THE BODY OF THE LATE WILLIAM LAWLOR, who was drowned on the 8th inst., through the ice while skating on the river, opposite Chatham, has not yet been recovered. Mr. Arch. Eracker was continuing the search yesterday in a diving suit near the place where the drowning took place.

FIRE NEAR BATHURST VILLAGE.—The dwelling house of George R. Hachey, about one and a half miles from Bathurst Village, was totally destroyed by fire about 7 o'clock last Thursday evening. Most of the furniture was saved. Loss about $1,000; insurance $800.

THE DEER HUNTING season in Maine closed on Saturday. The record of game shipped through Bangor was 3,113 deer and 138 moose, a decrease of 231 deer and one moose from 1899, but a gain of 150 deer over the season of 1898. There were less deer shot than in former seasons.

SMALL PUX.—Reports from down the Gloucester County coast about smallpox are most encouraging. The disease is now confined to two or three houses which are completely quarantined. No new cases are reported, though in one of the lumber camps near Janelville there are quite a number of cases. This camp is isolated. Indications are that the disease will be stamped out in a few weeks. There has been no case within four miles of Bathurst.

PRE. MATHESON.—Last Friday evening, Newcastle, through its mayor and members of the town council, assisted by Major Malby and a number of the clergy, honored themselves by presenting to Private Osburn Matheson, a returned South African hero and native of the town, an address and purse of money. Private Matheson, who was seriously wounded in action, manifested his appreciation of the recognition his gallant conduct received from his fellow citizens.

PERSONAL.—Hon. John Costigan, M. P. was in town yesterday and old friends gave him a most hearty welcome. Premier Tweedie went to Fredericton yesterday to attend a meeting of the Government.

Mr. John Benson, of the Bank of Montreal staff, Montreal, who underwent a surgical operation for appendicitis at the Royal Victoria Hospital in that city last Thursday was doing nicely at last accounts.

WINTER "STRIKER".—Owing to excessive snow becoming so numerous in Canton the headman of the government truck down his axe and struck for more pay or fewer despatches. The average was running 20 or 40 a day and the official excuser was getting as remuneration what would be equivalent in American money to 50 cents a head. The day after he resigned there were numerous applications for the place, and at the end of the week over 150 had offered to perform the work at 25 cents a head. The Shanghai Mercury says that the new excuser took off the heads of thirty-nine victims on the first day and the mutilation of the necks of the victims. All his victims suffered horribly because of his lack of skill.

MISREPRESENTATION.—Somebody has been inspiring the World and Commercial printing of the town bye-laws, the evident object being to shield those who are responsible for mistakes alleged to have been made in having an unauthorized resolution printed, and the failure of those having the custody of the bye-laws, when printed, to place them before the council, instead of keeping them on hand for more than a month after delivery by the printer. The latter is in for a lot of abuse in the matter, but the members of the council who are endeavoring to make a soap-sop for themselves of him will, it is hoped, have the courage to back up the statements they have inspired when the council deals with the subject and all parties can be heard.

Death of Mr. D. Crimmin.

Mr. Daniel Crimmin, an old and well known resident of Chatham died on Saturday evening last at his home, after an illness of some duration. He was sixty years old and a native of Chatham, where, especially in former years, he was a leading stevedore, shipwright and contractor. He was also prominent in the old days in politics, and one of the original World Publishing Company. The funeral, which took place on Tuesday forenoon at ten o'clock, was a very large one. The remains were borne to the Pro-Cathedral, the pall-bearers being Messrs. Thos. Keating, Mich. Hickey, R. Flanagan, Thos. Flanagan, Patk. Coleman, James Curran, Wm. Lawlor, John Hawkes. His Lordship, Bishop Rogers, celebrated Requiem High Mass assisted by Rev. H. T. Joyner, the latter performing the oblation. The interment was in the R. C. cemetery.

Chaplain Lane's Lecture.

Chaplain Lane, one of the clergymen who marched with the Canadian soldiers from Cape Town to Pretoria, delivered his well known lecture in Masonic Hall on Tuesday evening to a fair-sized audience, which ought to have been larger, under the amount which this presbytery was asked to raise. Rev. Mr. Wheeler was appointed to Harcourt and Mill Branch until the end of April. A Sabbath school conference is to be held in St. Andrew's Church, Chatham, in connection with the next meeting of Presbytery in March. Papers on Sunday School and young people's work are to be submitted therat by prominent laymen.

