QUEBEC'S DECAY: The idea of the almost complete state of decay into which Quebec's nice flourishing timber trade has fallen can be gathered from the fact that only a few days ago most of the machinery in the formerly busy establishment known as Roche's mills was sold for old iron and the booms and crumbling wooden piers for fuel. Twenty-five years ago these mills were in active operation and the booms were full of square timber which was being shipped to

The river at this point is about two miles wide, with beautiful green fields surrounded by woods of luxuiint growth on gradually raised ground reaching as far as the eye can see. At the mouth of the river is a lovely island, easily reached by boat from the main land. A steamboat runs daily trips from Chatham down the river, and along the shore of the Gulf calling at points of interticket for twenty five cents. Such a beach, such a chance for a salt water bath without chilling you to the heart, such salubrious, vitalizing, sea breeze without fog, such from his active labours to remain, to wish every day were one hundred hours long.

When Adam was a Boy.

This was years ago, for Adam has been dead quite a while, though to be sure he has left a progeny that keeps up pretty wel the family characteristics. There are wise men to-day who delve into the misty past and tell us all sorts of things, but they are silent on these events that would make Adam interesting to the modern What did Adam do when he ran a sliver under his finger nail? Had he to take measles and whooping cough? If he had corns did he cut them with a razor get a bottle of Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor? Putnam's is the best, is sure, safe, painless, and acts in twenty-four hours.
