A FARM JOURNAL Offer From now to Dec. 1904 Over 5 Years

By special arrangement made with the publishers of the FARM JOURNAL we are enabled to offer this paper to every subscriber who pays for the MIRAMICHI ADVANCE one year ahead, for only $1—both papers for the price of one only; or paper one year and the FARM JOURNAL from now to December, 1904, over 5 years. The FARM JOURNAL is an old established paper, enjoying great popularity, one of the best and most useful of farm papers published.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON. Coun. Morrissey moved, seconded by Coun. Campbell that the Council authorize the Sec. Treasurer to effect an insurance of $1000, for one year, on the life of each citizen of Northumberland who had enlisted in the Canadian contingents for the war in South Africa. While some members might differ as to whether the question should be settled by arbitration or arms, the fact remained that the Empire was at war and we should stand by our old flag.

Mr. WARDEN AND GENTLEMEN: In rising to second Coun. Morrissey's motion I beg to say that I very much regret that, in this closing year of the 19th century, we should find the great empire, on which we form a part, not enjoying a peaceful ending of the century, but engaged in the throes of a bloody war, a conflict that will go down in history, perhaps as the crowning act of the British protection for her people. We find that wherever the Union Jack floats, there equality and freedom are found, and all dwell in a happy land of contentment. It is our sons engaged in this noble thing to have our own lads in this contest on the side of right. I am proud that Northumberland County already has men at the front and more upon the way, along with other Canadian boys, and right gallantly are they acquitting themselves. I regret very much that the Ladies' Association, which has endeavored to enter the service were not fortunate enough to be accepted. But of those who are at the front, and those upon the way, it is to me no more than right and just that this Council should show its appreciation by raising for one year the lives of those noble boys, some of whom may never return, and who on departing did so bravely. Last time to a father or a brother, a sorrowing mother or a sister, a wife or a sweetheart. The enthusiasm they displayed on leaving the service, even in the face of temporary discouragements and reverses, plainly showed the quality of the metal found in the stout hearts of Northumberland boys and girls. It is to me no more than right and just that this Council should show its appreciation by raising for one year the lives of those noble boys, some of whom may never return, and who on departing did so bravely. Last time to a father or a brother, a sorrowing mother or a sister, a wife or a sweetheart. The enthusiasm they displayed on leaving the service, even in the face of temporary discouragements and reverses, plainly showed the quality of the metal found in the stout hearts of Northumberland boys and girls.

Inspector Menzies' report and accounts were submitted. The report says the 29 convictions one was for a second offence and the rest for first offences. Three of those listed served their terms in jail, two months' each. Between $300 and $400 of the unpaid fines, the Inspector says, can be collected during the year. A number of the informations were laid for third offences, but these were all dismissed by the magistrate owing to insufficiency of proof.

Coun. Pond moved that Mr. Menzies be heard. Mr. Menzies said he had nothing to say at this stage of the proceedings. The report was adopted. Coun. Pond moved that Inspector Menzies be reappointed. Carried. Coun. Betts moved that his salary be $400. Mr. Menzies said this was his eighth appearance before this honorable body as inspector. He thought he had done his duty faithfully. He had curtailed the expenses last year by keeping a horse of his own. He did not think he could serve for less than $500. He had put in all his time the year round.

Coun. Betts felt that he had been placed in a false position. He had been told by Coun. Betts that the Inspector would accept $400. Coun. Betts said he had understood Mr. Menzies to say he would accept $400. Coun. Pond had the same understanding. Mr. Menzies said he had not agreed to take $400, nor had he, when advised by Coun. Betts to take it, refused to do so. Coun. Betts thought there were men in the county who would accept the office at $400.

By request of the Warden, Coun. Morrissey read a list of the volunteers to be insured, as follows: Charles W. Anslow, Bert Gifford, George W. Kitchin, Osborne Matheson, Wm. Harris, Sam'l Gibson, Dixon Dalzell, Sam'l Craig, Michael H. King, Geo. Taylor, Edw. Herbert Sinclair, J. S. Aitken, John McElroy, F. Stanley Morrison, Joseph Lawson, Wm. McMillan, John N. Munroe.

Coun. Morrissey said it struck him that a fund should be established for the dependent relatives of the men who had gone to the war. Some $500 had been raised and sent to St. John, and that was the last that had been heard of it. There were two widows in Chatham whose sons, on whom they depended, were in the field. The money that had been raised should have been given to a committee to disburse and among those who really need assistance. A central committee should be formed for this purpose. He would move in the matter to-morrow morning.

