FIVE MONTHS IN JAIL .- On Wednesday, the 19th inst, Policeman Ramsbotham arrested John Cribbs for smashing the Miramichi Foundry windows by driving into them with a horse and buggy. When arrested, Cribbs, who is a prominent leader of the rowdy element of the town fought the officer with both hands and feet, but in a short time Ramsbotham with the assistance of the Mayor and a couple of other citizens subdued him when he was taken to the lockup. The Police Magistrate sentenced the youth to five months in the county jail.

THE FARM JOURNAL is unlike any other paper; for one thing it prints no quack medical advertisements: for another it takes five year subscriptions and gets the paper to its subscribers the full time if they are anywhere on this planet, even if they move two or three times ; if they die their heirs get it. Now we are going to send the Farm Journal for the balance of 1899, and all of 1900, 1901 1902 and 1903, nearly five years, to every advance paying subscriber to the ADVANCE, but better speak quick, as we have only a limited number Farm Journals to offer on these terms.

SUDDEN DISAPPEARANCE :- Great uneasi ness is felt by the family of Mr. James Pattison, the clerk at the box office at the Opera House, St. John, over his strange disappearance near St. Martins. He left on Saturday last to spend Sunday with his mother at Fairview, five miles from Quaco, intending to return on Monday. He changed his mind on Monday and decided to stay a couple of days longer, as he was not feeling well. On Friday his watch and pocket book were found on the shore of the lake. No trace of him has since been found.

ST. JOHN VALLEY RAILWAY :- At the last meeting of the Local Government at Fredericton the Provincial Secretary was authorised by an order-in-council to make a contract with a New York syndicate who have in view the building of the St. John Valley and River de Loup Railway. Although the subsidies from the Provincial and Dominion Governments had lapsed for the building of this road, the local subsidy has been renewed and there is every reason secured. As soon as this is done the work will be commenced and carried on as rapidly as possibly until it is finished. After that,

When completed, this railway will not only be of great benefit to Fredericton and Woodstock but to the district of country through which it will run.

PERSONAL :- Rev. Dr. Morrison, agent the Presbyterian church in Canada, while on a visit to his friend, Rev. D. Henderson, minister of St. Andrew's church, took ill. suddenly, on his way to the manse last Thursday. The Rev. Dr. has been in delicate health for several years, and was on his way home to Halifax from the Clifton Springs, when he broke journey at Chatham. He is, of course, receiving all the attention and comfort, possible, at St. Andrew's Manse, but is said to be in a very critical condition. Mrs. Morrison and son arrived here on Tuesday night from Halifax.

Hon. Senator Snowball, who made a visit home, arriving on Saturday, was to leave

CHILDREN LOST IN THE WOODS :- On Friday afternoon about two o'clock Sherman and John, aged 12 and 11 respectively sons of Andrew Kerr, and Howard, the 12 year old son of George Goldrup, living two miles from Bathurst, were sent to bring the cattle, which had wandered at the back the farm, home. The children went in after them. Not returning their freinds became alarmed and search was made all Friday night and Saturday morning without success. On Saturday at noon Messrs. Adams Burns & Co. closed their mill and sent all their men with a large number of others. They started in different directions in the woods in search of the missing children. They found them about 4 p.m. near Bass River, five miles from where they entered the woods. They were all in an exhausted state, having had nothing to eat for twentyeight hours. The Goldrup boy was badly cut about the legs and had to be carried out. He is in a critical condition. The Kerr children though badly used up, are all

The many friends of the Hon. Peter Mitchell in this county as well as throughout the Dominion will be grieved to hear that he now lies seriously ill at Ottawa with but little hopes of his recovery. It appears that Mr. Mitchell was returning to the Hotel Cecil after paying a visit to the House of Commons and while descending observed to totter, and after a moment the steps and bystanders hastened to his assistance. Among those in the vicinity was Breton. The doctor at once saw that the case was one of more than temporary indis-
