By special arrangement made with the publishers of the FARM JOURNAL we are enabled to offer that paper to every subscriber who pays for the MIRAMICHI ADVANCE one year ahead, for only $1—both papers for the price of one only: our paper one year and the FARM JOURNAL from now to December, 1903, nearly 5 years. The FARM JOURNAL is an old established paper, enjoying great popularity, one of the best and most useful farm papers published.

Miramichi and the North Shore, etc.

CHARTERED.—S. S. Gaspeus will load drails at Bathurst for Glasgow at 50s.

THAT JAIL AND COURT HOUSE job in Newcastle appears to have been "a daisy."

STK. TEELIN HEAD arrived yesterday and went up to the Hutchison mill to load.

THE THERMOMETER at the Dominion observatory, Chatham, reached 87° in the shade yesterday.

SEROT. D. M. Loggie of the Newcastle Field Battery is attending the Dominion Rifle Association annual competition.

POLICEMEN.—The Chatham police committee have engaged Messrs. Adam Dickson, Thos. Hannah and Martin Foley as town policemen.

WHEN YOU BUY Union Blend Tea you get a key in every pound package.

C. M. B. A.—Mr. John Morrissey, Newcastle Branch, has been appointed Grand Deputy of the County of Northumberland by the Grand Council of Canada.

NEARLY $500, net, was realized at Rev. Father Murdoch's picnic, Recons Bridge. All who went to it speak highly of the management and say it was one of the best of the season.

GAME.—The season for moose, caribou, deer and all others of our game animals and birds, excepting partridges, opens tomorrow, Sept. 1st. The partridge season does not open until 20th September.

BE SURE and read our great offer of the ADVANCE for a year and the Farm Journal for the balance of 1899 and all of 1900, 1901, 1902 and 1903, nearly five years, all for the price of our paper alone. Just walk up to the captain's office and draw the great prize you ever drew.

A PAIR OF THEM.—The citizens of Newcastle are indulging in no end of fun at the expense of their two new local celebrities: Patsy du Clam and Esterszy. It is the first time that at least one of them has secretly waylaid his betters and assaulted them with his favorite bludgeon.

A PLUMBER FOR CHATHAM.—Mr. L. E. Dryden, plumber and tinsmith, of Sussex, is now in the employ of Mr. G. R. Marquis, and will attend to plumbing work in any part of the county. He comes highly recommended. Mr. Marquis is the only man in the county who has a plumber in his employ.

A GREAT BEREAVEMENT has come to Mrs. Benj. Rae, in the death of her husband, a valued employee of the Maritime Sulphite Fibre Company and well known citizen of Chatham. The widow and several children, as well as the aged father and mother of deceased—all dependent on him for their support—are left to mourn their great loss.

SIMPLE MINDED FOLK are complaining of the Town Incorporation Act being arisen in connection with the Newcastle election. It is easy to find trouble if one is looking for it. How is it that the act worked quite smoothly when the first election for the Town of Chatham was held? It is evident that the fault is not with the Act, but in its directions not being obeyed.

BATHURST.—The St. John Globe of Monday says: "Reports on the street to-day say that Mr. P. J. Veniot, M. P. P., has accepted the office of collector of customs at Bathurst and to-day forwarded his resignation as a member of the Provincial Legislature. The government candidate for the seat made vacant by his resignation will, it is said, be Mr. P. E. Paulin, of Caraquet, who occupied a seat in the last House but did not again offer for election."

MIRAMICHI MARBLE WORKS.—Now is the time to place your orders for cemetery work and avoid the spring rush. We have now on hand and coming one of the largest stocks of marble and granite monuments, headstones and tablets ever shown on the north shore, all from the latest designs and worked from the best material the market can produce. Call and get our prices. They are right.

JOHN H. LAWLER & Co.

DEBUT NOT BEHIND.—The pupils from Derby, who attended the Provincial Normal School during the last term, all passed their final examinations successfully. Miss Mabel Clouston, second class; Miss Maggie Crockett, second class; Mr. Ernest A. Crocker, first class. The latter is one of the few who took first class honours by attending Normal School over term. Much credit is due the and V, instead of V, and Miss Mowatt VI and VII, instead of VI.

