General News and Notes

No man can pass into eternity, for he is

A heap of ill-chosen erudition is but the Men should not talk to please themselves,

RHEUMATISM CURED IN A DAY: -South American Cure for Rheumatism and Neu ralgia radically cures in 1 to 3 days. Its action upon the system is remarkable and mysterious. It removes at once the cause

Hypocrisy, the only evil that walks in-

I would have a man great in great things

Thought is the blossom; language the

ENGLISH SPAVIN LINIMENT removes all

Great minds must be ready not only to Every great writer is a writer of history

The frendships of the world are often con take opportunities, but to make them.

let him treat on what subject he may.

federacies of vice, or leagues of pleasure.

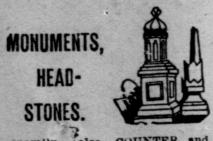

luggage of antiquity.

but those that hear them.

and elegant in little things.

anted by J. Pallen & Son.

Th Subscriber has removed his works to the premises known as Golden Ball corner, Chatham, where he is prepared to execute orders for enarally also, COUNTER and TABLE TOPS and other miscelaneous marble and FINE STONE A good stock of marble constantly on hand.

TABLETS & CEMETRY

EDWARD BARRY.

MIRAMICHI MARBLE, FREESTONE AND GRANITE WORKS,

John H. Lawlor & Co

PROPRIETORS.

Monuments. Headstones, Tab lets, Mantels & Table-tops, Garden Vases; Etc., etc.

CHATHAM, N. B.

For Sale or To Let.

The Dwelling House and premises situate on St John Street, in the Town of Chatham, near the R. C<sup>1</sup> Chapel, lately occupied by H. S. Miller, Esq. For terms and further particulars, apply to L. J. TWEEDIE, Barrister-at-Law, Chatham 2n March, 1891.

Robert Murray, BARRISTER-AT-LAW, Notary Pubic, Insurance Agent, CHATHAM N B

G. B. FRASER, ATTORNEY & BARRISTER NOTARY PUBLIC AGENT FOR THE

MERCANTILE FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY

YORTH BRITISH

Warren C. Winslow. BARRISTER ATTORNEY - AT-LAW _olicitor of Bank of Montreal,

"THE FACTORY" JOHN WCDONALD, (Successor to George Cassady) Mannfacturer of Doors, Sashes, Mouldings

-AND-Builders' furnishings generally Lumber planed and matched to order BAND AND SCROLL-SAWING.
Stock of DIMENSION and other Jumber CONSTANTLY ON HAND. THE EAST END FACTORY, CHATHAM, N. B JOSEPH M. RUDDOCK,

FOR SALE.

Those two commodious dwelling houses pleasantly situated on the west side of Cunard Street in the town of Chatham, now occupied by William J. Miller and J. McCallum For terms and particulars apply to TWEEDIE & BENNETT. Chatham, 27th July, 1894.

FASHIONABLE Made to order in the latest style

Ladies Spring Jackets;

Capes and Mantles; perfect fit guaranteed; men's and boys work will receive special attention.

Residence, Thomas Street, Newcastle N. B.

S. H. UNDERHILL TAILORESS.

Merchant Tailor Next door to the Store of J. B. Snowball, Esq CHATHAM - - N. B. All Kinds of Cloths, suits or single Garments.

pection of which is respectfully invited.

ATTENTION

F. O.PETTERSON.

RUSSELL MCDOUGALL & CO.

have started their GRIST MILL and are now prepared to give quick returns to a large ammount of customers

They will also be prepared to grind buckwheat
n a short time RUSSEL McDOUGALL & CO

All persons lowing me accounts of over four months standing are hereby requested to call immediately and settle same, otherwise they will be placed for collection with costs on the 5th of Chatham, 25th July, 1895.

WANTED

J. D. CREAGHAN.

Brantford, Ont;

SEVEN BRIGHT MEN for two or 'three months, for a personal canvas on a semi-political issue. From $60 to $150,00 pes month according to the volume and value of reports.

Address, for full information,
POLITICAL BIOGRAPHER,

UUST OPENING

BOOT AND SHOES IN GREAT VARIETY,

SCOTCH AND CANADIAN TWEEDS,

NEWEST MAKES IN DRESS GOODS,

VILCLOTHS, HEARTH RUGS & DOORMATS,

WOOL, BRUSSELS & TAPESTRY CARPETS,

BLACK & COLORED CASHMERES & MERINGS

The address slip pasted on the top of this page has a date on it, if the date of the paper is later than that on the slip is to remind the subscriber that he is taking the paper with-paying for it. See Publisher's announcement on 4th Page.

