FOOT CRUSHED. -- Mr. Archibald Fleiger had one of his feet badly crushed, on Tuesday afternoon last, in Mr. Peter Loggie's mill by getting it caught between the head-block of the log carriage and the vertical guide-roller in front of the saw.

NEW POTATOES are beginning to agitate the bucolic editorial mind in some parts of the lower provinces. We do not boast of our agricultural advancement at the north, or we might have told our readers that very fine new potatoes, raised in Mr. Snowball's garden, were among the things that STADACONA INSURANCE Co.—At a meet-

THE ANCHOR LINE STEAMERS' sailings as advertised in this week's ADVANCE, will afford a good chance to importers for getting their fall stock out, and to persons who wish to come out from any part of New Brunswick. Passengers going to Great Britain during the Fall will also find in these steamers speed, safety, and comfort combined with reasonable rates of fare. Passage tickets from any point in Great Britain to any point in New Brunswick or Nova Scotia may be obtained from the Agents of the line in Halifax St. John or Chatham.

A PRIVATE PICNIC at Ivory's Crossing, Chatham Railway, was the juvenile social event of last week. It was got up by Mrs. Snowball, at whose invitation a full car load of young people proceeded by rail to the beautiful grounds in that vicinity, where they enjoyed themselves to their heart's content all day. The hampers provided by Mrs. S., were such, in regard to both quantity and quality, as are seldom enjoyed by picnickers, the occasion, from first to last, being one of a kind in which the older children who were present are willing again to "assist" whenever she may be kind enough to ask them. THE CENTRAL FIRE INSURANCE COM-PANY :- We have been informed that in our last issue, we represented the Central Insurance Company's affairs as being worse than the facts would justify. We said that owing to its St. John losses it would probably go out of business and that the payment of its losses would, probably be slow work. We did not know that the Company was doing business here, or we should have consulted the Agent before making any reference to its affairs. We called upon him yesterday, however, and he informed us that he had been instructed by the Board of Directors to renew existing policies, but not to take any new business. He also says the Company's losses will be paid. We regret that there has been any misunderstanding about the

A pro re nata meeting of this Presby tery was held in St. James's Church, Newcastle, on Tuesday last to consider a petition from St. John's Church, Chatham, for moderation in a call to a Minister for that congregation. The Rev. Mr. Wilson stated that Messrs. Kerr & Gordon, delegates named in the petition, explained to him in presenting the petition that the feeling among the people of the church in reference to this matter was most harmonious and unanimous. It was thereupon agreed to grant the prayer of the petition and appoint said moderation in a call to take place in St. John's Church on Wednesday forenoon, August 1st, at 11 o'clock; and further appoint the Rev. W. Wilsor, Moderator of Session, to preach and preside. The Rev. S. Russel was appointed to preach in St. John's Church on Sabbath next forenoon and evening and to serve the Edict of Moderation in the forenoon.

Pic-nic at Little Branch.

BLACK RIVER, July 16, 1877. To the Editor of the Miramichi Advance.

Dear Sir :- On Friday last a pic-nic was held at the School house, Little Branch, for the benefit of the pupils, and it was one of the most enjoyable and festive occasions of the season. Besides the children there were a number of their parents and friends present, who materialassisted in making the gathering a success. A number of foot races took place, and the games swings, bowling, &c, were well patronized. One of the principal parts of the programme was the Vocal Music which was highly creditable indeed, being led by Mrs. Fogo, wife of the Rev. Mr. Fogo. Some of the pieces sung were ;- "Yield not to Temptation," 'Happy Greeting," "Only an Armour

So well was the Mayor, the head of the city, satisfied with their work, that two proceedings were brought to a close by weeks ago he made a public proclamation singing "God save the Queen."

