"THE WHITE HORSE STAR" is the name of a little ten pige paper published at White Horse, Yukon Territory, by Rosseau & McE chrau. Each page contains three columns, ten inches long. The Star is a weekly paper and its subscription price is six do la s a year. Mr. Angus McEachran, one of he proprietors, is a graduate of the ADVANCE office and a son of the late pilot John McEachtan, of Chatham. The paper seems to enjoy a large advertising patronage and the contents of this department of it indicates that White Horse is becoming a place of no little importance.

OBITUARY .- The funeral of the late Wm. Tait, an old and much esteemed resident of Chatham, took place yesterday afternoon and was very largely attended. At one time-in ante-railway days-Mr. Tait ran a regular packet schooner between Chatham and Point du Chene and after the locomotive had pushed that enterprise aside he became an active and very efficient pilot of the port of Miramichi. He retired a tew years ago on account of having reached the age limit. He was a prominent member of St. Luke's Methodist churen.

AFTERNOON.

On motion of Coun. Tezer, adjourned till 2 o'clock.

On reassembling, the Warden read a letter from R. A. Lawlor, asking that a fine of $100 and costs imposed on Roger Flanagan, Chatham, in 1895, by Parish Court Commissioner Fraser, for a second violation of the Canada Temperance Act, be refunded, on the ground that the Supreme Court, on Mr. Flanagan's appeal again t a subsequent conviction for a third offense, had decided that Mr. Fraser had no jurisdiction in Scott Act cases, and that, therefore, Mr. Flanagan had not been legally convicted of a second was carried. Mr. Menzies said he had listened atte tively to Mr. Lawlor's letter, and some its statements were not true. That conviction for a third offense was not quashed. Mr. Lawlor and Mr. Flanagan had appealed to him to let it drop, as Chatham had passed out of his jurisdiction and the county would get no money out of it if the convictions were sustained. He had agreed to let it drop and it was dropped accordingly. It was never finally settled in the Supreme Court. It was taking a mean, contemptible advantage to bring it up here and now Mr. Murray, who had prosecuted the case, ought to be heard on it, but he (Mr. Menzies) was not afraid to argue is with Mr. Lawlor. as the conviction had not been quashed. Tweedie and LaBillois, the town officers, American Consul Bezedict, members of the county councils of Restigouche and COONEY'S HISTORY! The speeches of the whole function were excellent in form and matter, but that, of George H. Johnston, which occupied over half an hour, was most admirable and entertaining and was pronounced the best speech yet made in New Brunswick by a returned soldier. He described the experiences of his comrades and himself in South Africa most graphically and paid a high compliment rison of the Newcastle Field Battery,
