

NEW BUSINESS NOTICE.

The "MIRAMICHI ADVANCE" is published at Chatham, N. B., every Thursday morning in time for despatch by the earliest mails.

MIRAMICHI ADVANCE

VOL. 19. CHATHAM, NEW BRUNSWICK NOVEMBER 24, 1892.

D. G. SMITH, EDITOR & PROPRIETOR. TERMS—$1.00 a Year, in Advance.

GENERAL BUSINESS.

Tenders!

We tender the citizens of New Brunswick the most valuable and certain ROAD TO HEALTH.

There never was so valuable a combination as ALE, BEEF AND PEPSINE, and hundreds are daily receiving benefit from.

ALE AND BEEF PEPTONIZED. THE GREAT FOOD TONIC!

PRICE 25 CENTS. FOR SALE BY ALL DRUGGISTS.

Laundry Manoleate A SOAP POWDER.

Cleanliness—Health—Safety. PRICE 25 CENTS A TIN.

A GREAT CRISIS IN BUSINESS.

PRICES AND COMPETITION ALL BROKEN UP.

$57,000 WORTH OF FALL & WINTER DRY GOODS TO BE SACRIFICED.

J. D. CREAGHAN, CHATHAM & NEWCASTLE.

Is showing his importations for this fall and Winter. 176 cases and bales of high class merchandise purchased.

AT SPOT CASH DISCOUNTS,

direct from the makers' hands, comprising Ladies' perfect fitting Coats, Dolmans, Sacques and Ulsters, Corsets, Hosiery, Gloves, Furs, Mitts, and Caps, Perrin's Suado and Laced Kid Gloves, every pair guaranteed, Men's, Youths', Boys' and Children's Clothing, Underwear and Furnishings, Ladies' Dress Material and Suitings.

Storekeepers, Lumber Merchants and Travelers supplied at Lowest Wholesale Prices and best terms. Housekeepers and the shopping public can get household goods at astonishingly low prices. I respectfully solicit the keenest comparison of goods & prices.

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL.

J. D. CREAGHAN, NEWCASTLE & CHATHAM.

Established 1866.

Dunlap Bros. & Co., AMHERST, N. S.

Dunlap, McKim & Downs, WALLACE, N. S.

DUNLAP, COOKE & CO., AMHERST, N. S.

This firm carries one of the finest selections of Cloths including all the different makes suitable for fine trade. Our cutters and staff of workmen employed are the best obtainable, and the clothing from this establishment has a superior tone and finish. All inspection of the samples will convince you that the prices are right.

WINTER STOCK! COMPLETE IN ALL DEPARTMENTS.

Full lines of Dry Goods, Groceries, Boots and Shoes, Hosiery, Dress Goods, Haberdashery, Carpets, Hats, Caps, etc., etc.

W. T. HARRIS

Boys and Men's Overcoats, Reefers, Men's Suits

AT COST TO MAKE ROOM FOR SPRING GOODS.

FOR SALE.

HARDWARE.

Wholesale & Retail.

J. B. SNOWBALL, CHATHAM.

General Business.

Z. TINGLEY, HAIRDRESSER, ETC., HAS REMOVED

SHAVING PARLOR

Water Street, Chatham.

He will also keep a first-class stock of Cigars, Tobaccos, Pipes, and Smokers' Goods generally.

NEW GOODS.

Upper and East End Stores.

ROGER FLANAGAN.

Wrought Iron Pipe

FITTINGS.

GLOBE AND CHECK VALVES.

BABBIT METAL.

RUBBER PACKING.

Cotton Waste, Etc. Etc.

J. M. RUDDOCK.

WOOD-GOODS.

FOR SALE

Laths, Pailings, Box-Shooks, Barrel Heading, Matched Flooring, Matched Sheathing, Dimensioned Lumber, Sawn Spruce Shingles.

THOS. W. FLETT, NELSON.

ATTENTION!

Great Reduction in prices of Dry Goods & Groceries LOWER THAN EVER.

at F. W. RUSSELL'S

For Sale or To Let.

DERAVIN & CO. COMMISSION MERCHANTS.

ST. KILTS, W. I. Cable Address: Deravin.

LEON DERAVIN, Consular Agent for Franco.

W. T. HARRIS

BOYS AND MEN'S OVERCOATS, REEFERS

MEN'S SUITS

AT COST

TO MAKE ROOM FOR SPRING GOODS.

FOR SALE.

Scientific American Agency for

PATENTS

CAVEATS, TRADE MARKS, DESIGN PATENTS, COPYRIGHTS, ETC.

Scientific American

For information and free Handbooks write to MUNN & CO., 312 Broadway, New York.