To accommodate the present number of pupils at the two more rooms are required and the Trustees would do well to hurry with the arrangements for the new building. With very few exceptions the parents and pupils have agreed with the secretary in his difficult task of apportioning the pupils amongst the different schools.

Gold was found in the discovery of so wonderful a remedy as Nervine—nerve-pain cure. No remedy in the market affords such prompt relief for toothache, neuralgia, and rheumatism. Its action in cramps, colic, &c., is simply marvellous.

Committed for Trial. BATHURST, Aug. 24.—A young man named Henry Fournier was up before Justice O'Brien on Tuesday for his preliminary examination under a charge of obtaining money under false pretences. The prosecution contended that Fournier represented himself as one Henry Glazier, in any way working for Adams, Burns & Co., and drew $7.50 wages due Glazier. When later it was discovered that he had been paid, the fraud was then discovered. Fournier has been committed to stand trial at the next sitting of the Supreme Court, and is now in jail.

Export of Game. The Minister of Customs has, under the authority conferred upon him by a law passed at the last session of Parliament, made regulations by which persons from abroad who shoot large game in Canada may be permitted to take out at least some of the animals which they shoot. The regulations are quite stringent, a fact that is due to a considerable extent to the opposition of game in Parliament to the proposition. Of course, the matter is not in any way a party one. Several members thought that the proposed regulations would result in a general slaughter of game, and this view was adhered to by several of them even after it was shown that no one person could export more than the Dominion law than he could kill under the Provincial laws. However, it will not be held, we presume, that the new regulations are too stringent. They at least permit what was before prohibited. McAdam Junction is the only point in New Brunswick from which such game can be exported. It would be no harm had St. John been included in the exportation places, for it often happens that game set up there can be more easily exported direct by sea than transferred by rail. However, we presume that non-resident sportsmen will be fairly satisfied with the opportunity now given them.

St. John Business College. No other man in New Brunswick can claim the honor of starting so many young men on successful careers as the Principal of the St. John Business College. Almost every clerical position here, without having, is held by his graduates.—Daily Telegraph.

Catalogues containing terms, courses of study, etc., mailed to any address. Now is the Time to Enter. S. KERR & SON. Patriotic Private Post Cards.

J. C. Wilson & Co., the extensive paper makers and wholesale stationers of Montreal and Lunenburg, send us advanced proof of their two new patriotic private post cards, which they are about to issue. They are very neatly lithographed in colors, and will no doubt be very popular, and have a large sale, especially the Canadian design, which represents Canada, a pretty maiden in a blanket snowshoe outfit, with a pair of snowshoes in her right hand, holding the Canadian flag in her left, the leaves at her feet, a wreath of autumn leaves entwining the words "The Maple Leaf for ever," the rising sun in the background, and at the bottom the motto "Patria Amamus." This card is considered the best production of its kind yet issued. The other is from the celebrated painting by Mand Earl, the bull-dog standing on the Union-Jack, with the words "What we have we'll hold." They will be for sale at all the booksellers' or in quantity from the publishers.

Barnaby River Notes. The Garden Party, which took place last Wednesday evening, in Mr. J. McGrath's field, was a decided success, netting the neat sum of $160. The boys and girls of our parish deserve credit, everything being carried on smoothly and successfully.

Mr. John A. McDonald arrived home on Wednesday, from Wisconsin. His homecoming was quite a pleasant surprise.

Miss Maud McCormick was called home to Blackville, having received the sad news of the death of one of her sisters.

Miss Josie Dalton who has been visiting her sister, Rev. Sister S. Clarence, returned home after a pleasant trip.

Mr. Ronald McDonald, his son Angus and Willie Hackett, are off to the woods. We wish the boys good luck.

Mr. Martin Foley, one of our able young men, has been taken on the police force of Chatham.

Mr. E. D. Connolly, of Douglastown, spent a few days here before leaving for St. John.

Miss Rose Grattan, who spent the past week with her friends, returned home on Saturday.

