Curling.

Play continues to go on briskly at the Chatham Curling rink. In the third stage of the match for the Hutchison Rink Medal. Skip James Johnston's rink defeated that of Skip Lawlor by a score of 23 to 5. This brings the finish between the rinks of Skips Johnston and Chesman, the latter having drawn a bye. The final contest between these two rinks will be an exciting one. Play for the Lawlor medal is now going on between the regular rinks and the first stage results are as follows :

A. Burr's, 10. Jas. Johnston's 8. M. S. Hocken's, 16. vs. Edwd. Johnson's, 15, vs. Geo. Hildebrand's, 14, vs. Wm. Loggie's, 8 D. Chesman's 12. R. A. Lawior's 11. The united bank officials played a return match on Saturday with the lawyers. The bankers were, however, short of a man and Mr. Theo. DesBrisay played with them, the rinks opposed making the following scores:-Bankers. Lawyers.

R. H. Anderson. Arch. Haviland, Theo. DesBrisay, . W. C. Winslow, R. A. Lawlor, H. S. MacGachan, Geo. Dean, Skip. 14. R. Murray, Skip. 8. The third match between the above representatives of capital on the one hand and honest toil on the other is to be played next Saturday afternoon.

A party of Newcastle eurlers was expected to play in Chatham last evening.
