MIRAMICHI ADVANCE CHATHAM, NEW BRUNSWICK, OCTOBER 26, 1893.

Miramichi and the North Shore etc.,

LUMBER BOOMING :-- This week's 'Gazette' we are informed will contain an application of the Muskoka mill and Lumber Company for about 225 sq. miles of land in Restigouche.

THE UNVEILING of the Sir John A. Macdonald memorial statue by Sir John Thompson, will take place at Hamilton on Wed. nesday, 1st Nov. next. Several of our politicians have received invitations to be present

HAWKER'S NERVE AND STOMACH TONIC is a perfect blood and flesh builder, and nerve and brain invigorator, as well as a valuable aid to digestion. Price 50 Cents a bottle, 6 bottles $2.50. For sale by all druggists and dealers. If you are weak and run down try this great health restorer.

PPOINTED INDIAN AGENT :-- Wm. Carter, of Richibucto, has received notice of his appointment as Indian Agent and Superintendent for the North-eastern portion of New Brunswick, vice Mr. Charles Sargeant, The district includes the deceased. counties of Restigouche, Gloucester, Northumberland. Kent and Westmorland.

WAREHOUSE:-The Maritime Sulphite Fibre Co., Lt'd, are building an im mense warehouse upon their property, rendered necessary from the increased outof their mill. This enterprising comany employs a large number of men and contributes very largely to the commercial activity of the community.

DREDGE ST. LAWRENCE .- The dredge St. Lawrence, Capt. Thompson, has completed her season's work on the Horseshoe bar, and proceeded to Newcastle on Saturday. She left Tuesday for Pictou and from there proceeds to Yarmouth. The May last she fell down stairs, fracturing her Captain reports the season a breezy one thigh, and has been helpless ever since. for dredging.

AND RECITAL :- We direct CONCERT attention to the advertisement of the concert and recital to be given in the Masonic Hall on Thursday evening next by Sweezey elocutionist, assisted by Mr. Wetmore of Moncton and leading local talent. Those who are desirous of spending a pleasant and profitable evening should endeavour to be present.

and wont allow any insane architect to get This added to the $200 now in the funds ahead of him.

PERSONAL:- Mr. L. A. Miles representing No person present hinted at any other way Messrs T. B. Barker & Sons wholesale of suppressing the traffic but by a party. druggists of St. John is in town. Conventions are to be held in all the Mr. A. S. Fallis of the Goold Bicycle counties at once and candidates nominated $29.

$575.

Woodburn Farm:-Geo. Fisher, $3350.

Lot of land in front of Woodburn :-

Chatham:-Geo. Stothart, $195.

Isaac Jackson, $145.

Reinsborough. $50-

Johnstone.

McKinley, $290.

morning at 10 o'clock.

N. B. S. S. Association.

The tenth annual Convention of the N.

Sunday School Association, held at St.

Stephen last week appears to have been the most successful, whether as regards number in attendance, the character of the work done, or the interest manifested, ever held by the association. The report of Field

The Ballast Case.

Gordon, $46.

$28.55.

$21.00.

Co. Lt'd is at the Adams House with a sample of the 1894, 24lb light road Bicycle. Mr. Fallis has already placed several of these machines in Chatham through Mr. J. D. B. F. MacKenzie the agent for the

Mr. E. L. Whittaker, Asst. Post Office Inspector of St. John was in town Sunday and Monday. He came to attend the funeral of the late John Sadler.

His Lordship the Bishop of Fredericton arrived on the Canada Eastern on Saturday afternoon. He administered the Rite of Confirmation to a large number of condidates at St. Mary's on Sunday morning and preached an eloquent sermon to a large congregation in the evening.

Monday he went to Bay du Vin. During his stay here he was the guest of Rev. Canon Forsyth at the Rectory. M. J. McN. Shaw auditor of the Canada Eastern arrived in town on Tuesday. His many friends were delighted to see him so fully recovered from his recent accident.

He is accompanied by Mrs. Shaw. Rev. Geo. Steel of St. Luke's attended the joint meeting of the members of the Maritime Conference at Sackville last week. DIED WORTH A MILLION :-- Mrs. Charity Moore, of Fredericton Junction, who, a few years ago, inherited an Irish estate running well up to a million, died on Wednesday at the residence of her son at Fredericton, whither the family had moved after their sudden elevation from humble life. Mrs. Moore always refused to change her mode of living, saying that she was too old to enjoy putting on style. In

The deceased was a native of Londonderry, Ireland, and was 82 years of age. She came to New Brunswick with her husband. the late Edward Moore, when a young S. J. Parson, with the largely gratifying married woman. They settled in Burton, results which had followed. The Treasurer's he will do as he is a public spirited citizen and $200 was subscribed by the delegates. Toronto, widow of the late Robert Moffat, alert, thinking that the vessel could not Would our taxes be more or less? gave $400. All the afternoon session was Frank, residing in United States. taken up arranging the work of organization. The remains were interred in St. Andrew's her after she came around the bar, guided thought should be carefully considered by Nov. 21st.

churchyard on Monday afternoon and were of people and sincere mourners. The Rev. Joseph McCoy M. A. conducted the funeral service.