ART MUSLINS, CRETONNES & REPPS,

LACE CURTAINS & COUNTERPANES,

LACES, RIBBONS & HAMBURGS,

SILKS IN BLACK, COLORED, SURAH, &C.

Worsted Coatings,

Black and Blue Serge Suitings, White and Regatta Shirts, Ties, Collars, Hosiery Silk and Linen Handk'fs, Straw and Felt Hats, Yachting Caps, &c.

ALSO A FULL & COMPLETE LINE OF GROCERIES & PROVISIONS.

SNOWBALL B.

Miramichi Foundry, ENCINE AND BOILER WORKS, In the gay gown of beside Park-CHATHAM, N. B.

Steam Engines and Boilers, Mill Machinery of all kinds Steamers of any size constructed & furnished, complete. GANG EDGERS, SHINGLE AND LATH MACHINES, CAST-INGS OF ALL DESCRIPTIONS.

CAN DIES. PIPE VALVES AND FITTINGS IRON OF ALL KINDS.

DESIGNS, PLANS AND ESTIMATES FURNISHED ON APPLICATION

ASK FOR

DOG F.O. PETTERSON, Steel

THEY NEVER LET GO, TAKE NO OTHERS.

Orders filled at Factory Price, and a Freight Allowance made on lots of 10 kegs and upwards at one shipment.

KERR & ROBERTSON, SAINT JOHN, N. B.

N. B.-IN STOCK AND TO ARRIVE 100 DOZEN K. & R. AXES.

CANADA EASTERN RAILWAY

SUMMER 1895. O N and AFTER MONDAY, JUNE 24, until further notice, trains will run on the above Railway, daily (Sundays' excepted) as follows: Between Fredericton Chatham and Connecting with the I. CR. FOR CHATHAM GOING NORTH. EXPRESS. 8 50 p. m. 9 10 " Ar. Chatham Junc., 2.00 2.40 " Ar. Chatham, 10.30 ** 1 { 8 20 ar8 30 .. Chatham Jet .. GOING SOUTH. EXPRESS. .. .Loggieville Lv 4 00 am 7 00 am Nelson FOR IND'TON INDIANTOWN BRANCH. FOR BLR'VLE At. Chatham Junction, 3.55 "

The above Table is made up an Eastern standard time. The trains between Chatham and Fredericton will also stop when signalled at the following flag Stations—Derby Siding, Upper Nelson Boom, Chelmstord, Grey Rapids, Upper Blackville, Blissfield Carrol's, McNamee's, Ludlow, Astle Crossing, Clearwater, Portage Road, Forbes' Siding, Upper Cross Creek, Covered Bridge, Zionville, Durham, Nashwaak, Manzer's Siding, Penniac. Express Trains on I. C. R. run through to destinations on Sunday. Express trains run Sunday mornings ar 8 50 " ...... Indiantown ........... lv 4.05 " Ar. Chatham

CONNECTIONS are made at Chatham Junction with the I, C. RAILWAY CONSTITUTIONS are made at Chatham Junction with the I, C. RAILWAY in a manner most conspicuous and ing her, but to have his fried to strong the strong that the constitution of the strong that the constitution of the strong that the strong and Presque Isle, and at Cross Creek with Stage for Stanley. ALEX. GIBSON Gen'l Manager THOS. HOBEN, Supt.

Miramichi Advance.

THE TAX ON BACHELORS.

hands extended and her gown family in the state. trailing behind her in a way that mind it seemed shockingly untidy, and an untidy woman was, in his opinion the most pitiable spectacle she added, "since it will be the first time we shall appear in society together." imaginable.

"I thought you were never com- like this dress at all." ing, Tom, dear," said Daisy, taking his hand in hers and smiling up into his face. "And now that you are hear I have a great mind to keep you all to myself.

"I want to get acquainted with him," she added, speaking to Mr. Parkhurst. "I presume you know that we are engaged to be married?"

"Tom has told me. I'll offer congratulations when we are alone." "I believe he means to kiss me," replied Daisy, looking at Tom. "Shall you allow that?"

