MAINE LOBSTERS :- The petition which prepared by the Maine lobster dealers and lobster catchers all over the State, to be presented to the next legislature, will be an enormous one. They want a 101 inch law the whole year round. They claim that under the present 91 inch law, the foreign trade is getting all the benefit from canned lobsters, and in a few years small lobsters will be depleted. The past year the catch of lobsters has fallen off 50 per cent.-Bangor Commercial.

THAT DEGRACE FORTUNE :- The Halifax take part. In the afternoon a grand Herald says :- "N. A. Landry, of Bathurst, picnic will beheld on the beautiful grounds who has been engaged for some years past, establishing the claims of a number of Gloucester people to a fortune of about $30,-000,000 in Spain, has received word from across the water that the authorities there are satisfied with the proofs he has forwarded of the heirs being in this country, and the remainder of the work is to be done here The supposed heirs are a family by the name of DeGrace whose parents came from Spain and settled in Bathurst."

FOUNDERING OF A BARQUE AFTER COLLI-SION WITH AN ICEBERG :- Details have reached Belfast of the foundering of the barque "Ruth Palmer," after collision with a large iceberg. The vessel, which belonged to Messrs. Lawther & Son, Belfast, left that port for Miramichi to load lumber. Heavy ice was encountered off the Newfoundland coast, ane when near the Grand Bank she struck a gigantic iceberg, The crew of 18 had barely time to take to the boats when the vessel sank. They were subsequently picked up by the French brig "Marie Gabrielle.'

A DANDY CAMPING OUTFIT .- While at Andover the other day, Mr. Edward Jack was shown a camping outfit made of aluminum. The outfit consisted of saucepan 14 inches in diameter, a kettle 12 inches in diameter, and a large dipper. The outfit was planued by Dr. Hamlin, of Bangor, Me., and was manufactured by the Illinois Pure Aluminum Company, Lemont Ill. Dr. Hamlin made presents of these outfits to several of his friends. The one - shown Mr. Jack belongs to Warden Allen, of the Tobique. The weight is about one quarter that of an iron outfit.-[Gazette.
