A feature of one of the reports-that from Canning and Maugerville -was especially noticeable from the fact that it gave particulars of the loss of a large part of the parish endowment fund through the dishorself of a trusted agent and the carelessness of the vestry. The loss amounted to $3,900.

Reference was made in Very Rev. Dean Partridge's report from the parish of Fredericton to the engagement of Mr. Fred. H. Blair as organist of the Cathedral. Mr Blair's attainments were warmly eulogised and especial satisfaction over his services being secured was expressed because of his being a son of the late Geo. A. Blair Chatham a former honored and efficient member of the Syaod, in which he creditably represented the parish Chatham.

After the reading of the St. David report the Synod adjourned until 10 a.m. on Wednesday.

During the evening the Synod was serenaded by the Citizens' Band. The music struck up just as Rev. Mr. Newnham had begun to read the report from Gagetown. Business was at once suspended and many of the clergy and lay delegates went to the open windows overlooking the street, while, His Lordship, Bishop Kingdon went out apon the balcony, from which he spoke briefly, expressing the thanks of the Synod for being called from the harmony within to that without. He assured the bandsmen that their music was much appreciated. When the band played "God save the Queen" the assemblage, which had just been recalled to order arose and, led by the Bishop, joined their voices to the music of the band and heartily sang the anthem.

WEDNESDAY MORNING'S SESSION. The chair was taken by His Lordship The Bishop. After prayers the minutes were read and confirmed, with certain emendations.

In the resolution referring to the late Ven. Archdeacon Brigstocke, Hon. Judge Wilkinson objected to the term "moderate churchmanship". The Judge stated that the word was ambiguous. For instance, he had heard of a moderately good egg. His objection was not sustained. The report of the committee on the Printing of Reports to be presented to the Synod was presented by Mr. W. B. Wallace, and received. The report of the Governors of Kings College was presented by Hon. Judge

Hanington. It contained no financial etatement. It was received. The report of the Women's Aid

Association was read by Rev. H. F. E. Whalley. Total amount raised, $278 48 disbursements, $201.38. The report was received with much applause. The reading of reports from the various parishes was resumed as follows :-Blissville, Rev. H. Dibblee. Hardwicke, Rev. W. J. Wilkinson, Rothesay, Rev. A. W. Daniel. St. George, Rev. R. E. Smith. St. James (St. John), Rev. A. D. A. MISSIONARY MEETING :- Much interest is being manifested in anticipation of the big Missionary Meeting to be held in Masonic Hall, Chatham, this evening, in connection with the Church of England Synod now in session here. The chair will be taken at 8 o'clock by His Lordship, the Bishop of Fredericton and addresses will be given by Very Rev. Dean Partridge, Ven. Archdeacon Neales, Wm. M. Jarvis, Esq., and perhaps others. There will be piano and orchestral of 2nd and 3rd money between Minnie N. accompaniments to the hymns.

A FEW ROWDIES :- The attendance at the Driving Park on Monday was large and while the best of order was preserved on the track, and the different races were called and contested in a most satisfactory manner. there was some disorder caused by a number of young men fighting outside of the track fence. This has become a practice with a number of young blackguards, for whose arrest and lodging in the lockup the management should, hereafter, secure a police force large enough to do the work and teach them that their brutality of action and language will no longer be tolerated there.

DR. J. STAYMAN, the eminent horticulturst, of Leavenworth, Kansas, does not hesitate to express his opinion of that excellent paper, the Farm Journal, which any one can have from now until December, 1903, nearly five years, by promptly paying up a year's subscription in advance to the ADVANCE. He says: "The Farm Journal is always a welcome visitor to my table and is read with unusual interest by all. Have recommended it as one of the best conducted farm papers -select, concise, and reliable in its natural 'make-up'; giving more practical and useful hints than any other farm paper received. It is free from long windy tales and bogus advertisements, a fact which few other papers can boast of." Every home in this country would be benefitted if the Farm Journal came to it.

Presentation to Mr. S. A. McKendy. At the regular monthly meeting of St. Michael's R. C. T. A. Society, held in St. Patrick's Hall on the 2nd of July inst., under the order of miscellaneous business, the president of the society, after a few preliminary remarks, read an address (signed in behalf of the society by Messrs. J. F. Connors, J. F. Maher and N. Cunningham) to Mr. S. A. McKendy, at the same time presenting that gentleman with a very handsome gold headed cane, suitably inscribed. The Rev. H. T. Joyner, director of the society, endorsed the sentiments of the address in a very happy speech and Mr. McKendy made a fitting reply. Mr. McKendy has been a member of the society since his arrival in Chatham six years ago, and has taken an active part in its concerts and other undertakings. He is a very T. E. Arnold.

The management of Chatham Driving Park held a very attractive summer meeting on Monday 3rd inst. which was observed mended. Mr. Marquis is the only man in the as a public holiday in Chatham, instead of Saturday.

West Wind, Dizire B., Myra, and Smuggler. Myra had the pole, with Dizire B. 2nd, Smuggler 3rd and West Wind 4th. A little delay was caused by Dizire B. bursting a pneumatic tire and having to make a change. The start was a very pretty one and Smuggler which was driven by Chas. Sargeant, at once went to the front, but Myra made a game opponent and hung to him well. The race was all between these two, for West Wind and Dizire B. would both have been shut out had not the distance been barred by mutual consent.

The closing of the Barnaby River school on Friday last was marked by very enjoyable and appropriate circumstances. The teacher, Mr. Engene D. Connolly, who has very successfully taught the school in the district for the last two and a half years, having tendered his resignation to the board of trustees, the pupils made the closing exercises the occasion of expressing their esteem for him and regret at his departure, which took the form of the following address, accompanied by a handsome gold-headed ebony shall be sadly missed from our district. Your resignation, dear teacher, was learned by each and every one of us, with the deepest regret. No words of ours can express our feelings for we shall find none who will gain our confidence and our love as you have done. the most as being implied.

Your gift shall be cherished by me ever as a lov ing token of the pleasant hours we have spent together, and shall be ever dear to my heart from those whom I class as my dear and true friends. Although the great Giver of all good has seen fit in his omniscience that I should materially need the gift you have honored me with I can on that account nore fully appreciate your kindness and am almost led to be thankful that it is so. To day as we look back on the time we have s pent together we feel rejoiced that our relations have been so cordial. Occasions may have arisen which have been negligent in my duty and would not have been promoting your welfare. But in future years when our paths will no longer coincide and we are each striving forward through this transient life, I will look back to the happy days I spent in Barnaby which shall ever be dear to my memory. Now as we part it is my fervent prayer that you will always have strength and determination to ontinue onward and upward the path of rogress, that you will always strive to attain and appreciate the beauties of a true and honorable manhood or vomanhood, that you will alw ays endeavor to reach that you will always and in all places breathe, foster and encourage that noble sentime at which makes us true citizens of our own Canada and loyal subjects of that glorious empire to which it is our proud My dear young friends, scorn to do a mean act and always take the side of right.
