has, it seems, resulted in a sure cure for catarrh, a most offensive and insidious disease, until lately incurable. This remedy is called Catarrhose, and is simply inhaled, being carried by the air directly to the diseased parts of the throat or nasal passages, thus superseding former disgusting and useless snuffs and ointments. "Tougeur."

There doesn't seem to be any statement to absolve for thoughtless newspaper editors to publish. A local paper printed the statement the other day that a man in England named George Miller read the bible through every four years, "preached constantly in English, German and French," distributed over 250,000 bibles and 100,000,000 religious books and tracts, and did a lot of other things. If Mr. Miller preached constantly in three languages his time would have been pretty well occupied, but if he had worked 12 hours a day for 50 years distributing the bibles and religious books and tracts attributed to him he would have had to dispose of more than 700 copies every minute and guess we would not have overtake the book business at that rate.

Death of Rev. Mr. Doucet.

Rev. Hilaron Doucet, parish priest of Jacques River, died at his residence in eleven o'clock Wednesday night St. Hilaire, aged forty-eight years. The deceased was suffering from an attack of la grippe, which developed during the last few days into pneumonia. Father Doucet was a son of the late Edward D. Doucet, of Bathurst. When the parish of Bathurst was divided the deceased was first pastor of the town, and served for four years, being then sent to Jacques River, where he has been for fourteen years. Fr. Doucet was a favorite with all who knew him and will be greatly missed.

The funeral took place from his late residence, Jacques River, at 9 o'clock on Saturday. The pall-bearers were John Culligan, J. A. Doyle, Patrick Ultee, Celestin Landry, M. Frenette and Peter Lawlor. The funeral orations were preached by Rev. Father Doucet of Lameque, Gloucester Co., in French and by Father Van de Mortel, of Bellefleur in English. The funeral was very largely attended by people of all classes. Among those present were Rev. Fathers Barry of Bathurst, Varrily of Bathurst Village, Belcher, of Petit Rocher, Van de Mortel, of Bellefleur, Boucher, of Dalhousie, Martin, of Charlo, Mahou, of Bathurst, Wallace and Genet, of Campbellton, Doucet of Grand Anne, Doucet, of Lameque, Joyner of Chatham, (representing His Lordship Bishop Rogers) of Moncton, and Sormany of St. Louis. A fine church and presbytery were built at Jacques River under Father Doucet's charge. He was highly esteemed by all classes of the community in which he ministered.

R. and seconded by Brother Robert Noble junior, Chaplain, and carried unanimously: "That Court Fairland greatly regret the death of our late Brother John A. but also to each member individually, and that we will do all in our power to extend our sympathy to the widow and fatherless children in this their time of affliction.

"And further resolved that a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the Miramichi newspapers, and also to the widow of our late deceased Brother." I. B. NOBLE, A. G. WILLISTON, R. S., C. R.

Fredricton and Moncton Civic Elections.

FREDRICTON, N. B., March 13.—Considerable interest centered in the civic elections to-day from the fact that alderman-candidates were divided into two parties: those who favored granting the shoe factory a bonus of $10,000 only on the condition that the company give the city a security for the company carrying on the manufacture of shoes, and the other faction was supposed to favor granting a bonus without any such security. The result is a decided victory for those who demand security. The previous council was divided six to four on the question, a majority being in favor of giving the bonus without a mortgage clause. Of the six who were said to be thus working for the shoe company and against the city's interest, four suffered defeat in to-day's contest, viz., Rusten, Hall, Limerick and Rossborough, and only two of that party elected are Anderson and McKendrick. Harry Beckwith was elected mayor, defeating veteran showman John H. Reid, the late being Beckwith 448, Reid 320.

The aldermanic vote was as follows, the two first mentioned in each ward being elected:—Wellington ward—Oliver Barden, 494; W. H. Anderson, 412; F. H. Rosten, 381. St. Ann's ward—A. H. Vanwart, 459; E. W. Henry, 425; J. M. Wiley, 392; H. C. Jewett, 290.

Queens ward—John Moore, 619; A. H. Clark, 229; J. L. McKendrick, 348. Kings ward—W. E. Smith, 451; C. F. McKendrick, 395; Wm. Rossborough, 327; John B. Bingham, 316.

MONCTON, March 13.—Moncton's civic elections to-day were run openly on party lines. Two straight tickets, Liberal and Conservative, were presented to the electors, and Moncton elected, with a single exception, the entire ticket presented by the Liberals. The only straight Conservative elected a F. P. Reid in ward one. The results stand for mayor, Ayer, Liberal, 435; Martin, Conservative, 408.

