Mr. Thomas Fiett, of Nelson, nominated Mr. Jas. Robinson, M. P. P., of Derby, the candidate. The motion was seconde by Mr. Wm. Lawlor, of Chatham.

Mr. W. C. Anslow obj-cted to Mr Rubin son, and wanted to know if they were chose a man who, a short time ago expressed himself to be a Liberal, and who, he, (Ma A.) had no reason to believe had changed his political complexion since that time. It is only a short time ago, said Mr. Anslow, that an interview with Mr.Robinson Montreal was reported, in which he stated that he was a thorough Liberal, and would not op ose Mr. M tchell. It is reported that he stated in this interview that he believe ! Liberalism was in the best interes of the country. By his statements then would seem be was a Liberal and not Liberal-Conservative, "and this meeting called here in the interests of the Liberal Conservative Party, have they no man they can nominate without taking a man wh only a short time ago declared himself to I a Liberal." He (Mr. A) protested against such a man being taken as a candidate the interest of the Libera -Conservatives this county. There were other obj ction but this he thought, was the strongest.

Hon. M .. Tweedie said M .. Anslow ha raised some objection to Mr. Robiuson bein. a candidate, but he had not nominated any. one else. To his mind it was the prope thing to secure and encourage convert Abbott, Sir John Thompson, and by Sir Mackenzie Bowell, who at present oc cupies the position which he held.

During the years of my representation in the Provincial Parliament, and mor so in the House of Commons at Ottawa, many changes of a national character hav taken place. As one and another of ou great leaders fell victims to the "great destroyer," our opponents prophesicd the disintegration of the party; but within th ranks of the party there have always been found MEN eminently fitted to fill the vacancies which have occurred, and who have been able to carry on successfully the great natonal work as founded, and created by our old dead Leader, Sir John A Macdonald Death, dissension and disruption, have dealt severe blows to our national party, but the effects of these have been only moment arily felt, recognized and understood, and were probably sent as a gentle reminder of some neglect. The Liberal Conservative Party, strong

The Government has decided upon its line

the fight.

I thank all my friends for the warm, the judgment of the Privy Council, which the Man toba Government had refused to lo. As to the cry of coercion by the Dominion Government, he showed that all the coercion had been on the part of the Manicoba Government. Mr. Daiy's speech was a most excelient exposition of the Government's position in the matter, and a careful study of it would tend to disabuse the people's minds of a great deal of misapprehension and misconception of the case which has grown up in the public mind through the the genuine and use no other. vay it has been talked round and round. without the germ of the matter being ouched. Mr. Daly explained this germ to be that the Privy Council, when it gave its lecision that the minority had a grievance which the Manitoba Legislature should remove by amending the School Act of 1890 aever supposed that the Manitoba Government would have the temerity to refuse the mandate of the Court and force the Domini on Government to exercise the power Water Street. reserved to it under the Manitoba Act.
