FARM JOURNAL
Great Offer From now to Dec. 1903
Nearly 5 Years

Special arrangement made with the publishers of the FARM JOURNAL, we are enabled to offer to every subscriber who pays for the MIRAMICHI ADVANCE one year ahead, for only $1—both papers for the price of one only; our paper one year and the FARM JOURNAL from now to December, 1903, nearly 5 years. The FARM JOURNAL is an old established paper, enjoying great popularity, one of the best and most useful farm papers published.

Miramichi and the North Shore, etc.

PERSONAL:—Jas. Robinson Esq., M. P. is in town.

Rev. Mr. Henderson, who is in Halifax, will, we understand, be at home for his Friday duties.

THE BARQUE PIONEER left the Snowball wharf for the Bar yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. She was the last ship of the season to leave port.

HOOK AND LADDER CO.—A meeting of the Chatham Hook and Ladder Company will be held this evening (Nov. 23rd) at 8.30. A full attendance is requested as business of importance is to be transacted.

Geo. S. deForest & Sons have been appointed sole agents by Swift & Co. of Chicago, for their Wool Soap, the best toilet and bath soap on the market; it floats.

THE CENTRAL ELECTRIC LIGHT on Chatham Public Square gave out the other night owing to some defect in its make. The company has ordered a new one which they inform us will be in its place in a short time.

TEMPERANCE MEETING:—As next Sabbath is Temperance Sabbath, a public meeting in the interests and the cause of temperance, will be held in the Masonic Hall, at 8.15 p.m. Addresses will be given by Rev. and young, Rev. Mr. McLean, Dr. Cox and others. A strong choir will furnish music. All are cordially invited.

FIRST COME, FIRST SERVED; so march up and pay for the ADVANCE a year ahead. We have a clubbing arrangement with that good little paper, the Farm Journal, by which we can send our paper one year and the Farm Journal, 5 years, (all of 1900, 1901, 1902, 1903 and 1904), without any further pay. Pay up and be happy.

MR. FREDERICK BLAIR, formerly of Chatham, has received the appointment of organist of St. Andrew's Church, Montreal. We understand the salary is $1,000 a year. He is now organist of the Cathedral, Fredericton. He is making rapid strides in his profession and is to be congratulated on the recognition which his abilities have commanded.

MARRIED AT SHERBROOKE:—The marriage of Mr. Wm. Loggie of Loggieville and Miss Charlotte Inglis of Sherbrooke was celebrated on Thursday by Rev. Mr. Van in the Presbyterian Church at the latter place. It was one of the leading social events of the season, the church decorated and music and the fine array of bridal presents being attractive and valuable.

THE EDITOR of the Farm Journal asks: "Why have a mortgage on the farm, poor crops, rheumatism, sour bread, grip, leak in the roof, hole in the pocket, trouble in the closet, or any other pain or trouble, when you can get the Farm Journal 5 years, (all of 1900, 1901, 1902, 1903 and 1904) and the ADVANCE one year for all $1.00. Pay in advance and you get both papers."

THE TRANSMISSION FINDER:—Mr. H. A. McKown and Mr. John T. Kelly, of the Inland Revenue department, have returned from Harcourt, where they went in the interest of the Crown in the case against the Frenchman Guthrie for illicit distilling of whiskey. The case was tried before Judge Bailey, and the prisoner was sentenced by Mr. Carter. Guthrie was found guilty and fined $100.—Globe, 16th.

A PLEASANT TRIP:—Hon. J. P. and Mrs. Borehill left by Saturday's express train for a three weeks' trip to some of the leading cities of the United States, going first to Boston for a few days and thence to New York, where they are to remain until the latter end of the week. They will then go to Morris, N. Y., to visit Mrs. Sterling, Mr. Borehill's sister, with whom they expect to remain for a week or more.

