very little damage being done it. Its being a plank building, however, made it more difficult for the fire to make much headway. There were two large boilers, almost completed, and machinery, tools etc., in this building which were taken out, when the building took fire, in a way that, for foundry also caught fire two or three times,

but was extinguished without any trouble.

THE STEAM ENGINE.

The fact of the Steam Fire Engine not being on the ground for over half an hour after the alarm was sounded causes a good to find horses. It appears the firewards have an arrangement with Mr. D. T. Johnstone by which he is to bring a pair of horses to the engine in case of fire if he has horse available, and this he took to the engine after going, he says, to five different persons trying unsuccessfully to get another. The people rushing past the engine house on their way to the fire were solicited to "lay hold" but they seemed afraid of missing the "circus" and would not do so. An attempt was also made to take a horse from a passer-by by force but with like results as the other trials. After all these troubles a second horse was finally got and the engine taken to the fire

Now, it is quite evident that Mr. Marshall, while acting entirely within his privilege in the matter, has, through legislataking the most objectionable mode by which to accomplish what he professes to seek. If there is anything wrong in connection with the Caraquet Bridge he might have made the above enquiries in a modified form in the first place and followed it up by obtaining a select committee to investigate the matter. The system under which expenditures of the class referred to have been made is a pernicions one and affords a wide field for abuses by which the public may suffer and Mr. Marshall deserves credit for attacking it, but in doing so he should be careful to respect the code of courtesy which is one of the essential features of parliamentary propriety.

Special Despatches to the "Miramichi Advance."

FREDERICTON, Mar. 14. Dr. Dow's resolution on the salmon angling lesses of the Dominion Government came up on Thursday evening. He referred to leases on the South West Miramichi for salmon angling without public tender. Parties living on the South West and other rivers are deprived of fishing privileges which they ought to have, and as a consequence the not he had behaved in fast or loose man farms bordering on the river are depreciated in value while the inhabitants are deprived of the profits they were accustomed to get by acting as guides, and the convenience they gave to fishing parties going to and from the fishing spoken to him two or three times about stands or pools. They had also lost the profits resulting from the supplying of such parties, and that, with the prevention of their enjoyment of the rights of fishing formerly secured to them, rendered it necessary that action should be taken to protect the Province in the matter.

The Secretary said he was not prepared to affirm the assertion that the leasing was unconstitutional, and while he was not satisfied it was not he was well convinced of the facts stated concerning the bad effect of the leases in the interests of the people of the districts referred to. He moved to strike out all after "with a view of having" and insert "the legality of the same Burns said without entering upon the question of constitutionality of the fish eries department leasing the rivers of the Province he could endorse the state ments of Dr. Dow concerning the practical effects of it. The leasing had seriously interfered with private interests. He referred to the land on Nepisguit River, that of Hon. John Ferguson, Pabineau Falls, which was advertised in the Gazette by the Crown Lands Department, which placed at the bottom of the advertisement intimation that a valuable fishing privilege was attached thereto. Instead of the lot, which contained only about seventy acres, being sold at 50 or 80 cts per acre, the usual price, it sold for upwards of $800 and the gentleman who bought it found that the Dominion Government interfered by its assumed leasing rights with the exercise of his rights required by purchase and implied guarantee by the Government of the Province of his fishing privileges and as the Province sold the land and realized a large amount solely and because of the fishing priveleges it should seek to protect the purchaser in the rights he had been made to believe he possessed.

The resolution was adopted as amend Willis moved a resolution of which had given notice, viz:-That all the amounts appropriated by the House remaining unexpended at the opening of a Session shall be revoted at such Session if required for the services for which they were set apart, and that no amount be used for any other services than

After a long discussion the House divided and the Secretary's amendment was

If such change was to be made the Government ought to appoint and be responsible. He moved postpone ment for three months.

Austin went at length into points places on survey or who may be employed by consent of both buyer and seller. He was willing for amendment placing appointment in the hands of the Government Davidson opposed the bill as before and argued that there is no law to prevent any so the country gains nothing by the man employed by consent of buyer and seller from exercising functions of surveyor. He said the bill was aimed at Northumberland where there were no regular surveyors who would survey lumber so as to make it over run boom survey at the tail of the mill, and that was the origin of the

He went into modes of survey, and said North Shore boom survey was a good deal under mill survey, and as logs did not hold out such survey was clearly wrong in the main, and surveyor's appointment was general and should be there.

The matter was argued further and the motion to postpone formally passed, thus killing the bill

Covert's bill to abolish the Legislative Council was discussed and withdrawn on the ground that it ought, if necessary, to emanate from the Legislative Council. Dow's resolution in favor of new Parlia ment buildings was debated and it was the opinion of the House that when necessary so important a change ought to emanate from the Government.

An amendment by Covert affirming that new buildings were greatly needed and that the matter ought to be dealt with by Government, was lost by vote of 17 to 12, and Dow's resolution by 23 to 8. Municipality bill was on Committee of the whole yesterday, p. m., and among amendments was one providing for appoint-ment by council of incorporated towns, from among their own members, of one member to represent the town in County Council. This applies to St. Stephen, Upper Mills, Milltown, Moncton, etc., and not to unincorporated towns like Chatham. Newcastle, Bathurst, etc. Municipal Councils are authorized to establish more than one polling district in each parish and when more than one district is thus established nominations of Councillors shall be fyled with the parish clerk on or before the Friday next preceding the Tuesday on which election is to be held.

