Sermon for Young Men.

No better proof could be given of the appreciation in which the Rev. Mr. Hender son's monthly sermons to young men are heid and nothing could be more cheering of encouraging to the preacher than the large andience of your g people that greeted him last Sunday evening in St. Andrew's Church. Through snow squails and a piercing wind, the worsnippe.s-a veritable pigrim's procession-made their way as best they could to their place of worship and were suppy rewarden for any self-sacille made - a member of the Chuich informs us -by the timely sermon which for nearly thity-five minutes enchained their attention. These sermons are to be a month y occu. rence in St. And sw's, and ought to be taken full advantage of by the young men. We are glad to see the pulpit giving promibence to a question of such vital importance to our country as the raising of our young men

As Doyie did not again put in an appearance at the hotel suspicious settied on him as being a thief and having stolen

Sivret to come in his direction, but hearing no response, went to find him, but could not succeed in doing so, nor could he find either of the teams. After an unsuccessful search he made his way to Grand Plains, to Sivret's house-between one and two miles-and not finding him there told Mrs. Sivret the facts. As many men as could be got together at once set out to search for the ost man and teams, but were unsuccessful that night, save that they found Vibert's horse, all right. They turned out again the next day and searched till Saturday morning when they found poor Siviet's body out on the ice about one hundred yards from Ee.