THE FARM JOURNAL is chock full of gumption and has the largest circulation of any farm paper in the world. It is good everywhere. We offer it in connection with our paper to advance paying subscribers, that both papers at the price of the Advance paper one year, and the Farm Journal, 5 years, (all of 1900, 1901, 1902, 1903 and 1904) both for $1.00. Pay in advance—that's all.

BEGINNING THEIR BUSINESS CAREERS:—Mr. John C. Price, of Havelock, and Mr. J. Frank Wilson, of St. Stephen, obtained their diplomas from the St. John Business College, yesterday, and began work at once. Mr. Price with A. E. White & Co., Sussex, and Mr. Wilson with the Maritime Bank, of the Brantford Carriage Co., Truro, N. S., where a fine position has been secured for them through the influence of Messrs. S. Kerr & Son.—Gazette.

UNRIVALED TOURIST SLEEPING cars for the accommodation of passengers holding second class tickets, are run by the Canadian Pacific Railway on Trans-continental Express train, leaving Windsor Station, Montreal, at 11 a.m. every Thursday and running through to Seattle. Passengers for Canadian Northwest and Pacific Coast points will be accommodated in these cars, on payment of a small additional berth charge. Each berth will accommodate two passengers.

VISITING CHATHAM:—Mr. Alex. Cormack, son of Mr. James Cormack, formerly a resident of Chatham, is visiting his relatives here, after an absence of 14 years, and is the guest of Mr. Alex. Robinson, St. John Street. Mr. Cormack was a member of the First Army Corps and enrolled in the 8th Massachusetts in the war with Spain, being who knew her. To her husband the loss is an irreparable one and if the respectful sympathy of the community at large can in any way mitigate his sorrow he has the assurance that it is his.

Deceased was the only daughter of the late John and Mrs. Mary A. Flett of Nelson. As Miss Mary Flett, she was a great favorite with all her friends, because of her unaffected good nature, good sense and happy disposition. Since her marriage with Mr. Robert Loggie, some three years ago, she had made for herself a warm place in the regard of her own immediate community of Loggieville, the members of which feel that they have each sustained a personal loss. Her widowed mother and brothers share with Mr. Loggie general sympathy in their bereavement.

The funeral took place yesterday afternoon at half past one o'clock. Long before that hour people began to assemble at and near the late home of deceased, coming from all the surrounding parishes. The funeral service at the house was conducted by Rev. Wm. Aitken of St. James' Church, Newcastle.—Mrs. Loggie's former pastor—assisted by Revs. T. G. Johnston, J. M. Maclean and D. McIntosh. Prayer was offered by Rev. Mr. Johnston and the hymn "Forever with the Lord" was sung very feelingly by members of the Loggieville Presbyterian Church choir, assisted by other friends.

Rev. Mr. Maclean read the scriptural selections of the funeral service, prayer was offered by Rev. Mr. Aitken and the benediction was pronounced by Rev. Mr. McIntosh. The pall-bearers were Messrs. John O'Brien, M. P. P., Geo. Burchill, jr., W. A. Park, W. B. Snowball, J. W. S. Babkirk and J. R. Johnston. The procession formed under the direction of Mr. John McDonald and was over a mile in length. It included 141 teams and was the longest that ever entered Chatham. The interment was in Riverside cemetery. At the grave the concluding prayer of the service was offered by Rev. Wm. Aitken.

RECORDED GRADUATE.—Mr. E. Eugene Connelly, Douglastown; Mr. William A. Clarke, Newcastle, and Miss Mabel L. Oitz, of this city, (shorthand), graduated this week from the St. John Business College. Mr. Connelly deserves special mention, as he was less than three months in attendance at the college, thus breaking the record for the time required for graduating, and he received from Mr. Kerr a very flattering testimonial bearing evidence to his diligence and capacity.—Globe 18th.

