Our Royal Visitors. Their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York pass along the north shore of New Brunswick this morning, by the Intercolonial Railway, en route to St. John, where great preparations are made for celebrating their visit to the Province. They will be welcomed in the commercial capital with a loyalty and enthusiasm truly reflecting the sentiments of ou people towards the Throne and Empire, and while other centres in the Dominion have, no doubt, made their receptions more brilliant and costly, none we are sure has excelled in the genuineness of its desire to fully honor our future King and Queen and King Edward VII, whom the Duke also represents on this auspicious occasion. The Miramichi plays an important part in the celebration of the Royal visit. One of Northumberland's representatives, in the person of the Premier of the Province, leads in receiving the Dake and Duchess on their arrival in St. John and in the control of affairs during their stay. More than one hundred infantrymen of the 73rd Battalion entrained at Chatham vesterday for duty in guarding the line of the Royal procession in St. John, with another hundred or more of that corps from other points on the Intercolonial Railway. Chatham also sends, as one of the immediate body-guard of their Royal Highnesses, Major Templeton, one of the medal-bedecked heroes of the Crimean War, who lett for St. John yesterday morning. Newcastle sends its Field Battery to participate in the salute-firing. The Mayors of Chatham and Newcastle and Warden of the County, together with others of our representative men in parliament, the legislature and our civic and municipal bodies, as well as a large contingent of ladies and gentlemen representing the social life and citizenship of the County, have gone to join in the celebration. The Mayor of Chatham, supported by members of the Town Council are bearers of the following address:-To His Royal Highuess, Prince George Frederick Ernest Albert, Dake of Cornwall and York ; Duke of Rothesay, Prince of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha, and Duke of Saxony; Earl of Carrick and Inverness; Baron of Renfrew and Killarney ; Lord of the Isles and Great Steward of Scotland : K. G., P. C., K. T., K. P., G. C. M. G., G. C., V.D., L.L.D., D. C. L., and D. C.

and satisfactory character. A Rift in the Pulp Mill Cloud.

About two months ago, Mr. E. Mawson, representing Messrs. Harmsworth. proprietors of the London (Eng.) Daily Mail and other British publications, was in Chatham, as stated at the time in the ADVANCE. He had come to Canada to look over the country with the object of ascertaining its probabilities as an economical source of the paper supply required by his company.

Premier Tweedie met Mr. Mawson in St. John, and knowing the object of his visit to Canada and that he had been over the provinces of Ontario and Quebec, but had not come to the North Shore of New Brunswick, induced him to visit it, coming first to Chatham. Mr. Tweedie went with him to the Maritime Sulphite mill, and, through the courtesy of the agent of the Royal Trust Company, F. E. Winslow, Esq., Mr. Mawson was afforded every opporunity to examine it, to see for himself what Chatham had to offer in the way of a well and modernly-equipped sulphite mill.

Mr. Mawson went from Chatham t Bathurst and other points north, with letters of introduction from Premier Tweedie to gentlemen acquainted with possible pulp mill sites and pulp wood areas, who were in a position to give him reliable information on those and connected subjects.

It is satisfactory to know that Mr Mawson was favorably impressed with this part of the country and particularly dealers. with the Miramichi as offering a practically inexhaustible supply of raw material for pulp making and possessing advantageous conditions for the economical manufacture and shipment of that commodity.

As an outcome of Mr. Mawson's visit there seems to be a possibility of the Harmsworth concern acquiring the Maritime Sulphite Fibre Company's and interests here, provided acceptable terms can be made to that end as Mr. Mawson cabled Premier Tweedie from London on Monday of St. Lawrence, has been secured by the this week, asking him to particulars of that property and its present position from a legal standpoint, as he had suggested to the Bank of Montreal the possibility of including it in Messrs. A lenieut teacher never got the espect of the scholars, while a severe teacher never got the love, but a combination of both would win its way. SIX THEATRES DURING THE SEASON, Manager F. F. Proctor, who controls ercuit of six beautiful theatres, including Daly, as produced by him at his theatre in four in New York, one in Albany and one in New York. Unusual care will be exercised Montreal, has made extensive and elaborate in the mounting and presentation of the plans for the entertainment of his patrons during the fall and winter season.

