

A NIGHT IN TOWN.

"Dorothy, I wish you would run in town to-day and attend to a little business for me. I've a touch of the gout myself," said my father as we sat at the breakfast table...

I began to prepare for bed. As I stepped to the dressing-case to braid my hair for the night, the first glance into the mirror revealed the face of Harry Allan at the transom. My first thought was that I was in some danger and he had come to protect me...

morrow I am a ruined man. I could not go to my mother for aid, as the last time she helped me out I promised never to dabble in stocks again. When I met you and saw that exact sum in your hands, for I heard the paying teller count it out to you, an idea came to me like an inspiration from Satan...
