NEW GROCERY : - Mr. Walter Gilbert is opening a new grocery in the Berson Block-corner store. He comes to Chatham from Rothsay, near St. John, and is a son of Geo. G. Gilbert, Esq., Q. C., who is so we'l and favorably known to many citiz ns of the Miramichi.

OUR BAND :- Referring to the Sussex camp the Advocate says :- "There was one Miramichi band present, the 73rd from Chatham, and they proved a bit of a surprise to the 1560 men in camp. Their playing was regarded as second best, the Fredericton band carrying off the laurels."

S. PAUL'S AND S. MARY'S :- In the ab sence of the Rector there will be no service in S Mary's Chapel at 11 a.m. on Sunday next. The usual services will be held in S. Faul's at 3 p.m. and in S. Mary's at 7 p.m. The offerings will be the usual quarterly offerings for the Parochial Fund.

ST ANDREW'S :- The first auniversary of the re-opening of St. Andrew's Church. Chatham, is to be selebrated on Sunday next. The services are to be conducted by Rev. Dr. Falconer, professor of Testament Greek and Exegetics in the Presbyterian College, Halifax. Special music suitable to the occasion is to be rendered by the choir.

THE CHATHAM STONE-CRUSHER is being laid up for the winter. If there is one in vestment more than another of which Chatham's Town Council should be ashamed it is that comparatively unused machine. The only ability displayed in connection with it was that to spend the money it cost. There doesn't seem to have been any reasonable effort made to justify the purchase, by working it.

THE STR. NELSON, plying between Chatham and up river points was temporarily put out of service on Tuesday by the lower end of her rudder stock becoming unshripped. Intending passengers were inconvenienced by there being no steamer available last night.

JEALOUS:-The World, in an endeavor to discount the prowess of Mr. P. Campbell Johnson as a sportsman insinuates that "he has countrymen subsidired to shoot for him. and that the birds he brings in are the fruits of the united efforts of himself and his assistants." Mr. Johnson will, no doubt, very properly repudiate the charge that he has the countrymen under subsidy, but he may also claim the right to buy partridges if he pleases. Trouble Aheai for Newspaper Men. Editor Scott of the St. John Sun Picron, Feb. 17 .- This is to certify that ! editor Stewart of the Halifax Herald are being criminally proceeding against by Henry Flood of Montreal of whom their papers said "He killed his wife in a jealous rage and was hanged in Glasgow." Both Flood and his wife are alive.

The case of the editor of the Newcastle Advocate is probably not so serious as that of Messrs. Scott and Stewart, publication of the allegation that Dr. Philip Cox of Chatham got a caribou on Bartibogue plains on Saturday, 15th inst, will no doubt lead to serious complications. The inference to be drawn is that the doctor shot the caribou, whereas that could hardly be, as he knows the law and would not kill such cellor; J. Boyle Travers, M. D.; Mr. Justice had not. If, as is probable, some person McLeod, Mr. Justice Barker, William F. who had a license killed the animal and Dr. Cox "got" it from him, it would be all William Pugsley, D. C. L., and Hon. right. Still, as the matter stands, the item published by the editor of the Advocate is Northumberland-Richard L. Maltby to practically a charge that Dr. Cox has joined expected to overlook.

HORATIO J. LEE. A Business Change.

Mr. Thomas Flanagan, who for many years has conducted the business of a general storekeeper on Cunard Street, Chatham, and is also proprietor of the Adams House. has found the demands of the upon his time and attention so great as to necessitate his giving the former up. has, therefore, sold his store premises to Mr. Charles Reinsboro of Bay du Von Mills, one of Northumberland's successful lumbermen, and Mr. Reinsboro is to take possescion about November 1st. He will, no doubt, retain Mr. Flanagan's old patrone and add many new ones from amongst his friends in different parts of the country, for he is favorably known wherever he has done business in Northumberland, Kent and Gloucester.

Mr. Flanagan is desirous of selling off his stock in trade. He does not want at retail below cost for well as all other legitimate dealers know that course to be a demoralisng one on legitimate business; so he wants to sell out his different lines to dealers, without reserve, at much below cost. A bons fide offer of this kind ought to commend itself to the trade and enable Mr. Flanagan to get out of business with advantage to his fellow-merchants.

Mercenary Sport

"The owner of Oriana" has his war paint on and, as usual, he is after money. Ever since he acquired Oriana, practically as a gift, he appears to have made a study of the problem of running her without cost to himself. He has been so successful that he has contrived to grab from $15 to $20 year of the money contributed to the club's funds by his fellow-members over and above anything he has paid and, seeing that the club's finances are about exhausted, and that his customary revenue from that source must cease, he offers to put up.$25 in a $100 purse "to be sailed for by all-comers". He knows that there are but two yachts on the Miramichi that would have any chance of winning in such a competition, so he practically asks odds of three to one. No member of the Yacht Club, however, will take any notice of his money-grabbing proposition, for there has been, for a good while, a feeling that his persistent efforts in that direction have done much to injure the organization. Yachtsmen do not go into the sport for the purpose of making money. They, rather, spend their money to develop the pastime and prefer to be contributors to, rather than pensioners of yachting clubs. We hope the irate challenger will acquire more of the true yachting spirit and cease to be so persistently after money in connection with the sport. He should remember that he has been accepted as a yachtsman and. notwithstanding his avaricious propensities is yet recognised as such, but he should not mike a laughing stock of the club and overstrain the spirit of toleration which has heretofore kept him in good standing.