Real Estate Sale. The Street and Cunard estates were sold by public auction yesterday at Newcastle and Chatham, as follows :-

The Shore privilege:-John Thompson, On Monday evening last in response to personal invitations issued by the Epworth The Murphy farm:-Alex. Watling League of St. Luke's Church, a large number of Methedists and their friends The warehouse and wharf privilege, met in the pleasant school rooms of that Cunard Lot, Bay du Viu :- Chas.

church to enjoy an At Home.

the rooms and the cordial welcome with the lots were sold for $1400 to John Keys, to J. Miller, and Jas Parkes. which the guests were received, attested The Sugary Lots:-Three lots were sold the high reputation already achieved by for $350 to James Brown and Thomas this popular body of young methodists. After singing as an opening hymn, The Semiwagan Meadow Lot :-- Wm. 'All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name,' Lot No. 59. Bartibogue: - Andrew and repeating the Lord's prayer in content, the appearance of a large family

ture on Woodburn Farm will be sold this

Chorus-Mariners' Song-Choir. Solo-The Blue Sea-Mrs. Harris. Solo-Time and Tide-Mrs. Watters: Address-Rev. Mr. Steel. Solo-In Romany Land-Miss Troy. Piano Solo-Miss Carter. Quartette-Send Them Angels Down-

Secretary Lucas showed the large amount Reading-Mr. J. L. Stewart. of work that had been accomplished by Piano Solo-Miss Troy. himself and the Chairman of the Executive, Solo-Twilight-Mrs. McLoon. Recitation-Mr. S. E. Harris. Miss Carter and Miss Haviland very skilfully performed their duties as accompanists. The whole performance was so highly commendable that it seems invidious to the presence and assistance of so able and comment especially on any parts, but eloquent a Sunday School advocate as B. the male quartette deserve special Jacobs added materially to the interest and mention for their excellent rendering of grounds for complaint, and they knew it. The following were elected office bearer selection which they gave as an 'encore. for the current year :- President, Rev. G. O. Mr. S. E. Harris' recitation was given in Gates. St. John: Corresponding Secretary. his usual inimitable style and was enthusi-Miss C. S. Lucas, Sussex; Field Secretary, astically received by the audience with Rev. A. Lucas, Sussex; Recording Secretary, whom Mr. Harris is evidently a great Geo. C. Hatt. Fredericton; Treasurer, H. A. favorite.

saw her when she parted her cables, met followed to the grave by a large concourse On Tuesday, morning, Oct. 3, we made an discuss them at this time and agreed with

The pall-beare's were John C. Millar Esq we sighted a large barque outside the bar, Millerton. Messrs. Robert Ritchie and James Mitchell Newcastle. Messrs. Daniel Ferguson, Daniel Crimmen and L. J. Tweedie proved to be the Norwegian barque "To for that purpose. Incorporation would adinside the Swashway channel.

the Capt. of the "Sophia B.," we would | tion in the town. have been outside the bar and had a pilot bably was actuated by two impulses; first, needed, as every man could get beautiful his chances were good to strike the old water by boring for it at his own door. He vessel on the bar as she was leaking very would object to a water tax. People would badly, put the blame on the pilots and make however still probably continue to erect an insuarance job of it: and secondly, he crooked buildings rather than straight ones he would save half pilotage. The latter he authorities in the land. He would like to mentioned as soon as the pilot went on hear the workingmen speak. He rememoerboard, but being foiled in that he now flies ed that when he was a boy and used to to the Commissioners for redress. Those attend public meetings such as this two or men ask for a return to the old system of three men gave their opinion and what they opposition. Do they know why the present said was law. Now things had changed system exists do-day? Perhaps I could and every man had the right to express his masters, in a great many cases, Norwegians especially, would not allow us on board their vessels out around the Magdalen Islands, claiming that they did not require the reluctance of some of the promoters of the services of a pilot, until they got to Escuminac. Why, sir, I have even spoken views. Mr. Snowball's name was first on British vessels inside the north point of Prince Edward Island, that refused my forward and show how incorporation would services on those grounds. These are facts, Mr. Editor, which I am prepared to prove.

And now, before I close, one word with but would they not be paid out in salaries? that poor old apology for a captain, Little, Senator Snowball was pleased at the large of the barque Hiawatha, a very appropriate name indeed, little good; little harm. He is prepared on an investigation to afford evischeme but in common with the other dence to substantiate the matter of commerchants of the town he had signed a plaint, viz., that he, like the other two was requisition for the meeting. He took a warm inside the bar, before getting his pilot on interest in all that related to the affairs of the board. This, sir, is a direct falsehood, for town and was always pleased to do anything

I, myself put the pilot on board his ship, as that would promote its general good. He soon as it was practicable to do, where she would like to hear the supporters of this lay to her anchor northeast by north from scheme, -- those who have taken an active Escuminac Point. Capt. Little should read interest in advocating it. express their the story of Ananias and Sapphira and gov- opinions. If it can be shown that we will arn himself accordingly. But why did not from incorporation derive a general good he

If Loggie, R. A. Lawlor, L. J. Tweedie, John New Advertisements. M. P., for Restigouche and a brother, weather the gale where she was lying. We more would there be corresponding benefits? Coleman and Nicholas Cunningham. These were the questions which he The meeting adjourned until Tuesday, CONCERT

PORT OF CHATHAM.

Intered from Sea.

her into safety and put a pilot on board. every ratepayer. He was not prepared to MARRIED. attempt to get out, but the sea was breaking previous speakers in thinking that they At the gresidence of the brides mother, on Saturday 14th Oct, by Rev. Joseph McCoy, M, A, Mr. James McLeod of Chatham, to Miss Alice, daughter so heavily on the bar that we were obliged should not be decided at a meeting like to turn back. At noon, the wind having this. If it were decided to incorporate the of Mrs. James Dickson, of Napan. moderated and the fog cleared somewhat, town the bill should be a permissive one to come into force only when adopted by a Shipping Meus. and soon after another at the bar, which vote of the ratepayers at an election held Brodre"-Capt. O'sen-which we boarded vance the educational interests of the town. and render the school system more effective Oct. 21-Bk Indentre, 520, Perley, Bristol, J B Now, sir, had Capt. Olsen hauled his by consolidating the three districts into one. Snowball, bal vessels head off shore for one hour, as did This would bring about uniformity of taxa loggie, gen cargo A good system of sewerage would be bene nowball, coal on board his ship. But Capt. Olsen prc. ficial, but a water supply was not so much 23-Sch St Patrick, 11, White, Alberton maste-23--Sch Janet A. 23, Handraken, New London master, oats 23-Sch St 24 S h Minnie Scott, 24, Kennedy, Samm rside, master produce thought that once he was inside the bar as such seemed to be favored by the highest 25 -Sch Marion H. Snowball, fish. 25-Sch Sea Loggie, fish 25-Sch Minnie Long, 20, Long, Richibucto, master

