The Monoton Mystery.

So much has been said regarding the Moncton mystery, viz., the fate of Tim-I AVING opened business at the above named places, I am prepared to supply all my Cusomers and those who may favour me with their othy McCarthy, a liquor dealer in the town mentioned, that the following statement of the case summarised by the Post from the Times, may prove of interest to

The missing McCarthy creates much excitement, which is rather increasing.

The facts so far established are that I was at variance with his wife for some time, and that he was infatuated with a girl named McGinnis, belonging to P. E. Island. He went to Shediac on 12th Oct. purposing, no doubt, to follow her to the Island. He was followed by his wife to Shediac, and some high chaffing between them took place on the street there. He has not been seen since the 12th. After the mystery had deepened from day to day for two months, one Annie Parker, a servant in the Osborne House, Shediac, stated in effect that a man whom she is almost certain was McCarthy, was at the Osborne House, Shediac, until between 2 and 3 o'clock in the morning; that she heard a voice which she believed to be his; that she heard the very heavy breathing of some one in the bar-room; that five minutes after she heard Mrs. Osborne tell a man to get the horse and wagon; that when the horse was brought to the door she heared the sound of steps as if something heavy were being carried to the front door; that she saw Harry Osborne drive away with something in the wagon;

panies to avoid trans-shipment. and that subsequently when she made enquiries as to why the horse had been taken out at such an hour she was told it was none of her business. She states that when there was talk of searching for McCarthy, Eliza Osborne cried a good deal and spoke of going to St. John where she would cease to hear of the matter. She mentions several other circumstances in such a way as to throw suspicion on the Osbornes, and she says that Eliza Osborne once told her, if questioned about Mc-Carthy, to say she knew nothing about him. She admits having once said to some one that she would tell nothing has yet been recorded on the Pacific slope. about the affair except what the Osbornes -Daily Telegraph. would tell, but explain's that she was afraid the Osbornes would kill her if she told the story. Eliza and Har, "V Osborne deny the girl's story in toto. On Saturday, a hat, which has been identified as the hat worn by McCarth V on the day he left Moncton, was returned to Mrs. McCarthy. It was found floating cuty in the United States (and where

again prorogued to January 17th. THE CANADA AGRICULTURAL INSURANCE Co. - A despatch dated Montreal, 12th says a report on the state of affairs of the Canada Agricultural Insurance Company has been prepared by P. S. Ross. It will show its position to be worse than at first represented. $500,000 of its capital of $1,000,000 is held by the ex-manager, Mr. Goff, and many of the shareholders will not be able to meet the calls. A large portion of the securities held will not re-

THE TUNNEL UNDER THE ENGLISH CHAN-NEL. - The Mining Jouanal states that matters in reference to the English Channel Tunnel are making satisfactory progress, definite agreements having been drawn up by the English and French Companies for the working of the route. Each company will bear the expense of its own half of the tunnel. When the work is completed, it is understood that there will be a general interchange of lines between the English and Continental Railway Com-TROTTING PROSPECTS ON THE PACIFIC Coast.-It is probable, after all, that Smuggler and Rarus will not meet in California this winter, and Smuggler's campaign may not be as profitable as was anticipated. It is said that in consequence of a "falling out" with the owner of Rarus, Splan, trainer of the horse, will not go to California, and has made arrangements for wintering a stable of horses in Cleveland. The Californians do not take to the great stallion very kindly, and, fearful of his speed, have already commenced to bar him out of the free-for-allevents. If this course should be pursued generally Smuggler could only make a valuable season by being trotted in exhibiton races, and showing speed faster than

A Case of Twenty Year's Standing. From Mrs. Joseph Baker, of Johnson, Vt. "I feel it my duty to make known to the world the wonderful efficacy of your WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY. For twenty years I was sorely afflicted with phthisic, and previous to using the BAL-SAM was pronounced by the physicians incurable. Two or three bottles afforded me a good deal of relief, and as many more completely restored me; and for two years past I have not had the least return of that painful complaint.