"I will answer when I am sure of his intentions," replied poor all—just a little strap over the "He thinks you could not make up you mind to do it," said Daisy, turning to Mr. Parkhurst. "He doesn't know how we behaved by my grandmother. Do not fear when you were in Wheatlands, that I shall not make a sensation. does he? It seems ever so nice to Even you, who, I am told, have see you again, dear Mr. Parkburst. broken the hearts of so many girls, Let us sit together on that couch in the corner, where we can talk over old times.

"I thought you were going to give your exclusive attention to Tom?" "I have changed my mind. Tom has a squint that makes my eyes ache, and his ears are ever so much too large. I think I shall like him better if I see very little of him. It is quite necessary, you know, that we should avoid becoming too where only savages dressed themantagonistic, for we must spend a great deal of time together.'

Daisy's voice was soft and sweet, but very clear. Tom was quite skirts were looked upon as an sure that several of the callers who had happened in had heard her allusion to his squinting eyes and his large ears—the only defects by which nature had sought to mar an otherwise perfect exterior. Tom was very sensitive concerning these defects, and his friends had humored his sensitiveness for so long a time that he had begun to believe that no one noticed them but himself. Miss Daisy's criticism did not serve to increase his love for her.

Tom tried to make himself entertaining to Stella Manning, another of Mrs. Ridgway's nieces, but he could not keep his attention be infatuated with her conversafrom wandering to the little figure in the gay gown of black and "You don't like her dress, I see," said Stella, following his glance of did have the oddest taste in dress, faulty pronunciation. It would shoulders, painted face, corsets and bustle. Did ever any one see such a combination?"

"It is not modern certainly," replied Tom, trying not to sneer. 'I believe there was a time when all society ladies dressed in that way. In these days of common sense obedience to the laws of beauty it hardly seems possible."

"Daisy has a perfect mania for collecting old things. They say it is a characteristic handed down from a grandmother, who would give as much as would make a poor family comfortable for a year to possess a rickety chair or a soiled head rest or any equally useless thing that had been owned by a person of distinction.

"Do you know that to be a fact?" asked Tom eagerly. It had occurred to him that it such a could be proved he would have sufficiently good grounds for breakred to him that if such a mania ing his engagement to Daisy. The law was not meant to enforce marriage with one who had so questionable an inheritance for the coming generations.

"I do not know Daisy intimately," confessed Stella, "although she is a cousin, but I have reason to believe it is a fact. A great many persons have told me so.'

"Can you give me the name of which he could not deny.

naturally require proof of anything do so, but I wish you to under- which had fallen between them.

fact that Stella was displeased. that you were a gentleman." which might be of great use to him, ed you?" asked Tom coldly. and that he must exert himself to propitiate her.

tion just at present."

speak with auntie."

[Continued from last week.]

CHAPTER III.

The conversation was interrupted by that young lady, who came forward to meet them with both

The conversation was interrupted that evening that you when once we are there. I am not quite so unattractive as the by the property of the De Quinceys, who were considered the wealthiest, and, walking away with the air of and attention from you when once we are there. I am not quite so unattractive as the property of the property disgusted Tom beyond measure. He had read of women who wore trailing gowns but it had never been his misfortune to see one until now and to his fastidious mind it seemed shockingly untidy.

Will this dress do to wear?

asked Daisy of Tom when the reception had been planned by Mrs. De Quincy and endorsed by Mrs, Ridgway. "I want to please you," she added, "since it will be the beautiful voice.

Containing befined her way that disgusted Tom beyond measure. Asked Daisy of Tom when the nuste room had been planned by Mrs. The next moment Tom heard her singing with young De Quincey, and, angry as he was, he could not help paying a silent tribute to her beautiful voice.

Containing befined her way that asked Daisy of Tom when the reception had been planned by Mrs. De Quincey, and another than asked Daisy of Tom when the reception had been planned by Mrs. De Quincey, and another than asked Daisy of Tom when the reception had been planned by Mrs. De Quincey, and another than asked Daisy of Tom when the reception had been planned by Mrs. De Quincey, and another than asked Daisy of Tom when the nuster of the nuster of the plant in the music room. The next moment Tom heard her because the plant of the nuster of t so," replied Tom coldly, "I do not make her endurable!"

so many ladies here in white." woman look like a peacock." I am so glad I have a white did have a temper!

