PAY UP AND GET BOTH PAPERS AT
PRICE OF ONE.

We want to get 500 new subscribers to THE ADVANCE, and are going to do it if we can; we therefore continue our arrangement with the Farm Journal a short time longer by which we can send THE ADVANCE and the Farm Journal the remainder of 1906 and all of 1907, 1908, 1909 and 1910, both for $1.00 paid in advance. And we make the same offer to all old subscribers who will pay all arrears and one year in advance.

You know what this paper is, and the Farm Journal is a gem—practical, progressive—a clean, honest, useful paper—full of common sense, with a fatherly, unimpeachable circulation among the best people everywhere. You ought to take it.

Miramichi and the North Shore, etc.

FROM DERBY.—Treasurer H. D. McLeod, of the contingent fund, acknowledges receiving $5 from St. Peter's and Trinity churches, Derby, Miramichi, for the fund.

AT AN OLD AGE: The death of Mr. John Shanahan of St. Margaret's is announced. He was 94 years old and one of the best known residents of Glenelg.

PERSONAL.—Mr. J. Moss Aitken, late of the first Canadian contingent, has gone to Fredericton, where he resumes his former position in the Merchants' Bank of Halifax.

PEOPLE LOOSE FAITH in advertising assertions because of silly exaggerations. We hope the fault of others will not lead you to doubt our statement that Adamson's Botanic Ointment is worth the cost of a trial. 25c. all Druggists.

SIZE MAKER McKENDY.—The Ramford, Me. Times of 20th ult. says:—"C. B. McKendy, lately clerk at the Oxford House, and formerly size maker for the Ramford Falls Paper Co., has gone to Millbrook to make a size for the Great Northern Paper Co." Mr. McKendy, is a former Chatham lumber surveyor.

MIRAMICHI MARBLE WORKS.—Now is the time to place your orders for cemetery work and avoid the spring rush. CAUTION!—Reports come from along the coast and in country places that a pedlar is reaping a harvest in disposing of his wares and collecting money on behalf of the Hotel Dieu, Chatham. This has been going on for some time, but was only recently found out. The Mother Superior of the Hotel Dieu, wishes the people to be guarded against the impostor, as there is no authority given to anybody to make such collections.

MOOSE AND SCHOOL CHILDREN.—The school children of Doaktown had an object lesson in Natural History on Wednesday of last week. A fine bull moose with wildly branching antlers and brilliant points came down to the highway bridge as if to cross it, but some of the children on the other side shouted so much in their surprise to see "the horse with horns" that the animal halted and leisurely surveyed them, wondering, no doubt, what all the fuss was about. It was with quite a show of reluctance that he finally turned away and trotted back over the road and then into the woods, where he disappeared.

IT IS THE BEST.—The old standards are always the best and we are therefore glad to notice that the true Webster's Unabridged Dictionary, revised and enlarged to bring it abreast of the times is just being issued from the press the publishers, G. & C. Merriam & Co., Springfield, Mass. Referring to the work the Chicago Express says:—"The latest and largest, the most accurate and the best illustrated, is the True Webster's Unabridged Dictionary for 1890. It costs enough to be valuable, but is worth all it costs. The latest and true Webster is no reprint of obsolete material on defective plates. It bears the same relation to cheap reprints that the palace vestibule passenger train and equipment of the present day bears to the creaking, rattling coaches and strap rails of forty years ago."

S. MARY'S AND ST. PAUL'S.—The Rev. J. R. DeWolfe Cowie, M. A., Organizing Secretary of the Diocese of Fredericton, assisted the Rector of St. Paul's at the services on Sunday last and delivered able and instructive sermons bearing upon the mission work of the diocese. Mr. Cowie also addressed the children of St. Mary's Sunday School in the school room on Sunday afternoon. In his sermons and address the organizing secretary set forth in a forcible and interesting manner the claims of diocesan missions upon the general and liberal support of the people throughout the Diocese and pointed out the reasons for the withdrawal of aid which had been so long freely given to the diocese from the mother land. He showed also that it was necessary that by increased contributions from the diocese the unavoidable shrinkage of income from the invested funds of the Diocesan Mission Board should be provided for. Mr. Cowie eloquently urged the claims of the mission field upon the attention of christian people, and we are glad to learn that he is meeting with great encouragement in the prosecution of his important work.

A cheerful response was made at last Sunday's services to his appeal for contributions to diocesan missions, and including additional contributions at highly interesting and instructive Lantern Lecture in the school room on Monday evening, was $400.00. This does not include contributions from St. Paul's congregation, which may be made at any convenient time. Mr. Cowie's address on Monday evening in the school room on some lessons of the late Lambeth Conference and the Queen's Jubilee in their bearing upon Diocesan Mission Work was very much enjoyed by the large audience present. The organizing secretary returned from Bay du Vin yesterday, and will proceed Campbellton Friday night.

