

Miramichi and the North Shore, etc.

LAUNCHWAYS for sale. See advt.

BATHURST HARBOR.—Capt. M. L. Daley has been appointed Harbor Master of Bathurst.

MR. GEO. A. NASON of Doaktown has gained his reputation against Dr. Carroll, Mr. Bennett being his attorney.

NEGROUT FISHING.—The privilege of surface fly fishing on the Indian reserve, Nepiguit, is offered for sale by tender. See advt.

THE "ADVANCE" is for sale at Johnson's Bookstore and the Circulating Library, Desmond building, next door to the Telephone Exchange.

MIRAMICHI MARBLE WORKS.—If you are looking for the right kind of cemetery work, we are quoting prices that will draw the order from your inside vest pocket.

THE DRY WEATHER which has prevailed of late has a very adverse effect on the logging operations and will, it is feared, more than balance the advantages of the favorable season for yarding.

COLLAR BONE BROKEN.—Last Thursday while Gustavus Landry was working at the screens in the Palm Mill, Chatham with a bar, on which he was exerting all his weight and force, the implement was allowed to get in contact with a running belt which caused it to slip, throwing Landry against an adjacent screen-bow and breaking his collar-bone.

OBITUARY.—Mr. Arthur Hansard, father of Mr. H. H. Hansard of this city died at Toronto on Tuesday last after a short illness, in the 62nd year of his age. Mr. Hansard was a native of Fredericton and at one time was head of the Ceylon police force.

Deceased was a brother of Mrs. F. E. Winlow of Chatham.

FISHERY ENQUIRY.—By a Dominion Order-in-Council of 22nd April Mr. D. G. Smith of Chatham is appointed a Commissioner under the provisions of Chapter 11 of the revised Statutes of Canada, to enquire into the right of property in certain salmon stands at Bay du Vin. The stands in question are those of the south side of Bay du Vin Island.

NEWCASTLE BOARD OF TRADE: There was but a small attendance at Monday evening's meeting of the Board of Trade. The question of reduction of fares across the river at Newcastle and Chatham was brought up and discussed. Also the trips of the steamer up the North West. The question of Incorporation, after discussion, was postponed until next night of meeting.

ORGAN RECITAL.—A grand organ recital will be given in St. Andrew's church, Swansons, on Thursday evening at 7.30, by Mr. Fred. H. Blair of the Royal College of Music, London. Mr. Blair is a brilliant player, and a great treat may be anticipated. The full programme will be found in our advertising columns. Solo will be sung by Miss I. M. Jones and Miss Kate Jones.

INJURED.—Mr. Edward Burke, blacksmith, was struck over the eye, on Saturday, by a wooden peg which flew out of the end of a piece of pipe which he was handling and struck him in the eye. The wound was two inches long and required several stitches. He had filled the pipe with sand and plugged the ends. Mr. Burke did not recover consciousness till Monday morning. He is under the care of Dr. J. B. Benson, and is doing well.

OBITUARY.—The death of Hon. T. W. Anglin, formerly editor of the St. John Freeman and representative of Gloucester in the House of Commons, of which he was Speaker from 1874 to 1878, took place at Toronto last Sunday. Mr. Anglin was a man of excellent abilities and blameless private character. His opinions, and even his prejudices, however, were tenaciously held and he was uncompromising in carrying them out, so that he did not stand in that position in public life which his education, integrity and other fine qualities fitted him for.

AN ATTRACTION TO BUYERS of family groceries, provisions, dry goods and other household supplies is offered by Mr. E. C. Flanagan at his well known store on St. John Street, Chatham, in the form of silver knives and forks, silver spoons, silver crest stands and boxes of tea. He issues tickets which are presented by customers every time they make purchases, and no matter how small the amount, it is paid off either when the purchases aggregate either $15 or $30, as the case may be, one of the articles specified viz.—a cream set, or a dozen of silver knives or forks for a $30 ticket, or a 5 lb. box of tea, or 1 doz. silver spoons for a $15 ticket is given free.