Settling the Grumblers in St. John

On Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock, th meeting of the citizens called by the Mayor for the purpose of "taking into consideration measures for the more satisfactory administration of the supplies donated for the relief of the sufferers by the late fire," was held in the Mechanics'

The Mayor occupied the chair and Mr. Geo. U. Hay was elected Secretary. About 1,000 of the leading citizens were

Mr. Ruel, Collector of Customs, move the following resolution, which was introduced by a preamble to the effect that the General Committee appointed on the 26th ult, for the purpose of distributing relief, had been set aside without the authority of the Mayor, Council or citizens, and so-called Association or Society had been formed in lieu thereof, and had given spoke of the industrial features of the much dissatisfaction in its administration, therefore resolved:

> 1. That an organization be now formed, to be called "The Citizens' Board of Directors, for the Administration of Public Relief for Sufferers by the Great Fire. and such Board shall consist of: The Mayor and Aldermen of the City. The Common Clerk.

The resolution was seconded by H. W. Frith, Esq., County Secretary, who, after complaining in the same way as Mr. Ruel had done proceeded to say, (we quote from the Telegraph's report.) "There was one name that should right be on the committee, that of the reresentative of the United States, the nation whose absolute tenderness to our far exceeded, he was sorry to say, that of the mother land. The American Consul should be there, but he regretted to say General Warner misrepresented the charity of the American people (mingled cheers and hisses.) He had had some experience ests. of Gen. Warner's rudeness, and hundreds of people had told the speaker on the street that the General treated them as he would a private in his own army, while ladies who wanted relief had been looked upon as mere panpers. [Cheers]. This charity was the actual right of every sufferer by the fire, it was sent for their benefit and they should not be treated with rudeness and incivility when they applied for what was their own. He felt that Gen. Warner had met many misfortunes, but the greatest misfortune that ever befel him was that he did not leave this city the day after he received that testimonial. [Cheers and

Mr. C. H. Fairweather said that he had been deeply grieved to hear it charged by implication that the members of the elief Society were actuated by interested motives. He was still more grieved to any citizen of St. John speak of General Warner in the terms which Mr. Firth had used, and he felt that he would be recreant to his duty if he did not rise and repel the accusation. Gen. Warner was the man who had taken the initiative in the good work of providing food for the hungry and destitute, Early in the morning after the fire he had seen a bread cart going round with the placard on it. 'This is free." This was one of the things which the thoughtful care and charity of General Warner had done. Through his instrumentality the earliest notice of our misfortunes had been sent to Halifax, Bangor and cities which had Licenses were granted to the following | brought cooked provisions here at once for the relief of our distressed citizens who otherwise would have been without food. And now to hear it said that he misrepre sents the citizens of the great country who were so free and charitable with their gifts. God forbid that such a sentiment should go forth as the expression of the people of St. John. Excuse my warmth Mr. Chairman, but I can't stand to hear ask Mr. Firth if he really knows the impression which we got from his remarks. Surely they do not sound kindly or generous. I cannot conceive of any motive that these men in the Relief Association can have but the public good, or why they should stay for one moment in office after the citizens of St. John had expressed a desire to relieve them of the duties

Ex-Mayor Smith said he had come to the meeting out of curiosity, and had intended to remain silent, but after what had been said, he could not keep quiet. The statement of Mr. Frith against the character of General Warner is a "deliberate and malicious falsehood." [Trenendous cheering, during which Mr. Frith umped to his feet, and demanded the ruling of the chair. Order being restored the Mayor ruled that the expression was unparliamentary, when Mr. S. replied, "I have said it, anyway."] He could not allow these statements to go out to the world without denying, them; he had worked shoulder to shoulder with Gen. Warner since the night of the fire, and had found no man more able, more willing, more capable in this great relief. * * * * * Mr. Ruel had said the first meeting was a citizens' meeting, which was not correct, as it was not called by His Worship, the Mayor. Again, every member on the present list but one, was a member of the original committee, or present at the first meeting. Mr. Ruel complained that the clergy had been slighted, but the speaker contended that their slightest recommendation would be received with the greatest consideration.