On motion of Coun. Doyle the list of parish officers for Newcastle passed; also the returns of The Wallace highway com'r ($2,115 due com'r). Coun. Morrissey reported from the Board of Health Committee, that Dr. Jos. Hayes and Dr. E. A. Loggie be appointed. Adopted. Adjourned till 10 a. m. to-morrow. [Saturday's proceedings will appear next week.]

To Our Readers. The ADVANCE will be obliged to its numerous readers if they will enable us to make reference in our local columns to meetings and events in which they are interested, or may think their friends may be interested, by giving the information in person at the office, or writing to us about it. Many things proper to be noticed in the ADVANCE's columns do not appear therein, simply because our attention is not called to them by those who would like to see reference to them in the paper, but have omitted to do their part in making them known. Come, therefore, or write and tell us your local news.

Miramichi and the North Shore, etc.

COONEY'S HISTORY:—See advt. THE ICE BOATS were out again yesterday. FISHERIES INSPECTOR Chapman was in town this week. Just like finding money in your pocket-book you didn't know you had—are the values in Union Blood Tea—an agreeable surprise.

"Some Devil is inside of me, tickling my throat with a feather," said a good deacon with a sad cough. "Well, this is the stuff that will cast the devil out," said his wife as she produced a bottle of Adams' Botanic Cough Balm. 25c. all druggists.

EVERY discriminating person will say that The Biggie Books advertised in this issue of the ADVANCE contain a greater amount of condensed, common sense, well arranged information than any books they have seen relating to these important branches of farm industry. The price of each is 50 cents, free by mail; address the publishers, Wilmer Atkinson Co., Philadelphia.

CURLING:—The past week has not been a favorable one for curling. Messrs. Ullock and Hocken's rinks have not yet played off for the Hutchinson Medal. In addition to the rinks reported in the ADVANCE last week as having played in the Lawley Medal match, the following have played: Jas. Johnson's 19 vs Geo. Hillbrand's 6 Geo. Watt's 13 vs D. M. Loggie's 13 D. Chesman's 16 vs W. Wilson's 7 Alex. Brown's 16 vs Alex. Burr's 15

Town Council. A special meeting of Chatham Town Council was held on Monday evening for the purpose of considering whether action was necessary in connection with the existence of smallpox in Campbellton and some other points on the north shore. What was done in that regard is stated in another column.

The Council also voted the free use of the Council Chamber for the annual meeting of the Miramichi Historical Society next month and passed a resolution recommending to the Dominion Government that the society be allowed to occupy a portion of the old public building as a museum and lecture room.

Mr. Holland's Death. Mr. Arthur H. Holland, a well known and highly esteemed commercial traveller, representing Messrs. Hutcheon, Nisbet & Auld, Toronto; the Godrich Knitting Company and other manufacturing concerns, died at the Hotel Dieu hospital, Chatham, at 3 o'clock yesterday morning at this excellent institution last year, and coming from it to resume his business said that if he were ever again ill on the road he would travel far to again place himself under the care of the Sisters and the skillful treatment of the visiting physicians. A few days ago he came back again seriously ill, and his many friends in town became aware that there was little hope of his recovery. His son and wife were telegraphed for and the former was with him, together with Rev. Canon Forsyth, Dr. J. B. Benson and Messrs. P. H. C. Benson and R. A. Murdoch of Chatham, when he died.

Mr. Holland, who had hoped to reach his husband's bedside in good time, arrived at Newcastle yesterday morning by the Maritime express and, to save time, was driven immediately to Chatham, reaching the Hotel Dieu about 8.30, to find that the farewell had come to say must remain unspoken. It was a sad reunion. The remains were placed in charge of Mr. John McDonald, undertaker, and prepared for the journey to Montreal, for which place they left last night's express, accompanied by the sorrowing widow and son.

Mr. Holland was 49 years old. He was a son of the late Rev. Henry Holland, rector of St. Catherine's, Ont. His many friends all over the country will hear of his death with much regret.

Death of James G. Miller. The death of Mr. James G. Miller, which took place last Saturday morning at his residence, Chatham, was a great surprise to the community generally. It was known to quite a number of his friends that he had been ill for about three weeks, but it was understood that he was suffering from gripple. It appears however that the disease was typhoid fever, to which he succumbed before the seriousness of the case was realized, save by those immediately in attendance.