We were pleased to see Mr. Quilty take in the garden party and also to see him so attentive to the ladies.

Miss Lizzie McDonald, who has been home for some time, returned to Newcastle last Thursday.

It is possible that the trustees of the Ridge school, have not allowed their teacher to take charge as yet? May we ask the question: Do these men understand what they are doing? They do not. Keeping the door of their school closed for no reason whatever. Have they lost the good judgment, which they were always given credit for, surely they wish their young sons and daughters to grow up good and true citizens. If so do not hesitate to open your school.

THEY. The Osside Hatchery. A SERIES OF LAWLESS OUTRAGES ON THE RESTIGOUCHE RIVER. The Ottawa government will probably prosecute those who burned the fish hatchery at Deeside on the Restigouche. A correspondent of the Campbellton Enterprise explains the trouble thus:—"I notice in your issue of the 5th inst., you made reference to the burning of the Fish Hatchery at Deeside giving as a cause the prejudice against the Hatchery and attributing the poor catch of fish this season to the artificial work. The artificial fry they must eat up the natural born fish. This is the only way any damage could result to the river. Query, if one Hatchery should be so injurious to the great Restigouche river and its tributaries how quickly will 29 Hatcheries destroy all the fish in the state of Washington? The seawomen and guardsmen are unanimous in saying the rivers are teeming with fish at the present time, and you will get some of the anglers' scores later on. The picturesque spot of Deeside where five settlers reside has made a reputation for itself during the last number of years. The first crime was the burning of the late John Mowatt's barn containing twenty tons of hay, following this a man's pig was slain in the barn, and last summer another man's fine bull was shot dead. On the Sunday the Hatchery was burned and a man's cow was clubbed and may die, and lastly, after several attempts, the Government Hatchery was burned—wonderful how it escaped so long. In the spring of '98 a change took place in the caretakership. I am told each of the settlers wanted the position, but the government thought otherwise and gave it to a man from St. Alexis. Deeside was named by the late John Mowatt after the beautiful River Deeside in Scotland. I am sure he little realized it would so disgrace the fair name of the beautiful river after which it was called. It would be more appropriate if the name were now changed to Devil Side."—(Moncton Transcript.)

Lord and Lady Minto. (Moncton Transcript.) It will be remembered that when the Vice-Regal party passed through Moncton for Halifax a few days since a large crowd gathered at the L. C. R. railway station out of natural interest and respect for the Queen's representatives in Canada. Lord Minto remained in the car; to the disappointment of the large body of people who had informally gathered; and who would have greeted his appearance most enthusiastically. It is no reflection upon the loyalty of the people of Moncton to say that the last opportunity of even casually seeing Lord and Lady Minto caused much disappointment.

But this is not all. When the vice-regal party arrived at Truro there was a similarly large informal gathering; and their excellencies remained in their car.

THE TRURO PEOPLE did the right thing. Somebody proposed three cheers for the governor-general. They were heartily given; and then Lord Minto realized that the crowd was a tribute to himself and not the ordinary gathering at a railway station. Lord Minto went to the platform, received another hearty reception and spoke a few words of thanks. He then entered the car and returned with Lady Minto, who was heartily received, and who expressed her thanks.

It was then that His Excellency recalled the Moncton incident and enquired if it were possible that the gathering which he noticed there instead of being the regular concourse of a railway station in a large town, was really attracted through interest in the vice-regal party. On being assured that the latter was really the case His Excellency remarked: "It was really interesting to me to see this. How inappreciative we must seem to them. It was entirely unintentional on our part and we appreciate their kindness so much." On his return trip this morning His Excellency asked that some means be taken to make known to the citizens of Moncton his regret at the unintentional misunderstanding.

All reports agree that Lord Minto promises to be one of the most popular of Canadian Governors-General. He possesses a manner which places all those meeting him instantly at home, and is the least ceremonious of all in ordinary intercourse. Lady Minto by her affable and winning ways is already a favorite. An incident told of

A WAIT AT WINDSOR JUNCTION is to the effect that some one gathered a little spruce to adorn the lamp brackets, etc., in their car and give the same a holiday appearance. Almost instantly both Lord and Lady Minto noticed that the decorations stood far further and personally helped the vice-regal party in gathering spruce boughs and helped in decorating the locomotive and the other cars.

