RELIGIOUS SMILES.

"Deacon," said a minister out west, after a heavy sermon, "I'm tired." "Indeed," replied the deacon, "then you know how to pity the congregation.' "Ah, parson, I wish I could take my gold with me," said a dying deacon, who was very wealthy but very selfish. "It might melt," was the minister's consoling

"What do you think of your new minister?" And Sandy, scratching his pow answered: "I dinna think muckle o' him. Six days he's eenvisible, and the seventh day eencomprehensible."

A lady was once narrating to Bishop

Temple how her aunt had escaped from a railway accident. 'Five people in the same compartment were killed and my aunt alone escaped; wasn't it providential!" "Humph!" said the bishop, "don't know your aunt; can't say!" A colonel commanding a British regiment in India requested a drill sergeant to ascertain the religious views of some new recruits. The latter were paraded and the sergeant cried out: "Fall in. Church of England men to the right; Roman Catholic men to the left; all fancy religions to the rear."

Florida has no state prison. The convicts are leased and subleased to individuals in various parts of the state. Maine has 135 convicts who are employed in the manufacture of carriages, harness, brooms, furniture and clothing. In the government prison at Yuma, Arizona, there have been only four female prisoners committed during sixteen years.

The New York state prison at Albany has 1,263 inmates. The expenditures of the institution exceed the income over $100,000 a year. Illinois has 1,420 convicts, 86 per cent. of whom are under 40 years of age. Of the Illinois convicts only 10 per cent. are uneducated.
