Patriotic Sermon in St. Andrew' Church.

In the course of a patriotic sermon or Sunday evening in St. Andrew's Church Rev. Dr. Waits, of Owen Sound, who fo some years was the esteemed and popular pastor of the church, said, that it is no secret that Lord Roberts, who is leading our arms to victory in South Africa, was a Baptist of the strict type, and the "British Weekly" sent one of its reporters to old Gower St. Chapel, London, and found that he regularly worshipped there, and was a most earnest and sincere participant in its ordinances. He was in the highest and noblest sense Christain soldier. The earnest words with which he commended to his troops the prayer written by the Archbishop of Ar magh, the touching letter in which he hoped the children of Britain would keep on praying for him, as he needed their prayers, were little incidents which showed his heart, and which further endeared him to the British

British Columbia Elections.

OTTAWA, June 10-The late election returns from British Columbia show that the Martin government is hopelessly defeated. This is what was expected. Those Conservatives who ran on straight party lines have met with a still greater defeat. having lost their leader, Charles Wilson in the contest. The returns, which are no yet complete, stand about as follows : Martin (government) 8, opposition 17. provincial 4. Conservative 7. Labor 1 and Independent 1.

There are 38 members in the legislature. The opposition is composed of Liberals and Conservatives who are not in favor of party lines in provincial affairs and the provincial party were members of the Semlin-Cotton party. Mr. Carter Cotton is among those defeated. The Labor man elected is Ralph Smith, president of the Dominion Trades and Labor Association, who is a Liberal in Dominion politics. One feature of the election is to see so many strong Dominion Liberals returned as compared to the Conservatives. Men like C. H. Macintosh. of Rossland: Charles Wilson and Carter Cotton have all been badly beaten. On the other hand there are returned in defiance of the split which Mr. Martin's presence has created, such men as Smith Curtis, who defeated Mr. Mackintosh, Mr. Brown, of New Westminster; Mr. Ralph Smith, Mr. Ham, of Victoria and others.

A private telegram from Mr. Martin claims that he will have 11 straight followers which, out of a house of 38, stands a poor chance of his getting through. That being the case the question is being canvassed here to-night as to what will become of Lt. Governor McIones. Until the legislature meets, that will probably not be entirely answered. W. W. B. McIanes, the lieutenant governor's son, is said to have been elected in North Naniamo with a very small majority. In Vancouver city Martin heads the poll and Gilmour, another follower of his, is elected. The other two, Gordon and Tatlow, are opposition. In Victoria city Turner, McPhillips, Helmoken and Hall are returned. Young Costigan, son of Hon. John Costigan, who ran as a Conservative in South Kootnay, was defeated.

Neither did Mr. Mills think that the political parties should appoint the counsel in the case. The minister of justice took the view that the commissioners should be allowed to do so, as in his opinion nothing should be done to hamper the commissioners' proceedings in such a way as would prevent them from best doing the work which was assigned to them. The idea that the clerk of the crown have been quite anxious of late as to his in chancery could refuse to attend upon the
