Miramichi Advance. CHATHAM, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 27, 1877.

WE WISH ALL OUR FRIENDS THE COMPLIMENTS OF THE SEASON. Maritime Union.

The Nova Scotia Legislative delegates who visited Fredericton on Wednesday last week for the purpose of conferring with the New Brunswick Government on the subject of a Union of the Maritime Provinces, appear to have come and gone very quietly and not a great deal of information concerning the result of their mission has been made known.

An Innocent Enquirer. That curious little paper, the Moncton Times, professes not to understand how Mr. McLeod, M. P., as well as Mr. Ferris, could have the Premier's promise of a loan of old rails for the Central Railway when there is no such railway.

The Hudson Bay Company in Difficulties. The annual public meeting of the Hudson Bay Company held in London on the 27th inst., caused disclosures which will give rise to feelings of astonishment.

The Independence of Parliament. The Borderer says: "Some of the Opposition papers have been endeavoring to show that the Minister of Marine has violated the independence of Parliament. The alleged offence was the sale of lumber, at Moncton, to the Government, and it has been thought of sufficient importance to justify a contradiction which shows that the Minister is entirely free from blame.

the comparatively small revenue which Nova Scotia now has would require that the latter province secure an increase of nearly $300,000 to her revenue before she could be considered on an equal footing, financially, with New Brunswick.

The Wood Trade. Messrs. Simson and Mason's London Wood Circular of 3rd inst., says:—"The business done in the market has been limited. The arrivals during the month have not been as large as compared with '76. The consumption, as indicated by the deliveries from the Docks, shows a decrease, and the tendency of prices has been less firm.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.—A despatch dated Ottawa 21st., says a general impression prevails, that the Dominion Parliament will meet on Thursday, January 24th.

THE LOST VOICE.—We have the authority of the ancient myths and that also of more modern legend to show that apocryphal legends and men were always looked upon as an offence too grave to be atoned for, save by the achievement of some great task approaching the impossible.

AMONG THE EMPLOYEES. Mr. Greenfield established his headquarters at No. 40 Barclay street, yesterday, where his office was besieged by a number of people, mostly young girls, in search of information or seeking their wages.

Another New York Horror. On Thursday last a sudden explosion and fire occurred at Greenfield & Sons Confectionery establishment, Barclay Street, New York, which was attended with a most serious loss of life and property.

HELP THE GIRLS BEHIND ME. There are lots of them. I rushed into the building again and found, after going about 20 feet in the smoke, that I had come upon about nine of the shop girls.—These were all in a group dumb-founded and immovable from terror.

THE TIMES ON THE SITUATION. The Times says: "No course can be more reasonable and obvious than that, at this juncture, the Government should desire to consult with Parliament, as soon as it can, without unnecessary inconvenience, whether they contemplate interference, mediation, or simply means of securing a good position in the final settlement of the question.

ENGLAND UNABLE TO MEDIATE. A despatch dated Manchester, Dec. 21, says a London despatch says that the British Government has declared its inability to mediate owing to the divergent views of the other Powers on the Turko-Russian Question.

THE GIRLS NEXT WENT THEIR WAY TO Mr. Greenfield's office. Here they met a number of their comrades of the night previous, and as they came together, after the first burst of rejoicing, they were so fortunate escape, they began to compare notes concerning their hairbreadth escapes.

kept it clutched in my grasp without knowing it. I flung the can on the sidewalk, and a small boy ran and picked it up. A little while after me and pulled me by the skirts. I stopped to look at him. The little fellow said, plucking at my dress, 'Won't you give me some candy?' Bally frightened as I was I couldn't help noticing the earnest way in which the little fellow made his appeal.

ONE OF THE MISSING. "Poor Josephine Shoppert," said a comely brunette, "left by the College place entrance with me. When she got to the sidewalk she stopped, and cried out, 'Oh, I can't go without my waterproof cloak.' She turned back, and that is the last ever seen of her."

Mrs. Herzberger stated that her husband usually worked from a quarter to five A.M. till six P.M. He generally started from home as early as half-past three A.M., but during the last few mornings he had not leave till four. During the last four Sundays he also worked from half-past five A.M. until six P.M., without receiving any extra pay for this Sunday labor.

WAR NEWS. THE ENGLISH PARLIAMENT. A despatch dated London, 17th, says the morning papers officially announce that Parliament will meet on January 17th. The Cabinet has decided to ask Parliament to vote a grant of money for such increase of the British army as the present state of Europe demands.

RUSSIAN REINFORCEMENTS. A despatch dated Belgrade, Dec. 19th, says: Orders are given in Russia for the immediate mobilization of 60,000 fresh troops. New battalions are continually crossing the Danube.

SULEIMAN PASHA ARRIVED AT CONSTANTINOPLE. A despatch dated London, Dec. 21st, says, Suleiman Pasha, with 10,000 men, has arrived at Constantinople from Varna. He goes to Adrianople to take command of the army of Roumelia.
