "Sunshine."

FOR REPAIRS.—Mr. Matthew Russell's steamer "Bastler" is now making regular trips every Tuesday and Friday between Chatham and Redbank, and intermediate points.

THE BARNBY RIVER DRIVE, which has the logs of Messrs. John O'Brien, John Maloney, Toos, Gill and others in it, has reached the boom on the Southwest Miramichi.

OVERCOAT.—An overcoat was lost out of a wagon, either in Chatham or on the road to Napan on Wednesday last week, the finder of which will confer a favor on the owner—Mr. Jas. W. Dickson—by leaving it at the Advance office.

BOOK-BINDING.—Persons having magazines, or other periodicals to bind, old books to be rebound, or any similar work, can have their orders attended to at the Advance office, where information as to styles, prices, etc., may be obtained.

PERSONAL.—S. J. King, Esq., Post Office Inspector for New Brunswick, is in Newcastle on Saturday on official business.

Jas. Reynolds, Esq., a retired merchant and one of the foremost citizens of St. John was in Chatham on Tuesday, en route to Bathurst, where he is to enjoy the sea-trout fishing at Nespiguit tide-head.

Inland Revenue Inspector Burke, of St. John was in town on official business on Tuesday.

A NEW DEPARTURE.—Attention is directed to the advertisement of the new cash store to be opened on 4th June by Messrs. Loggie & Co. It will, no doubt, be especially attractive to the ladies, on account of the department exclusively devoted to them and in charge of a competent young lady, while all the usual departments will have full and varied stocks. The strictly cash system will enable the firm to sell at low prices, as they will aim to dispose of large quantities of goods at small profits.

THE "GARRETT" CASE.—Last Friday's Sun says, under head of equity court proceedings at St. John:—"Ex parte Jemima McKay, the habeas corpus order was returnable yesterday. A. I. Truman appeared for the prisoner and L. A. Curry pleaded cause against the order. An affidavit was read to show that the woman was generally known as Mrs. Garrett, by which name she was committed. Mr. Truman applied for further time to produce affidavits on this point. His honor said that unless there was some other ground than the name of the person convicted he would not grant the discharge. The matter stands until Tuesday next."

Big Hole, Northwest, Fishing Privileges.

The lease of the fishing privilege at the Big Hole, Northwest Miramichi, off the Quigley lands, was disposed of by action by Mr. J. R. Lawlor in front of the Waverley Hotel, Newcastle on Saturday last for $125 a year, for five years, the purchaser being Mr. John McKean, who was acting for a local syndicate.

A Day's Pleasure at Blackville.

One of the most flourishing Divisions of the old and reliable order, the Sons of Temperance, is that at Blackville, and its members have determined to afford their friends in other places an opportunity to join with them in a first-class picnic on Thursday, 16th June. The arrangements are in the hands of an efficient committee, and all who go may rely on finding every facility for their enjoyment. There will be a baseball match, running and sack races and dancing, a good string band being engaged to furnish music for the latter.

A Napan Complaint.

A Napan correspondent, who says he does not wish to mention any names, complains of suspicious movements on the part of certain residents of that locality who, although they have excellent gasperaux fishing near their own property, do considerable fishing in the night time with gasperaux as well as old salmon nets, using the latter without license in prohibited waters, and in such a manner as not only to interfere with regular licensed fishermen, but also making sales of salmon in town, wholesale and retail, which lead to a suspicion that they sometimes—owing, no doubt, to the darkness—take salmon from other people's good and licensed nets, instead of their own old and unlicensed ones.

If the facts are as represented the guilty parties should be exposed and punished, for no honest community ought to tolerate people who thus prey upon their law-abiding and industrious neighbors.

A Night of Fun.

Messrs. Griffin & Wilson's attraction at the Masonic Hall this week will prove a draw. Everyone knows the Musical Comedy "Peck's Bad Boy and his Pa," a dramatization of the famous "Bad Boy" sketches of George W. Peck, editor of the Milwaukee Sun. The entertainment is in three acts or scenes—the grocery store, the bad boy's home and the picnic grounds. The many characters are the bad boy, his chum, his girl, his pet, the policeman, the servant girl, the doctor, the old soldier. The show irresistibly funny; the company presenting it is said to be qualified in every way to give excellent performances.