Every patent taken and every application made for you by us in the most efficient manner and at the lowest cost.

Our office is in the City Building, New York, N. Y.

For information and free Handbooks write to MUNN & CO., 312 Broadway, New York.

Every patent taken and every application made for you by us in the most efficient manner and at the lowest cost.

Our office is in the City Building, New York, N. Y.

For information and free Handbooks write to MUNN & CO., 312 Broadway, New York.

Every patent taken and every application made for you by us in the most efficient manner and at the lowest cost.

Our office is in the City Building, New York, N. Y.

For information and free Handbooks write to MUNN & CO., 312 Broadway, New York.

Every patent taken and every application made for you by us in the most efficient manner and at the lowest cost.

Our office is in the City Building, New York, N. Y.

For information and free Handbooks write to MUNN & CO., 312 Broadway, New York.

Every patent taken and every application made for you by us in the most efficient manner and at the lowest cost.

Our office is in the City Building, New York, N. Y.

For information and free Handbooks write to MUNN & CO., 312 Broadway, New York.

Miramichi Advance.

CHATHAM, N. B., NOVEMBER 24, 1892.

TWO SCOTCH STORIES

WHICH POURTRAY AS MANY NATIONAL CHARACTERISTICS.

Two Adventurers From the Land of the Heather Who Discovered in Each Other Schoolmates Although They Were in Opposing Foreign Services.

It has been said that "the Scotch" though undoubtedly patriotic, are abroad "Sir Walter Scott's Scotchmen" thoroughly well, and one of his best characters, the soldier of fortune, Duval Delagety, he often declared was not a creation of his own imagination.

There is no government under the sun in which Scotchmen have not taken service, and no money making business in which they are not to be found near the top of the ladder.

This was well illustrated during the late war between Turkey and Russia in the Balkans.

After Plevna the Russian marshal Keith and the Turkish general, Ross Pasha, met to negotiate the preliminaries that led up to peace.

These two soldiers, dressed in splendid uniforms and surrounded by gorgeous staff officers, met in a ruined castle that had been temporarily fitted up for their use.

They communicated by means of interpreters, and with the cunning and persistency of able men each tried to gain an advantage over the other.

At length the object of the meeting was accomplished, and the Turks and Russians sat down to dinner together, the Scotchman as if he had not been recently seeking each other's lives.

After dinner Marshal Keith and Ross Pasha their clerks and attendants away from the hearing of their staffs, after they had gone some distance, they sat down side by side on a dismantled cannon in the Russian camp.

"I am a Turk and a big game one, too," responded Ross, "so long as I am in the service of his majesty, the Sultan, I will be a Turk, and I will defend the Prophet's faith as my religion." But I'll confess that my heart yearns to be back in the old home by the sea.

"Did you ever hear of that place, man?"

"Kirkaldy?" repeated the Russian. "Yes; that's the place."

"I am a Turk and a big game one, too," responded Ross, "so long as I am in the service of his majesty, the Sultan, I will be a Turk, and I will defend the Prophet's faith as my religion." But I'll confess that my heart yearns to be back in the old home by the sea.

"Did you ever hear of that place, man?"

"Kirkaldy?" repeated the Russian. "Yes; that's the place."

"I am a Turk and a big game one, too," responded Ross, "so long as I am in the service of his majesty, the Sultan, I will be a Turk, and I will defend the Prophet's faith as my religion." But I'll confess that my heart yearns to be back in the old home by the sea.

"Did you ever hear of that place, man?"

"Kirkaldy?" repeated the Russian. "Yes; that's the place."

"I am a Turk and a big game one, too," responded Ross, "so long as I am in the service of his majesty, the Sultan, I will be a Turk, and I will defend the Prophet's faith as my religion." But I'll confess that my heart yearns to be back in the old home by the sea.

"Did you ever hear of that place, man?"

"Kirkaldy?" repeated the Russian. "Yes; that's the place."

"I am a Turk and a big game one, too," responded Ross, "so long as I am in the service of his majesty, the Sultan, I will be a Turk, and I will defend the Prophet's faith as my religion." But I'll confess that my heart yearns to be back in the old home by the sea.

"Did you ever hear of that place, man?"

"Kirkaldy?" repeated the Russian. "Yes; that's the place."

"I am a Turk and a big game one, too," responded Ross, "so long as I am in the service of his majesty, the Sultan, I will be a Turk, and I will defend the Prophet's faith as my religion." But I'll confess that my heart yearns to be back in the old home by the sea.

"Did you ever hear of that place, man?"

"Kirkaldy?" repeated the Russian. "Yes; that's the place."