THERE HAVE BEEN poultry books printed costing fifteen dollars and more, but there never has been one at any price with more beautiful colored reproductions of poultry, than those found in Biggie Poultry Book, an announcement of which appears in another column. The paintings were made direct from best birds of the different breeds, and the coloring and characteristic shape of each breed are perfect. As for the text, there never was a book printed containing more practical, level-headed information. Its chapters include, "Eggs for Hatching," "Hatching the Eggs," "Care of Chicks with Hens and Brooders," "The Successful Care of Incubators," "The Farmer's Flock," "The Village Henery" chapters on "Breeds," on "Fattening and Marketing," "Diseases and Remedies," with the old and new school methods of treatment. One man wrote the publishers that, "The mottoes alone at each chapter heading were worth the cost of the book." Twenty thousand copies of this admirable work have been printed. See advertisement of The Biggie Books in this week's issue of the ADVANCE. The price is 50 cents, free by mail; address the publishers, Wilmer Atkinson Co., Philadelphia.

A Record-Breaking Caribou Head. There came to Chatham on Saturday last an antlered caribou head, which is the best specimen we have yet seen, taken in New Brunswick. The head was shot on the Ekedullo Barrens on Wednesday of last week by Mr. J. J. Connell of Little Baribou. The antlers are very symmetrical in form, the trunks, palms and upper branches balancing well. They have thirty-four points, measure from the ends of the palms in front of the eyes to the top 42 inches on the left side and forty inches on the right. The spread is 31 1/2 inches, which is very large, for caribou horns do not extend laterally as moose horns do, being, in that respect, more like those of the elk. Our readers who own large caribou heads are requested to look them over and measure them, and if anyone has a larger specimen we will be pleased to hear from him. The ADVANCE staff photographed the specimen before shipping it to the taxidermist for mounting.

To Cure Catarrh and Stay Cured. You must use the most up-to-date and most approved method of treatment. This can only be had in Catarrozone which cures by inhalation and is sure to reach the right spot. Treatments requiring the use of sprays, douches, snuffs, ointments, are a thing of the past, and the medicated steam treatment supercedes them all. There is no danger or risk in using Catarrozone. It is both pleasant and effective to employ in any case of Irritable Throat, Fetid Breath, Bronchitis, Catarrh and Asthma. For sale at all druggists or by mail, price $1.00. For trial outfit, send 10c. in stamps to N. C. Polson & Co., Box 142, Kingston, Ont.

Death of Mrs. Robert Loggie. No death has taken place on the Miramichi for a long time which has caused such general regret or evoked more widespread sympathy for the bereaved ones than that of Mrs. Robert Loggie, of Loggieville. We are informed by a member of the family that she had been in a delicate state of health for some time, but did not appear in any immediate danger on Friday night. Her mother, who had been with her for a few days as yet with her usual care, when she urged her to retire about midnight, and her husband tender her all the assistance she needed. She soon after appeared to fall asleep, and early in the morning speaking with Mr. Loggie she said she felt quite well. Soon after Mr. Loggie noticed something unusual in her appearance and endeavored to rouse her. He could not do so and becoming alarmed recalled her mother. They thought at first that the attack was of temporary character and used appliances, in the hope of restoring her to consciousness, but without avail. Then the household was alarmed and medical aid was summoned, the efforts to revive the stricken lady being assiduously continued meantime. All efforts, however, of relatives who ministered with tender solicitude and of the three doctors, Messrs. John and Joseph Benson, of Chatham, and Hays, of Nelson, were unavailing. Two lives depended on the issue of the attack and, in the death of his wife, which took place at 4 a.m. on Monday, Mr. Loggie realized the irreparable loss which had come to him, for both the young mother and her firstborn were no more.

