Miramichi-Bound Steamer in Trouble

A special from Port Hawkesbury, N. S says :- The steamer Semantha, Capt. Simmons, of London, struck the Shipstern Reef at 9 o'clock last Wednesday night, 16th, and suffered considerable damage. She was proceeding through the Straits of Canso on a voyage from Philadelphia to Miramichi to load lumber for Great Britain, when she ran ashore near McMillan's Point, damaging her bows so badly that after backing off the reef the captain determined to beach his ship at Long Beach. She is now lying there, with her forward compartment full of water.

The Semantha was in ballast and when she struck she did not stay aground, but came almost out of the water. She was look after the matter. It was, he knew, not beached in a smooth place and could taken off without much difficulty. The bye-law carried out, but ex-mayor Winslow crew staid by the ship.

On Thursday Capt. Simmons arranged with Capt. Gelsier of the wrecking tug Goliath to assist in floating the Semantha and towing her to Halifax, The Goliath took an extra crew and went to the Semantha. They patched up the hole in

At a previous meeting of the committee Davin swore that the price was $600, an ! he dropped it to $500 on account of Scott having got the protest paid to the Region Leader by the Immigration department, when owned by Davin, for a special edition of the Leader in the fall of 1895, when the exhibition was being held at Regina. Mr. L. M. Fortier, who was in charge of the immigration work at that time was examined. He said that the sum of $400 was to be paid for a special edition of the Leader to attract immigration. He asked for 500 copies of this edition, but did not receive any. The money was paid for advertising attractions and the like at the exhibition, and there was no special issue to attract immigration. He said that the terms of the contract called for were not fulfilled. He was asked to certify the amount by the deputy minister and he did

Mr. Cowan, who examined Mr. Fortier, created great amusement when he read from the Leader what the government was paying for to encourage immigration. There were bicycle attractions, putting the stone, bag pipe playing, the rules to govern the a traetions, etc., etc., all of which were published in different editions, making in all an amount to meet the $400. There was noth. ing, Mr. Fortier said, to encourage immigration, and from what he saw the Leader contained nothing in regard to the exhibition other than was printed for news by other new-papers. He (Fortier) did not look into the services rendered for the account.

The London Daily News correspondent, A. G. Hales, who was taken prisoner by the Boers and returned by them to Gen. Gatacre, sends his paper an account of how the Boers received the news of Cronje's surrender. He was at Burghersdorp when the news came. He writes.