The party left Halifax by a special at 22 o'clock on Saturday night and passed through Moncton for Quebec during the early hours of the morning. District Superintendent Jarvis accompanied the party to Moncton and District Superintendent Renssels met the train further north.

Protecting the Subject. SHANGHAI, Aug. 27.—As the outcome of a dispute regarding the possession of some islands at Hankow, on the Yang Tse Kiang river, about 700 miles from the sea, which were purchased in 1863 by the concern of Jardine, Matheson & Co., but were subsequently included in the new concessions to Russia, the owners, under the advice and protection of Mr. Hurst, the British consul, sent workmen to fence in the tract.

After the work had begun, a dozen Cossacks from the Russian consulate, accompanied by the British consul, appeared on the scene and forcibly ejected the workmen.

The captain of the British second class gunboat Woodlark, specially designed for river service, after consulting with Mr. Hurst, landed a party of bluejackets and moved the Woodlark into firing distance of the Russian consular. For a time a fight seemed imminent, but nothing further occurred. The bluejackets are now guarding the property.

The British third class gunboat E-k has been despatched to Hankow from this port. Great Britain is evidently determined to uphold British rights.

[St. John Globe, Aug. 25.] A Co-Operative Concern. THE PLANT AND ENTERPRISE OF THE TRACADIE LUMBER COMPANY.

Push, enterprise and foresight are surely characteristics that lead to business success, and these combinations seem to be possessed by the management of the Tracadie Lumber Company. Last year the Globe noticed with pleasure the work of this energetic company in the completion of their large saw mill, fitted up with all modern machinery for converting the log into all kinds of lumber; machine and blacksmith shops, to which the machinery in thorough repair; the fittings with its beautiful grounds, and other holdings for the comfort of man; the big warehouse and other buildings for the carrying on of trade. When the writer visited the place a few days ago he was greatly surprised to find that the company had still further enlarged their works by the construction of a large planing mill. This mill, of course, is fitted with a number of planers for boards, clapboards, etc. The company has also built a dry house, as well as a store house, where the clapboards are kept in prime condition for shipment to the Bangor, Boston and New York markets. Notwithstanding their extensive trade in the above enterprises, the company have a close eye on another industry, which, no doubt, will pay well. Of course, it is well understood that a large proportion of the lumber sent from New Brunswick to the old country is converted into boxes and packing cases, hence the management of the above company cannot see any good reason why their company should not supply boxes for the home market as well as compete with the box-makers on the other side of the Atlantic. The raw material has to be worked up anyhow in certain dimensions of deals, scantling, etc., and with a little more labor box shooks can also be produced. With this end in view, the company intends this fall to build an up-to-date box mill and factory, where boxes of all dimensions will be manufactured for the Canadian as well as the English market. So far as the writer could judge, the company has now on hand some fifteen million feet of sawn lumber, which they are "seasoning" for manufacturing purposes. The most of this is pine.

One can hardly comprehend the extent of the business of the company without visiting the premises. The yard room for the piling of lumber is said to be the largest in the Maritime Provinces, and this does not seem to be a boast when one looks upon the 2,700 feet of elevated platform for drying lumber to the different piles. This platform is what may be termed an "L" railroad, for the rails are laid on either side, so that the lumber can be loaded on cars from hand wagons in very quick time. The wagons are used for distributing the various kinds of lumber, and the road is so wide that two cars can be run side by side, while there is plenty of room in the centre. The piling business is down to a regular science. Cedar sills, about eight inches, have just been laid for the piling of from eight to ten million feet more lumber. They are massive structures, and are so arranged that the different kinds of material can be easily handled. The manager of the company, Mr. H. B. Foster, is a regular go-ahead business man, and he seems determined to have all equipments in such a position that the lumber can be handled, manufactured and shipped with speed as well as at a small cost.