> Cleared for Sea Oct 19-Bk Minnie haha, 1043, McLaughlin, Barrow, Neale, lumber 21 SS Hampshire, 1593, Wier, Liverpool, Neale,

23-Bk Roska, 604, Hanson, Ary, Mckay, lumber, enlighten them. Simply because ship- views and discuss any public question. Cleared Coastwise. Col. McCulley said he had not come to Qct 20 -Sloop Beaver, 23 Dignard Dulhausia, A & speak He did not mean to say he was against Logg e, gen cargo. 20-Sch Finn, 10, Gallant Mimingash, master, incorporation but he was surprised at the gen cargo,

20-Sch Jennie May, 19, McGrath, Tignish, master umber 20-Sch Leigh J, 34, McLean. Charlottetown, W S change to come forward and express their Log jie. lumb 20-Sch Telephone, 70, Stone, Richibato, J the list, and he was the proper man to come Snowball, bal

23 - Sch Caughnawaga, 15, Duguay, Tracadie, mister, gen cargo. PORT OF NEWCASTLE. benefit the town. There would be some Entered from Sea receipts, which now go to the municipality Oct 24 Sch Sower, 124, Melanson, New York, R R Call, hard coal Eutered Coastwise.

Oct 19 -Sch Kohonoor, 77, Cameron, Pictou, R R Call. coul. gathering to consider so important a question Cleared for Sea He was not one of the promoters of the Oct 18-Bk Otac Niko, Bielokrich, Cardiff W McKay, 1 21-Bk Asia, Iverson, PenarthRoads, W M McKay, umber.

Cleared Coastwise_____ Oct 13. Sch Life Boat, Blompied Picton, E Hutchison, lumber.

PORT OF CARAQU .T.

AUCTION

store, Water St,, at auction; sale to commence of Saturday, October 14.

and will continue until all the goods are disposed of. Don't fail to attend the sale, as losing that business for the winter and Blue; Flannellets, Grey Cotton, White and Grey Blankets, Hats, Caps

Homespun in White and Grey.

I have just received a large supply of

RECEIVED.

Thursday Evg, Nov. 2 Entered Coast vise. Oct 20-Sloop Beaver, 23, Dignard, Tignish, A & Mr. Wetmore who has just returned from the 21-Sch Bessie S Keefer, 79, Horton, Sydney, J B Boston Conservatory of Music, where he wan golden honors, marvelous range and power. 23-Sch Caughnawaga, 14, Duguay, Tracadie. The programme has been arranged to suit all tastes and will conciu le with the laughable

Buctouche, J B

Achi, Shippegan,

farce by Sims, ENTITLED, 'ROOM 44.' Gillis, Tignish, mister,

Mr. A B.

THE LEADING

Ad mission, 25. Reserved Seats, 35.

AND

assisted by

MR. J. H. WETMORE,

MISS EDITA TROY, MRS. H. PALLEN, MISS. GERTR"DE

CARTER, AND MR. PORTEOUS.

will give a concert in Musonic Hall, Chatham for sale at Mackenzie's.

RECITAL

Sweezey, elocutionist

PROVINCIAL TENOR.

Final Positive and Unreserved.

I will sell at public Auction at the store of W. B. Howard. Commercial House, Cha ham, commend ing at 7.30, on MONDAY EV'C, 30 OCT., '93,

The balance of the stock of dry goods, etc., etc.,

COMPRISING

Ready made clothinz, Hats, Caps, Collars, Ties, Feathers, Ribons, Flowers, Braids Trimmings, Buttons, Satins, Velvets, Silks, Yarns, Wools, Clouds, Gloves, Shawls, Comforters, Cloth juckets, Jounterpanes, Room paper, Stoves, Clock, Glass fixings, Show cases, Venitian blinds, Double windows Stan is, Tables, &c., &c. Motto trames, Fringes, Embroideries, Cords, Threads, Ned Iles, Hurpins, Crochet hooks, Jewelery, Smill wirs, Fancy goods, 1 Lays fire proof sife, I smill portible do.

ot of sundries

TERMS :-- All sums under $20 cash, $20 and up to 300, three months, over $30 six months credit on approved joint notes.

WM. WYSE, Auctioneer. Chatham, N. B., October 24th 1803.

Messrs. Nicol, Chesman, W. T. Harris and Fisher.

Chorus-Dashing on before the Gale-

The tasteful, home-like appearance of Ned's Island Lots :- Three fourths cert, the audience assumed, to some ex-Lot on Richibucto road:--Geo. Wat

Ward McDonald Lot:-Geo. Watt, enjoying their annual reunior.

Cavanagh Lot:-James Blakely, $40. The crop, stock, &c., household furn

Piano solo-Miss Troy.

During the evening an abundance o delicacies was served and the following programme artistically rendered by the members and friends of the League :-

Reading-Mr. Mersereau

Piano solo-Miss Haviland.

PUBLIC MEETING:-A public meeting under the auspices of the Grand Division Sons of Temperance, will be held in the Temperance Hall, Chatham, on Friday evening the 27th inst. at 8 o'clock. It expected to be addressed by Sir S. Tilley, Major Armstrong, Rev. J. Shenton, G. W. P. elect, and other distinguished members of the order. Music by the combined choirs of the churches.

