He also projected a vast hotel scheme, involving the purchase of the Revere House; he got laborers to work, laid in a store of borrowed money and left. At New Glasgow and Pictou he was simply advertising agent of the Gulf steamships. At Harvey, he created much enthusiasm for the Weekly Albert County Citizen, for which people paid subscriptions, but were saved the trouble of reading the paper. At Hopewell, he declared he would settle down, purchased the Union House, together with horses, carriages, furniture, etc., took more subscriptions for the Citizen and left for Hillsboro, leaving Capt. Shaw minus $7.00. At Mansfield, a memorial tablet hung in the bar, to his memory, "Trust is dead, killed by Davis," which cost the grateful landlord $19. At Oxford, he delivered an impassioned address on temperance, as introductory to addresses on advertising in the Railway Gazette, another paper which was to be issued under high Railway authority, with a guaranteed circulation of 24,000 copies per month. He is said to have got advertising in every direction: at Moncton, Shediac, Dorches-

The London Stock Exchange at once recognized the financial import of the great event, and a rapid rise in Russian bonds occurred. The prices of all Russian securities rose and maintained a marvellous firmness, notwithstanding the very heavy sales of speculators, who, anxious to realize at a high figure, threw their bonds on the market in large quantities.

The press of the metropolis speaks in no uncertain tone regarding the gravity of the situation in which Osman's defeat has placed England's former ally. All the afternoon journals yesterday appear to have taken their cue from the Times' editorial of the morning, an abstract of which was forwarded to the HERALD. FEELING IN ST. PETERSBURG. A St. Petersburg despatch of semiofficial character says :- "The statement that Germany and Austria have refused Turkey's request has produced a favorable impression here. The universal sentiment is that after the great sacrifices of Russia, peace on the conditions foreshadowed in the Porte's circular would be illusionary, and that the question raised

OFFICIAL REPORT ON THE LOSS OF THE S. S. HURON. - The opinion of the Court of Enquiry on the loss of the Huron has been made public. The conclusions are that Commander Ryan is primarily responsible for the loss of that vessel, and that Lieut. Palmer, the navigating officer, made an error in the night in not ascertaining the accuracy of the perpendicular soundings. The ship is reported to have been in every respect well found, staunch and seaworthy, and she was in that condition up to the time she struck,

Toronto Globe's London correspondent recently writes:-"I am glad to be able to announce the arrival at Liverpool of the first lot of fresh-water bass fish ever introduced into Great Britain from Canada. Several attempts have been made to introduce these valuable fish into English waters, but hitherto without success, and several hundred pounds have, I believe, been lost in the enterprise. On Thursday however, Mr. Alexander Begg arrived at Liverpool from Quebec with a large consignment of fish and ova in excellent condition. Mr. Begg brought about 75 striped or Oswego bass, a similar number of rock bass from the Canadian lakes, and upwards of 8,000 fish eggs, half of which are the salmon Wilmoti ["Salmon Wilmoti" is a bran new species. Can any of our readers tell us what the Globe means. -EDITOR ADVANCE.] and the balance salmon trout from Lake Huron. The whole consignment was in splendid condition, and will be distributed as follows: To the Duke of Sutherland's fish-ponds. Dunrobin Castle; the Troutdale Fishery.
