Died on the Train. A YOUNG LADY EXPRIES ON THE I. C. R. EXPRESS FROM ST. JOHN.

The St. John Sun's Hampton correspondent writes under date of 2nd instant: On this morning's express train from St. John were two passengers, Mrs. M. E. Doyle, matron of the city hospital, Portland, Me., and a patient, Miss Jennie McKee, 26 years of age, a consumptive in the last stages of that dread disease. The latter belonged to Tracadie, Q. B. C., but had been in service at Portland for some time, until in March last she went to the hospital and thus came under Mrs. Doyle's charge and so remained until she decided to go back to her old home and spend her few remaining days with her sole relative, John McMahon, Tracadie's postmaster. The matron decided to accompany her, taking this duty as part of her vacation, and on Monday took the International steamer for St. John. On the arrival of the boat, the matron and her patient went to the Grand Union Hotel for the night so as to be near the station for the early start this morning. The girl appeared bright and cheerful, happy to be on the last stage of her journey and anticipating a pleasant greeting from her uncle at its end this evening. The nurse before starting administered a slight stimulant in the form of glass of wine, and the start by train was fairly made. About fifteen or twenty minutes after, however, the matron noticed a sudden change in the appearance of her charge, which betokened the end to be near, and almost immediately she died in the nurse's arms. The baggage master and conductor were called, and when the train reached Hampton, the body was taken out and laid on a bench in the ladies' waiting room. Mrs. Carvell covered it with her shawl, and subsequently Mrs. E. M. Campbell directed it to be removed to her residence, which was done by Undertaker Allan Frost, who also supplied a casket, and took charge of the arrangements for forwarding it to its destination. Mrs. Doyle paying the charges from a fund of $50 which the girl had entrusted to her before starting. Miss McKee as being "as fine a girl as ever stood in shoes," and evidently had all in her power to make the trip as comfortable as possible. Dr. F. H. Wetmore, coroner, viewed the body, and after learning all the circumstances, decided that an inquest was unnecessary. As health officer, he also gave a certificate to be forwarded with the body, which goes north on the Quebec express to-night. Mrs. Doyle returned to St. John by the noon train and will take the steamer for Lunenburg (Thursday) morning, where she will visit her brother.

Game Notes and News. Fredericton Herald: I. W. Morton, of St. Louis, Mo., accompanied by his daughter, Miss Alice Morton, left today (Tuesday) for Boiestown en route to the Miramichi woods on a moose hunting expedition. Miss Morton has shown her ability to use the rifle on more than one occasion. She has shot caribou in Newfoundland, black tail deer and mountain lions in Colorado and elk in the state of Wyoming. Neither Mr. Morton or his daughter has ever had the good fortune to shoot a moose.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Barker and Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Barker went to Tabusintac by the Miramichi on Friday last on a week's shooting trip. They were said to have with them one thousand rounds of ammunition.

A shooting "accident" took place the other evening at Brighton, Carleton Co., when John Gibson accidentally shot his brother Andrew. The young men were after woodcock when the accident occurred. Andrew's face and arm are well filled with shot, but it is thought he will recover.

Mr. W. B. Storey, of Colorado Springs, who went into Caribou river district with Frank Ballet as guide, and Peter Lyons, packman, and Ernest Lyons, cook, came to Chatham on Tuesday night. He got a moose with a 60 inch spread of antlers, having twenty-six points; also a fine caribou head. He speaks very enthusiastically of the Province as a game country and of the treatment he received from those with whom he came in contact here.

S. D. Forest and W. P. Bacon, of New York, were on the South Branch of Cain's River with Thomas Weaver and James McDonald as guides, and Allan Stewart, cook. They saw 25 caribou in one herd. They selected two and killed them. They killed a large bear also. They saw a good moose, but failed to bring him down, for which they do not, of course, blame the guide.

Dr. H. A. Lewis, of Providence, Rhode Island, came to Newcastle on Tuesday evening from the Forks of the Northwest Miramichi, bringing with him a fine moose head. Edward Menzies was his guide and Archy Stewart his cook. He is delighted with the country and says it is in the first rank for game.

A. C. Meisel, of New York, who has been hunting on the Little Seavogles with Josiah White, guide, and Chas. White, cook, came to Newcastle yesterday with a big moose head.

Percy Lebbins, of Blackville, accompanied by his "helpers"—for Mr. Lebbins is a blacksmith—went into the Sabbies River moose grounds on Tuesday evening of last week and returned on Thursday with a moose.

Hugh Alexander Grady of Blackville visited an absence of three days from Blackville last week, came out from the Burnt Meadows, in the Dungarvon and Bartholomew region, last Thursday morning with a large bull moose.

Dr. D. W. Green and J. R. King, of Dayton, Ohio, who have been hunting on the Miramichi, with Norrid Brothers of Boiestown as guides, secured a moose and a caribou. They came out of the woods on Tuesday.

South Africa. Private news received at Capetown from Capetown says the entire field of war has changed. All the fighting is now being done in British territory, in Cape Colony and Natal, while the Transvaal and Orange River Colonies are quiet. There are nine commandos in Cape Colony, and they are growing rapidly in numbers. There is some idea that the Boers are making a concerted move towards Capetown.