Rev. Dr. Maclise said the recommendations of the clergy had not the weight they ought to have with the Committee. Mr. Wm. Magee said clergymen were too soft-hearted and liable to be imposed upon: if they had been retained on the committee there would soon be no food left to give away. Rev. Dr. Bennet bore testimony to General Warner's courtesy and Rev. Dr. Waters spoke to the "Attorney General King said that there seemed to be two questions before the meeting, 1st, as to the legality of the present body and 2nd, as to what action should now be taken. It was said that this committee had superseded one that was regularly appointed by the citizens, but it would seem from the admission of Mr. Ruel that this first meeting was only a hole and corner meeting drummed up by Mr. Ruel himself to elect Mr. Ruel to be one of the Relief Committee. There was no public notice given of the meeting as required for the calling of a public meeting of the citizens. But who of the members of that committee, so appointed, were now complaining? Who was on that committee that was not on the new committee? Mr. Ruel and Mr. Frith are the only men who complain or who object, and now Mr. Ruel by his own resolution The School room was tastefully decor. intends to appoint himself. The general committee, it seems, met twice. On the afternoon of the second day they commit-&c., under the superintendence of Miss ted suicide and appointed an executive Snowball committee to do their work, and to have general iron-foundry, machinery, and pupils of the Halifax Institute for the The tea which was served in the School full control. When this was done the Blind tock place at the Masonic Hall. room was one with which all present were had gone on in a very loose way until a Board of Directors. Is there anything of usurped functions in that? How was this committee constituted? They were who were the Executive Committee, all of whom had been elected by the citizens themselves. And are the originators of this meeting to come here now and load these men with slander? What further sanction did they obtain? The sanction of silence. The people of St. John allowed them to go on and disburse this money of the fact that he had handed the money and material to the Relief Association. In the face of these facts should this resolutinon be allowed to pass?" The Attorney General continued, defending the Committee and referred to the treatment of Gen. Warner. It was not what Mr. Frith had said of him that he cared much for, as it was not a matter of very great importance, Mr. Frith being a lop-sided sort of man. But he regretted to see that so many cheered Mr. Frith's sentiment. He asked if the people of the United States were not the best judges of their man, and if Gen. Warner was undeserving, because he gave his time from the 21st June to 16th July, free of charge, in the service of the people of St. John. Mr. Frith had the hardihood to make this statement because General Warner did not treat him with the consideration he thought he deserved, but the people of St. John would not indorse his view of the case, but repel the slanders against General Warner, who had proved himself so true a friend in the time of their distress. The Attorney General sat down amid great applause. From this point the discomfiture of the Ruel-Frith party was fully apparent and after a few more speeches which left very little of their case save its huge folly they withdrew everything and the following resolution, moved by Mr. Domville and endorsed by Dr. Barker, Messrs. Travis, Maher, Anglin, Elder and others was unanimously carried:-

"That this meeting recognizes with great satisfaction the generous and able services of General Warner and the other members of the Citizens' Committee, and begs to return, on behalf of the citizens of St. John, their sincere thanks, and hereby

Three cheers and "one more" were then given for General Warner. It is probable that the Mayor of St. John, who, we regret to know, rather favored the meeting which terminated so badly for his party, will now see the folly of disparaging gentlemen with whom he ought to feel honor in being associated. He has been childish, discourteous and, at times, even malicious in seeking to establish himself as the only person connected with the Relief Committee worthy of pubwants, whose ready and prompt sympathy lic confidence. No one will regret that he and his little party have been beaten, though few care, just now, to resent too openly his treatment of them, least it

A Non Sequitur. - The non sequitur is thus feelingly displayed in the postal-card letter of a wife to her absent husband: I am most sick, baby is under the doctor's care, and James and the other children have the measles. All the women are wearing back combs, and don't forget to write often. We all send love, and our For Halifax, N. S., and Saint house almost got on fire last night. - JANE. -Editor's Drawer, in Harper's Magazine for August.
