Miramichi Advance. CHATHAM, N. B. JUNE 14, 1900. Rumored Judicial and Political Changes. There is a good deal of speculation over political changes which may result from the superannation of Mr. Justice Vanwart of the Supreme Court of New Brunswick.

Mr. Tweedie, by reason of his wide experience in public life, aptness for politics and clean record as a member of the New Brunswick government for the past ten years, as well as by reason of his having demonstrated his ability as leader of the House during the session when the late Premier Mitchell was incapacitated for the work, through illness, cannot fail to be a prudent, successful and popular premier.

An Evil Press. The subject of press attacks, direct and indirect, upon men in both public and private life is a subject which often engages the attention of newspaper readers, many of whom wonder why it is that there is a class of external, but not internal, man who seem to assume that the most manifest untruths and slanders will pass current, simply because they are put in print.

It would be a reflection upon the undoubtedly improved conditions existing in all departments of the social, political and commercial life of our time, as compared with those of the past, to say that people are as easily hoodwinked in matters of public concern, or as easily impressed by those who make a profession of the art of slander as they were a generation or two ago.

better and more enlightened, however, and as it improves in these respects that which is good and true, honest and cleanly will be more appreciated and that which is the reverse will be less encouraged. Meantime, we may have confidence in the good sense and decency of our communities whose people, as a whole, are capable of measuring the character and motives of the papers whose inspirations are born of envy based on conscious inferiority, and which reflect no credit on those who, by their patronage, make themselves responsible for their worse than useless existence.

A good deal has been printed in the papers in reference to an existing difference between Sir Charles Tupper, leader of the Ottawa opposition and of the Conservative party, and Mr. Birmingham late chief organizer of that party.

The session met in the first week of January, and on the afternoon of the opening day, before Lord Aberdeen had been well through with the speech from the throne, there was a meeting held in the office of Hon. Dr. Montague, who was then Minister of Agriculture, to consider the question of a new leader to replace Sir Mackenzie.

They were always like Juno's swans, "uncoupled and inseparable," but on the following afternoon Sir Mackenzie was confronted with the resignation of seven of his Ministers and this changed the aspect of affairs considerably.

His next step was to make his peace with Mr. Wallace. This was only accomplished gradually, and one of the conditions was that Mr. Birmingham would cease to be prominent in the affairs of the party, if not got rid of altogether.

It is, unfortunately, true that low-toned newspapers, the object of whose existence appears to be to drag everybody and everything down to their own level, are encouraged and patronized by people whose tastes and sense of what is right they outrage.

and though with the conveniences afforded by railway communication places lying remote from rivers have now become accessible, we must always have a certain diminution going on in the log supplies from those countries that half a century ago were thankful to accept any price that people here liked to pay for the trees with which their land was encumbered.

In its Liverpool Trade notes the Journal says: "Dullness is perhaps the best word that can be used to indicate the state of trade existing at this port. Prices have gone up to such a high level that retail buyers are restricting their orders as far as they can."

Mr. Tweedie's defection from the Tory party is just now nominating Premier Emerson to the vacant judgeship on the Supreme Court Bench. It is somewhat unusual for our Tory contentions to make such an excellent nomination, and therefore congratulations are deserved.

They have struck oil. The Moncton Transcript says: "Oil has been struck in the district. The well which was sunk to 1400 feet at Dover proved at that depth a dry well though it passed through two series of dry oil sands."

THE WAR! London June 9—A belated despatch from Montpelier via Newcastle, Natal, dated Thursday, June 7, throws light on the armistice agreed on between the British and Boers recently.

Reports from Masereu, Basutoland, June 9, say the Boers around Ficksburg refuse to surrender and severe fighting is expected, though a despatch of June 8, from Ficksburg, which is only a few miles from Ficksburg, says the situation in the southeast corner of the Orange Colony is unchanged.

Two officers and fifteen men were killed and five officers and seventy-two men were wounded some of them severely. The Boers returned the wounded to the British. The officers killed were Lt. Col. Bird Douglas and Lt. Hawley. The wounded include Col. Wilkinson and Lt. Blanchard, of the Canadian Infantry.

CAPE TOWN, June 10—The following telegram has been received from Charles Knox at Kroonstad: "The following casualties are reported from Roovalde June 7, received from Stoneham, commanding the Imperial Yeomanry hospital, dated Roovalde River, June 8, received here by flag of truce June 10: The fourth battalion of the Derbyshire Regiment (the Sherwood Foresters), killed: Lt. Col. Bird Douglas and Lt. Hawley and fifteen men and boys; wounded: Col. Wilkinson, Capt. Bailey, Lieut. H. I. Luder and Blanchard, and fifty-nine of the rank and file; the Strathgairn Light Infantry, Cape Pioneer Railway Regiment, seven; Ammunition Park, Royal Marines and Imperial Telegraphs, one each; Post Office Corps, one. Stoneham reports that many were severely wounded, and the remaining of the Fourth Derbyshire and details of prisoners except six of the rank and file are in his camp.

LONDON, June 11—The news that the shutting off of Lord Roberts' communication with the outer world was accompanied by such a serious loss came like a bolt from a comparatively clear sky. In London, until the news came, it had been thought the destruction of the railway was accomplished by Lord Roberts, who was avoiding rather than assaulting the British detachments stationed at the point of attack.

South of Kroonstad there is a wide gap. The railway is only partially defended, and as General Kelly-Kenny has hurried all the available troops northward the assumption is that there is danger of a second rail. The loss of the D. Ryshires is estimated from 600 to 700 men.
