JOHN H. LAWLER & Co.

THE ORGANIZATION of Chatham, Newcastle and other Miramichi points, to the number of one hundred and forty, assembled in Chatham on Sunday last and according to their custom—attended divine service. Those from Newcastle came by the steamer Ruester and were accompanied by the Newcastle Orange band. The service was in St. Luke's Church and the sermon by Rev. G. M. Young, a patriotic one from the text: "Honor all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the King."

SAILOS ENTERTAINED—Last Friday evening a number of sailors from the ship in port were entertained by the W. C. T. U. at their rooms on Wellington street. Mayor Loggie and Evids, J. M. McLean and G. M. Young made addresses. Mrs. Young gave readings and there was a song by Mr. William Anderson and a few remarks by Mr. Wm. Grey. The sailors also sang—some of them in foreign languages. Refreshments were served and at the close "God Save the Queen" was sung and cheers given for the Queen and the W. C. T. U.

Big Game Horse Book is as full of good sense as an egg is of meat. Its motto, "Always speak to a horse as you would to a gentleman" is the keynote of its treatment of the whole subject. There are twenty-five chapters, including advice on feeding and watering, stable management, whims and vices, ailments and their remedies, harness hints, about stables, colts, education, care of the feet, etc. Many of the illustrations have been made from life. The book is handsomely printed and substantially bound in cloth. The price is 50 cents, by mail; address the publishers, Wilmer Atkinson Co., Philadelphia.

TARTER-SCHACHTER—The first Jewish wedding that ever took place in Chatham was witnessed by a large number of guests on Sunday afternoon at the residence of Mr. Chas. Schachter, when Miss Frieda Schachter was united in marriage to Mr. Mendel Tartar of Dalhousie. The bride looked charmingly attired in a costume of white cashmere with satin and lace trimming. She was attended by Mrs. Schachter and Mrs. Feinbock as bridesmaids. The groom looked handsome, and was ably supported by Messrs. Schachter and Feinbock. The groom's present to the bride was a gold watch and chain and a diamond ring. The bride couple will make an extended tour through the upper provinces.—Commercial.

PERSONAL—Rev. Robert Laing, M. A., from Halifax Ladies' College, is to be in town this week, and will preach in St. Andrew's Church next Sunday.

Rev. Dr. Bruce has tendered to the Presbytery of Miramichi, the resignation of his charge at Tabusiat and Burnt Church. Dr. G. J. Colter, post office inspector, and W. C. Whittaker, deputy inspector, were in town yesterday.

John Stuart, Esq., president of the Maritime Shiprite Fibre Company, has been in town during the past week.

Mr. Fred R. Butcher, the well known insurance adjuster is in town.

Mr. Geo. Reid, formerly of Newcastle, is visiting friends in that town.

James Nicol, Esq., of Chatham, has gone to make a visit to his old home in Scotland.

The Besse Merikiam's Remains.

Baltimore, July 9—Captain W. W. Garfield, of the schooner Kate E. Perry, which arrived today from New York, reports that on June 29, in lat. 40.21, lon. 68.54, he sighted the wreck of a large vessel. Nearby was picked up a yawl boat on which was painted "Besse Merikiam, of Chatham, N. B." It is thought that the derelict is the schooner of that name bound for Philadelphia to St. John, which was sunk off South Shoal lightship on June 28, in collision with the schooner Johnnie F. Potter.

Moose Seen Along the I. C. R.

When the Maritime Express was passing a point fifteen miles east of Campbellton on Wednesday morning, says the Moncton Transcript, the passengers were delighted to see two fine bull moose on the track. The moose separated on each side of the train as it passed and remained looking after the train as it disappeared. These total seven moose seen by Conductor Heine along the track within ten days. Between Belledune and Petit Rocher on Wednesday week a big bull moose was overtaken in a heavy rock cutting; and it was hammed so close to the train that anyone could have touched it.