RESOLUTION OF CONDOLENCE:-Some issues ago we published the resolutions of condolence passed by the Chatham Branch of the C. M. B. A., upon the lamented death of one of their members-Mr. J. M. Knight. We have been shown a copy of the resolutions illuminated by the Sisters of the Hotel Dieu, in a most artistic manner. For beauty of design, coloring and artistic effect we have never seen its equal. It is beautiful memento and will, no doubt, be sacredly cherished by the family of the deceased. It can be seen for a few days in the window of Mackenzie's medical hall.

MAILS TEMPERED WITH :- Last Saturday kinds were provided and were the source it was discovered that two letters had gone astray-one posted at Joggins Mines for Sussex, N. B., containing $16; and one for Amherst, containing $60. The matter was and the enlivening selections on the reported to Inspector Macdonald and Wednesday morning, at an early hour, he dropped in on the post office, having gone round by the way of Sand River. He held an inin the inspector finding $55 of the money concealed under a barn. Proceedings were taken for the arrest of the mail courier.

GRAND DIVISION :- The Annual Sess ion of the Grand Division of the Sons of Temperance met yesterday evening at Newcastle there were present G. W, P. McKeown G. S. Major Armstrong, Sir S. L. Tilley, H. H. Pitts M. P. P. of Fredericton. Rev. J Shenton and other distinguished members of theorders were also in attendance. The usual reports by Grand Officers were presented and referred to appropriate committees. The Grand Division continues in session to day and will conclude with a public meeting this evening.

FIRE:-Between three and four o'clock people. They were to have returned last on Sunday afternoon an alarm of fire was Tuesday. Mrs. Keswick was absent at Bay report was of a like satisfactory character, Sunbury Co., and subsequently removed showing that the voluntary offerings from Fredericton Junction. She leaves two son. schools and individuals-and this is the Edward Moore of Fredericton. Robert only source of supply-had been sufficient Moore of Lowell, Mass., and three daughters: to meet all indebtedness, with the exception Mrs. Hubbard Niles of Gibson, Mrs. Joseph of a small debit balance of $27.13. Of course Moore, and Mrs. Geo. Fraser of Freder-

FREDERICTON. Oct. 20.-Robert Moore, son of the late Charity Moore of this city. success of the session. died at Lowell, Mass., this morning. Deceased had formerly been a resident of Gibon, in this county, and removed to Lowell some eight or ten years ago. He was 58 years old and leaves a widow and three daughters, one of whom is married in Lowell. The cause of his death was Brights' White, Sussex, Executive Committee:disease. The remains will be brought to S. J. Parsons of Woodstock, Rev. G. M. Fredericton Junction for burial and will probably arrive there on Monday. Rev. T. F. Fotheringham, Rev. J.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR:-The Christian Endeavor Society of St. Andrews Church observed its first Anniversary by a social reception on Tuesday evening, members of the society and friends, members of the Epworth League and other invited guests to the number of about one hundred eathered in St. Andrew's Hall and spent the action of the Department of Marine and a most enjoyable evening, The platform Fisheries in proceeding against Captain of the Hall was nicely decorated with Vidaseich of the bark "Fiume E." for injury flowers and plants. Table games of various to the fisheries in discharging ballast opposite the mouth of the Bartibogue.

of much amusement and merriment. The captain was summoned to appear for programme of music, reading &c., this alleged violation of the fishery law was carried out at intervals during the evening. before the police magistrate on Saturday har-L. J. Tweedie, an interpreter and witnesses monica and auto harp by Mr. P. C Johnson were much appreciated. Refreshinformed by the magistrate that the comments were served shortly after ten o'clock, and the company dispersed at vestigation into the matter, which resulted 11 o'clock. The programme carried out as no one appeared to prosecute he would give him a certificate of dismissal.

was as follows. -Doxology and Lord's prayer by all present. Address of welcome by the President, Miss Wright.

Chorus by the Choir. Solo by Miss Clara Loggie, "By the sad sea Waves. onrtship. Solo by Mrs S. McLoop. Reading by Mr. D. P. McLaughlan, Trying the Rose Act.' Sola by Mrs. Pallen.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY:-James Keswick came here from Minneapolis, Minn:, four or five weeks ago, for his wife and family. who have been visiting Mrs. Keswick's house of Mr. du Vin on Friday, and Mr. Keswick drank

The President read a letter from the Campbell, W. J. Parks, Rev. Geo. Bruce, Y. P. S. C. E. of St. Andrew's Church, extending to the Epworth League a very Clark and J. McA. Hutchings of St. Joh cordial invitation to an At Home in St. and John W. Spurden, Fredericton. Mr. D. Andrew's Hall on Tuesday evening, the MacLachlan was elected Vice President for 24th inst. and urged the members to show their appreclation of the Society's kind. uess by being well represented at their

At Home.