KENT COUNTY COURT met at Robbinston on Tuesday last week. The only case for trial was that of George W. Robinson vs. Alice C. Stone. It was an action for board and lodging, $38.50 and money lent $10.00. The defence was that the defendant had never contracted to pay any board, his father, S. L. Stone, of New York, having agreed to pay, and that the amount borrowed was only $7.00. The case was contested in a very spirited fashion, the jury finding a verdict for the plaintiff of $7.00.

THE LIBERAL HERALD has, we have no doubt, met the demands and tastes of its advertisers and other patrons, by publishing such specimens of choice and elevated family reading as the alleged letter of "Toiler," for which its highly educated and tenderly nurtured editor has also tastefully assumed responsibility. "Toiler," amongst other characteristic characteristics, is that Mr. Smith said "all a living-mind required was brute strength and stupidity." We are requested to state that Mr. Smith has made every reasonable effort, by personal application to both Mr. Gaynor, the editor, and Mr. Winslow the advertising solicitor of the Herald, in each other's presence, to learn the name of the real author of the slander, but without success. The paper they represent simply assume the privilege of publishing such falsehoods for their own unworthy purposes, and even Mr. Jas. Stewart, its owner, would not publish a letter over Mr. Smith's name refuting the accusation. The laborers of Chatham, whom we have always found to be manly, and lovers of fair play, will know what to think of the Herald's tactics in this matter, and also how to treat those whose advertisements are published in the paper as an intimation to those personally attacked, as well as others, will, now know what he required for perusal at the home fireside, when they read the Herald's "Toiler" letter, for Mr. Nicol is one of the leading gentlemen whose money sustains the choice family publication referred to.

As our readers know, the ADVANCE has not been open to the charge Mr. Nicol thought fit to make against it. It has, in fact, more than once, condemned the publication of the disgusting particulars of murders, divorce cases, scandals in high and low life, profane paragraphs that have been often dignified in papers not far from Chatham, and other matter of a similar tendency, by which so many papers cater to and get profit from a large and paying class of readers. While we shall not, in future, depart from this policy, it will, perhaps, be in order for us to properly and truthfully deal with the local men who are aiding and abetting, and employing their money in establishing and maintaining a publication, a principal object of which is, evidently, that of defaming and, if possible, driving the ADVANCE out of existence and its editor from Chatham. The World was established here for that avowed purpose and it failed, and now laws upon our friends. The Liberal Herald will probably bear the same lesson, after it has had experiences which are in store for it and those who inspire it.

Buckingham's Dye for the Whiskers is a popular preparation in one bottle, and colors every brown or black. Any person can easily apply it at home.

An Unseemly Scene.—There was an exciting scene in the circuit court at Woodstock last Saturday morning. Mr. Geo. F. Gregory, of Fredericton, was addressing the jury on behalf of the plaintiff in the Lafort-Monster Accident libel case; and was pointing out that in the case of the defence wishing to amend their plea it transpired that a witness, St. Cyr, was to be brought. He then telegraphed to Dr. Nich in Fredericton to come up at once and give evidence regarding St. Cyr. Here Mr. Curry, one of the defendant's counsel interrupted him.—"Dr. Nich says you spoke to him of coming here yesterday."

Mr. Curry then said that it was not right for an attorney to interrupt another while addressing the jury, but nothing warranted the language used by Mr. Gregory. Such language was disgraceful. It was not to him but to the administration of justice the dishonor was done. He did not wish any conflict with any member of the bar, but he could not allow such language to pass unnoted.

Mr. Curry then sought to explain his interruption, but the Judge insisted that the matter drop at once.

Mr. Gregory—"That is false! It is false as a..."

Judge Hanington ordered Mr. Gregory to sit down at once, and said if he would do so he would fine him or commit him.

