60 AND 25 :- A Richibucto correspondent says : Robert Campbell, a widower on the south side of the River, who has seen over sixty winters, was married on Monday at St. Louis to Adelene Guimmou, an Acadian of twenty-five summers. The happy couple passed through town yesterday for their home on the south side, and judging from the sound of artillery that came from that direction last evening their friends gave them a hearty welcome. The match was arranged by a lidy friend of the bride, who is to receive in return one of the groom's best cows.
