THROUGH THE ICE - Mr. George Wat had the misfortune to break through the ice or make a mistake into a hole in the river in front of Chatham on Saturday. He went down to his waist and after getting out was not too wet to enjoy the joke of a fisherman who suggested that he ought to go home and change his socks.

MR. HARNETT'S DEATH - John W. Harnett, a prominent Richibucto merchant, died on Monday last week after a short illness of consumption, aged fifty-six years. He was formerly a licensed school teacher, but had been in business at Richibucto for upwards of fifteen years. He leaves a widow, mother and two brothers, one of the latter being postmaster of King's.

OLD LETTERS - Any person having old letters received before 1870, can get good prices for the postage stamps thereon, by writing to Jno. Lindsay, Lock Box 3, Paris, Ontario. He furnishes the best of references and pays as high as $150.00 each for rare kinds. Leave the stamps on the envelopes as they are worth more so that way.

P. O. ROBERTY - An attempt was made to rob the Kingston, Kent County post office Monday night, 2nd inst. The burglar effected an entrance by breaking a window, but fled without securing any booty. He evidently made off in a hurry, as he left a pair of mitts behind. A young man named George Wade was arrested Tuesday on suspicion of having committed the crime. He confessed after being arrested, and was lodged in jail.

SNEEZ FISHMAN DROWNED - One night last week a smelt fisherman named Anderson, assisted by his partner, was operating a smelt net in open water in the St. Nicholas river, Kent County. The net was rigged from a raft and required attention at short intervals. Anderson's partner had occasion to go to the shore on the contents of the building were destroyed and the loss will be quite heavy as there was but little insurance.

BERNARD - The McLaughlin cheese and butter factory at Dundas, Kent Co. was burned to the ground on Sunday morning, 1st inst. The factory, which was owned by Mr. Michael McLaughlin, of Buctouche, has been in existence only a few months, but was doing a thriving business. All the contents of the building were destroyed and the loss will be quite heavy as there was but little insurance.

LUMBERING AT NEW MILLS - The Prescott lumber firm, composed of Messrs. Isaac, George and Crandall Prescott, has this year commenced lumbering operations at New Mills, Restigouche. Already this season two million feet of timber has been got out at New Mills and it is expected to get out about two million more. The sawmill having the capacity of 30,000 superficial feet per day, and of the most modern type will be erected at New Mills next spring.

WHERE WILL THE 150,000 COME FROM? - The Moncton Times of Monday last says Mr. Fred. C. Jones has just week from Northumberland County and St. John's. The New Brunswick Fish hatchery while here. The Times says - "There are 1050 feet of troughs in connection with the hatchery, containing at present 12 million of spawn. It is expected to get about 150,000 more spawn of salmon to maturity. About 90 per cent. of the spawn to maturity. The salmon for spawning purposes are caught at the head of the North-west and Little South-west branches in nets specially for that purpose."

THE "MADRA" FOUNDERS - "A telegram has been received in London from Capt. Paterson, of the Purus Steamship Madra, which sailed from Hamburg, Nov. 14th, for Port Royal, South Carolina, who had arrived at Coranra, Spain, stating that the Madra foundered in mid-ocean on Nov. 28. Capt. Patterson telegraphs further that none of the crew of the steamer was lost. The Madra registered 2,325 tons gross and 1,470 net and was built at Stockton, England, in 1873. She was engaged in freight traffic only and loaded at Chatham last summer."

AN ATTRACTION to buyers of family groceries, provisions, dry goods and general household supplies is offered by Mr. Roger Flanagan at his well known store on St. John Street, Chatham, in the form of silver knives and forks, silver spoons, silver cruet stands and boxes of tea. He issues tickets which are presented by customers every time they make purchases, and not only how small the amount, it is punched off, and when the purchases aggregate either $15 or $30, as the case may be, one of the articles specified viz. - a cruet stand, or a dozen of silver knives or forks for a $30 ticket or a 5 lb. box of tea, or 1 doz. silver spoons for a $15 ticket is given free.

SMELTS - Friday's Gleaner says - "Three carloads of smelts arriving on the Canada Eastern this morning consigned to parties in Boston, New York and Chicago. This is the first smelt shipment of the season, which opened on the first of December. The traffic in this commodity promises to be large this winter."