How can I get rid

Of my tormenting cough; get rid of them without pain; get rid of them quickly and effectually without possibility of return? The answer is, use Patnam's Peppermint Cure and Wart Cure, the great cure. Always sure, safe, and painless. Patnam's Extractor. Use it and no other. Fringe are in the market. Don't run the risk of ruining your feet with such caustic applications.

Loggieville.

A largely attended meeting of our Presbytery congregation was held here last Monday evening. The Rev. D. Henderson, St. Andrew's church, Chatham, presided and explained fully the object of the meeting. It was, in brief, to ascertain the mind of the congregation in regard to the supply of the pulpit for the future. After many speeches he put forward a motion to apply to Presbytery for the services of Rev. A. W. Lewis, B. D., was, all but unanimously, carried. Several of the ladies present participated in the discussion. Mr. Henderson is to bring the matter before the first meeting of the Presbytery of Miramichi.

St. Andrew's S. Picnic.

The annual picnic of the St. Andrew's Church Sabbath School took place last Tuesday. Leaving Chatham about ten o'clock by Steamer Ruester, they proceeded under the care of their Minister, Rev. D. Henderson and Mayor Loggie, the superintendent of the School, to Beaubair's Island. Here the school was treated by their teachers to tea, cake and all the delicacies of the season. Games and other enjoyments were engaged in, and a very pleasant day spent on the island.

An Extraordinary Charge.

The World states that the most of the public money, which should be spent on the roads, is given in payment for party services to supporters of the county members as by-road grants. It also says that $450 is distributed in Halifax among parish political candidates, "normally for expenditures on bye roads." This sounds very much like a statement from the correspondent of the World who once posed in its columns as a Chatham "Liberal" but was forced to disclose his hardwick identity. Perhaps the World will give the names of the hardwick gentlemen who it alleges have made the $450 haul.

To Our Readers.

The ADVANCE will be obliged to its numerous readers if they will enable us to make reference in our local columns to matters and events in which they are interested, or may think their friends may be interested, or may be giving the information in person at the office, or writing to us about it. Many things proper to be noticed in the ADVANCE's columns do not appear therein, simply because our attention is not called to them by those who would like to see references to them in the paper, but have omitted to do their part in making them known. Come, therefore, or write and tell us your local news.

The Late Bartholomew Stapletons.

Mr. Bartholomew Stapleton, one of the best known citizens of Chatham, died at the residence of his son-in-law, Mr. Daniel Chasman, on Monday morning, in his eighty ninth year. He was a native of the parish of Buckland Brewer, Devonshire, England, a certified copy from the church register of which shows that he was baptized there Feb. 16, 1812. He was apprenticed to learn the trade of a blacksmith in March 1824, to serve for nine years, and served the term in due course. He came to Miramichi in 1836, being then married, and after working a while with the late Robert Brown, of Newcastle, went into business for himself. Afterwards he became chief of police of Chatham, discharging the duties of the position with great efficiency. He was also appointed a justice of the peace, and for the last twenty years had quietly enjoyed the afternoon and evening of life as a member of the household of Mr. Daniel Chasman, the husband of his youngest daughter.

His family consisted of twelve children, nine of whom are living. The children in order of birth were: Elizabeth, of Chatham; Richard, do; William, do; Mrs. E. A. Strang, do; John (dead); Mrs. Mathias, of New York; Bartholomew; in British Columbia; Thomas (dead); Mrs. Chasman; and Robert (dead).

Mr. Stapleton was a man of great physical strength and determination of character, a good citizen and a thorough Englishman. The funeral was largely attended on Tuesday afternoon. Rev. Mr. Young of St. Luke's Methodist Church conducted the services at the house and grave. He was assisted by Rev. D. Henderson of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church.

Not a Subject for Ridicule.