Great Sport at Nespiguit.

Sea-trout fishing was reported as having just begun at Nespiguit on Tuesday. It will last for a fortnight or three weeks. It is the most sport on the North Shore for the sport. Mr. Keary of the Keary House has erected a structure for the accommodation of fishermen on his grounds beside the river at head of tide and across himself, to go into the water with all his old time enthusiasm. Among the many now there are Messrs. Jas. Burke, Inland Revenue Inspector for the Province, and Jas. Reynolds, Esq., of St. John, President and Treasurer of the Relief and Aid Society of that city. As the trout are running up until the fishery is practically exhausted until the schools have all passed.

The Sunday Schools.

The Provincial Sunday-school secretary, Rev. A. Lucas, will visit the Sabbath-schools in a number of the parishes of this County during the period between June 4th and 21st, conferring with the workers and organizing schools where needed.

He is to return to the County again August 5th and remain until 14th to complete his tour, and attend the County S. S. Convention on Aug. 11th.

Mr. Lucas' June engagements in the County are as follows:—

- Lower Napan, 11 a. m. Upper Napan, 2.30 p. m. Point aux Car. 7 a. m. Little Branch. 8 a. m. Black River. 10 a. m. Nelson. 12 Derby, 3 p. m. Chalmersford, 7 p. m. Indian Point. 14 Blackville. 15 New Salem. 16 Point aux Car. 17 Bojastown. 18 21 North and South Esk.

Concert.

Quite an attractive concert was given in Masonic Hall, Newcastle, last Thursday evening under the direction of Mr. S. W. Farnham. There were solo duets, and a quartet by leading singers, including Mr. John Miller, Miss Francis Elliot, Miss Jardine, Mr. Farnham, Mr. McCurdy, Miss Jardine and Bertha Elliot and chorus singing by Messrs. J. M. Farnham's Newcastle and Douglastown classes. Mr. Farnham made some explanations in reference to the non-appearance of the 73rd band, which had assisted him in former concerts, and the Advocate says they were "anything but creditable to the band." It is an unpleasant thing, no doubt, to have misunderstandings of this kind, but there are, of course, two sides to all stories. From the other side's story it may be said that Mr. Farnham ought not to attack the band. It helped him with his first concert without charge, while he failed to keep his engagements with it in connection with his second concert. Then, without engaging it for the purpose, he directed it to appear at Newcastle and because it did not, on account of his failing to make satisfactory arrangements, after having ample time to do so, he appears to have placed it in a false position before the Newcastle audience of last Thursday night. From some things of which we are assured, it seems ungrateful on Mr. Farnham's part to say unkind things about the 73rd band.

District Lodge I. O. G. T.

For some time past efforts have been made by prominent members of the order in this county to organize a District Lodge, and on Friday last delegates from the various lodges in the county met at Chatham and organized with the following officers:— D. C. Robert Sweeney, Good Hope Lodge No. 254, Lower Napan. D. Conn.—Phineas Gunn, Good Hope Lodge No. 254, Lower Napan. D. V. T.—Mrs. James McKnight, Ever Onward Lodge No. 256, Newcastle. D. Secy.—W. R. Gould, J. P., Chatham Lodge No. 150. At the same time and place Mr. Geo. Staples offered the right on the opposite side of the river from the Indian reserve lands, and there was lively competition. The upset price was sixty dollars, but several gentlemen entered the lists and it finally went to Mr. George Brown at $150 a year for five years. Mr. Brown was acting for Mr. D. R. C. Brown of Aspen, Colorado, who is the owner of a lot formerly sold out of the Indian reserve block, and which fronts on a part of the Big Hole pools.

If the facts are as represented the guilty parties should be exposed and punished, for no honest community ought to tolerate people who thus prey upon their law-abiding and industrious neighbors.

The story told to us suggests the idea that if it is true, it ought not to be difficult for either the fishery officers to detect and punish the alleged violators of law, or the licensed fishermen, whose nets are alleged to be robbed, to catch the poachers when they are in the act of mistaking other people's fish for their own and we are glad to learn that there is a prospect of efforts being made in this direction.