One for the "Advance".
We congratulate Mayor Loggie on his intimation given to the Town Council that he would not favor the payment of temporary drain repairs out of the water and sewerage system fund. The ADVANCE's warning in the matter has, we are glad to know, caused his worship to see where the proposed misappropriation, which was approved by the council, might lead to injunction proceedings, which would cost the town a good deal of money.

Miss Ramsay vs "The World".
In answer to the silly and ungentlemanly remarks of the editor of the World which appeared in his paper of last week, and which he was authorized to publish so untruthfully. I wish to say that I never expected to have to appear in such a position to obtain the property which I lawfully possess. If the editor of the World will publish my evidence; or more especially the concluding part in a truthful manner, I will pardon his impertinent remarks.

To Our Readers.
The ADVANCE will be obliged to its numerous readers if they will enable us to make reference in our local columns to matters and events in which they are interested, or may think their friends may be interested. This they can do by giving the information in person at the office, or writing to us about it. Many things proper to be noticed in the ADVANCE's columns do not appear therein, simply because our attention is not called to them by those who would like to see reference to them in the paper, but have omitted to do their part in writing them known. Come, therefore, or write and tell us your local news.

What the Boys Brought to Colonel Call.

When the first contingent men were leaving Newcastle for South Africa, Lt. Colonel Call presented Messrs. Gifford, Kitchen, Anslow, Harris and Matheson with a five dollar gold coin each. They prized the gift very much, coming as it did from the organizer and first commander of the Newcastle Field Battery, to which they belonged, and instead of spending the money, they each kept it as a souvenir. In South Africa, they consulted together on the subject of bringing a gift home to the colonel as a memento of the campaign, and determined that, if possible, it should be something that could not well be duplicated in New Brunswick. Their opportunity came when they got into Colonel's lager at Paardeberg, where they secured a position shell, from which they had the coruscating and bursting failures, and its sympathy, on personal grounds, for politically innocent persons like our mayor—who was pulled by mountebanks into using his temporary influence against the interests of the County—causes us to let his attack of Tuesday night on the ADVANCE pass amongst the chaff of the election campaign; and we sincerely hope and advise that he will not continue in the future to manifest, as he has in the past, so helpless and invertebrate a disposition to permit his accidental positions in the town council and larger and more important bodies to be exploited by designing and interested persons, whose blaudishments and flatteries one of his commercial standing ought to be able to resist.

Returned South African Heroes.

About 11.30 o'clock on Friday morning last the boom of distant cannon announced the arrival at Newcastle of the members of the first Canadian contingent who left Cape Town a month or so ago. It told the people of the Miramichi of the arrival of the South Africa heroes, and was the key-note sounded in the general and enthusiastic welcome they received.

At Chatham everything possible was being done in decorating the streets and buildings, and preparations made for the arrival of the Chatham members. The Citizens' Band officers of the 73rd Battalion and others went to Newcastle to be on time for the arrival of the train from the South. The returning veterans were given a great reception at the shiretown, after which Messrs. Monroe and Doyle were taken to the Waverly Hotel and dined by their Chatham friends. A half holiday was proclaimed by Mayor Loggie and Chatham was en fête. Crowds had gathered on the public wharf at one o'clock, the regular scheduled time of the str.

after which the children sang "So'diers of the Queen."
Mayor Loggie announced that this was the children's part of the programme, after which they could be free. Then an address was read on behalf of the children, by Master John McNaughton, as follows:—
J. R. Munroe, Co. G. Royal Canadians.
DEAR SIR: We, the pupils of the public schools of Chatham, beg to extend to you a hearty welcome on your safe return from the theatre of war. We follow you with admiration which moved you to go forth, a year ago, to uphold the honor and integrity of our glorious empire filled us then with pride; your devoted conduct on the field of battle, in those supreme moments when men must 'die or die,' has proven you a soldier of heroic mould, and become our proud heritage for all time.

Yes, the 'men of Paardeberg,' the young Canadians of the West, became the admired of the world. We rejoice to know that that that memorable morning you were specially chosen to fill a position of trust and great danger among your fellow-Canadians, to discharge a duty demanding the greatest degree of coolness, nerve and ability. How you acquitted yourself, as a soldier and athlete, the annals of that glorious day bear witness for all time.

To you it has been vouchsafed to return; many noble young companions-in-arms you left behind, sleeping their last, long sleep on the soil swept red beneath the southern cross. To their memory we bow to day. We know they did not die in vain. The devotion of the 'men at Paardeberg,' yes, their very duty, will cement more strongly than ever the mighty framework of the British Empire, and make it more and more a guarantee of justice and freedom to the world.

Again we hail you, welcome! thrice welcome! and may you long live in our midst to enjoy the respect and admiration your gallant conduct has deserved.

On behalf of the pupils,
After the reading, little Lizzie L'Esle presented a bouquet of chrysanthemums, tied with red, white and blue ribbons.