A correspondent who, we think, gives undue attention to an offense against good taste which is only too common in the quarter indicated, writes as follows:

Mr. Editor—A young gentleman in attempting to launch a boat at Newcastle on Monday, 2nd inst., stepped on some slimy planks, slipped and was precipitated into the water. He got a wetting and was, of course, obliged to exchange his wet clothing for dry, borrowing the latter from a friend. Such experiences as this have often happened before, and will, no doubt, happen again, but I do not think there is more than one person on the Miramichi who would find in Monday's incident a subject for a nasty attack upon the gentleman who was given such undesirable and off-native prominence in connection with it as that bestowed in his paper by the editor of the World.

Did Mr. Stewart never meet with an accident by which he got a ducking? I can remember one—caused by his mismanagement and foolhardiness—in which he endangered his own life and that of others. Yet nobody thought of making of the event an occasion to refer to the clumsy managements on his part which came near causing a fatality, or to hold him up to public ridicule because of the clothes he wore, or their appearance, either before or after he was half drowned.

I might refer to several other occasions when Mr. Stewart has fallen or slipped overboard, and when he received sympathy, hand-kerchiefs, and other attentions, but I should not like to make a list of them, as I consider that a consideration which has always been extended to him in these and other similar matters when he, perhaps, merited different treatment because of his want of charity towards others.

It has always been a subject of wonder to me that the people of the Miramichi, who are proverbial for their courtesy and good feeling generally, are found encouraging a paper which in its treatment of current events and of persons, too often discredit this community, which seems to stultify itself by supporting it. It takes all kinds of pains, however, to make a fool, and I suppose we ought to tolerate the poor creature whose occasional decent associations appear to have failed to improve his coarse instincts.

Rev. G. M. Young Says, Good bye.

Rev. G. M. Young, who has been pastor of St. Luke's Methodist Church, Chatham, N. B., for the past three years held his farewell service last Sunday evening. The congregation was a large one—much larger than usual although the weather conditions were unfavorable—and while largely composed of members and adherents of St. Luke's, it also embraced representatives of every other religious denomination in the town.

The music was up to the usual good standard of St. Luke's and included special numbers.

Mr. Young's sermon was a practical discourse from II Corinthians, 13—11 "Finally, brethren, farewell. Be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace shall be with you."

The sermon was closely along the lines of the text and much excellent advice was given to his congregation by the preacher. He referred, amongst other things, to his ministry in Chatham during the last three years, and spoke of his experiences in his work, and the loyal assistance he had received from the church officers and the general support and sympathy of the congregation. He supposed that, in his preaching, he had not pleased everybody. He had not tried to do so. He had preached and done his duty according to his conception of both in the sight of God. He had not been so much concerned as to the record he was making here as in regard to that in heaven.

Mr. Young's departure is sincerely regretted not only by his own people but also by citizens generally. The progress which St. Luke's has made under his ministry indicates that he has been an efficient pastor and that he has been faithful in his church work. He has also taken a special interest in matters affecting the progress of the town. He has found time also to encourage and participate in some of the recreations of our young men and thus won their respect and loyal friendship. He bears with him the best wishes of all classes for his continued well-being, personally, and for a long and pleasant life of usefulness in his exalted calling.

Of Mrs. Young it is fitting that something should also be said, as she has taken not only active interest and rendered fitting assistance to her husband in his work, but has given, on many occasions her talented literary services in the promotion of deserving public objects of general character. She fully shares with Mr. Young a warm place in the regard of our townpeople.

On Monday evening while Mr. and Mrs. Young were spending the evening at the residence of Mr. W. B. Snowball, who, like Mr. Young, is a prominent member of the Chatham Curling Club, a delegation from the curlers called. They were headed by their president, R. A. Lawlor, Esq., who was accompanied by ex-Mayor Winslow, A. S. Ullock, C. A. C. Bruce, Geo. Hildebrand, Howard McKeeney, Norman Edgar and others, Senator Snowball being also present.

Mr. Lawlor, in an informal way, addressed Mr. Young saying that it was a regret of the club to express to him before he was leaving Chatham their regret over his departure, involving, as it did, the severance of his connection with the club as its chaplain and one of its most efficient and esteemed members. He referred also to the place Mr.

