Humiliating Canada. Late utterances of a number of members of the House of Commons and such Canadian newspapers as Montreal Star on the subject of lovalty are of a character calculated to bring discredit upon the Dominion. It is evident that there is a determination on the part of a certain class politicians and papers to make political capital by exciting national prejudices and their language and methods employed to that end are disgraceful. The warfare going on is especially humiliating to clean-minded citizens just at the present time, when our soldiers in South Africa are causing an unusual degree of interest to be taken in and attention to be directed to Canada by the people of the mother country and other European nations, who, if they happen to read some of our House of Commons debates, or the incendiary articles in papers of the Montreal Star class, must arrive at the conclusion that the legislators and other leaders of public thought in the country are very gnorant, narrow-minded and ill-bred. It is to be hoped that these dwarfed and vulgar parliamentarians and their editorial imitators will, in some way, be made to realise that they are disgracing themselves and Canada by their utterances in their efforts to create discord and national and religious hatred, which cannot but retard our progress

London, March 9.—The war office has received the following despatch from Lord Roberts ---

"POPLAR GROVE, Friday morning-Presidents Kruger and Steyn were both present at the fight of March 7, and all in their power to rally their troops The rout was, however, complete, the men declaring that they could not stand against the British artillery and such a formidable force of cavalry.

The tight of the burghers from Poplar Grove, according to all accounts, was wholly inglorious. A Times despatch from Poplar Grove under yesterday's date goes so far as to say that the Boers' route was so complete that the submission of the Free State is ing demanded by the Burghers from their unwilling President and it is expected that its submission will be made within a week. The correspondent adds: "Probably the Boers' wisest course was flight, but it most undignified, and is certainly productive of consternation. At Bloemfontein there is a growing outcry against any further identification of the Free State with the Transvaal's interests." Despatches from the Boer camp at Glencoe via Lorenzo Marques, depict President Kruger as donning a bandolier, seizing a rifle and inviting volunteers to accompany him, as he wished to have a shot at the enemy himself. With this he could reach the Free State capital in three or four days and begin clearing the railroad southward to meet the British advance from Cape Colony, which is expected to be hastened as soon as General White takes control. The British occupied Jamestown unopposed on Thursday March S, and the Boers are reported to be retreating beyond Aliwal North. General Warren's division and some artillery have already been ordered to join the commanderin-chief, who is preparing for all eventualities, including possible desperate opposition o his crossing the Vaal river and the necessity of the seige of Pretoria. Thousands of natives are reported to be employed at the Transvaal capital in the construction of defensive works, concerning which such secrecy is maintained that no one is allowed to drive or walk on the outskirts of the

It was learned late this afternoon that the peace rumors had been founded on the fact that President Kruger had appealed to Lord Salisbury for a cessation of hostilities, offering at length by cable the terms which he was willing to accept. These, however, were not taken seriously, as they included practically nothing more than what the Transvaal government offered prior to the ssuing of the British ultimatum. Official circles here regarded the propositions as merely a ruse for the Boers to gain time, and did not consider that President Kruger was yet ready to consider the sweeping demands which Great Britain would make as reimbursement for the loss of life and great expenditure. It was understood President Kruger's advances had met with an emphatic rejection at the hands of Lord Salisbury, who was believed to have said that no such attempt to retain the independence of the Transvaal could be considered for a moment by the British govern-

A "Ratepavers" Meeting.

It is to be hoped the we shall not see any more such "ratepagers" meetings as that held by two or times hundred men and boys in Masonic Hall, Chatham, on Monday evening, and we respectfully suggest to His Worship the Mayor that should he again call such a function he take some kind of steps to have it a little nearer to what it ought to be. The disorder of the gathering was not creditable to any one concerned; there were manifest acrimony and asperity permeating the whole proceedings, exchanges of personalities and declarations of special wisdom and independence on the part of some of the speakers, which were as State made an hysterical appeal, nauseating as they were unnecessary and there was a general lack of order and sentatives, to European powers and the dignity which could not but be disappoint ing and annoying to those who attended for the legitimate purposes set forth in the notice. Such subjects as that on which the meeting voted so hastily and really without previous notice should be pronounced upon at the ballot box, after being fully and publicly set forth, so that of the Boer forces and the fullest the demagogic and disorderly would have

They would interrupt the speakers as voiceferously as ment, in a loyal manner. The speech of called to order by that gentleman. The chairman, however, appeared to realise. after a time, that he was expected to protect the speakers who were not in favor with the disturbers and he threatened one of them-the leader-that if he again endeavored to take charge, he would call a policeman and have him expelled from the hall. This didn't "cut any ice" with the threatened man, however, for he continued his interruptions. Then, the chairman called a policeman, who went up to a seat in the row in front of the disturber, who didn't seem at all inconvenienced by the attention thus paid to him. One leading speaker afterwards asked the man in a coaxing way to be quiet, and the chairman did the same several times, and the policeman got un and walked away and the unruly one laughed and continued his unruliness.

> It was stated at this meeting that a reason for not delaying the sublate to get the bill through the legislature. There was similar hasto when the Chatham water and sewerage act was proposed- That measure was rushed through and citizens believed that those who were so urgent and zealous in the matter really possessed the capacity to have the construction and equipment of the system preceded with at once. Chatham.to-day seems, practically, no nearer realising its expectations in the matter than it was year ago. Yet a meeting of ratepavers called for the purpose of voting for or against acquiring existing gas and electric plants and franchises is so managed by the gentlemen who have done nothing in connection with the proposed water system but waste money, as to secure a vote asking the legislature to pass an act to do that which was not contemplated in the notice calling the meeting and which must have as one of its provisions the satutory requirements. Surely not, Mr. Johnson !