"I am a Turk and a big game one, too," responded Ross, "so long as I am in the service of his majesty, the Sultan, I will be a Turk, and I will defend the Prophet's faith as my religion." But I'll confess that my heart yearns to be back in the old home by the sea.

"Did you ever hear of that place, man?"

"Kirkaldy?" repeated the Russian. "Yes; that's the place."

"I am a Turk and a big game one, too," responded Ross, "so long as I am in the service of his majesty, the Sultan, I will be a Turk, and I will defend the Prophet's faith as my religion." But I'll confess that my heart yearns to be back in the old home by the sea.

"Did you ever hear of that place, man?"

"Kirkaldy?" repeated the Russian. "Yes; that's the place."

"I am a Turk and a big game one, too," responded Ross, "so long as I am in the service of his majesty, the Sultan, I will be a Turk, and I will defend the Prophet's faith as my religion." But I'll confess that my heart yearns to be back in the old home by the sea.

"Did you ever hear of that place, man?"

"Kirkaldy?" repeated the Russian. "Yes; that's the place."

"I am a Turk and a big game one, too," responded Ross, "so long as I am in the service of his majesty, the Sultan, I will be a Turk, and I will defend the Prophet's faith as my religion." But I'll confess that my heart yearns to be back in the old home by the sea.

"Did you ever hear of that place, man?"

"Kirkaldy?" repeated the Russian. "Yes; that's the place."

"I am a Turk and a big game one, too," responded Ross, "so long as I am in the service of his majesty, the Sultan, I will be a Turk, and I will defend the Prophet's faith as my religion." But I'll confess that my heart yearns to be back in the old home by the sea.

"Did you ever hear of that place, man?"

"Kirkaldy?" repeated the Russian. "Yes; that's the place."

"I am a Turk and a big game one, too," responded Ross, "so long as I am in the service of his majesty, the Sultan, I will be a Turk, and I will defend the Prophet's faith as my religion." But I'll confess that my heart yearns to be back in the old home by the sea.

"Did you ever hear of that place, man?"

"Kirkaldy?" repeated the Russian. "Yes; that's the place."

"I am a Turk and a big game one, too," responded Ross, "so long as I am in the service of his majesty, the Sultan, I will be a Turk, and I will defend the Prophet's faith as my religion." But I'll confess that my heart yearns to be back in the old home by the sea.

"Did you ever hear of that place, man?"

"Kirkaldy?" repeated the Russian. "Yes; that's the place."

"I am a Turk and a big game one, too," responded Ross, "so long as I am in the service of his majesty, the Sultan, I will be a Turk, and I will defend the Prophet's faith as my religion." But I'll confess that my heart yearns to be back in the old home by the sea.

General Business.

THE RUSSIAN FACE BATH.

It is a foolish idea to think that one can get rid of wrinkles by filling them with face powder or even by emulating the white face. It is a much better practice to use the Russian face bath every night for the face is to bathe in it such hot water that it makes one jump every time it is applied, and then a minute later to soak it in cold water.

The reaction which this causes in the blood will make it glow and tinge with warmth. It should be rubbed dry with a towel before retiring. Day by day the skin will grow finer, and the wrinkles will gradually disappear. The use of cold water for the face is very important in many ways. Hard, cold water will not remove the grease and dirt which settled in the pores of the skin, but washed in hot water, dirt, and then cold, the dirt will be removed and the skin strengthened. Dirt, grit and grease will settle in the skin when the face is only washed in hard cold water and soap, and this alone in time injures the color and softens it. One should wash the face in hard water anyway, if a hot complexion is desired. The water should be softened with a little borax or a few drops of ammonia. When the face is very hot it should not be bathed; wait until it cools a little. In travelling where one knows nothing about the water, it is better not to bathe the face. If necessary, add a little alcohol, and then rub with a little vaseline. In this way a coat of water may be obtained and retained that is as pure as any lovely woman.—New York Commercial.

A Mother Who Attained Fame.

Sometimes fame is gained after a family has been brought up by a mother. This was the case with Mrs. Elizabeth Fry, the prison reformer. She was the mother of twelve children, and it was not until she was advanced in years that she was known for her domestic duties for her public efforts. Her diaries in her earlier years show that she was full of doubts whether she was "doing her duty" or not. She was completely absorbed in her family, but she was full of the patience of the Quaker till these private doubts became less. Until she was about thirty years of age she entered on efforts for the public good "a temptation to come before I am called."—London Tit-Bits.

Curious Marriage Statistics.

A German statistician has recently published the results of his investigation of the relative ages of husbands and wives in the various capitals of Europe.