Smart Villages. THREE PROSPEROUS PLACES : BOIESTOWN

DOAKTOWN AND BLACKVILLE ON THE CAN ADA EASTERN.

marked degree of prosperity just now. At down on a lee shore in an easterly gale last. He was present with his counsel, Hon. Boiestown there is usually a bustle at this and archoring in the edge of the breakers however, there is no stir from this business | servant, plainant had concluded not to proceed, and as wages are down to $14 and $17 per month. The cut this winter on the Miramichi will not be more than half that of last This all right so far as it goes, but the captain year, and choppers are therefore not so has incurred large expense by reason of the much in demand as in other years. But in action of the Department. We understand | Boiestown there is much building going on that the expenses he incurred about the and many other improvements are being matter in cabling his owners, employing made. Mr. Wm. Richards is putting up a Reading by Rev. Jos, McCoy, Becky's counsel, paying an interpreter and obtaining handsome residence below the station on the attendance of witnesses were in the the other side of the road. The exterior i vicinity of forty or fifty dollars for which sum about complete, and now the Messrs. Winit is his intention, we believe, to apply ters of Fredericton are at work painting and to be reimbursed by the department. There decorating the interior. Mr. R. C. Mac-Solo by Miss Ida Edgar, "The Gamblers is a serious error somewhere. It was fully readie is doing the plumbing and fitting the explained to Mr. Harding, the agent of the heating apparatus. Mr. McMillan is also > behalf of the captain, before proceedings that of Mr. Richards. It is not so far adwere taken that in discharging ballast vanced as Mr. Richards', but it is being where he did the captain was acting under pushed along rapidly to completion.

> the authority of the Harbor master-and in In Doaktown there are about seven new face of that the above proceedings were buildings now in course of erection. Below taken. It is to be regretted that such the station and on the other side of the

the men hand in their complaint when they would support. If not he would oppose it. came into port? Why leave it until their He was sure the citizens were agreed on one departure? Simply because, they have no point and that was that our town needed something. Year after year large sums are "Send Them Angels Down" and the But now on the eve of their departure, they, collected in taxes and we are unable to lacking principle, have affixed their signa point to benefits commensurate with the ture to a fabrication of falsehoods, merely expenditure. He felt that had we a town to please a few dissatisfied cranks, that we council meeting once a week before whom we have among ourselves. Why, sir, I verily could appear and present our views it would believe that either one of those men would be far better than at present. He would sell their signatures to a falsehood, for a like to know what would be the increase in good reliable men. Men who would not sell ic motives.

> $4.00 move, just as quickly as Captain revenue? in taxation? If it were made to Ritchie of the "Steinvora" did. For my appear that benefits would accrue to the nart I am perfectly satisfied that the com- town corresponding to the increase in taxa missioners investigate this matter, and in tion there would be no reason for opposing the meantime I would suggest that they get the scheme but he would advise caution. a written statement of the weather during | He was inclined to favor incorporation, but those days, from Capt. Quaile of the wreck- he would like to be assured that the admin. ed barque "Gatineau." And Capt. Andrews istration of town affairs would be economical and Thomson of the barques, "Valona" and and that those who serve its interests were "Konoma" wrecked on Richibucto beachactuated and governed by lofty and patri .t.

their signatures to a falsehood for a dozen $4.00 moves, and with the statement of such feelings might be against incorporation, as a men as those, and the facts as herein laid citizen he was in favor of it as a step ahead down. I firmly believe that the commission-The villages of Boiestown, Doaktown and ers will justify us in acting as we did, and Chatham, with so shabby a front street, and Blackville, on the line of the Canada East- censure, the aforesaid, McLaughlan and ern Railway, appear to be enjoying a very Little for their fool hardiness in running. ments. Another grade, the XI, would be time of year. Men are there from all Now, Mr. Elitor, by publishing these few at the opening of the court, when he was directions hiring for the woods. This year, lines, yon will greatly oblige your obedient had incorporation that unfortunate government building, which would make the front street askew forever, would not have been placed as it is. Dr. Baxter said the question of expen-A very large number of our citizens rediture was one fer consideration hereafter. sponded to the call of the Town clerk, who

> WILLIAM WALLS, Pilot. Incorporation.

The town might do as Moncton had, or be called a meeting for Friday evening last at content with things as they are. New the Masonic Hall to consider the advis-Glasgow, about the size of Chatham, had ability of incorporating the town. Mr. Conasphalt sidewalks and good streets without nors, the clerk, called the meeting to order heavy taxation. Our porous soil has proand upon motion John Shirreff, Esq., high tected us from epidemics in the absence of sheriff of the Co., was called to the chair. sewers, but its porosity was an argument Mr. Shirreff explained the object of the against depending on our present water meeting and spoke of the importance of all supply. Every well drains an area of 80 to feeling and interest in the building up and 100 feet square, and many of them are withimprovement of the community in which they in 80 feet of nuisances.

ive: He was in favor of the principle of Mr. R. B. Adams favored incorporation. incorporation and believed that it would He thought sufficient had been said to show increase the value of property, and conduce that it was possible. It was a move in the to the happiness and prosperity of the right direction and did not necess rily imply of tender. citizens. He would like to have the details an increase in taxation. He called on the lowest or any tender. discussed. workingmen not to listen to the bugaboo of Mr. W. C. Winslow, on being called to taxation. All would cheerfully pay inthe platform, said he wished to hear some o creased taxes for necessary improvements. the promotors of the change address the The ratepayers would have affairs in their meeting, as they had studied the question own hands and the amount of taxation was and were, no doubt, prepared to give the insolely a question for their consideration. formation that was needed. The fire department was not as efficient as it should be. Mr. F. E. Winslow spoke forcibly and incorporation would be a benefit if it favor of the change. The poor man would resulted in an improved service. House pay but a few cents more if the taxes were owners had found, on renewing their policies increased, and what would benefit the town that they had had to pay increased rates. would benefit the workingmen. Whatever The Government tax was the excuse given of the community as a whole would be to for this, but the real reason was the inefficiency of the fire department. He be- the advantage of all classes of citizens. lieved the fire department could be better Mr. Wm. Kerr said he was not opposed administered under incorporation. A town to incorporation, but he would like to hear of the size and importance of Chatham such arguments adduced by those who should wake up to the duty of governing advocated it as would convince him that itself. All who were in favor of self-governsuch a measure did not mean a very large ment should be in favor of incorporation, increase in taxation. His experience was and he felt that the business of the town that men would not serve their town for

Entered Construise Oct 9-Sch Curlew, Brileau, 22, Shippegan, Wm Fruing & Co. bal-12-Sch Four Brothers, Albert 25 Newcastle, R. loung & sons, door frames

17-Sch John Bull, Holmes, 20, New Carlisle, C Robin Collas & Co, sundries, 23-Curlew, Brideau, 22, Shipperan, Wm Fruing t Co, ballast. Cleared Coastwise. Oct 17-Sch Curlew, Brideau, 22, Shippegan, Wm

Bargains May be Expected. Fruing & Co, dry fish 17-Sch John Bull, Holmes, 20, New Carlisle,C as my stock will be sold without reserve, as I intend Robin Coll is & Co. bal. THE STOCK CONSISTS OH PORT OF BUCTOUCHE.