Mr. Rueben Johnson, M. P. P. Kent has had an opportunity to stand up for his constituents against the license fees imposed on them in Chatham and Moncton when they go to those places to their produce. Mr. Johnson in zeal for his neighbors, however, forgets to admit that somebody must contribute money to pay for street-making, light t guide the wayfarer and police to protect him. Sure'y Mr. Johnson and his friend would not be so mean as to make use of al these when doing business, and claim the they should not contribute a fraction the money they cost !

The Legislature.

After Mr. Hazen had spoken in Budget debate criticising the speech Hon. Provincial Secretary Tweedie, from his standpuint as leader of the opposition and doing it in his usually pleasant and acceptable manner.

HON. MR BURCHILL.

Hon. John P. Burchill made an exce lent speech in which he dealt with th principal questions raised by the Provin cial Secretary and Mr. Hazin. The lat er had read a letter from somebody Carleton County to the effect that the speeches delivered at the Farmers' In stitute meetings were political speeches. This letter was from Carleton county and Mr. Burchill in reply said that he did not know what the Institute speakers in Carleton county said, but, in Northumberland, no politics were discussed. No one who talked of the advance agriculture making in New Brunswick, Mr. Burchil remarked, could ignore what the government had done to place agriculture in present position in this province. Refer ring to the meeting of the Farmers' and Dairymen's association Mr. Burchill said that every vice-president of the association who had spoken at the meeting which he had attended the previous day. and he did not ask whether they were supporters or opponents, liberal or conservative, had spoken words of praise for the government, and he did not know how it marily done wrong and that the pilots at Miramichi: subsequently in charge of could be otherwise when he saw what the had, subsequently, acted injudiciously the administration of the service at St. | wheat policy of the government had done for the county of Northumberland. Not only this but this flour as good, if not better, than any they would buy that had been milled outside the province. Mr. Burchill exploded some of Mr. Hazen's figures on the cost of printing by pointing out that the estimate he had submitted showed that the Crown Land report consisting of I18 pages was estimated to be worth $208 while only $168 was estimated for the Public Work's report which consisted of > lengthy they covered the ground the HON. MR. LA BILLOIS. The last speaker of the evening was Hon, C. H. Mr. La Billois read from the published statements the growth of the butter and cheese industry in Madawaska and stated that two roller mills had just been completed. The government had greatly assisted in the development of country and their efforts had met with hearty response from the people of the country. Mr. La Billois was able to show that the French in New Brunswick are making exceptionally rapid progress and It was amusing to those who were look- are as as quick to adopt new ideas in given to agriculture as fully as any other of the chairman" pushed their part of the class and support the government which has pointed the way towards their better-

A despatch of 7th says :-

Messrs. P. J. Burns, A. J. H. Stewart . J. Power, Owen F. Stacy, David ohnstone and Jacob White are seeking incorporation as The Bathurst Boom Company to erect booms on the Nepisiguit river. Bathurst harbor or Bass river to facilitate the lumber business. They are given power to expropriate land in connection with their work. The capital stock is $5,000, divided into $50 shares. The company is given power to collect 25 cents per ton on square timber and 75 cents per thousand on logs and other lumber. All necessary machinery is provided for carrying on a boom buiness for maintenance. Agreed to. and the act is for twenty years.

The above mentioned, with the exception Owen F. Stacy, are seeking incorporation The Bathurst Power Company, with ower to purchase and build dams, sluices waterways, etc., and to carry on steam and electrical business in Bathurst and on the Nepisiguit and Tetagouche rivers, to put up poles and wires in Bathurst for the transssion of electricity. The power to acquire lands by arbitration is given, and the capital stock is fixed at $20,000, divided into $100 shares.

being included in the scope of the company. and this the promoters of the bill finally agreed to. Mr. Sumner spoke of the Bathirst Power Company being a speculative Company which was looking for the control of water powers simply for speculative purposes. He stated that he had given an option on his lands to a company who sought to establish a pulp mill and if this company went shead they would require the water nower on the river which was sought by the other company now seeking incorporation. The water power which the Bathurst Power Company seek to obtain is on the river where Mr. Samner conducts his operations and in the hands of a competitor might be made very unpleasant. Premier Emmerson, who was present said he had not yet ful'y considered the whole matter but he pointed out that the province of Quebec was at the present time obtaining quite a revenue from water powers and he thought New Brunswick might follow the example. Persons who held lumber leases had no vested rights in water powers and he was of the opinion that they should be turned to account

The aged diplomat is already two years past the retiring age and his term of office has twice been extended and it was supposed that he would now make way for a successor. But a cablegram from Lord Salisbury informed hin that his term would be again extended. No specific reason was given, but it was inferred that the Boer war, the Hay- Dunlap, McKim & Downs, Pauncefote treaty, and the questions of the Canadian boundary and tariff matters. with all of which Lord Pauncefote is thoroughly familiar, were the controlling causes. It was thought at first that perhaps the United States might have suggested that it would be glad to have Lord Panncefote retained, but this is denied marked, coming without outside sugges tion. Such repeated extension has only on precedent in the entire history of the British diplomatic service. The ambassador had made arrangements to return his 28 h, remaining in the United States a fortnight longer himself in order to close up his business affairs. The notification received has, of course, made a change of plans necessary. His family have decided to remain in the United States with the Ambassador during the spring months, at least, and it will be some date in June before they leave. No definite extension has been granted, but it is understood TATANTED-SEVERAL BRIGHT AND