Mr. Miller was the son of Mr. James Miller, formerly in charge of the Mortimore tanning and tannery works, and a nephew of John C. Miller, Esq., head of the Miller Tanning Export concern of Millerton. He was proprietor of the Miller's Chatham Foundry and Machine Works, which were erected a few years ago by him as successor of the late Hon. T. F. Gillespie whose foundry was burned in the big fire of October 1897. He was an active Mason and Forester and a member of the Chatham Citizens' Band, his unobtrusive manner and kindly disposition winning for him the friendly regard of all who knew him. He married, about three years ago, Miss Frances, daughter of the late Hon. T. F. Gillespie, who with a little son of two years, survives him.

The funeral, which took place on Monday afternoon, was attended by the largest gathering of people from all parts of the county and points outside that has been seen here for a good while. Rev. Canon Forsyth, Rector of Chatham, conducted a service at the house, in which was included the hymns "How my God I love Thee" and "Peace, perfect peace," which were sung by several of St. Mary's church choir of which deceased was a valued member. The funeral procession, which was under the direction of Mr. John McDonald, was headed by the Citizens' Band playing the Dead March, next to which were the members of Miramichi and Northumberland Lodges F. & A. M. in full regalia, under Jas. A. McIntosh, Esq., Master of Chatham Lodge. Amongst the mourners were Messrs. James and John C. Miller, John W. Millar, Geo. Gillespie, George Gilbert and other relatives of deceased. The pall bearers were Mayor Winslow, F. E. Neale, Walter Crocker, Byron Call, Capt. John P. Bullock and J. W. McLennan. At St. Paul's church gate the procession was met by Rev. Canon Forsyth, who there began the reading of the service of the Church for the Burial of the Dead. The casket was borne into the church and reposed near the altar rail as the service proceeded, the 39th psalm was chanted and a hymn sung, Geo. Donchill, Esq., presiding at the organ. After the conclusion of the church service at the grave the Masonic burial service was performed by Worshipful Master McIntosh assisted by the members of the order.

As was announced in the ADVANCE last week, the marriage of Mr. J. C. T. Arsenault and Miss Sarah Sinclair, daughter of Mr. Geo. Sinclair, took place in St. Michael's Pro-Cathedral, Chatham, on Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock. There was a large congregation present, and at the appointed hour the groom entered the church on the epistle side, attended by Mr. Jas. McKendry as best man. Shortly after, the bride marched up the aisle, leaning on the arm of her father, followed by her sister, Miss Clara Synnott, as bridesmaid.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Joyner. The bride looked very graceful, gowned in a suit of organdie muslin, with cream silk trimmings, and wore a bridal veil, fastened at the crown with natural flowers. She carried a bouquet of white lilies and white camomils. The bridesmaid's costume was also of white muslin, with pale blue trimmings. The wedding march was played by the little sister of the bride on the mandolin, with organ accompaniment.

The ceremony over, the choir sang a hymn and the party left the church and drove to the residence of the groom, where a reception was held and the supper served. There was a large number of guests present, including Rev. Father Joyner. The wedding presents were valuable and useful, including a handsome china tea set from the members of the choir of the Pro-Cathedral, Miss Sinnott being the leading soprano. A bronze and onyx clock was presented by Mr. Arsenault's fellow-clerk in Hon. J. B. Snowball's store. We wish them every happiness in their new state in life.

On Tuesday morning at 7 o'clock Mr. R. D. Walsh and Miss Maggie O'Brien were united in marriage at the Pro-Cathedral. Mr. Walsh was best man and Miss Nellie Cassidy, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid. Rev. Father Joyner said the Nuptial Mass, after which the party called at the Hotel Dieu to see the Mother Superior and Sister Dwyer, sisters of the groom. A wedding breakfast was served at the residence of the bride's father to a few friends. At 10 o'clock they took the train for a short trip to St. John. Miss Cassidy was one of our most efficient and popular teachers, and a host of friends join in wishing the young couple every happiness.

Mr. Dennis Brennan and Miss Mary Patterson were married at the Pro-Cathedral on Tuesday afternoon. Rev. Father Joyner performed the ceremony. In the evening, wedding supper was given at the bride's mother's residence, Hill st., to a number of their friends.