He ascertained that marriages are the most frequent where the husband is two or three years older than the wife. Women under 20 years of age, however, usually take unto themselves husbands six or eight years younger than themselves. The cases in which the man was a year younger than the woman were almost as numerous as those of which he was six years older.

This is the first time that the number of married couples and the latter condition of 6.4 per cent. The cases where the husband was six or eight years younger than the wife were also just as numerous as those where he was thirteen or fourteen years older. Only two cases were discovered where the husband was thirty-five years the senior; one case where he was forty-seven years older, and one case where he was older by forty-six years.

One case was discovered where the wife was thirty-four years older than the husband. Twelve and a half per cent. of all men who marry women under 20 years of age, according to the statistician, are between 26 and 27 years old.—Boston Courier.

SPIKE-TAILED COATS, PING HATS AND BAGGY TROUSERS MUST GO.

"I think the ancients exercised vastly more judgment in the matter of wearing apparel than do the moderns," said Thomas B. Lindsay at the Southern.

The former was graceful, comfortable, picturesque; the latter is the reverse of all these things. He realizes how incongruous and inartistic the modern male costume is because we have become accustomed to it. A high silk hat, spiked tail coat, baggy trousers constitute our ideal of faultless attire, yet it is sufficient to give an artist an attack of the nerves. Sculptors avoid it when they would the painter of a single line of Almighty and destitute of a single line of beauty. We are continually lecturing the ladies on the subject of dress, yet they have preserved some of the beauties and comforts of ancient costumes, while we have sacrificed them all and are as proud of it as an Indian squaw who has traded her beautiful and second-hand pair of soldier pants. Even the extravagances of the male costume during the middle ages were infinitely preferable to the modern male costume. We will probably never return to the toga of the Romans or the gauzy colors of the crusaders, but the baggy trousers, the spiked tail coat and the "ping" cannot last forever. Some genius will yet lead us out of the wilderness of absurdities into which we have fallen."—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Correct Style in Walking.

There is just as much a set style in gait as there is in gowning. If you belong to the fashionable younger set, and the Philadelphia Times says that unless this is done, you will not be counted as one of the elite. It is a pretty, graceful style this year and one that makes a girl look not only self-possessed, but walks through a room, but lets her feet so also, which is a great thing. It is not the walk of ceremony for evening receptions or dinner parties, but it is especially adapted for strolls on the board walk or a march of triumph through the great corridors of the summer hotel when she wants to display either her gown or her escort. It is not a swagger or a glide, but a sort of half and half picture of graceful and dignified walking. It is altogether charming. The principal feature of it, however, is the way she carries her hands. One, the left usually, is placed on her hip, the fingers spread so that if she has any rings they will show to rare advantage, so you may be sure they will be that of especial member, and the other either loosely, or in her side or carries a pretty wrap or a light summer shawl. A sort of abstracted gaze is likewise the correct accompaniment of the summer air of world ownership. The hands, the trailing skirts and the general air of world ownership, one finds a wonderful amount of beauty in the walk which is practiced by every girl who desires to be recognized as knowing the correct thing to do.

Two Useful Things.

There are two things that I never travel a day's journey without: One is my toothbrush, which I need after every meal, for I don't want to go into the next world toothless, much less through this. I want my good, strong, white, even teeth, which cost me years of infant agony and led to innumerable ailments. The other is a half lemon for soap. That is, I just swap my face and hands with it before retiring, and it wipes off every freckle and keeps my skin as clear

General Business.

As wax. Some people like freckles. I don't. I tried face massage and lotions, but the freckles never budged. Now I have a good one, and it's all owing to the potency of a lemon.—Detroit Free Press.

The Whisk as a Dishwasher.

The woman who can find any way of making dishwashing, if not a pleasant task, at least not a disagreeable one than it is now, should be canonized by her grateful sisters. One woman who has spent much time in experiment in this branch of household labor makes the following suggestion:

Nothing is better for cleaning greasy dishes, especially cooking pans and kettles, than an old whisk broom. It removes the tenacious particles that have fastened in the kettles and spiders much better than a knife or an iron discloth. It is invaluable for cleaning graters. To keep the hand from getting hard and chapped after dishwashing rub them with cedar vinegar. Clear lemon juice is also excellent.

A Parisian Touch.

The distinguishing mark of a real Parisian toilet is a touch of black, deftly added. A favorite method of its arrangement with slight women is to make a belt with loops of ribbon hanging about the waist, which gives a pleasing fullness to the slight figure and is suggestive of Venetian slashings.

A Good Summer Drink.

Talking about tea, it may not be generally known that it is one of the best drinks for hot weather, either hot or iced. It should be drunk without either cream or sugar, but with a slice of lemon in it.