dress," replied Daisy as sweetly as "Heavens," he though, "what a opening bud; action the fruit behind it. speech. "It is of white silk," she added, "so stiff as almost to stand alone, and it rustles when I walk like wind blowing through the corn. It has a train three yards long, and there are no sleeves at shoulder. It is trimmed with passementeries which sparkle with every movement, and I have some beautiful jewels which were left me cannot fail to be satisfied with my appearance. It will be simply stunning." Think what that was to hear from the lips of a girl to whom one was betrothed in a land where the perfection of style was expressed in the words "beauty unadorned adorned the most;" where jewelry and beads and passementeries were selves in colors; where the natural form and complexion were considered most beautiful; where trailing almost unpardonable evidence of untidiness! Think how it must have sounded in the ears of a man who was the acknowledged leader in the art of beautiful dressing The fastidious Tom could not find words to express his disapprobation of, the gown she described. It seemed to him that, in the face of such utter lack of appreciation of the beautiful, nothing he could say would have the slightest effect. was reduced to a state of helpless speechlessness quite foreign to him, but his companion chatted as incessantly as if she believed him to tional powers.

Tom could not but admit that her voice was exquisitely sweet and well modulated. It vibrated most pleasantly upon his sensitive ear, and its charm was not diminished cold disapproval. "Daisy always by the use of poor diction and a PROPRIETOR and no one can persuade her that have been a delight to him to listen eyes, even though she talked only of trivial things. She reminded him of the characters portrayed in some of the novels which were supposed to represent society as it was between the years 1870 and 1886. In his fine condemnation of that age, as represented by Daisy, he failed to see that he himself showed a share of the inheritance handed down by the parents of those days in that love of luxurious ease which had been sufficiently strong to tempt him to place himself in his present unhappy position.

"I think, Mr. Wainwright," said Daisy quite suddenly, "that already you repent your proposal. Am I not good enough in your opinion to help you evade a tax which every honorable man should be willing to pay? Or do you think yourself worthy of the best, no matter what use you wish to make of her? Does your exquisite taste rob you of the instincts of true manhood?"

There was a touch of scarcasm in the soft voice that cut Tom like a what had become of the gray hair knife. He tried to give her to and the smoked glasses? Where understand that he would not tolerate such insinuations, even from a had met so sternly over the glasses women, but he could not speak. Where was the unsightly black She had shown him a picture of patch which had adorned one himself which he despised, yet cheek? Where was the ugly wart

"I intend," continued Daisy, her nose? "You seem to doubt me,.' replied rising and confronted him, "I insaid against the young lady to stand that you have not inspired my respect and that I do not care There was a peculiar emphasis on to see you except when you must been acting a part. I wished to the word "young" that Tom did not appear as my escort. I am dis- convince myself that you were as fail to notice, but what troubled appointed in you. I had thought, perfect as my cousin Sander rehim most was the very evident judging by what my cousin wrote, presented you to be. Shall we go

He felt that she had information | "May I ask how I have displeas-

"You have shown that you are disappointed because I am less Tom coldly. 'I asked," he said quickly, "not beautiful than Sander pictured me. because I doubted you-please Do not try to deny it. I have seen friends! No one wanted to do it believe I could not do that—but it in your eyes from the first, but I at first, but I persuaded them to Barrel Heading, for an entirely different reason should like to ask who and what change their minds. Sander may which I should prefer not to men- you are that you give yourself the not have told you that I usually Matched Flooring, right to criticise my personal have my own way." "I beg that you will not mention appearance. A man who, to con- Once more Tom was speechless. it at all," interrupted Stella, with tinue his selfish indulgence, will It was not difficult for him to an asperity that caused Tom to resort to such methods as I am believe that so charming a girl wonder whether there might not helping you to carry out, and who always had her own way. He be more than one of Sander's instead of showing proper appre- would have turned against any tended to button her aunt's glove Wainwright, or suffer the conse- into the carriage and taken a seat while she murmured: "Oh, my quences. I shall expect you to be beside her. unfortunate tongue! I'm dying to here in good season to escort me to "Oh, yes," replied Daisy, changlaugh, auntie. I came very near Mrs. De Quincey's, but I do not ing to the seat opposite, "Mr. getting myself into trouble just care to see you again in the meantime. You need not fear that I to persuade, however!" It was dicided that evening that shall exact much attention from forward to meet them, with both most refined and most benevolent an empress, joined the party of family in the state.

'Will this dress do to wear?" young people who had gathered already in it.

> "If she were only half civilized," he mused, "and not quite so ugly-"If you will pardon me for saying but, no, even her voice does not like this dress at all."

Tom quietly left the house, without a word of parting to any one, o many ladies here in white."