The Boer War is not Over. LONDON, Dec. 17.—Lord Kitchener is reported to have sent a fresh and urgent request to the Government to send out every available mounted man. With Dawet again escaped through the corridor in the neighbourhood of Taba N'Chu, the serious affairs at Vryheid and Seaton and the Magsberg disaster confronting the British people they may well begin to ask as to why Lord Roberts was allowed to come home.

The colonial office announced a decision to enlist 5,000 men instead of 1,000 previously called to be recruited in Great Britain for Baden Powell's constabulary, which shows that recruiting in South Africa is less active than had been anticipated. Lorenz Marques despatches assert that all the Boer forces are well supplied with ammunition but terribly in want of food and clothing.

LONDON, Dec. 16.—A despatch from Standerton, dated Dec. 14, says Gen. Louis Botha is at Ermelo taking a peaceful attitude informing the burghers time has come to submit to the inevitable. It is expected he will shortly make overtures of peace.

LONDON, Dec. 15.—Lord Kitchener reports that eighteen officers and five hundred and fifty-five men are missing from Gen. Clements's force. They consist of four companies of the Northumberland Fusiliers. Clements's casualties December 13 amounted to five officers and nine men killed and many apparently wounded.

LONDON, Dec. 15.—General Kitchener's supplementary despatch referring to the disaster at Magsberg confirms yesterday's most pessimistic fears and demonstrates that the catastrophe is among the worst of the war. The matter was brought up in the House of Commons to-day, but the secretary for war, Mr. Wm. St. John Brodrick, had no information to add except that the wounded numbered six officers and forty-five men.

LONDON, Dec. 17.—The report of another severe battle, resulting in a British victory, is current here. According to the story the fighting began at day-break to-day and lasted several hours. The Boers, who numbered from 1,500 to 2,000 men, were surrounded at the Orange River and totally defeated with very heavy losses in killed and wounded. A number of Boers were captured.

MARSBURG, Dec. 17.—It appears that De Wet's force was twice repulsed before it broke through the British lines in the neighbourhood of Taba N'Chu. In the third attack De Wet led in person. With a few determined men he charged and broke the British lines, the rest of the commando following. He was forced, however, to leave in the hands of the British a fifteen pounder and fifteen waggon with ammunition and stores. Commandant Hasbrouk, with a commando and two guns, tried to get through Springkranz Nek, but was driven back with the loss of forty men.

Suggestive Hints for Further Agricultural Organizations in the Maritime Provinces.

In response to invitations from the Maritime Governments and other leading men, Mr. F. W. Hodson made the following suggestions at the Maritime Stock Breeders' Meeting at Charlottetown. He said, by invitation I visited these three provinces last summer, and made as careful a study of the conditions as time would allow. I have since been invited to make suggestions along the line of Organized Agricultural Effort here.

Each provi. club association should have its objects, work and powers mapped out in detail in a constitution, by-laws, etc. Each should hold an annual meeting, the date of which should be elected for the following year, these not to take office until the close of the then present meeting. After the routine has been attended to, a thoroughly good and instructive programme should be carried out. This programme should be prepared and published at least three months before the meeting is held. First it should be published in the agricultural and weekly press, and from week to week the secretary should supply the press with reading notices. Every effort should be made to interest the various publishers in the meetings, and every courtesy should be extended to them, and they should be dealt with as liberally as the funds of the association will allow. Each respectable, well conducted paper should be used in a similar manner. No difference should be made on account of politics. Bear in mind that the public can only be reached and largely benefited by using the press. On the other hand it is the duty of the press to do all it can afford to spread the information given at these gatherings and to treat these gatherings as non-political. The man or the paper who is forever looking for personal or political aggrandizement is useless timber, not only to himself and his party, but worse than useless to his country.

About four weeks before the annual meeting is held, the final draft of the programme should be published in a neat form, and widely circulated. Copies of this should be sent to every farmer living within fifty miles of the place of meeting, to every newspaper, to every public man, and to such other prominent persons as do or should take an interest in agriculture. An especial effort should be made to interest the ladies and the young men and women who live in the country surrounding the place of meeting. These annual meetings should not always be held in the same place.

