OBITUARY :-- Mrs. Blackstock, mother of Mrs. S. Habberley, of Chatham, died at the residence of her daughter here on Tuesday. She has, of late years, spent most of her time in Boston, but paid annual visits to her old home in Chatham, where she was much pond.' esteemed by the older members of the community to whom she was best known.

GIRLS' SCHOOL :- Attention is directed to the advertisement of the young ladies' school in connection with the Covent of the Congregation of Notre Dame, Newcastle, which is one of the best in the Maritime Provinces. Parents and guardians wishing to select an efficient school for girls and young ladies' under their charge will do well to consider the merits of this institution,

A DEER IN A POUND :- A wild deer is in the pound at Haliburton, Ontario. It was captured a few days ago in an orchard close to that place. The animal had been chased down by dogs. It ran into the orchard, was cornered and taken captive. The deer was handed over to the pound-keeper, who did not know what to do with it. Accordingly he has written to the Game Warden for instructions. Nothing whatever can be done with the deer and it will have to liberated, as it is against the law to keep it captive. -[Ex.

DEATH OF MRS. CRANE :- The death is announced in London of Mrs. John Crane, who for a number of years kept a young ladies' finishing school in St. John, and who placed many ladies now in middle life under great obligation to her for the excellence of the teaching which she gave them. Mrs. Crane was a daughter of the late Hon. John R. Partelow, in his day Provincial Secretary of New Brunswick. For some years Mrs. Crane had resided in London with her daughter, Mrs. Fellows, who is, at present. on a visit to Fredericton.

DEATH OF MRS. B. E. PATTERSON :- AD Amherst, N. S. despatch of 14th inst. says The death took place this afternoon at the residence of her father, Joseph L. Black, ex-M. P. F. of Sackville, of Hattie, wife of B. E. Patterson, editor of the Daily Press, here. The deceased had been seriously ill for some time. She went to Brooklyn, N. Y., for her health, but returned without any improvement, to her father's home, where she has since remained, gradually sinking under her illness. She was thirty-four years of age and a niece of Hon. Senator Snowball, of Chatham.

FINE TEAMS :- A good deal of attention was attracted the other evening by an extra fine-looking turn-out, consisting of a double Mikado phaeton and pair of spirted horses, followed by an equally dashing single topbuggy, both belonging to the outfit of Mr. W. J. Groat's well appointed Livery Stable, at the foot of King street, near Water, Chatham. Mr. Groat has the reputation of keeping only the best horses and rigs procurable, and although not very long in the business, he is already enjoying a large patronage, clover hay or any other good hay should have any salt at the time of storing. It is claimed by some that salt improves the keeping and feeding qualities, but this is doubt ful. Good hay is undoubtedly all right without salt, which adds no additional feeding value to it. Sometimes stock will be in duced to eat inferior hay with greater ap parent relish if salt has been applied; but that is claimed to be due to the natural