The first dose greatly benefits. 75 cents. Warranted by J. Pallen & Son. and made his way to his own room "I do not like colors, and I detest stripes and spots and checks and everything which tends to make a respect, Sander's description of his and elegant in little things. cousin had not been at fault-she if Tom had not been in the least punishment it would be to a man ungentlemanly in his manner of to be obliged to go through life hard, soft or calloused Lumps and Blemishes from horses, Blood Spavin, Curbs, Splints, with such a virago! CHAPTER IV.

During the days which followed Tom grew thin. His appetite fled, and lines of worry were deeply drawn in his face. His lawyer assured him that he was a fool for showing his annoyance so plainly and by that means giving his friends so good an opportunity to discuss his affairs.

"They will mistrust that you are hard up," he said, "and then you will lose prestige. I am ashamed of you, Tom. Why don't you brace up and be a man about it?" "I wish you were in my boots, to the murderer like the voice of soltitune. Parkhurst"—began Tom.

"I should like it of all things, my boy! Handsome, refined, popular, wealthy-what more can a man ask? As for Miss Daisy, you are blinder than you need to be about indolent. her. She has a certain power of attraction that more than one of your acquaintences seems to appreciate. I saw her out riding yesterday with young De Quincey and to-day with Walton Humph-

"I certainly did. You might have seen her also had you not which has not good nature for its foundabeen moping here in your room. tion There have not been so many callers at the Ridgways in years as there have been since Miss Daisy came to the city." Tom brightened up under the in fluence of the lawyer's information. It is wonderful how much easier it is to endure a person when one discovers that he is sought for among the idlers of society. Tom began to think that he might at least endure what De Quincey and Humphery deliberately sought. He began at once to make preparations to attend the reception at the De Quinceys. Half an hour ago he had decided to send word that he was too ill to go, trusting that she might accept the excuse. He | Cook's Cotton Root Compound, take no substidecided to dress himself with even more than his usual care and to particulars in plain envelope, to ladies only, 2 it is not perfect. Gray hair, smoked glasses, bare arms and eves even though she talked only happy manner during that last, evening would be credited to the premonitory symptoms of the indisposition which had followed. He was grateful now to Parkhurst for having spread the report that he was not feelng well, although he had been annoyed when his friends first began dropping in to make inquiries concerning his

Tom never looked better than he did when standing before the grate in Mrs. Ridgway's sitting room, waiting for the appearance of Daisy He heard her voice in the hall and summoning a polite smile to his face, turned to greet her. The heavy drapery's before the door were pushed aside, Tom advanced a step or two and stood face to face with a vision of loveliness which fairly took his breath away. The smile became more genial as he softly explained that he was ex- LADIES' COATS & SACQUES pecting to see Miss Blake. "I am Miss Blake," replied the girl quietly. It was Daisy's voice surely, but were the heavy eyebrows which which he had seen on the side of

"You are disappointed once Stella coldly. "I ought to have tend to hold you to your proposal, more, I perceive," said Daisy, remembered that you would because it suits my convenience to breaking the uncomfortable silence "I presume I might as well explain, Mr. Wainwright, that I have now? It is growing late.' "You were fortunate in having such able assistants to make your little comedy so enjoyable," said "Oh, you need not blame your Box-Shooks, cousins who had a bad temper. ciation of my good intensions, sulks friend he had for the sake of bless-"Excuse me, please," she added, in a manner most conspicuous and ing her, but to have his friends ful as a picture! You shall carry "I suppose Parkhurst knew," he Stella crossed the room and pre- out your part of our contract, Mr. said after he had helped Daisy

[Continued on 4th Page.]

The virtue lies in the struggle, not in the

"I consulted doctors who prescribed for me, but to no purpose. I suffered in agony seven long years. Finally, I began taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. In a week or two I noticed a decided improvement. Encouraged by this result, I persevered, until in a month or so the sore began to heal, and, after using the Sarsaparilla for six months, the last trace of the cancer disappeared."—

AYER'S PILLS Regulate the Bowels.

Ring Bone, Sweeney, Stifles, Sprains, Sore and Swollen Throat, Coughs, etc. Save $50 by use of one bottle. Warranted the most wonderful Blemish Cure ever known. War

The building known as the Muirhead stone] house' pposite the Post Office, Chatham.