The news of Mrs. Loggie's death, which is spread on Monday along the Miramichi, came as a shock to everybody, for she was widely known and universally esteemed. Her home was known to be one of the happiest in the community. She was apparently the embodiment of health, as she was of good spirits, and her acts of charity and kindness and unselfish manners had secured for her a special place in the regard of all certain butcher knife of the value of fifty cents. This jargon in time became sacred. It grew to be an object of reverence, and was deemed necessary to the sanctions of the law and the maintenance of the justice it really hindered and obstructed. No instrument was considered good in law unless couched in this senseless and complicated phraseology, and this superstition became an early and fruitful source of the law's delay.

With this multiplication of words came a corresponding extension of forms of procedure, of methods of "how not to do it." Every statute ends with "or" or "that." The laws under which a street may be opened or any other public improvement made necessary to the comfort, health and happiness of from 10,000 to 100,000 people also provide the means whereby one stony, unenterprising and mulish citizen may legally delay indefinitely the prosecution of the work and entail heavy costs upon those who favor it.

So able and learned a lawyer as Channey Dewey tells his brethren of the profession that this evil, this wresting of the law from its purpose of maintaining justice among men, is increasing. The multiplication of courts multiplies decisions, and decisions differ. Diversity of tribunals leads to diversity of interpretation. The practice of law is shifted from a matter of principle to one of precedents. Much remains to be done before the law can be looked upon by the people as the perfection of wisdom or the sure defense of justice.

Our Doaktown correspondent writes under date of Tuesday, 21st that about a foot of snow fell this "last week," being the first of the season but it is going off, the fields being nearly bare again.

Much activity is going on in the lumber woods. Help for the woods is in great demand; in fact operators cannot get help enough. Wages for woodmen range from $17 to $24 per month.

Farm produce is in fair demand. Oats sell at 35c per bushel; hay about $10 per ton, pressed; beef about 5 1/2c per lb. by the quarter. Live stock is scarce and in active demand. Young stock is much sought after. A good many tourists have come and gone, being quite satisfied with their outings. Many of them returned with trophies of their sportmanship.

Rev. Thomas Johnston assisted Rev. A. Robb in the sacramental service a week ago last Sunday in Doaktown in the Presbyterian church. Three members were added to the church—Mrs. James Robinson and daughter and Miss Grace Mitchell.

The South African war is the absorbing topic here. Rev. Mr. Montgomery preached a patriotic sermon last Sunday evening to a full congregation in the church of England. Much interest was manifested in the theme. Last Sunday morning the Rev. Matthew Knight preached in the Methodist Church. At the close of his sermon he spoke in strong patriotic terms of the justice of the cause for which the nation is fighting in South Africa and offered up a strong and heartfelt petition for the success of British arms in that distant part of the Empire, closing with the National Anthem, which was joined in by the congregation in a very hearty manner.

Another correspondent writes as follows:—H. F. D. Swin is framing a bridge to put across Mill Brook at Nelson's Bridge. It will be 85 feet span, and when completed will add much to the appearance of the place. It is rumored that W. Cumming will operate the saw and door factory of the Robt. Swin Estate this winter. Land Surveyor Freese is kept very busy this fall running lines.

When near Gibraltar, Nancy, the mascot goat of the U. S. warship Chicago at a pot of red paint and died in spite of medical assistance. The animal was buried at sea by the sailors. Weep! Let hot tears flow! Pain strains that are sad and low, And bow the head! Let the sky be overcast, The worst has come at last! Nancy is dead! Dead as a coffin nail— Wait in her long last sleep— Sleep! Sleep! Blasted her last sweet breath, And the waves roll over her head— Dead! Asbestos made her fat, She took no pills for that, And she ate waiting to write. Outfit and all particulars mailed in order of their receipt. No duty. Big terms—30 days credit. Freight paid. Lowest retail prices. Act now and be first. Box 94 St. John N. B.

Something was wrong with the paint; A tint Of some kind must have been in it When Nancy went up again it, Else it wouldn't be said That she'd be dead! Weep! Let hot tears flow! A dauntless spirit has fled! Ah, what a shameful sin Has his who smuggled the poison in— To the paint that was red!