Speakers. Only practical and successful men should be chosen as speakers. A full day, at least no more, afternoon and evening should be devoted to hearing addresses and discussion thereon. Too many addresses should not be given; only as many as can be well digested. Papers read one year should be discussed the next.

The retiring officers and directors should in all cases remain in office until the close of the annual meeting. As soon as this meeting is over the new directors

Presbytery of Miramichi. The Presbytery of Miramichi met at Loggieville last Monday evening for the induction of Rev. A. W. Lewis. Public worship was conducted by Rev. H. R. Read, of Bathurst. Rev. D. Henderson, of St. Andrew's, Chatham, presided and narrated the steps which led up to the call and, thereafter, Rev. A. F. Carr, of Campbellton, suitably addressed the minister, and Rev. J. M. McLean, of St. John's, Chatham, addressed the congregation.

In the name of the ladies of the congregation, Rev. D. Henderson presented Mr. Lewis with a substantial token of their esteem and good will, in the form of cash. The choir of the church rendered excellent music during the service, and the generally expressed view was that the new minister's induction was under most promising auspices.

A meeting of the Presbytery was held at St. James' Hall, Newcastle, on Tuesday. The business, however, was chiefly routine. Rev. Wm. Hamilton, who has been ministering in the vacant congregation of Tabusintac, since early in October, was continued for the first three months of 1901. Mr. John Grierson was appointed to labor during the winter in the lumber camps within the bounds.

Rev. A. F. Carr, as convener of committee, reported that the presbytery had contributed $7,750 to the common fund of the Chatham Fund, which was $250 in excess of Mission Meeting at Black River. A public meeting under the auspices of the W. F. M. S. Auxiliary, Black River, was held in the Middle School, Friday evening, Dec. 14th. Miss J. D. Gillis, President, occupied the chair and gave an address showing the benefit of such a society for the advancement of Christ's cause in foreign lands.

This society was organized in August with a membership of 14. It has now 21. Miss McNaughton gave an interesting address on "Our Missions," pointing out the map of the world where our Canadian stations were situated; also giving an account of each.

Rev. John Robertson then addressed the meeting on the duty of Christians to support Foreign Missions. The remainder of the programme consisted of Hymns, recitations and readings. Mrs. H. Fowle presided at the organ. The silver collection amounted to over $10 which will be given over for Foreign Missions.

aspices of the Women's Missionary Society of St. Luke's church. Col. McCauley, who appeared in uniform, and whose guest Chaplain Lane was, presided, and Majors Murray and Baxter, and Captain Mackenzie were also present in uniform, while Messrs. Munroe and Doyle, two of our returned South African soldiers, who went out with the first contingent also appeared in khaki.

The lecture was a very realistic presentation of the scenes and experiences through which the Canadian troops passed in the campaign, given by one who was an eye witness of much of what he described. He made particular reference to the heroism of Stanley Morrison of Chatham, who, he said, deserved the Victoria Cross.

Dr. Baxter moved and Major Murray and Rev. Mr. Fraser of Richibucto seconded a vote of thanks to the lecturer, which he duly acknowledged.

Death of Mr. Donald MacLachlan. The death of Mr. Donald MacLachlan of Chatham, at the age of 74 years, took place at his residence on Thursday last, after an illness of a few weeks. Mr. MacLachlan was long identified with business, church and, in a measure, public affairs of the community and has left behind him a reputation for sterling integrity and good citizenship. He came to Chatham from Pictou, N. S., when a young man and has resided here ever since. For many years he carried on the business of tobacco-manufacturing, and subsequently went into the wholesale and retail grocery business, in which he was successful in building up a large trade. He was, for many years, one of the Alms-house Commissioners for Chatham and Secretary to the Board, resigning only a few years since and being succeeded by his son, Mr. D. P. MacLachlan. Mr. MacLachlan was a man of deep convictions, ten-living, to St. Andrew's Church a noble example of fidelity to Christ and his cause and to the world a proof that christianity enables the life of those who walk in the light of it.