ITCH, on human or animals, cured in minutes by Woodfod's Sanitary Lotions, Warranted J. Pallen & Son. Good stabling and yard room.
Sample Rooms for Commercial Travellers.
Hacks to and from all trains. Nor cell, nor chain, nor dungeon speaks

Every base occupation makes one sharp in its practice, and dull in every other. An intelligent class can scarce ever be, as a class, vicious, and never, as a class,

A Wonderful flesh Producer.

This is the ittle given to Scotts Emul sion of Cod Liver Oil by many thousands who have takeit. It not only gives flesh and strength by virtue of its own nutritious properties, but creates an appetite for food "You don't!" exclaimed Tom in Use it and try your weight. Scott's Emul sion is perfectly palatable. Sold by all Druggists, at 50c. and $1.00

Nothing can constitute good breeding

Hope is like the suo, which, as we journeyed toward it, casts the shadow o our burden behind us. Like a man to double business bound, I stand in pause where I shall first begin, and both neglect.

COMPOUND.

Sold in Chatham by J. D. B. F. MACKENZIE, Druggist

stamps. Address The Cook Company,

MERCHANT TAILOR,

CHATHAM, Keeps constantly on hand full lines of Cloths

Trimmings, etc. GENTLEMENS' CARMENTS

British, and Canadian Makes.

all kinds cut and made to order on the prem-on to order. Satisfaction Guaranteed.

HOTEL Sale or to Let.

The Keary House, Bathurst, which is a most desirable hotel for a profitable business. The hotel Possession given 1st May, next. Apply to Bathurst, March 25th, 1895.

WE MANUFACTURE AND HAVE

FOR SALE

Dimensioned Lumber,

Sawn Spruce Shingles. THOS. W. FLETT, NELSON.

CANCER ON THE LIP CURED BY

the last trace of the cancer disappeared."

The above well known Clyde Stallion will travel aring the coming season between Ch atham and Doaktown, also standing at Douglastown, Newcastle, Nelson, Derby, Indiantown, Barnaby River, Black River, Bay du Vin and Richibucto. Terms made known by groom. GEO. E. FISHER, Aberdeen Hotel.

OPENED APRIL IST, 1894.] ccommodation of permanent and transient guests.

The Hotel is in the centre of the business portion f the town, near the Steamboat Landing.

ADAMS

ADJOINING BANK OF MONTREAL WELLINGTON ST, - . . CHATHAM, N. B. This Hotel has been entirely Refurnished. throughout and every possible arrangement is made to ensure the Comfort of Guests Sample

TEAMS will be in attendance on the arrivals of al trains. GOOD STABLING, &C. THOMAS FLANAGAN, CANADA HOUSE.

Corner Water & St. John Streets. MATTAHO LARGEST HOTEL IN CHATHAM.

Every attention paid to THE COMFORT OF GUESTS. Located in the business centre of the town. Stabling and Stable Attendance first rate.

WM. JOHNSTON,

HOUSE. Near Railway Station, Campbeilton, N. B. formerly the Union Hotel, kept by Mrs. Grogan

Comfortable accommodation for permanent an ransient guests. Commercial Travellers wil also be provided with Sample Rooms. GOOD STABLING on the premises.

ALEX. MACKINNON, WATER ST., CHATHAM,

Daniel Desmond,

I am now prepared to offer my customers and the public generally, goods at REDUCED PRICES in the following lines, viz :-

Mixed Candy, uts, Grapes, Lemons Rasins, Currants, Citron and Lemon Peel, Flavoring Extracts and Pure Spices, and other Groceries, nice line of gift cups & saucers. Mugs, Lamps, and a General assortment of Glass and Earthenware &c.

IN TER COLONIAL

RAILWAY

and after Monday the 9th September 1895 the trains of this railway will run daily (Sunday excepted) as follows: WILL LEAVE CHATHAM JUNCTION.

Through express for St. John, Halifax and Pictou, (Monday excepted)

Accumudation for Moneton Through express for Quebec and Montreal. ALL TRAINS ARE RUN BY EASTERN STANDARD TIME.

D. POTTINGER, Railway Office, Moncton N. B 6th September 189 FURNACES FURNACES,

WOOD OR COAL, WHICH I CAN FURNISH AT REASONABLE PRICES. STOVES

AT LOW PRICES PUMPS, PUMPS Sinks, Iron Pipe, Baths, Creamers the very best, also Japanned stamped and plain tinware in endless variety, all of the best stock which I will sell low for cash

COOKING, HALL AND PARLOR STOVES

A.C. McLean Chatham.