The idea is suggested that the smelt-trail depends very much upon the catch, which hasn't been a large one, so far, owing to the ice not forming as early as the other seasons on Miramichi waters which furnish most of the smelt traffic to the C. E. Railway.

A BAD START - It is said that alongside the Connelly wharf at St. John where there was supposed to be a large amount of fish, the biggest ship of the British navy, the Steamer, Lake Superior, of the Beaver Line ran aground, and if she has sustained injury the city will be liable, and they will come on the move. Connelly for slighting their contract and not dredging where the contract specified. Some say the steamer was high and dry at low tide; but others deny this. However, a few days will decide whether the wharf is up to contract or not.

A ROUGH TIME was experienced by several Chatham smelt fishermen last Thursday night and Friday morning. The easterly wind blew very strongly and snow fell thickly and drifted in blinding force. The tide rose to an unusual height and the current set the river ice moving, carrying away net pickets and also several nets, some of which were recovered. Altogether, the season, so far has been a most discouraging one for Chatham smelt fishermen, who are not allowed the privilege to fish in the open water, which is accorded in other places.

MARRIED AT DARTMOUTH - Isaac Palmer, an enterprising young man of Hampton, a Queens County, was married at Dartmouth on Wednesday, 4th inst., to Miss Rolla M. Crocker, daughter of Robert Crocker of that place. The ceremony was performed in the Methodist church by Rev. J. C. Clements, and was witnessed by a large gathering of spectators. The bridegroom was supported by Frank N. Ogilvie, and Miss Millie M. Betts acted as bridesmaid. After the ceremony the bridal party repaired to the residence of the bride's father, where a sumptuous wedding repast was served. The bride was the recipient of a large number of valuable wedding presents. - (Herald.)

POPULAR FOR SUGAR BARRELS - Last summer 3,000 cords of hard and soft wood went into barrel staves and headings at the Moncton sugar refinery. The hard woods made use of were chiefly white and yellow birch, which was cut in 8 feet lengths, none of a less size than 10 inches at the top end. Poplar was also used. This made a very good start, owing to its toughness and lightness when dried. There is said to be a difference in weight of 4 pounds between a sugar barrel made of wood as compared with one made from birch, and this a considerable saving is effected in freight when sugar is transferred by rail. 200 cords of poplar were got this season for this purpose from Newcastie.

FOR MONTANA - Miss Tait who left Chatham last week to take up her residence in Montana with her brother, Rev. Jas. Tait, was presented on the Sunday preceding with a dressing case and volume of poems. The presentation took place in St. Luke's Methodist church basement at the close of the Sunday school session. Rev. Mr. Steel spoke of Miss Tait's past usefulness in the church, Sunday school and Epworth League and the regret her associates experienced in parting with her. The presentation was then made in behalf of the teachers and officers by Mr. R. B. Bennett. Miss Tait left for her new home with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Jas. Tait, who had been spending a few months with Miramichi relatives and friends.

NEW WATER WORKS - Hartland, Carleton County, is reported to be more than pleased with the working of the new water works system. A few days ago Mr. Clinch, of St. John, representing the board of underwriters, paid a visit to the thriving village and the volunteer fire company gave an exhibition of their power to control fire. They have a simple quantity of hose for all practical purposes and can throw a stream of water over the highest building in Hartland. It was found that the pressure at the nozzle of the hydrants averaged fifty-two pounds. Twenty-eight householders have the service in their houses. It is expected that the underwriters will make a substantial reduction in the insurance rates. Formerly they were as high as four per cent. The cost of the undertaking for Hartland is estimated to be something like $5,000, but a better investment could hardly be found.

A SERIOUS LOSS - Messrs. Robert and Jas. Allen and Thos. Keating of Chatham started yesterday morning for Oyster River where they were engaged in a spoolwood operation for Mr. Aiton. Five of the six horses they had with them went over the river on the ice. The sixth was attached by a rope several feet long to a double sled on which there were 50 bushels of fish, a new stove, two quarts codfish, some chains and other rigging. Jas. Allen was driving the team and Thos. Keating was walking ahead of it. About 250 yards from the Chatham shore the whole outfit went through the ice and disappeared. Allen and Knowles barely escaping. The loss was from $150 to $200.