Mr. Gregory said that he confessed he should not have spoken as he did.

The Judge then said that it was not right for an attorney to interrupt another while addressing the jury, but nothing warranted the language used by Mr. Gregory. Such language was disgraceful. It was not to him but to the administration of justice the dishonor was done. He did not wish any conflict with any member of the bar, but he could not allow such language to pass unnoted.

Mr. Curry then sought to explain his interruption, but the Judge insisted that the matter drop at once.

Mr. Gregory—"That is false! It is false as a..."

Judge Hanington ordered Mr. Gregory to sit down at once, and said if he would do so he would fine him or commit him.

Mr. Gregory said that he confessed he should not have spoken as he did.

The Judge then said that it was not right for an attorney to interrupt another while addressing the jury, but nothing warranted the language used by Mr. Gregory. Such language was disgraceful. It was not to him but to the administration of justice the dishonor was done. He did not wish any conflict with any member of the bar, but he could not allow such language to pass unnoted.

Mr. Curry then sought to explain his interruption, but the Judge insisted that the matter drop at once.

Mr. Gregory—"That is false! It is false as a..."

Judge Hanington ordered Mr. Gregory to sit down at once, and said if he would do so he would fine him or commit him.

Mr. Gregory said that he confessed he should not have spoken as he did.

The Judge then said that it was not right for an attorney to interrupt another while addressing the jury, but nothing warranted the language used by Mr. Gregory. Such language was disgraceful. It was not to him but to the administration of justice the dishonor was done. He did not wish any conflict with any member of the bar, but he could not allow such language to pass unnoted.

Mr. Curry then sought to explain his interruption, but the Judge insisted that the matter drop at once.

Mr. Gregory—"That is false! It is false as a..."

Judge Hanington ordered Mr. Gregory to sit down at once, and said if he would do so he would fine him or commit him.

Mr. Gregory said that he confessed he should not have spoken as he did.

The Judge then said that it was not right for an attorney to interrupt another while addressing the jury, but nothing warranted the language used by Mr. Gregory. Such language was disgraceful. It was not to him but to the administration of justice the dishonor was done. He did not wish any conflict with any member of the bar, but he could not allow such language to pass unnoted.

Mr. Curry then sought to explain his interruption, but the Judge insisted that the matter drop at once.

Mr. Gregory—"That is false! It is false as a..."

Judge Hanington ordered Mr. Gregory to sit down at once, and said if he would do so he would fine him or commit him.

Mr. Gregory said that he confessed he should not have spoken as he did.

The Judge then said that it was not right for an attorney to interrupt another while addressing the jury, but nothing warranted the language used by Mr. Gregory. Such language was disgraceful. It was not to him but to the administration of justice the dishonor was done. He did not wish any conflict with any member of the bar, but he could not allow such language to pass unnoted.

Mr. Curry then sought to explain his interruption, but the Judge insisted that the matter drop at once.

Mr. Gregory—"That is false! It is false as a..."

Judge Hanington ordered Mr. Gregory to sit down at once, and said if he would do so he would fine him or commit him.

Mr. Gregory said that he confessed he should not have spoken as he did.

The Judge then said that it was not right for an attorney to interrupt another while addressing the jury, but nothing warranted the language used by Mr. Gregory. Such language was disgraceful. It was not to him but to the administration of justice the dishonor was done. He did not wish any conflict with any member of the bar, but he could not allow such language to pass unnoted.

Mr. Curry then sought to explain his interruption, but the Judge insisted that the matter drop at once.

Mr. Gregory—"That is false! It is false as a..."

Judge Hanington ordered Mr. Gregory to sit down at once, and said if he would do so he would fine him or commit him.

Mr. Gregory said that he confessed he should not have spoken as he did.

that consumed the substance of the island, and even the milk and vegetable supplies of the capital have been interfered with and the water supply threatened.