Entered Coastwise. Boots, Shoes' Ready Made Clothing. Furniture, Tea, Oct 16 Sch Lochiel, 41, Pictou, S. S. Leger, cargo Tobacco, Oil, Molasses: 'Dress Goods in Merino. 17 - Sch Mary Carvell, 47, Picton, bal. Cashmere, Alpaca; All Wool Flannel, White 18-Sch Marion H, 23. Chatham, Herring. 18-Sch Comet, 63, Pictou, A. L. Conts, bal. 19-Sch Maggie II, 59, tal. 19-Sch Minnow. 35, Charlottetown, J. D. Irving

AND SEVERAL OTHER ARTICLES, SUCH AS Cleared Coastwise. Oct. 16 -Sch Lochiel, 41, Richibacto, J. D. Irving Stoves, Scales, Coal, Oil Tank, etc., too numerous 18-Sch Mary Carvell, 47, Charlottetown, P King, ROGER FLANAGAN

19-Sch Comet, 63, Qictou, A L Coats, bark. 19-Sch Maggie H, 59, Richibucto, J D Living, ba 19-Sch Minnow, 35, Richibucto. J D Irving bal. PORT OF TRACAD:E. Entered Coastwise.

Oct 17-Sch Dolly Dutton, 13, Daguay, Bay fishing, J & R Young, fishing gear. 20-Sch Lizzie D, 17. Sonier. Chatham, Jas David-

Pipes and Cigars

always on hand. Newcastle Drug Store,

E. LEE STREET.

Charlottetown, and at the Department of form supplied, and signed with the act ial signatures of tenderers

The Department does not bind itself to accept the

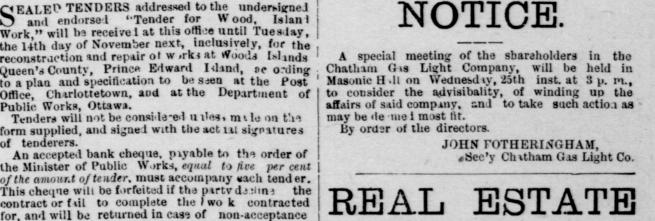

By order,

the Minister of Public Works, equal to five per cent

JUST

Marine Department, by Mr. Snowball on building a handsome residence just below

Northumberland County. In our last issue we gave particulars o

James Keaton, near Ritchie's Mill, and too much in one of the large number of is supposed to have caught in the attic saloons that flourish here in defiance of the from a spark from the flue. When discovered the attic was a mass of flames which in a short time broke through the roof and the building was on fire throughout to his sister-in law's, he was called by three the hose was laid and water by the time thrown on the fire, when it was soon drown-'Come here, Jim, one of the men called. He branch. ed out. The water came just in time to went to them and was instantly grabbed and save the adjoining house. Nothing was of the attic but the furniture hustled. He grappled with his assailants, was all carried out of the lower part of the house. The building was totally destroyed. home, had a sleep, missed his watch and It is insured .-- [Advocate.

WEDDING BELLS:- A very interesting event took place at the residence of Mrs. James Dickson, Napan, on Oct. 14, when her eldest daughter Alice, was united in marriage to James McLeod merchant of Chatham. The bride was attended by Miss Elsie Carter of Maccan, Nova Scotia, while the groom was ably supported by a brother of the bride. After the marriage a sumptuous repast was served amid much merriment. The bride's presents were costly and numerous, the groom's evening the young couple left for their future home in Chatham .- Amherst papers please copy.

MONUMENT TO THE LATE METROPOLITAN -The monument to the memory of the late metropolitan has been erected in the centre of the lot immediately below the Cathedral. The monument is a well executed piece of work. It rests on a stone foundation 9x5 feet and one foot high. The marble stands two and a half feet above this foundation. 2 An the top is a raised cross and mitre Fairley stood very high all over the province. splendidly worked out of the marble. On the sides of the monument is the following inscription : "Here rests the body of the Most Reverend John Medley, D. D., first Bishop of Fredericton, who departed this life September the 9th, A. D. 1892; aged all former occasions for the past quarter o 87 years." On the left side are also the a century he had been present as an active words "Erected by the Clergy of this Diocese." Inscribed on the head, and under a small cross, are the words, "In hope of res- took a very active and effective part in al prrection to eternal life."

THE POST OFFICE:-The southeast corner of the new Dominion building which for some time past has jutted out on Water St. has been stopped in its mad career towards Mrs. Mills' corner by some person or persons unknown. At all events that portion is Scott Act-saloons known to almost every body except the inspector. Between 7 and S in the evening, as he was zigzaging down men who were a short distance off the street in a vacant lot near the Muirhead mill.

