SOCIETY FOR FHE PROMOTION OF CHRISTIAN KNOWLEDGE :- The Rev. Henry Gomery, Canadian agent for the Society for the Promotion of Christian Knowledge, founded in England more than 200 years ago, will address the congregation in S. Mary's chapel tomorrow Friday evening after Evening Prayer at 7.30 o'clock. There should be a large attendance, as the venerable Society's work is a very noble and important one.

CREAGHAN AHEAD !- Mr. J. D. Creaghan was a passenger by the Royal mail steamer Labrador from Rimouski for Great Britain on Saturday last. With his usual alertness and enterprise in the dry goods business, of which he is the leader in Northern New Brunswick, he goes to the British and Continental markets to make his selections of late summer, fall and winter goods in anticipation of the expiry of the French and German treaties, which will give his customers the advantage of the 25% clause in the preferential tariff on goods which he proposes to rush in entries for prior to July 31st.

IMPROVED I. C. R. CARS :- The Wagner cars secured by the Intercolonial railway consist of six sleeping and three dining cars. They are built in the most approved Wagner designs and are marvels of beauty and comfort. The rich mahogany, beautifully figured plush and tapestries, oriental in their handsomeness, make a finish finer than which it would be hard to suggest. The sleeping cars are named the Raritan, Ravenns, Raleigh, Riauvke, Inca and Inex the dining cars are Nos. 600, 492 and 403. They are identical with the Wagner cars running on the world-famous Lake Shore between New York and Chicago.

St. Luke's, Bathurst.

The trouble in St. Luke's church, Bath urst, in connection with the pastorate of Rev. A. F. Thomson, seems to be fair way of settlement. Provisional ar rangements were made at the meeting of Presbytery in Chatham on Tuesday, with the concurrence of Mr. Thomson, under which he is to remain in charge until 7th August next, when his pastorate will terminate, the Presbytery to provide supply for three months, during which period Mr. 'homson's salary is to continue and be payable to him and meantime arrears of his salary amounting to something like $80 are also to be paid. A commission of Presbytery, consisting of Rev. Messrs. Kerr, J. D. Murray, Fisher and McLeod is to confer with the congregation with the view of having these arrangements carried out. At the meeting of Presbytery on Tuesday aspersions he had cast upon the veracity of the late Rev.