"Continuing all but quiet, there are at least 200,000 men under arms in Cuba, a good many more than engage in any form of productive industry. The Spanish army is over 100,000 men, perhaps 125,000, and the volunteers are 50,000, of whom 13 regiments of 1,000 each are in Havana.

Whatsoever their scheme was it was not fully feathered out when business called the head of the Clan McLean to Fredericton, and nothing special could be done in his absence. As it were, the clique had and duly become aware that they had an elephant in the room, and they could not put him through his tricks till the ring master gave orders.

But Mr. Davies was impatient, time was passing and he went and saw the Colonel. Mr. Tucker readily consented to place a letter in the hands of the executive committee, a publication, a principal object of which is, evidently, that of defaming and, if possible, driving the ADVANCE out of existence and its editor from Chatham. The World was established here for that avowed purpose and it failed, and now laws upon our friends. The Liberal Herald will probably bear the same lesson, after it has had experiences which are in store for it and those who inspire it.

Buckingham's Dye for the Whiskers is a popular preparation in one bottle, and colors every brown or black. Any person can easily apply it at home.

An Unseemly Scene.—There was an exciting scene in the circuit court at Woodstock last Saturday morning. Mr. Geo. F. Gregory, of Fredericton, was addressing the jury on behalf of the plaintiff in the Lafort-Monster Accident libel case; and was pointing out that in the case of the defence wishing to amend their plea it transpired that a witness, St. Cyr, was to be brought. He then telegraphed to Dr. Nich in Fredericton to come up at once and give evidence regarding St. Cyr. Here Mr. Curry, one of the defendant's counsel interrupted him.—"Dr. Nich says you spoke to him of coming here yesterday."

Mr. Curry then said that it was not right for an attorney to interrupt another while addressing the jury, but nothing warranted the language used by Mr. Gregory. Such language was disgraceful. It was not to him but to the administration of justice the dishonor was done. He did not wish any conflict with any member of the bar, but he could not allow such language to pass unnoted.

Mr. Curry then sought to explain his interruption, but the Judge insisted that the matter drop at once.

Mr. Gregory—"That is false! It is false as a..."

Judge Hanington ordered Mr. Gregory to sit down at once, and said if he would do so he would fine him or commit him.

Mr. Gregory said that he confessed he should not have spoken as he did.

The Judge then said that it was not right for an attorney to interrupt another while addressing the jury, but nothing warranted the language used by Mr. Gregory. Such language was disgraceful. It was not to him but to the administration of justice the dishonor was done. He did not wish any conflict with any member of the bar, but he could not allow such language to pass unnoted.

Mr. Curry then sought to explain his interruption, but the Judge insisted that the matter drop at once.

Mr. Gregory—"That is false! It is false as a..."

Judge Hanington ordered Mr. Gregory to sit down at once, and said if he would do so he would fine him or commit him.

Mr. Gregory said that he confessed he should not have spoken as he did.

The Judge then said that it was not right for an attorney to interrupt another while addressing the jury, but nothing warranted the language used by Mr. Gregory. Such language was disgraceful. It was not to him but to the administration of justice the dishonor was done. He did not wish any conflict with any member of the bar, but he could not allow such language to pass unnoted.

Mr. Curry then sought to explain his interruption, but the Judge insisted that the matter drop at once.

Mr. Gregory—"That is false! It is false as a..."

Judge Hanington ordered Mr. Gregory to sit down at once, and said if he would do so he would fine him or commit him.

Mr. Gregory said that he confessed he should not have spoken as he did.

The Judge then said that it was not right for an attorney to interrupt another while addressing the jury, but nothing warranted the language used by Mr. Gregory. Such language was disgraceful. It was not to him but to the administration of justice the dishonor was done. He did not wish any conflict with any member of the bar, but he could not allow such language to pass unnoted.

Mr. Curry then sought to explain his interruption, but the Judge insisted that the matter drop at once.

Mr. Gregory—"That is false! It is false as a..."