The procession was re-formed and marched to Hill street, down Hill street to Pleasant street, down Pleasant street to where it joins Water street, up upper Water street and around to Duke street and on to the public square, where an address of welcome was read by Mayor Loggie, on behalf of the citizens.
Pte. Monroe thanked the people for the reception they had accorded him, and was visibly affected by it.
Pte. Doyle said it was a great surprise to him to have such a reception tendered him as he was a total stranger, and was known for only a few years in Nelson. He could not give them any of his experience at this time, but he hoped to be able, some time, to relate what were his experiences.

Premier Tweedie followed in a patriotic speech, referring to the enthusiasm which was manifested at the time of the departure of the Canadian contingent to do battle for the Empire, but there was more enthusiasm to-day on the safe arrival home of our men. Happily none of those from Northumberland had fallen on the field and he was sorry this could not be said of the whole of New Brunswick. There were others from Chatham yet at the front, and these also had been fortunate. He mentioned Pte. Ward, whom he said was always at the bat, and had escaped and was never a day. He noted the enthusiasm that prevailed over the world over the part taken by the Canadians in the war, and which has brought them into such prominence. They have done well, and being, for the most part, only raw recruits, have stood equal to the world-famous Irish Fusiliers, and the Highlanders. Great Britain has placed them among the front ranks of the army. Some had objected to the giving of a holiday for these occasions, but he thought there was no better way in teaching lessons of loyalty to the children. He hoped the Province would do something to perpetuate the memory of the great part enacted by the heroes of New Brunswick. We stand to-day willing, active and able as any in the British Empire. He acceded to both the heroes and hearty welcome.

"Three cheers were given for Premier Tweedie, and the boys, after which Premier Tweedie called for two cheers for the Newcastle boys who returned, which were given heartily, and also for Private Ward, who had volunteered to continue his services in South Africa.

The crowd then dispersed, to meet again in gathering at the evening, when a military procession was formed at 7.30 in front of the Town Hall. The 73rd Band led the procession, followed by No. 2 Co. under Capt. Mackenzie and Lieut. McIntosh. The returned soldiers, the officers of the 73d, the mayor and aldermen, the fire brigade, and many others participated. After marching through the principal streets of the town the procession drew up at the Town Hall, and a reception was held in the council chamber, where a large crowd had assembled. Major Murray made a speech from the balcony to the crowd below. Calls being made for the boys to show themselves, they also appeared on the balcony and again thanked the people for their kindness. Cheers were again given for the heroes, God Save the Queen was sung and the crowd broke up.

The ADVANCE, which gives a full report of the Newcastle reception, says:—

In the spacious Town Hall, the Mayor and members of the Board of Aldermen gave the khaki lads a dinner, Saturday night. About fifty were present. Mayor Morrison sat at one end of the table and on his right and left were the guests of honor. Ald. Hennessey occupied the seat at the other end, and on his right and left were the members of the council, officials, dignitaries, etc. Mayor Morrison was toast master. The following was the toast list:—"The Queen," responded to by all singing the "God Save the Queen." "The Army and Navy," responded to by Major Malby and Captain Sargent; "The Canadian Contingent," responded to by Rev. Mr. Brown; "Our Guests," responded to by Sgt. Anslow, and Privates Aitken, Munroe and Harris; "Municipality of Northumberland," responded to by Councillor Campbell; "The Town of Newcastle," responded to by Ald. Hennessey, Hickson and Williston; "The Bench and the Bar," responded to by Judge Wilkinson and Samuel Thompson; "The Clergy," responded to by Rev. Messrs. Snow and Pickles; "The Ladies," responded to by Rev. Mr. Aitken and W. A. Park; "By Press," responded to by H. B. Anslow. Ald. Hennessey proposed the toast of Mayor Morrison. The Mayor replied. Judge Wilkinson proposed the orchestra, Mr. T. M. Stewart responded.

Mr. Henry Wyse did the catering and it is safe to say those present never sat down to a better cooked or more enjoyable repast.

Wonderful Results.

FROM TAKING DR. CLARKE'S WONDERFUL LITTLE RED PILLS.
Sir, I feel it a duty I owe to my fellow sufferers to say that, after 12 years of indescribable torture from indigestion and debilitated constitution, I am now, I believe, thoroughly well. I spent hundreds of dollars seeking relief, but never found it until I tried Dr. Clarke's wonderful Little Red Pills, 12 boxes did the work. I am now in perfect health, and waste the world to know what cured me. E. S. Smith, St. John's, New Brunswick.

Chas Ritchie writes—"I believe if it had not been for Dr. Clarke's Little Red Pills I would have now been in my grave, as I was a long sufferer from stomach troubles, they are the greatest remedy on earth."

Dr. Clarke's Little Red Pills are a positive and certain cure for rheumatism, asthma, paralysis, catarrh, coughs, lame back, indigestion, all stomach and liver troubles, female complaints, even when the diseases have been standing for many years. The most stubborn cases will yield. For sale by leading druggists or sent direct by mail, by addressing Canada Chemical Co., Peterborough, Ont. 50 cents per box, or 3 boxes for $1.00.
