THE VERSATILE MR. MITCHELL :- MODtreal Herald : Hon. Peter Mitchell arrived in town on Tuesday from Newcastle, where he has spent the greater part of his time since last Christmas trying to recover from the very serious accident in which he way a sufferer in October a year ago by the runaway of the Montreal Street Railway cars down Windsor Hill. Mr. Mitchell is still lame and suffering from the effects of the accident, but otherwise seems well and in good spirits and speaks hopefully of the prospects in his old county of Northumberland when the election comes off. The country can ill afford to spare a man of Mr. Mitchell's ability from its councils.

IT's HIS NATURE :- When Clifford Cassid and Freddie Clark were putting the winter's wood for the ADVANCE office into the wood shed on Saturday, the World, whose editor seems to have turned his attention to matters connected with the back premises of our office of late. made its annual reference to "Mr. Smith's woodpile" on Cunard street.