Judge Hanington ordered Mr. Gregory to sit down at once, and said if he would do so he would fine him or commit him.

Mr. Gregory said that he confessed he should not have spoken as he did.

The Judge then said that it was not right for an attorney to interrupt another while addressing the jury, but nothing warranted the language used by Mr. Gregory. Such language was disgraceful. It was not to him but to the administration of justice the dishonor was done. He did not wish any conflict with any member of the bar, but he could not allow such language to pass unnoted.

Mr. Curry then sought to explain his interruption, but the Judge insisted that the matter drop at once.

Mr. Gregory—"That is false! It is false as a..."

Judge Hanington ordered Mr. Gregory to sit down at once, and said if he would do so he would fine him or commit him.

Mr. Gregory said that he confessed he should not have spoken as he did.

The Judge then said that it was not right for an attorney to interrupt another while addressing the jury, but nothing warranted the language used by Mr. Gregory. Such language was disgraceful. It was not to him but to the administration of justice the dishonor was done. He did not wish any conflict with any member of the bar, but he could not allow such language to pass unnoted.

Mr. Curry then sought to explain his interruption, but the Judge insisted that the matter drop at once.

Mr. Gregory—"That is false! It is false as a..."

Judge Hanington ordered Mr. Gregory to sit down at once, and said if he would do so he would fine him or commit him.

Mr. Gregory said that he confessed he should not have spoken as he did.

The Judge then said that it was not right for an attorney to interrupt another while addressing the jury, but nothing warranted the language used by Mr. Gregory. Such language was disgraceful. It was not to him but to the administration of justice the dishonor was done. He did not wish any conflict with any member of the bar, but he could not allow such language to pass unnoted.

Mr. Curry then sought to explain his interruption, but the Judge insisted that the matter drop at once.

Mr. Gregory—"That is false! It is false as a..."

that consumed the substance of the island, and even the milk and vegetable supplies of the capital have been interfered with and the water supply threatened.

"Continuing all but quiet, there are at least 200,000 men under arms in Cuba, a good many more than engage in any form of productive industry. The Spanish army is over 100,000 men, perhaps 125,000, and the volunteers are 50,000, of whom 13 regiments of 1,000 each are in Havana.

Whatsoever their scheme was it was not fully feathered out when business called the head of the Clan McLean to Fredericton, and nothing special could be done in his absence. As it were, the clique had and duly become aware that they had an elephant in the room, and they could not put him through his tricks till the ring master gave orders.

But Mr. Davies was impatient, time was passing and he went and saw the Colonel. Mr. Tucker readily consented to place a letter in the hands of the executive committee, a publication, a principal object of which is, evidently, that of defaming and, if possible, driving the ADVANCE out of existence and its editor from Chatham. The World was established here for that avowed purpose and it failed, and now laws upon our friends. The Liberal Herald will probably bear the same lesson, after it has had experiences which are in store for it and those who inspire it.

Buckingham's Dye for the Whiskers is a popular preparation in one bottle, and colors every brown or black. Any person can easily apply it at home.

An Unseemly Scene.—There was an exciting scene in the circuit court at Woodstock last Saturday morning. Mr. Geo. F. Gregory, of Fredericton, was addressing the jury on behalf of the plaintiff in the Lafort-Monster Accident libel case; and was pointing out that in the case of the defence wishing to amend their plea it transpired that a witness, St. Cyr, was to be brought. He then telegraphed to Dr. Nich in Fredericton to come up at once and give evidence regarding St. Cyr. Here Mr. Curry, one of the defendant's counsel interrupted him.—"Dr. Nich says you spoke to him of coming here yesterday."

Mr. Curry then said that it was not right for an attorney to interrupt another while addressing the jury, but nothing warranted the language used by Mr. Gregory. Such language was disgraceful. It was not to him but to the administration of justice the dishonor was done. He did not wish any conflict with any member of the bar, but he could not allow such language to pass unnoted.