For aldermanic at large—Frank Robinson, Liberal, 457; Dr. Stevens, Liberal, 361; elected. Weston, Conservative, 328; Gervais, Conservative, 325; defeated.

For alderman, ward 1—Reid, Conservative, and G. L. Harris, Independent, elected. Ward 2—D. Grant, Liberal, 200; Whitehead, Liberal, 196; elected. Ex-Mayor Cole and Wallace, Conservative, defeated. Ward 3—T. Ryan, Liberal, 175; W. A. Liberal, 170; elected. Wier and Gross, Conservatives, defeated. Liberal majority was two to one.

Cold Storage for Bait.

The Halifax Chronicle says Dr. Kendall secured a committee in the Nova Scotia house of assembly the other day to consider matters pertaining to the fisheries. The committee met and much information was obtained, particularly in reference to the bait problem. There was a good attendance. Mr. Mitchell, chairman, in stating the objects of the meeting, said that during a certain part of the year it was difficult for fishermen to obtain bait, and that a cold storage could be inaugurated along the coast which would remedy the difficulty. He asked for expressions of opinion on this question.

Thomas Robertson, M. P., speaking for Shelburne county, said that in July and August it was almost impossible to secure bait. It was one of the greatest drawbacks the fishermen of Shelburne had to encounter. If any scheme could be devised by which a supply of bait could be obtained all the year round it would be a good thing.

Mr. LeBlanc, M. P., speaking particularly of the conditions prevailing in and about Fabouic, Yarmouth Co., said the fishermen had the same thing to contend with as in Shelburne. Some times the fishermen went without bait for weeks. Cold storage bait would not suit for short trips, of say, one day, but for long trips, as herring coming off the ice into the well of the vessel soon decay. Dr. Kendall asked if it would be a serious matter for the fishing vessels to apportion a small part of their space for cold storage. Mr. LeBlanc said he did not think it would be if the system was not too expensive. Capt. Joyce, M. P., said the fishermen of Isle Madegans were sometimes without bait for weeks.

Mr. Sperry, M. P., thought the business of the bank fishermen from Lunenburg would not be affected by cold storage, except by fitting up a system on the vessels. On account of having no bait a very poor business was done last year by the shore fishermen.

J. H. Sinclair, M. P., referred to the industry in certain parts of Guysborough county and asked Mr. Whitman, of Canoe, to express his views.

Mr. Whitman spoke of the cold storage warehouses which he had erected at Canoe. They supply the Lunenburg and local fishermen with bait. He thought the bait storage would be an advantage in localities where the fishermen are thickly settled. There is a strong prejudice in the minds of the fishermen against frozen bait.

In answer to Dr. Kendall he said about $200,000 per year was lost to the fishermen through the scarcity of bait. He thought cold storage on a small scale could be established at Gabarus and Ingonish, providing the fishermen would patronize it. The cost of a cold storage plant of 100 tons capacity was about $2,000. It would require 500 tons of ice per year. The cost of operating the same would be about $2,000 per year. Cold storage would not pay by itself, it must be run in connection with some other business. A small plant could be erected for $500. He did not think it a good idea to put cold storage on vessels under 100 tons.

When asked concerning the markets for frozen fish in the Western States, Mr. Whitman said he had tried it and it had not proved a success. He had sent a shipment of haddock to Chicago and had to keep them in cold storage there for a year before he sold them. There is an abiding prejudice against frozen fish by American dealers. Regarding the British Isles and Europe, Mr. Whitman was not enthusiastic. He had sent a case of frozen squid to Grimsby, but had received no returns.

"A Cold Crack" but the Plain Truth.

The following letter written to the Halifax Chronicle lets daylight into one of the "tricks of the trade":—SIR,—In the article on mooseheads in your issue of 9th inst., you say that quite a number of moose with horns 54 inches across have been killed in Nova Scotia and that the size is not extraordinary. Yes, no doubt there have been many moosehorns in Nova Scotia larger in years gone by, but nowadays experts tell us such a size is very rare. Thus the uniformity in shape and size of head must be taken into consideration in the rating of mooseheads.

The head with the largest antlers ever got in this country, as you assert, is probably a head mounted by Mr. Egan, the Indian, who picked them up in the woods, one antler quite a distance from the other, having been dropped from the moose. This moose was not killed then. These identical antlers were placed on another head—a wooden stick—and made to measure 66 inches from tip to tip. You did not mention it, but this head was sold through Sir Ross Plice to Beckett, the artist in New York, for $300. Thanking you for the space, Yours truly, JOHN E. ALBRO.