An experience of over twenty-five years in seeing entertainments equally as good as the theatrical business has given Mr. Proctor those witnessed by the patrons of his a knowledge of the public and its wants, that has enabled him to successfully cater to those who are fond of amusement, in a way that has won him the confidence of theatregoers, especially those who want the very best the amusement market affords, at a reasonable price of admission.

Mr. Proctor's theatre on Guy Street, Montreal, has enjoyed exceptional prosperity and popularity since he opened it in March last. The entertainments have invariably been refined, high class and diverting, and the steady patrouage of the best people of Montreal and its environs is the best proof that Mr. Proctor has struck the right idea in endeavoring to please the discriminating

The entertainments offered at Mr. Proctor's theatre differ from those given at any other places of amusement in this country. His aim is to keep his patrons entertained from the time the curtnin rises until its final fall. He has organized an immense stock company, numbering nearly one hundred and fifty people, under the general direction of Mr. Frederick Bond, formerly of Augustin Daly's New York Company. This aggregation is divided into six sections, and one section appears in each of the Proctor houses every week, in a bright, sparkling comedy. selected with a view to making spectators the Montreal house in due time. Manager Proctor's greatest stroke managerial enterprise is the exclusive engagement of the world-famous strong man, Sandow, who arrived from Europe a few days ago, after an absence of several years, Mr. Sandow will appear only at Mr. Proctor's theatres, and his past successes are a guarantee that the liveliest interest will be manifested in his wonde ful feats when he appears in Montreal.

In addition to Sandow, Mr. Proctor has secured several other notable performers. Among them are Jacques Inaudi, the mental marvel, who performs most astounding feats in mental arithmetic and second sight, that have puzzled the wisest men of Europe and Cinquevalli, the most famous juggler in the world, is another of Mr. Proctor's attractions. He is the highest-salaried artist in his line, and he earns his money by accomplishing with ease and grace, feats that other jugglers try in vain to copy. He is the originator of everything he does, and his astonishing tricks have made his name a household word from St. Petersburg to San

Paul Spendoni, Ena Bertoldi, the greatest of all equilibrists; the wonderful Florenz Troupe of acrobats; Werner and Reider, the great singers, and many other equally famous celebrities, will appear in Montreal during the season.

The greatest treat ever offered to Canadian theatre-goers will be given in the near future. It will be a special production of David Belasco's dramatization of John Luther's Long's pathetic tragedy, "Madame Butterfly." The leading role will be portrayed by Pilar Morin, the famous French actress and pantomimist, who won the unstinted praise and admiration of the greatest critics in New York last season, for her wonderful work in this most difficult role "Madame Butterfly" is considered one of David Belasco's triumphs, and the author of Ziza," "May Blossom," "The Heart of Maryland," and other world-famous plays. has reason to feel proud of the encomiums showered upon this child of his fertile brain. Special settings used in the New York production will be carried for this play. Their beauty baffles description, and the mechanical effects are so wonderful, that the audience is kept in a state of ecstasy throughout the performance. In addition to the above attractions the stock company has in rehearsal all of the greatest successes of the late Augustin comedies, so that those who visit Mr. Proctor's Montreal house may be sure of theatres in New York City. Taken all in all, the patrons of Mr. Proctor's Montreal theatre may look forward to a brilliant season, as nothing that brains can invent, or money can procure wil be omitted, in order that those who visit the house may leave it with the most pleasant impressions. The new moving pictures shown by Paley's Kalatechnoscope are a special feature. Matinees are given every day, which are largely attended by ladies and children, whose comfort is especially looked after by
