New Brunswickers abroad-and pecially Frederictonians-have reason feel humiliated over the attitude and ut terances of some of our public men and newspapers. The York county opposi tion members led by Mr. Pitts and the Gleaner and Reporter-the two Frederic newspapers which support those gentlemen and are professing to express ethics. The statements which those papers are inspired to put into the mouths of Premier Blair and other public men of repute are scandalously untruthful, and couched in language quite in keeping with the standards of such sheets, but far below what any cultured New Brunswicker would wish to see attributed to our public leaders. Contradiction in most cases would only serve the purpos of those who set these political slander afloat, for it would involve the idea of self-respecting men descending to or near the level of those of whom Mr. Pitts is so willing and characteristic a spokesman