AN HONORED NAME - Messrs. M. B. Edwards, Thomas Dunning, Thos. McAvity, R. Wisard de Bury and Walter R. Miles give notice in the Royal Gazette of application under the New Brunswick Joint Stock Companies Act for Letters patent of incorporation under the name of The William Elder Publishing Company. Geological Specimens. Mr. D. L. Mitchell, principal of the Grammar School, has received from Prof. Dawson, deputy head and director of the Geological Survey one of the collections of Canadian rocks and minerals suitable for illustration in teaching, which the Dominion Government furnishes to schools. It contains one hundred and twenty specimens, ninety six of which are from Ontario and Quebec, thirteen from Nova Scotia, six from New Brunswick, three from Alberta and one from British Columbia.

The collection becomes the property of the Chatham grammar and high school, and is a welcome and valuable addition to its outfit.

If your lung trouble is of scrofulous origin, Ayer's Sarsaparilla will cure you.

Way "Northumberland?" The St. John Sun says - "James Frier and Foster Pickard of Shelburne; B. B. Teed and W. C. Milner of Sackville, and J. B. LeBlanc of Belford are applying for incorporation as the Northumberland Stone company, with a capital stock of $10,000 in $10 shares, the office to be at Sackville."

Way Northumberland Stone company? The best building stone (sandstone) in Canada - not in America - is that of the Fish quarry at French Fort Cove. It is known as Northumberland stone. We hope the West-Island gentlemen who are applying for incorporation do not intend to pass off any of the sandstones of that county as the Northumberland article.

Should Apologize. Neither do we wish to remark upon the propriety of assailing a church in its own building and from its own platform. Sorrowfully we are compelled to admit that there are still minds so constituted that they convert the invitation of hospitality into an "opportunity" to defame their host.

Neither do we propose to defend the memory of John Wesley, which certainly must seriously suffer from the fierce onslaught made upon it by the reverend gentleman.

The English people have paid their tribute of respect and admiration for that great man in enduring brass and marble in the Abbey. Still that work may be undone.

Neither do we care at this time to remark upon the strength, the progress, the wealth, the influence and the commanding positions of the denominations attacked. We perceive that even the free distribution of the census returns has failed to impress some minds with the relative importance of their denomination to the community.

With none of these matters however, have we to do at this time.

We merely take the "opportunity" of suggesting to the reverend gentleman that if he was as large hearted, as liberal, as generous in his treatment of his co-workers in the Master's vineyard; as indefatigable in the performance of his pastoral duties; as frequent in his visitations to the sick and the afflicted, the poor and the needy as are the pastors of St. Mary's and St. Luke's churches he might find fewer empty pews before him on a Sabbath day; he might receive complaints; he might cause less friction; and give more satisfaction to his charge; he might find fewer of his congregation inclined to stray beyond "parish boundaries" and thus find less time to harbour bitter, jealous, envious thoughts against other denominations, less time to devote to the display of narrow-minded sect-animus.

A DISAPPOINTED LISTENER. Chatham, N. B., Dec. 10, 1895.

The prospectus of the Northern New Brunswick Mining Company, recently issued, shows that there are good reasons to believe that gold mining is to be profitably carried on in the Northern parish, Northumberland, the prospectus in connection with which, however, has been known to but few of our people on account of its location being on waters which flow into the St. John instead of the Miramichi. The mines are on the serpentine river, a tributary of the Tobique, about seventy miles above the mouth of the latter, and were discovered about thirty years ago by Sperry Shea, an old-time miner who had experience in California during the great rush of gold-seekers to that country. He was negotiating with an English syndicate to work the lands, when he died and the property remained idle until quite recently. The gold of the serpentine is found in its sand and ledges. The company has extensive ledges which are reported as exceedingly rich in fine and coarse gold, the placer extending the whole length of the property - 14 miles - on each side of the stream; and it can be easily and economically worked, owing to the immense water power at hand. Those now interested in the area are residents of Woodstock and vicinity and the secretary of the company is Mr. A. H. Hartley, of Upper Woodstock, N. B. Next season it is intended to quarry from all the veins and make thorough complete tests in each case. A stamping mill is now on the ground and will be used for this purpose. To carry on the operations properly they need to sell certain amount of stock and they invite parties desirous of joining them to invest in shares, which are placed at $1 each. Those who want to invest may now do so by subscribing and paying ten per cent, so that $5 will procure fifty shares, $10 one hundred shares and so on. It is hoped that this first call will provide sufficient means to develop the property as to place it on a paying basis.