Mr. Curry then sought to explain his interruption, but the Judge insisted that the matter drop at once.

Mr. Gregory—"That is false! It is false as a..."

Judge Hanington ordered Mr. Gregory to sit down at once, and said if he would do so he would fine him or commit him.

Mr. Gregory said that he confessed he should not have spoken as he did.

The Judge then said that it was not right for an attorney to interrupt another while addressing the jury, but nothing warranted the language used by Mr. Gregory. Such language was disgraceful. It was not to him but to the administration of justice the dishonor was done. He did not wish any conflict with any member of the bar, but he could not allow such language to pass unnoted.

Mr. Curry then sought to explain his interruption, but the Judge insisted that the matter drop at once.

Mr. Gregory—"That is false! It is false as a..."

Judge Hanington ordered Mr. Gregory to sit down at once, and said if he would do so he would fine him or commit him.

Mr. Gregory said that he confessed he should not have spoken as he did.

The Judge then said that it was not right for an attorney to interrupt another while addressing the jury, but nothing warranted the language used by Mr. Gregory. Such language was disgraceful. It was not to him but to the administration of justice the dishonor was done. He did not wish any conflict with any member of the bar, but he could not allow such language to pass unnoted.

Mr. Curry then sought to explain his interruption, but the Judge insisted that the matter drop at once.

Mr. Gregory—"That is false! It is false as a..."

Judge Hanington ordered Mr. Gregory to sit down at once, and said if he would do so he would fine him or commit him.

Mr. Gregory said that he confessed he should not have spoken as he did.

The Judge then said that it was not right for an attorney to interrupt another while addressing the jury, but nothing warranted the language used by Mr. Gregory. Such language was disgraceful. It was not to him but to the administration of justice the dishonor was done. He did not wish any conflict with any member of the bar, but he could not allow such language to pass unnoted.

Mr. Curry then sought to explain his interruption, but the Judge insisted that the matter drop at once.

Mr. Gregory—"That is false! It is false as a..."

Judge Hanington ordered Mr. Gregory to sit down at once, and said if he would do so he would fine him or commit him.

Mr. Gregory said that he confessed he should not have spoken as he did.

The Judge then said that it was not right for an attorney to interrupt another while addressing the jury, but nothing warranted the language used by Mr. Gregory. Such language was disgraceful. It was not to him but to the administration of justice the dishonor was done. He did not wish any conflict with any member of the bar, but he could not allow such language to pass unnoted.

Mr. Curry then sought to explain his interruption, but the Judge insisted that the matter drop at once.

Mr. Gregory—"That is false! It is false as a..."

Judge Hanington ordered Mr. Gregory to sit down at once, and said if he would do so he would fine him or commit him.

Mr. Gregory said that he confessed he should not have spoken as he did.

The Judge then said that it was not right for an attorney to interrupt another while addressing the jury, but nothing warranted the language used by Mr. Gregory. Such language was disgraceful. It was not to him but to the administration of justice the dishonor was done. He did not wish any conflict with any member of the bar, but he could not allow such language to pass unnoted.

Mr. Curry then sought to explain his interruption, but the Judge insisted that the matter drop at once.

Mr. Gregory—"That is false! It is false as a..."

Judge Hanington ordered Mr. Gregory to sit down at once, and said if he would do so he would fine him or commit him.

Mr. Gregory said that he confessed he should not have spoken as he did.

The Judge then said that it was not right for an attorney to interrupt another while addressing the jury, but nothing warranted the language used by Mr. Gregory. Such language was disgraceful. It was not to him but to the administration of justice the dishonor was done. He did not wish any conflict with any member of the bar, but he could not allow such language to pass unnoted.

Mr. Curry then sought to explain his interruption, but the Judge insisted that the matter drop at once.

Mr. Gregory—"That is false! It is false as a..."

that consumed the substance of the island, and even the milk and vegetable supplies of the capital have been interfered with and the water supply threatened.