Young had won for himself in the regard of all classes in the community by his manly, christian bearing in all his relationships with the people in his own behalf and that of the club he wished him every prosperity in the larger field of usefulness to which he was going. He had been requested to present to him, on behalf of the club, a pair of curling stones, which he hoped he would receive as a souvenir from his brother curlers, who would ever have the most pleasant recollections of their intercourse with him not only on the ice but wherever else they had met him.

Mr. Winslow also spoke along much the same lines.

Mr. Young in his reply said the usual thing was to say he was much surprised and deeply grateful, and he had to say it was indeed pleasantly surprised and grateful for the evidences just submitted of the regard entertained for him by the curlers of Chatham with whom he had been associated while here. He spoke of his pleasant relationships with the club members, as well as with those of his church and citizens generally. He was, in many respects, sorry to leave and hoped, in some time, come back again. He appreciated the gift for itself, but more especially for the spirit that prompted it.

Premier Emmerson Out-Prophecia Tupper.

Hon. H. R. Emmerson, premier of New Brunswick, in the matter of prophecy has outdone Tupper, and the strong probabilities are that results will sustain Premier Emmerson as against the Baronet. A Winnipeg despatch says:

On the arrivals from the east today was Hon. H. R. Emmerson, Premier of New Brunswick, who is accompanied by Mrs. Emmerson and Hon. Mr. White, Minister of Public Works. The Emmersons had looked forward to a trip to Manitoba and the west, the opportunity presenting itself in the fact that he had been invited to the meeting of the Baptist congress which he will attend while here. Upon the conclusion of his stay here he will proceed to the coast, visiting different sections en route. New Brunswick, he says, is recovering from the stagnant position into which it had fallen during the last decade, and the population is increasing. The standard in population was owing to the large number of young people who go for the New England States, also for Manitoba.

Politically he had no complaint to offer. In a house of 46 members, his Government has a following of 40. "White," said Mr. Emmerson, "is a better name than 'Tupper' and I will not have a following of two from New Brunswick after the election, perhaps if I say that the Conservatives may possibly have a following of two from New Brunswick after the next election I would be just as near right. At any rate, Sir Wilfrid Laurier will come out all right, so far as New Brunswick is concerned."

Town Council.

The regular monthly meeting of the Council was held Monday evening. Minutes were read and adopted.

A communication was read from W. C. Winslow stating that the lease of the water privilege on the south side of Church st., expired in Aug. 98, and that the rent of same would be $25 per annum.—Referred to Finance Committee.

Also a letter from the Bacon Air Lift Co. re. artesian well water supply. Fyler, Esq., of the Finance Committee reported that Treasurer's statement was found correct and showed a balance due Bank of N. S. of $892.35.

Some discussion arose over W. J. Loggie's bill of $15 for advice to assessors.

The Town Clerk, as an assessor, said the bill was a reasonable one. The assessors were all aware of consultation. The bill of $15 was the cause of the town being in over $100.

Bill ordered paid.

Ald. Murdoch of Public Works Com. reported that Mr. Fyler had made an offer to supply 600,000 gallons of water for $24,000 per annum, and that arrangements were being made to hire the Robb engine and boiler to crush the 400 tons stone on wharf.

Ald. Barr of Fire Committee reported that Capt. of horse company asked to have the company increased by 3 in force, and that the Fire Committee recommended that one man be added—namely John Ross.

Adopted.

Ald. Murdoch of Police Committee reported that an electric light was recommended to be installed at the residence of Mr. Robinson, Duke St. and Wm. Lake's Corner at 24.

Ald. Barr asked if there was any report from the policeman regarding lights out.

Ald. Watt said it was the duty of the Police committee to look after this matter and deduct from bill.

Ald. Barr was opposed to placing a light at Chas. Robinson's as other places were more in need of lights.

Ald. Maher was in favor of placing the light. Report adopted.