The war office has received the following despatch from Lord Kitchener, dated Pretoria, Sept. 30: "Since September 23, 27 Boers have been killed, 24 wounded, 27 prisoners have been taken and 48 have surrendered. In addition to the above, the prisoners taken by the Boers in the attack on Fort Itala on September 26, state that they saw 80 Boers buried in the enemy's laager."

Kitchener also reports that "the Boers in force, under Delany and Kemp, attacked Keweenaw at Modderfontein on Magots Pass yesterday, but were driven off."

A large convoy which was leaving Melmoth, Zuland, on September 29, was captured by the Boers. Six native police were killed.

London, Oct. 4—"The Chronicle" says it learns from a very high authority that a complete and sudden collapse of the Boer resistance and the consequent speedy termination of the war are anticipated. It implies that this is the view entertained by the War Office. It adds that General Botha's and General De Wet's coupes are regarded as a last desperate effort of men who have at last grown weary of the struggle and are tired of being hunted. It is confidently felt that the Boers are fighting their last fight and that the end, which will come with startling suddenness, is near. For this reason it is not intended to despatch further reinforcements.

A despatch to the "Standard" from Capetown, recording the fact that there is much speculation over the visit to Pretoria of Sir Gordon Sprigg, Prime Minister of Cape Colony, says it is generally assumed that the country is on the eve of developments of the highest importance.

A Kroonstad despatch says:—Two Dutch clergymen, Messrs Charles Marpy and Botha, who were permitted to visit Mr. Steyn and Mr. De Wet to discuss and explain the proclamation and try to persuade them to surrender, have returned to Kroonstad. The mission proved abortive. Steyn and De Wet said that the women were being brutally treated. The delegates replied that they had visited the refugee camps, where the women all said that they had nothing to complain of. The delegates put the question as to whether support had been promised from Cape Colony if an invasion took place. Steyn and De Wet denied that any support had been promised, and stated that the invasion of Cape Colony had been planned to occur much earlier, but Prinsloo's surrender had disorganized the arrangements. The delegates found that the most ignorance prevailed among the Boer rank and file regarding their future. They had been told, and apparently believed, that if they surrendered they would be forced to join as soldiers for three years and fight British battles abroad. The delegates pointed out that under British rule they would soon have such free laws as were enjoyed by all the British colonies. The delegates reported that De Wet was looking well, but Steyn seemed much embarrassed. It is expected that many will surrender at the last moment.

for financing the proposed undertaking, and to report at a meeting to be held on Wednesday, 23 d inst.

Dedication of the Sacred Heart Church at Bathurst. Bathurst, Oct. 7.—Yesterday was an ideal one for the beautiful and imposing ceremonies connected with the solemn dedication of the Roman Catholic Church of the Sacred Heart here. The weather was all that could be desired. Long before the time for the commencement of the ceremony people on foot and in carriages could be seen coming in from the outside country to attend it. It was not thought that the stately edifice would contain the immense concourse of people which gathered outside the entrance awaiting the signal which would permit them to enter, for over one thousand were present.

His Grace, the Archbishop of Halifax, accompanied by Monsignor Murphy, had arrived by the accommodation on Saturday evening to be present.

The dedication was performed by his Lordship, Bishop Barry, with Rev. W. F. Sormay, Deacon, and Rev. W. Martin, Sub-deacon. The priests in attendance were, Revs. J. Carter, Petit Roemer; W. Varrity, Bathurst Village; T. Allard, Caraque; E. P. Wallace, Campbellton, and the Rev. Fathers LeBastard, Haguin and Merol, of the Rurist Fathers College at Carquet.

Immediately after the ceremony, a Pontifical High Mass was sung by his Lordship, Bishop Barry, with Revs. Sormay and Martin being Deacon and Sub-deacon respectively. Rev. Father LeBastard, assistant priest with cope; Fathers Varrity and Wallace, 1st and 2nd Masters of Ceremonies.

His Grace, the Archbishop, assisted, attended by Fathers Carter, Merol and Allard, and occupied the throne on the Gospel side of the church, while Monsignor Murphy and Father Haguin assisted on the Epistle side.

During Mass His Grace preached the dedication sermon in his usual masterly style.

Vespers was sung at four o'clock in the afternoon by Rev. W. Varrity, followed by an eloquent sermon in French by Father LeBastard, after which Solemn Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament was given by Monsignor Murphy with Fathers Varrity and Carter as Deacon and Sub-deacon.

The singing in the morning and at the Benediction by the church choir, under the direction of Miss Emma Power, was excellent.

Vespers was chanted by the visiting prelate aided by some of the gentlemen of the choir and was well rendered.

Branch No. 130, C. M. B. A., having requested His Grace to do them the honor of visiting them at their hall, and the invitation having been graciously accepted, there was a large number of members present to receive their grand Spiritual Adviser who, accompanied by His Lordship Bishop Barry, Monsignor Murphy and the visiting priests, arrived at the hall about 7.30 p.m.

