Mr. Tweedie has introduced a bill to facilitate lumber driving. Its object is to protect the right of individua s or companies who may, under authority of the govern ment, improve streams, by clearing them of rocks or erecting dams, slides or other work to render them drivable. It is on the lines recommended by the Lumber Commission and similar to the acre on the same subject in force in Outario, Quebec, Maine, etc.

ASSEMBLY NOTES.

THE LUNATIC ABROAD.

Mr. Pitts of Fredericton posed as th montrutece of "public opinion in S Jonn" id said it was the common belief there that there was a good deal o "sheunanusau" about the management of the innatic asylum and he found fault ever the fact that the amount received for fees last year was less then that for 1891. H "pitched into" Dr. Sceeves and his son and said the senior S ceves was buying bonds and that the money, no doubt "came out of the province.

Hen. Mr. Mitcheil said that the re duced fees indicated less patients ad mitted, which ought not to be considered a matter for complaint, although it might indicate that there were people outside o the institution who ought to be in it. This capital retort upon the "membe for Crankville" convulsed the house and i was followed up ny M. Sivewright tak. ing the non committed Pitts in hand for dealing in slanderous insinuations with out offering a scincilia of proof to justify them.

THE CASE OF BEV. MR. MCLEOD

An attempt has been made to creatprejudice against the government b cause Rev. Joseph McLeod was not selected a chaplain of the house In the first place, every new house chooses its chaplan, and because the three or four houses immediate ly preceding elected Mr. McLeod, it did n " follow that the present one should do so. the next place. Mr. McLeod had ceased to h pastor of a church and become an offic holder under the Dominion government tien, he used his influence against the oca government in the election. Human nature is only human nature, in politics especial and it was, therefore, natural that the gov ernment's supporters should not feel like supporting Mr. McLeod when they had as opportunity to select a non-partizan chaplain. Rev. Mr. Weddail was chosed chaplain. A good many members thought olergyman unnecessary, especially after M Speaker Burchill had led the devotions o the house, before the regular chaplain was appointed. It seems to be eminently proper that the presiding officer of the house should open the daily proceedings with prayers. especially when he did it in so dign fied and reverential a manner. STATISTICAL. Messrs. Hill, Dung, Sivewright and Moti are the only bachelors in the house and rumor eays they are confirmed ones. By occupation the members stand as follows :-Merchante. 7 Lumbermen..... Suppuilders..... Doctor,.... Official Baker Banker Manufacturer, Bla k-mith Publisher In Domi iou politics the members an classed as 14 liberals and 27 conservatives Mr. J. W. Y. Smith of Westmorland, the youngest member of the House, not ye hav ng reached his twenty-fourth birthday. POOR TACTICS The opposition are not happy in th selection of their grounds on which to attack the government. Epworth League Estertainment

The basement of St. Luke's Church was taxed to its fullest capacity on Monday On Thursday evening last, Mr. E. L. hight last to find room for the large audience O'Brien, B. A., who has withdrawn from the position of Principal of Bathurst Gramthat assembled there to enjoy the entermar School, was agreeably surprised at his tainment provided by the entertainment residence by the pupils who presented him committee of the Epworth League. Every seat was occupied and many had to stand during the whole evening. The great attraction was the phonograph owned and operated by as follows :-Mr. W. R. Gould, and the audience listened with pleasure not unmixed with curiosity to the reproduction of band music, cornet solos, ongs and speeches by that wonderful machine, until Mr. R. B. Bennett took the platform. Mr. Bennett is always an interesting speaker, and he brought down the house by his opening explanation of the cir cumstances under which it had become his privilege to speak for the phonograph. He then in a very clear and lucid manner explained the principles and illustrated the practical working of the phonograph, thus gritifying the curiosity while adding to the leasure of the audience. The musical portion of the programme by he members and friends of the League is leserving of more than passing notice. All did so well, however, that we select none

THE ONLY DIVISION

Circumstances tavored the opposition when the question on Dr. Atkinson's petitiwas before the bouse for decision. Mr. Hil who is an altra liberal, took the ground that any man who was privilege I to appeal to the legislature in any matter should be permitted to do so without being required make a deposit to cover the cost of the work he sought to have done, in the event of hi having no case. That secured Mr. Hur's vote against the government's view of the question. Then, Mr. Dibblee, whose se was attacked, had in a spirit of fairneswithdrawu and said he would refrain from voting. Hou. Mr. Connell also refraine from voting for similar reasons. Mr. Har rison, a government-supporter, was absent and Mr. Speaker Burchill was in the chair The opposition hal, thus, one giverament supporter who was obliged to vote with them because of his personal views of th general principle involved, and their full quota of members in their places while four government men were not in a position to vote. Under these circumstances the mustered 13 on the only division they have had the courage to bring about since the session opened. The real position of partie in the House is therefore shown to be Gov arament 29, Oppisition, 12. It is under food that one opposition man from northern county was desirous of becoming a government supporter, but was much disappointed when he learned that there was no disposition to encourage him to play th game suggested by his crafty colleague majority of sixteen, with the speaker in the whair, is good enough for all practical parposes.

William and Robert McLaggan, (who are always ready to help our young people to enjoy themselves) got out their teams and the party, to the number of twenty or more, started for the camp, where they arrived about noon. Mr. John Dick of Chatham, the cook, was ready to velcome them with a good dinner, which the young people enjoyed, and, as one of the young ladies say-John's beans were just wely." After spending a short time in the woods the party started for home, where they arrived in the evening well pleased with their visit. The masons have arrived and are now preparing the stone for the building of the furnaces at the Gibson mill.

Mr. B. N. T. Underhill is visiting his mps on Dungarvon. Mr. R. H. McGinnis, the popular lay eader, was greeted with a very large congregation on Sunday evening and held a very joyable service. Rev.
