

TWO LETTERS.

"I think he likes me," mused Victoria Grant. "Was it to be or was it not to be to walk down to the water's edge to-night? Ought I to have bidden him goodbye here in the parlor? Yet I don't think he will misconstrue my conduct, for—I think he likes me."

and as he staggered into the moonlight that sifted through the dirty window panes the girl saw that he carried one leg of the coveted instrument. "I know where they went," panted Patsy, "an 'I've got one at a near price. Now, don't say 'now—wait—see!'" Patsy and Patsy departed, and considered if he worked during the day. The idea of work troubled her, and her heart was touched at the thought of this knightly devotion. Her hand trembled as she assisted him in with the third load on the third night.

through his lungs—were pouring out his lifeblood in a purple current. "My father!" he gasped, "tell my father to die like a brave man and send my body to him. He will not cast that off."

water and then passing over the writing with a camel's hair pencil moistened with a weak solution of sulphide of ammonium. In most cases this will at once restore the color of the text. The success of the process depends on the fact that such iron filings have been made with an iron ink, the action of the sulphide forming sulphide of iron.

THE GREAT SOUTH AMERICAN NERVE TONIC AND Stomach & Liver Cure. The Most Astonishing Medical Discovery of the Last One Hundred Years. It is Pleasant to the Taste as the Sweetest Nectar. It is Safe and Harmless as the Purest Milk. This wonderful Nerve Tonic has only recently been introduced into this country by the proprietors and manufacturers of the Great South American Nerve Tonic, and yet its great value as a curative agent has long been known by a few of the most learned physicians, who have not brought its merits and value to the knowledge of the general public.

IT IS A GREAT REMEDY FOR THE CURE OF NERVOUS DISEASES. As a cure for every class of Nervous Diseases, no remedy has been able to compare with the Nerve Tonic, which is very pleasant and has no effect upon the youngest child or the oldest and most delicate individual. Nine-tenths of all the ailments to which the human family is heir are dependent on nervous exhaustion and impaired digestion. When there is an insufficient supply of nerve food in the blood, a general state of debility of the brain, spinal marrow, and nerves is the result. Starved nerves, like starved muscles, become strong when the right kind of food is supplied; and a thousand weaknesses and ailments disappear as the nerves recover. As the nervous system must supply all the power by which the vital forces of the body are carried on, it is the first to suffer for want of perfect nutrition. Ordinary food does not contain a sufficient quantity of the kind of nutriment necessary to repair the wear our present mode of living and labor imposes upon the body. For this reason it becomes necessary that a nerve food be supplied. This South American Nerve Tonic has been found by analysis to contain the essential elements out of which nerve tissue is formed. This accounts for its universal adaptability to the cure of all forms of nervous derangement.

THE DISINHERITED.

In the parlor of one of the finest suits of rooms in the first and best hotels in the city of New York, on the early days of 1891, stood a gentleman whose age was probably 40, for his hair was snowy white, and his brow wore an abundance of time's furrows.

THE PROPHECY.

Five years since, while sojourning a few weeks in London, I had an invitation from a gentleman who owned a large and handsome estate, with an excellent manor house upon it, that had been for many years the home of his ancestors, and his wife and children consisted of a young man and two daughters, respectively 18 and 20. His wife had been dead for some years.