Can You Have this Hat Charged to Me?

Travers—Can you have this hat charged to me? Hatter—All our business is done on a cash basis, sir. Travers—Then lend me five dollars.—Clothier and Furnisher.

They Never Mature.

The Rural New Yorker asserts, as the result of careful observation, that the colorless corn plants one frequently sees in a field recently planted never mature. It says these white plants die as soon as the stalks from which they spring are exhausted. They have no power to assimilate nutriment.

For Cuts, Burns, Sores or Wounds, Victoria Carbolic Salve is the best soothing ointment.

General News and Notes

Iron, on human or animal, cured in 30 minutes by Woodford's Sanitary Lotion. Warranted by J. Palen & Son.

A Tooth-brush—A dog fight.

A Wonderful Flesh Producer.

This is the first time that the number of married couples and the latter condition of 6.4 per cent. The cases where the husband was six or eight years younger than the wife were also just as numerous as those where he was thirteen or fourteen years older. Only two cases were discovered where the husband was thirty-five years the senior; one case where he was forty-seven years older, and one case where he was older by forty-six years.

One case was discovered where the wife was thirty-four years older than the husband. Twelve and a half per cent. of all men who marry women under 20 years of age, according to the statistician, are between 26 and 27 years old.—Boston Courier.

SPIKE-TAILED COATS, PING HATS AND BAGGY TROUSERS MUST GO.

"I think the ancients exercised vastly more judgment in the matter of wearing apparel than do the moderns," said Thomas B. Lindsay at the Southern.

The former was graceful, comfortable, picturesque; the latter is the reverse of all these things. He realizes how incongruous and inartistic the modern male costume is because we have become accustomed to it. A high silk hat, spiked tail coat, baggy trousers constitute our ideal of faultless attire, yet it is sufficient to give an artist an attack of the nerves. Sculptors avoid it when they would the painter of a single line of Almighty and destitute of a single line of beauty. We are continually lecturing the ladies on the subject of dress, yet they have preserved some of the beauties and comforts of ancient costumes, while we have sacrificed them all and are as proud of it as an Indian squaw who has traded her beautiful and second-hand pair of soldier pants. Even the extravagances of the male costume during the middle ages were infinitely preferable to the modern male costume. We will probably never return to the toga of the Romans or the gauzy colors of the crusaders, but the baggy trousers, the spiked tail coat and the "ping" cannot last forever. Some genius will yet lead us out of the wilderness of absurdities into which we have fallen."—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Correct Style in Walking.

There is just as much a set style in gait as there is in gowning. If you belong to the fashionable younger set, and the Philadelphia Times says that unless this is done, you will not be counted as one of the elite. It is a pretty, graceful style this year and one that makes a girl look not only self-possessed, but walks through a room, but lets her feet so also, which is a great thing. It is not the walk of ceremony for evening receptions or dinner parties, but it is especially adapted for strolls on the board walk or a march of triumph through the great corridors of the summer hotel when she wants to display either her gown or her escort. It is not a swagger or a glide, but a sort of half and half picture of graceful and dignified walking. It is altogether charming. The principal feature of it, however, is the way she carries her hands. One, the left usually, is placed on her hip, the fingers spread so that if she has any rings they will show to rare advantage, so you may be sure they will be that of especial member, and the other either loosely, or in her side or carries a pretty wrap or a light summer shawl. A sort of abstracted gaze is likewise the correct accompaniment of the summer air of world ownership. The hands, the trailing skirts and the general air of world ownership, one finds a wonderful amount of beauty in the walk which is practiced by every girl who desires to be recognized as knowing the correct thing to do.

Two Useful Things.

There are two things that I never travel a day's journey without: One is my toothbrush, which I need after every meal, for I don't want to go into the next world toothless, much less through this. I want my good, strong, white, even teeth, which cost me years of infant agony and led to innumerable ailments. The other is a half lemon for soap. That is, I just swap my face and hands with it before retiring, and it wipes off every freckle and keeps my skin as clear

The Cure For

Scrofula was once supposed to be the touch of royalty. To-day, many grateful people know that the "sovereign remedy" is Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This powerful alternative expels the "evil" by thoroughly eliminating all the impurities from the blood. Consumption, catarrhs, and various other physical as well as mental maladies, have their origin in

SCROFULA

When hereditary, this disease manifests itself in childhood by glandular swellings, running sores, swollen joints, and general feebleness of body. Administer Ayer's Sarsaparilla on appearance of the first symptoms. My little girl was troubled with a painful, scrofulous swelling under one of her arms. The physician being unable to effect a cure, I gave her one bottle