There is no reason to doubt that the troupe is composed of genuine ex-slaves. The ladies, of whom there are four, are vertitable Topsies, with shrill but not unnusical voices and uncontrollable hair, and the males could by no possibility have been born anywhere save on a cotton plantation. They deny all claim to any knowledge of "even the first rudiments of music, and yet last night every chorus called forth most hearty applause.'

World says :-

The Boston Post, a very conservative paper in Musical and Dramatic matters, Bridge to Robertson Place. said of them : "Music Hall was last evening packed clear back to the stairs with the crowd that assembled to hear Sheppard's Colored Jubilee Singers. This company of eight vocalists is under the direction of Mr. Andrew Sheppard, who was thirty years a slave, and once belonged to Gen. Lee. Their programme last night consisted of twenty pieces of the most popular Jubilee music, and the calls for encores were frequent. They sing with much of the strength, freedom and fervor that were characteristic of their plantation days." The Moncton Times and other provincial papers also publish favorable notices of the Troupe's concerts. Those who desire to avoid delay at the door to-night may obtain tickets during

Improvements in the Court House Newcastle.

The Court House Newcastle, has of late undergone extensive alterations, which are now about completed. They have been made under the superintendence of Messrs. Clarke and Goddard, of St. John, the contractor is Mr. George Arnold, Chatham. The Court room has had new wainscotting of panel-work put round the walls and the old wooden columns in the centre, have been replaced by iron ones, which occupy a smaller space : a new partition separating the part of the Court for the use of the public from the inner portion has also been supplied, finished with a pole rail. The Judges dais has been renewed, a broad alcove being formed in the wall behind, finished dais has a new desk with quarter-circle walnut and black ash rail on either side, supported by heavy newel posts. On the northern side, a new step-graded platform, separated into two portions by a rail, has been provided for the Grand and Petit A S. W. Boom Case. - Among the Jurors. At one end of this platform are also four small tables for the Clerk, Sheriff, Fredericton on Saturday last was the Crier, and Reporter, In the centre of the Court Room a large walnut office table and the Bar with suitable chairs, imported ness' stand and jury benches are also new. The judges' room has been changed from the south west to the north east corner. On the whole the Court House will present a rejuvenated appearance, when it has been repainted, and the Committee, Councillors Hutchison, Lawler and Mc-Dougall, who have had charge of the alterations as well as the public are to be congratulated on the prospect of approving speeches from the judges, who very often made the room, in its old form a subject of deserved ridicule and reproach.

The Fourth of July Excursion.

The excursion on the Andover, to which we referred in last issue as being in progress when we went to press. was a very enjoyable one. The accounts we have heard and read concerning it almost cause regret on the part of the representative of the ADVANCE that business prevented him from accompanying the party-and especially Messrs. Adams and Wilkinson, who were fellow-employees with him for three years in New York-from the start to the finish. The day was a beautiful one and most of our readers know how enjoyable a ompany can be got together on the Miramichi, even in a hurry, by such gentlemen as Messrs. R. R. Call, Hon. Mr. Muirhead, Alex. Morrison Esq., and our other leading men who, on this occasion, succeeded admirably in securing a party well calculated to give our New York friends a fair idea of Miramichi hospitality, We do not remember having ever participated in a more spirited and throughly enjoyable excursion. Of the Luncheon the Advocate, which publishes quite an elaborate report of the occasion says :-

Coun. Hutchison contended that because the Upper District got half the appropriation in former years, it was no reason it should do so this year, as it had only one-fourth the length of Bye-roads of the other two districts. He would only ask $70 for the middle district, and give $130 to the upper one, though he did not think it deserved or required it.

Councillor Park said that though the roads in the Lower District might be bad, those in the Upper were not what they should be. The Luncheon was one of the interesting episodes of the excursion, not only on account of its extent and quality, but also on account of the intellectual treat enjoyed by those who listened to the speeches of Judge Morgan, Mr. Thos. Adams, Mr. Dunn, and others. The American Consular Agent (R. R. Call, Esq.,) presided at the table, and he expressed, in his usual happy manner, the pleasure he experienced in welcoming his young friend, Mr. Adams, as also the American gentlemen he had brought with him to visit our country. He with others took much pleasure in giving to the strangers on this, their first
