Presentation to Rev. Wm. Hamilton.

An esteemed correspondent writes :- W warmly congratulate the Rev. Wm, Hamilton on the valued proofs of friendship he has recently received from his quondam congregation. These proofs speak out loud for themselves. On the past week, Mr. Hamilton had returned home from some preaching engagements. He had thought of spending his Christmas quietly and alone with his family. But this was not to be. One evening, in the midst of this festal season, his dwelling was literally invaded by a goodly number of the Kingston people. These were members of St. Andrew's church who had come to surprise their former minister. Mr. Hamilton, we believe, felt somewhat surprised, but only for a few minutes. OTTAWA, Jan. 3.— The conference Maritime premiers and ministers resulted in an agreement to suspend action pending reference to the Department of Justice as to the interpretation of the Privy Council decision in regard to inland fisheries. The question to be settled is whether the decision hands over control of sea fisheries within the three-mile limit to the provinces -a proposition that Sir L. H. Davies does not accept.

In the meantime the provinces will ena legislation providing machinery for the ad ministration of the inland fisheries. The Dominion will retain control of the obster fisheries in any event, and it is probable salmon fisheries in rivers and mouths of rivers as well as oyster beds in small bays will be taken over by provinces. Until agreement is reached upon these points license will not be issued. As to the question of outstanding accounts between provinces examination will be made of them and they will either be admitted if found to be justified, or reference will be made of them for settlement, as has been done in the matter of disputed accounts between Ontario, Quebec and the Domi nion.