Death of John Sadler, Esq.

who soon left him and ran away. He went noticed that the chain was broken. His sister-in-law told him she had taken the watch and asked what broke the chain. He felt in his inside vest pocket and missed his wallet. "Did you take my pocket book?' he asked. No, she hadn't taken that. Then the recollection of his struggle with the three men in the dark came back to him, and he and no doubt his death was accelerated by realized that they had broken the chain in its weak action. tearing open his vest and taken the con-

Mr. Sadler had been a resident of the Moncton Times. tents of his inside pocket. The wallet contown for about 30 years. He entered the tained $350. all the money Mr. Keswiek employ of the late Senator Muirhead had with him, and he feels very badly over his loss. He does not often drink so in 1863, who was at that time conducting the largest lumbering much that he can't take care of himself. and shipping business on the Miramichi and and thinks of swearing off altogether now.

Death of Scott Fairley Esq.

There is no clue to the robbers. - [World.

Scott Fairley Esq. died at his residence Blackville on Sunday evening after a protracted illness. He was for many years one ledge of details was remarkable. He could of the leading lumber operators and merturn to any man's account without the sid of chants on the Miramichi. He was for a long the index, keeping in memory the page of period in partnership with his brother the the ledger upon which the account was. late John Fairley and the firm of J. & S He was affable to all those with whom he Of late years since the sale of his mill pro render assistance and give advice to those perty to Alex. Gibson Esq., the deceased has who needed it. His record as a business not been so largely engaged in lumber and mercantile business. His familiar face was missed at the recent Crown Land Sales as on of the community and when any difficulty participator. Mr. Fairley took a deep interest in all matters relating to the county and political contests. In politics he was a Liberal. His remains were interred at Boiestown yesterday a special train running from Blackville for the purpose.

----Prohibition Convention.

province of New Brunswick. He was a unihis book of directions, which read thus:-- present state of affairs was a serious matter. The above is explanatory. This enormous and desirable stock has The prohibition convention of the mari-"Should you not meet with a pilot off There were always advocates of change, He was strongly in favor of the movement. versal favorite and his hospitality and being unbuilt. The builders of the tower time provinces met at Sussex with some 50 been removed to the "Argyle House", next the new Post Office, Chatham, generosity were unbounded and it will be Point Escuminac, and too late in the day to some, he supposed, were even asking for By such a change the town would derive of Babel got "rattled" on account of the delegates from the three provinces in atand is now offered in lots to the trade and general public at from long before his friends from all parts of the cross the bar before dark, you should stand change in local politics, put it was not the revenue from wharfage, auctioneers' divers tongues. This building got cornered | tendance. In the absence of Mr. Vroom J. by reason of so many government architects T. Bulmer took the chair. He outlined a country will become accustomed to the off and on till daylight, and not shoal your always wise to jump at the new. It was and other license fees which now go to the 33 TO 63 CENTS ON THE DOLLAR endeavoring to make it cross the street at bold, decisive policy as the one for the absence from among them of a man who water to less than twelve fathoms, particu- important that young and growing towns county. He thought the revenue from This sale is PEREMPTORY, SWIFT and SURE as the Argyle House two different places at one time. The party. He proposed an organizer for each upon all occasions whether in joy or sorrow larly with the wind from the eastward," he should be incorporated. If Chatham had been these sources would more than pay all the runs down upon the land into six fathoms, incorporated years ago we would not have expenses which follow incorporation. He Store must be vacated in a month. However, a few days should suffice owner of the adjoining property, Mr. Sam'l of the three provinces. The meeting took they were wont to seek. to clear off such a desirable lot of staple merchandise. Storekeepers, Johnson, is happy. They have made a up most of the forenoon session discussing In 1875, he was married to Agnes, daugh- and anchors. Had Capt. McLaughlan fol crooked streets as at present. But we have said all that would be wanted was $25 to Traders and the shopping public will please be in time as some valuprivate entrance to the Post Office for him, how to move most effectively and all ad- ter of the late Senator Muirhead. She died lowed those instructions and kept his vessel them and incorporation cannot straighten $50 to pay a town clerk and enough to pay although it is difficult to understand how mitted that the election would be on at in 1882. He leaves a daughter, Miss Effie under canvass ntil da ylight, I have every them. What benefit would we derive? for the rent of a room to hold meetings in. able bargains must be forced off and thousands of dollars worth sacrait will be very much benefit to the public once. Committees were appointed on creden. Sadler and a son, master Frank Sadler, both reason to believe that we would have been Would our police force be better? Would The resolution was adopted, and the ficed. unless Mr. Johnson rounds off the south- tials, ways and means and finance. The minors. He also leaves one sister, Mrs. able to guide him into safety on the follow- our fire department be more efficient? following were appointed a committee to J. D. CREAGHAN. west corner of his building. This probably afternoon session determined to raise $600, Robert Moffat, of 92 Gloucester street, ing morning. We were, however, on the Would our system of lighting be improved ? draft the bill.-Robt. Murray, Jr., W. S.

hasty and ill advised action should be taken track, Mr. Harvey Doak is putting up a by the Marine Department as its tendency is | building about 28x34, which will be comnot to create any great respect in the pleted and occupied in a few weeks. Swim mind of foreigners for our institutions where & Co. are putting up a large structure one branch of the Marine Department can opposite their store to be used as an hotel. take quasi criminal proceedings against a Dr. Weir is building a handsome residence person who acts under the written direc. below the house he is now occupying, and tions of a person representing another expects to move into it next fall. A short distance above the doctor's lot the frame of another building has just been laid and work on this is being pushed along rapidly.

We regret to announce in this issue the The Methodist church, at the upper end of rather sudden demise of Mr. Sadler. On the village is nearing completion, and so on. Sunday, 15th inst., he was attacked by a Altogether Doaktown is becoming quite a swelling of the limbs which was not at lively place, and its people are remarkably the time regarded as serious. It did not well pleased with its progress. The sashes, prevent him from being about as usual, but doors, clapboards and all such necessaries on Monday he was upable to leave the house in building are manufactured in the village and kept gradually growing worse until in the establishments of Joseph Doak and Saturday morning when he died. Deceased Samuel Freeze, which are well fitted out for was troubled for some years with his heart such work.