Hall's Hair Renewer enjoys the confidence and patronage of people all over the civilized world, who use it to restore and keep the hair a natural color. "All Over." The St. John correspondent of the London Times writes on Friday the 12th inst. "The facts of the whole matter" of the "Mallies" over the sale of the Gloucester County properties of the St. Lawrence Lumber Company - "R. L. Allport, of London, representing the trustee of the English bondholders, sold the property to the Sumner Company, of Montreal, N. B. P. C. Novelli, representing the same party, sold the same property to Samuel Adams, of Adams & Co., New York City. Both buyers naturally claimed the property and the Sumner Company retained the Attorney General of this province to institute legal proceedings in their behalf, but here and in England. But on November 1st, Mr. Novelli arrived in New York, and he and S. Adams came to St. John. Here they met F. W. Sumner, of the Sumner Company, and W. H. Thorpe, one of the liquidators of the St. Lawrence Lumber Company, and Mr. Novelli was able to show that the sale by Mr. Allport was not fully authorized, that Sumner's duty, it is alleged, being simply to receive off-hand, no doubt, thought otherwise, but in view of the documents presented by Messrs. Novelli and Adams it was made clear to Mr. Sumner that his company's claim would not hold, and the whole matter was amicably settled, the company withdrawing from the field. Mr. Novelli was armed with power of attorney to close the contract with Adams & Co., and they are now the owners. Mr. Novelli's duty was to receive off-hand, from the liquidators, and the book debts, and from the Merchants Bank of Halifax they have bought the Barreville property. Mr. Novelli has been in Gloucester county, and he now, therefore, the owners of all the New Brunswick property formerly held by the St. Lawrence Lumber Company. Operations have been begun in the woods for both mills, and between six and eight million feet of logs will probably be cut this winter for trans-Atlantic trade. Next year they will also construct some twenty miles or so of railway from Carleton Place to Tracadie, on the Gulf coast, giving better access to a region there that is well timbered.

"Mr. Novelli will spend some time on this side endeavoring to dispose of the Bertram property of the St. Lawrence Lumber Company, comprising a mill not long since completely remodelled, and some 700 square miles of timber lands on the St. Lawrence river."

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is a perfect cure for scrofula, that dreaded taint in the human system.

Completely Knocked Out. "I was so much run down I had to give up work, and I felt as if it was not worth trying," writes Wm. W. Thompson, Zephyr, Ont. Ask for Scott's and get it.

The High Prices had to go. And they are gone. The Bordeaux Club, of St. John, has just sold its property, including the long piers for Claret, Burgundies and Ports. It puts a good wine at a price of $3 and $4 a dozen quart. This is astonishing. It is supposed that for a great thing was to keep up the price. It was an article of faith that you could not have a good cheap wine. Fiddlesticks! Not so. The Bordeaux Club do not care a straw for dignified labels. They are selling a fine, supple, wholesome wine for a little over the price of beer, and people all over the country are drinking it. It is for general consumption. One can drink a bottle of wine now with his dinner and feel that he has not swallowed a drop of poison. Good wine for the million at nominal prices. Address - Bordeaux Club Co., 30 Hospital Street, Montreal.

of both parents, the date of their marriage and other particulars going to show that the said gift was made by the said donor. In this case, these necessary facts were duly authenticated by Rev. J. A. Babin, the worthy parish priest of Tracadie, to whose flock the Mallias family belong, and were communicated to the Queen's representative through the office of the Secretary of State. On Saturday, Senator Snowball received from L. A. Cateleur, Under Secretary of State, Ottawa, three British sovereigns from Her Majesty's privy purse, which he was requested to deliver to Mrs. Mallias on her duly signing a receipt therefor.
