CURTAINS OF GOLD COINS.

A YARN FROM THE YARD.

Just so! Your public—Monkhouse, the old detective, sat back with the pregnant chuckle that always riveted attention.

I had no tangible proof yet. All the same I was ready to stake my hard-won reputation on the instinct that I had been right.

"The macaroni came. He just tasted it, shuddered, sipped at the coffee and began smoking hard.

"No such man work for himself," I answered offhand. Beyond the establishment of his own identity I had ferreted out absolutely nothing of value.

"The Rajah Dhu Djaleen reached London late last night after his visit to Scotland. His Highness was said to be in the best of health and spirits, and proceeded straight to his suite at the Cosmopolitan Hotel.

"Arboretti!" I gave him back, with an accent. "Keep to English here. I have been shadowed by Naples and Paris detectives—dared not give you the sign openly."

"Then let it be to-morrow!" he caught my hand tightly. "But I say yes—let it be over. It might mean madness for me, I have had the great struggle not to cross my seas in cognac."

"You are mistaken! I shall be with you; I am no more afraid than you. Then—to-morrow!" I had to say it, his eyes had flamed up so dangerously.

STATUE OF QUEEN VICTORIA AT TORONTO.

The statue to be erected in Queen's Park in front of the Parliament building, at Toronto, Ont., will be a worthy memorial of Queen Victoria.

"Arboretti!" I got out. "Who posted the notice? Let me see it, I'm not Arboretti! I'm So-and-So, of the Yard, in charge of this business. You madmen!"

"That was it. I'll own that the bare shock of the thing left me as nearly paralyzed as makes no difference. In a breath I had given the whole thing away, and Mareschi was gone—in all probability by a rear exit.

"The inspiration came without my knowing it. My slouch hat lay near my feet; in a flash I had picked it up and held it over the candle."

ECENTRIC ROBBERS.

In July of 1898 a man broke into the castle of Count Lamberg, near Engelseck, Germany, and totally disregarding jewellery to the value of $10,000 that was lying about, departed with a volume of Heine, two water-color sketches, and a photograph of Countess Lamberg.

When arrested he confessed to having committed in the course of the year no fewer than 398 burglaries, more for the love of exercising his skill than for the sake of booty, which almost always consisted of some insignificant article.

"Out of your own mouth!" I thought. "I know, when you tried to follow me. You Arboretti—you meant to die with the Rajah—with me. You shall! You shall live just long enough to know that we have a way of our own."

"That was it. I'll own that the bare shock of the thing left me as nearly paralyzed as makes no difference. In a breath I had given the whole thing away, and Mareschi was gone—in all probability by a rear exit.

A system of insurance against strikes prevails in Austria. Holders of policies are indemnified if strikes occur in their establishments, whether voluntary, forced, or sympathetic.

One of the most curious plants in the world is what is known as the toothbrush plant of Jamaica. It is a species of creeper, and has nothing particularly striking about its appearance.

WHAT CAUSED THE ROW. Hoot, hoot, hoot! rang through the house at 2 a.m.

The German Empire registers more than 1,000 weddings a day.

The life of an Australian native rarely exceeds fifty years.

About one-sixteenth of the paper output of the world is converted into books.

The most ancient glass had exactly the same component parts as that of to-day.

Some of the Russian battleships are lined with asbestos, as a protection against fire.

Infectious diseases are unknown in Greenland, on account of the dry, cold atmosphere.

Australia's output of coal is 7,000,000 tons a year, 2,500,000 more than that of India.

It requires an average of over 20,000,000 pins per day to meet the needs of the British people.

The deserts of Arabia are especially remarkable for the pillars of sand which are raised by the whirlwinds.

A chameleon, when blindfolded, loses the power to change its hues, and the entire body remains of a uniform color.

British farmers and dairymen are to-day milking over 4,000,000 cows, and producing annually in milk, dairies £32,000,000 worth of milk.

The bottom of the Pacific between Hawaii and California is said to be so level that a railway could be laid for 500 miles without grading anywhere.

Horses are becoming higher in price every year. Six years ago the horse market was more than supplied, and good horses could be had at half prices.

The demand for horses in the armies of the world is one of the reasons for the change.

Great quantities of dust collect on the decks of vessels at sea, no matter if they are swept twice or thrice a day.

Most of it, too, is found on sailing vessels. The inference is that the sails act as dust collectors, arresting the particles which drift in the air.

Of one thousand men who marry, three hundred and eighty-two marry women younger than themselves, five hundred and nineteen women of about the same age, and only eighty-nine older women.