The President, Mr. E. L. O'Brien, read the following address of welcome:— To the Most Reverend Monsignor O'Brien, D. D., Archbishop of Halifax.

YOUR GRACE—On behalf of the members of the Catholic Mutual Benefit Association of Canada, it becomes my duty and privilege to tender to Your Grace a heartfelt welcome to Bathurst. To know that Your Grace is the friend and guest of our beloved pastor, The Right Reverend Bishop of Thugas, were sufficient cause for our esteem; his friends are our friends; when he honors, we honor; but recognizing in Your Grace that distinguished gentleman and man of letters, whose name is honored throughout America for his scholarly attainments, looking to the welfare of the public; that broad-minded ecclesiastic, whose name is synonymous with good will, and whose actions are distinguished by the noblest spirit of charity, we feel constrained to offer you that respect which is due to one of your high standing.

Yes, above all, and in a more particular manner, the day when, to your humble residence in that beautiful island, which has fittingly been designated the "Garden of Canada," the summons came to take upon yourself greater duties and more extended responsibilities; since in obedience to a Divine call to "come up higher," you left your sea-encircled island, to rule over the destinies of the Church in this Maritime land, we have rejoiced in the success which has attended your administration, and have felt a pride in the fact that your admirable tact and social courtesy have maintained the Catholic socially, on a high plane, and, materially, in an advanced position. May Divine Providence long spare you to continue successfully the great life-work

Proposed Exhibition Building. The meeting of Northumberland Agricultural Society and citizens generally called to consider the matter of providing an exhibition building in Chatham was held in the Town Hall yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Geo. Searle, president of the Society, in opening the meeting, said they had leased the Lobban property and were desirous of knowing whether the citizens would assist in putting up an agricultural building estimated to cost from $2000 to $3000. If they had the building the government would assist them to the extent of $2,500 in the holding of a provincial exhibition.

Mr. Geo. E. Fisher said he had visited the Sussex, Fredericton and Woodstock exhibitions and his observations led to the conclusion that a similar exhibition could be successfully held here. In those places the citizens took hold of the matter. He regretted that there were few citizens present outside of the members of the local agricultural society. Unless the citizens took hold of the matter he feared the undertaking couldn't be carried out.

Mr. R. A. Murdoch said an agricultural building could also be used as an skating rink.

Mr. R. Flanagan referred to the prevailing dullness of the community, owing, naturally, to the shutting down of the pulp mill. It might be well to defer the matter of the proposed building for a little in the hope that the pulp mill would again start and restore normal conditions.

Mr. John O'Brien, M. P., regretted that the meeting was so small and spoke of the advantage of an agricultural building and exhibitions would be; he also referred to the good work the money had done in improving the horse and other stock of the country, and hoped something would come of the proposition for the building. We need not give up because the pulp mill will not, as we had got along without it before it was established and it would, no doubt, go on again.

Mr. James Falconer, of Newcastle, was in favor of going on—forming committees to promote the work etc. We got along before the pulp mill had shut down and we can go on without regard to it. The crowd had been poor this year, but they would be good again and we should not be discouraged.

Mr. J. F. Connors thought the country with its agricultural capabilities and intelligent men, could provide and maintain an exhibition building and exhibitions. He would like to see a track connected with the undertaking and also a trotting association. He referred to former exhibitions under the Society and the superior qualities of exhibits. President Searle explained that a track had been contemplated, but the ground at the Lobban field was found to be unsuitable.

Mr. D. G. Smith addressed the meeting on the proposition. Mr. J. F. Connors gave some information to regard to tracks and cattle stock in the upper provinces and spoke of the fallacy of attaching so much importance to the pulp mill failure.

Mr. J. D. O'Connell thought that the undertaking should be successfully organized and carried out, including a track. Mr. John O'Brien spoke of the non-success financially of the St. John Exhibition Association and the contrary results of the exhibition in Fredericton, under the Agricultural Society there, and was in favor of a track in connection with the enterprise. A committee might be formed and the undertaking put in shape.

Mr. Geo. Dickson would have liked to see some citizens of Chatham present. He thought the proposed committee should be appointed. Mr. Alex. Dickson thought a start should be made if the way to do so was open. It seemed that we were going back instead of forward, as formerly. President Searle said the Society was not given credit for all it had done in the past. It had spent some $10,000 in that interest. That was why more exhibitions had not been held. Mr. A. G. Dickson thought as the land was secured, the erection of the building ought to go on. The Town Council should cooperate. The Mayor might call a meeting to promote the undertaking. No doubt, success would result if the work were proceeded with. Messrs. D. G. Smith and J. D. O'Connell spoke of the necessity of formulating something definite as to the proposed building, etc. to be placed before a general public meeting. Mr. O'Brien gave some details of the history of Chatham Driving Park and said the rental paid for that would pay interest on the cost of a track in the Lobban property. Mr. R. A. Murdoch thought that a citizen's meeting would not result in much and that this meeting might proceed to take the matter up in a practical way. [Our reporter was called away before the meeting ended.]