"Continuing all but quiet, there are at least 200,000 men under arms in Cuba, a good many more than engage in any form of productive industry. The Spanish army is over 100,000 men, perhaps 125,000, and the volunteers are 50,000, of whom 13 regiments of 1,000 each are in Havana.

Whatsoever their scheme was it was not fully feathered out when business called the head of the Clan McLean to Fredericton, and nothing special could be done in his absence. As it were, the clique had and duly become aware that they had an elephant in the room, and they could not put him through his tricks till the ring master gave orders.

But Mr. Davies was impatient, time was passing and he went and saw the Colonel. Mr. Tucker readily consented to place a letter in the hands of the executive committee, a publication, a principal object of which is, evidently, that of defaming and, if possible, driving the ADVANCE out of existence and its editor from Chatham. The World was established here for that avowed purpose and it failed, and now laws upon our friends. The Liberal Herald will probably bear the same lesson, after it has had experiences which are in store for it and those who inspire it.

Buckingham's Dye for the Whiskers is a popular preparation in one bottle, and colors every brown or black. Any person can easily apply it at home.

An Unseemly Scene.—There was an exciting scene in the circuit court at Woodstock last Saturday morning. Mr. Geo. F. Gregory, of Fredericton, was addressing the jury on behalf of the plaintiff in the Lafort-Monster Accident libel case; and was pointing out that in the case of the defence wishing to amend their plea it transpired that a witness, St. Cyr, was to be brought. He then telegraphed to Dr. Nich in Fredericton to come up at once and give evidence regarding St. Cyr. Here Mr. Curry, one of the defendant's counsel interrupted him.—"Dr. Nich says you spoke to him of coming here yesterday."

Mr. Curry then said that it was not right for an attorney to interrupt another while addressing the jury, but nothing warranted the language used by Mr. Gregory. Such language was disgraceful. It was not to him but to the administration of justice the dishonor was done. He did not wish any conflict with any member of the bar, but he could not allow such language to pass unnoted.

Mr. Curry then sought to explain his interruption, but the Judge insisted that the matter drop at once.

Mr. Gregory—"That is false! It is false as a..."

Judge Hanington ordered Mr. Gregory to sit down at once, and said if he would do so he would fine him or commit him.

Mr. Gregory said that he confessed he should not have spoken as he did.

The Judge then said that it was not right for an attorney to interrupt another while addressing the jury, but nothing warranted the language used by Mr. Gregory. Such language was disgraceful. It was not to him but to the administration of justice the dishonor was done. He did not wish any conflict with any member of the bar, but he could not allow such language to pass unnoted.

Mr. Curry then sought to explain his interruption, but the Judge insisted that the matter drop at once.

Mr. Gregory—"That is false! It is false as a..."

Judge Hanington ordered Mr. Gregory to sit down at once, and said if he would do so he would fine him or commit him.

Mr. Gregory said that he confessed he should not have spoken as he did.

The Judge then said that it was not right for an attorney to interrupt another while addressing the jury, but nothing warranted the language used by Mr. Gregory. Such language was disgraceful. It was not to him but to the administration of justice the dishonor was done. He did not wish any conflict with any member of the bar, but he could not allow such language to pass unnoted.

Mr. Curry then sought to explain his interruption, but the Judge insisted that the matter drop at once.

Mr. Gregory—"That is false! It is false as a..."

Judge Hanington ordered Mr. Gregory to sit down at once, and said if he would do so he would fine him or commit him.

Mr. Gregory said that he confessed he should not have spoken as he did.

The Judge then said that it was not right for an attorney to interrupt another while addressing the jury, but nothing warranted the language used by Mr. Gregory. Such language was disgraceful. It was not to him but to the administration of justice the dishonor was done. He did not wish any conflict with any member of the bar, but he could not allow such language to pass unnoted.