Yesterday p. m., Davidson read a letter on the subject of Newcastle Police Magistrate appointment which he said appeared in that morning's News, and he desired the Chief Commissioner to say whether or ner in regard to matter as charged. Kelly said the matter had been under consideration, and there was a difference of opinion as to whether Mr. Atchison was the right man to have the appointment. A decision would, he hoped, be arrived at on an early day. Davidson had e appointment and it was owing to no neglect on part of that gentleman that it

A Mystery.

It was rumored about town yesterday that the body of a man had been picked up near Weldford Station on Tuesday morning when the express train was going south, and that, on examination, some three thousand dollars had been found on his person. From enquiries made we glean that the remains are supposed to be those of one James Kinnan (or Kingan), of New York, who failed lately for about $1,000,000 and disappeared from that city on Saturday last. He is supposed to have committed suicide with a pen-knife on Monday night on the train going North and fallen off the platform of the car, where it is possible he may have gone to commit the deed, if it was suicide. The unfortunate man was not missed from the train, as it was supposed he was asleep in the Pullman car. A despatch of yesterday from Miramichi Station informs that sums of money, amounting to $5,000, were found on the deceased's person, and that an inquest was then being held at

Sad Death.

An inquest was held before Dr. J. S. Fatal Accident.

A correspondent writing from Blackvill inder date of 9th inst., gives us the following details of a fatal accident that lately befell a resident of that place:

While Hiram A. Underhill, accompani ed by his father, Nathaniel Underhill, and Thomas Henchie, were engaged in lumbering operations on the Dungarvin river. on the 13th inst., they were in the act of loading their sleds with logs, having put two on the sled, and were lifting up the third, having got it nearly on the top of the other two, when Hiram's handspike slipped and he fell on his face, the log falling back on him and striking him on the back of the head, and killing him instant. ly. Henchie litted up the log, and the poor father lifted up the lifeless remains of his son, for his spirit had already fled to meet its God who gave it; and his life blood was flowing from his mouth in a stream. He never spoke or moved, nor even trembled after he was struck.

He was a fine, promising young lad 17 years old. His remains were interred in Trinity Church burying ground on Saturday, 3rd inst.; the burial service being conducted by Rev. Wm. Cruden, Pastor of Trinity Church, Blackville, and Rev G. Johnston, Presbyterian Minister of the same place. We deeply sympathise with the bereaved family.

Concert at Bathurst.

A correspondent gives us the following particulars of a concert lately held at Bathurst Village :--

On Friday evening of last week a con cert was given in the school-room in Bathurst Village by the older scholars of St. Luke's Sabbath School. There were, in all, thirteen that took part in it, includ ing Mrs. Gordon and Miss Ferguson who. in turn, presided at the piano. There was quite a lengthy programme, but all was gone through in about an hour and a quarexpectations of the warmest friends of the young people were surpassed; all present were delighted with the sweetness of the voices and the artistic way in which the pieces were rendered. Perhaps the best hit of the evening was "The Beggar Girl." by Miss Sarah Mathison, who appeared in costume, with a basket on her arm, and sang so pathetically and pleadingly hersong. Miss Lizzie McLean gave "There's nae luck about the house" in good style. The music was interspersed by readings which Mr. Girdwood gave in his usually happy vein. The evening was one of the most disagreeable of the winter, yet there was a very good audience. As many were disappointed it was arranged that the programme be repeated on Saturday evening, which was done, when there was a good audience again. Upwards of $30 was taken on the two nights for the benefit of the Sabbath School

The Carnival.

The Carnival at the Rink on Monday evening last was a complete success in most every particular. It was advertised for Saturday evening, but did not take place then because of the preceding mild weather having made the ice quite unfit to skate on, but on Monday evening the weather was all that could be desired. The first masqueraders made their appearance about 8 o'clock, in the person of two "squaws," who managed to preserve their incognito all through, even those with whom they skated not being able to

The St. John Fire.

St. John has been visited by a destructive fire, involving a sad loss of life and destruction of valuable property to the extent of about a quarter of a million of dollars. The fire is supposed to have originated in the cellar of a building on Prince Wm. cocupied by Messrs. M. C. Barbour, J. H. Golden and Steeves Bros. This building, with the stocks of goods of the several firms, was almost entirely destroyed, nothing but the walls now standing. The adjoining building, owned by Messrs. I. & F. Burpee, and occupied by that firm and Messrs. Kerr & Thorne. shared the same fate, and only a small portion of the stocks were saved. The adjoining buildings north and south, occupied by Messrs. Watts & Turner and Beard & Venning, with their stocks, were also heavily damaged.

It is a painful duty to record the sad loss of life attending the disaster, and which has cast such a gloom over the city. The northern wall of the Burpee building and the southern wall of the Gardner building, in falling outwards, crushed through the sides and roofs of the buildings adjoining. Mr. Frank Venning was the only one injured in Messrs. Beard & Venning's, he having a narrow escape, only receiving injuries which will confine nim to the house for a few days. The Victoria House, however, was the scene of the sad destruction of life. A number of persons were in this building at the time of the disaster, and of these the following are the unfortunate victims : E. D.