> Blackville is also booming and its people are well satisfied with the prospects .--

That Pilotage Matter.

Снатнам, Ост. 24, 1893. To the Editor of Miramichi Advance.

Mr. Sadler by his great business capacity of the ADVANCE of Oct. 19th. I notice an was able with very little assistance to manarticle headed. "A Pilotage Matter," viz., age the whole office work. He was famed a complaint to the Pilotage Commissioners draft a bill and submit it to a meeting of the ratepayers to be called hereafter. He beof the Port of Miramichi, regarding the all over the North Shore as being capable of putting through more work in the same time negligence of pilots boarding inward bound than any other business man. His knowvessels: signed by Capt. McLaughlan, Capt.

people as it should be and he felt that at Olsen and Capt. Little. "We have," say they, "during the present another meeting they would be in a better position to give a final vote on it. It would season, all had the experience of having pilots board our vessels only after we had crossed the bar. etc." Now sir, in justice came in contact and was always ready to to myself and other members of our crew, who were on station at the time those vessels usual commission for collecting. arrived. I feel it my duty to say a few Mr. R. A. Lawlor was in favor of incorman, of uprightness and integrity was unwords in reply. surpassed. He was popular with all classes We were on station off Escuminac Point, on September 25th: the wind was east all arose between friends or disagreeable matters day and steadily increasing. Our barometer were to be smoothed over, he was the one denoted a gale of wind. The storm signal was that was looked to as more likely than all others to succeed in arranging matters. being nothing in sight, we decided that no

The words of a shrewd Irish captain when a matter of dispute arose between him and michi bar would run his vessel down upon some others with whom Mr. Sadler was interested have become proverbial. "I don't care whether he's interested or not I'll lave Portage Island for shelter. Such, however, people of Chatham ahead of those of other it to John Sadler and he'll do what is right." Mr. Sadler was widely known over the but, ignoring the instructions laid down in This scheme involving agreat change from the

was not the case with Capt. McLaughlan, places in intelligent action on public matters.

could be carried on more efficiently and honor, but that if you expected a man economically by a council chosen by the give his time and attention to any matter ratepayers of the town than by the muniyou had to pay him. cipal council at Newcastle.

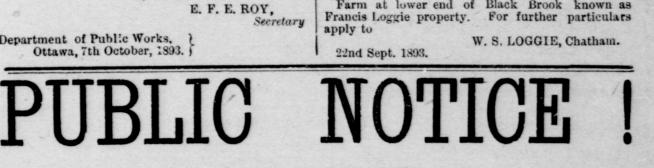

Mr. Nicholas Cunningham vigorously Mr. R. Murray, Jr. said he would not at expressed his views against incorporation. this time make any extended remarks on the He came to hear what benefits would be subject but he thought it would be advisable derived from the adoption of this scheme to read the charter of the town of Grand but so far, none had been stated. He had DEAR SIR :- In looking over the columns | Falls which he considered a good basis for Chatham act of incorporation. He moved lived in larger places that were much that a committee of six be appointed to dirtier than Chatham.

Town Council boodlers and rings would grab $5000 for one ward, $10,000 for another, lieved the subject had not been as carefully and so on, while the poor man, without considered or sufficiently discussed by the flour in the house, would go to jail for taxes. Mr. J. L. Stewart called attention to the fact that speakers were getting away from the question, which was simply one of organbe noticed that no salaries were allowed to | izing for self-government, to the discussion of mayor or councillors in the act he had read, things for further consideration. He asked and that the treasurer received only the all who thought the people of Chatham capable of conducting the affairs of the town to vote for the resolution.

> Mr. Michael Murray said he had th honor of belonging to the workingmen and he thought they should not be deprived of any of the privileges or benefits they now enjoy. He felt that if they followed the act read by Mr. Murray they would be sacrificing many of their privileges. Mr. D. T. Johnstone thought the resolution was a little premature.

Mr. Thomas Sullivan at the commence ment of his speech was ejected by officer Rankine. The meeting was therefore deprived of his views on the subject.

Mr. Robert Murray made the last speech

In consequence of the wonderful increase in my business, I have tended to advance the interests and welfare found it necessary to remove my large and complete > STOCK OF GROCERIES, ETC. to the store adjoining the one so well known as HARRIS' GENERAL STORE.

Having made this important alteration I will be able to pay special attention to my trade in which is increasing with phenomenal rapidity, and at the same time do justice to my extensive trade in FINE FAMILY GROCERIES.

BOOTS AND SHOES AND CLOTHING

Thanking my friends for their liberal patronage in the past, I hereby solicit a continuance of the same.

Of Staple and Fancy Fall Dry Goods-Dress Goods, Grey Cottons, Tweeds, Homespues, Men's Clothing, Underwear, Boots & Shoes, &c.,

IN RE THE M F. NOONAN STOCK

TELEGRAM.

FROM ST. JOHN, N. B. OCTOBER 5, 1893.

To J. D. CREAGHAN, Снатнам.

> "We accept your offer. Wired Mr. Hickson last evening." MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON.

poration, but he thought the mercantile men should express their opinions as the meeting had already heard from the lawyers. Hon. Mr. Tweedie said he had come to hear the question discussed, not to discuss hoisted at the lighthouse, so at night, there it. He had not given the subject much consideration since the meeting some years sane man who knew anything about Mira- ago. He congratulated the town on the large number of its citizens who had shown the land with the expectation of getting a their interest in the subject by attending pilot through the night, so we ran into the meeting. He had always found the